 The New Testament reveals that the anonymous psalms 2 and 95 were also written by David (see Acts 4:25; Heb. 4:7).
The Typology of David
Anointed as King, and yet not publicly accepted as King.
The Lord Jesus Christ is anointed as King (1st Advent), and yet not publicly accepted as King (2nd Advent).
A previously anointed king reigns (Satan), who strives to have his replacement killed (crucified).

The Geography of David
1. David was born in Bethlehem.
2. David’s first capital was Hebron.
3. David’s capture of Jerusalem changed the course of history, for not only Israel, but for the entire world.

David Subdues his Enemies
1. Captures Jerusalem (2nd Sam. 5:6-10).
2. Philistine power decisively crushed (2nd Sam. 5:17-25; 8:1).
3. Moabites are made David's subjects, paying taxes (2nd Sam. 8:2).
4. Edom defeated, controlled by troops and taxed (2nd Sam. 8:13-14).
5. Ammon's power destroyed. Ammonite people used for forced labour (2nd Sam. 12:26-31).
6. Defeat of King Hadadezer the Aramean. His vassal states (as far as the Euphrates) became David's (2nd Sam. 10:15-19).
7. Damascus conquered, controlled by troops and taxed (2nd Sam. 8:5-8).
The Genealogy of David (Ruth 4:16-22)

The ancestors of David:

- Boaz בֹּעַז: from an unused word; quickness.
- Obed עֹבֵד: worshiper. Fr. עָבַד: to work, serve.
- Jesse יִשַׁי: of uncert. deriv., poss. I am. Fr. יֵשׁ: being, existence, there is, there are.
- David דָּוִד: beloved one. Fr. דּוֹד: loved, lover, beloved one.

The brothers of David:

- Eliab אֱלִיאָב: “My God is Father.” Fr. אל + אָב: to incite, impel; freewill offering, volunteer, make offerings willingly. Three Israelites with this name in the OT.
- Abinadab אֲבִינָדָב: “My Father is willing.” Fr. אָב + נָדַב: to give.
- Shimeah שִׁמְעָא: “Fame.” Fr. שָׁמַע: to hear. Called Shimeah (2nd Sam. 13:3), Shimei (2nd Sam. 13:21), Shammah (1st Sam. 16:9), Shimea (2nd Chr. 2:13). Father of Jonathan, who slew the son of a giant (1st Chr. 20:6,7).
- Nethaneel נְתַנְאֵל: “Given of God.” Fr. נתן: to give, or el + נתן: to give. Ten OT characters share this name.
- Ozem אֹצֶם: “I shall hasten them.” Fr. 방=this is a root meaning uncertain. Two OT men share this name.

The (half) sisters* of David:

- Zeruiah צְרוּיָה: “Balsam.” Fr. צְרִי: balsam. She was the mother of Joab, Abishai, and Asahel (2nd Sam. 2:18).
- Abigail אֲבִיגַיִל: “My Father is Joy.” Fr. אָב + גִּיל: a rejoicing. She married (or at least had children with) Jether the Ishmaelite (1st Chr. 2:16), also called Ithra the Israelite (2nd Sam. 17:25). She was the mother of Amasa (1st Chr. 2:16).

* According to 2nd Sam. 17:25, these sisters were the daughters of Nahash. Nahash was evidently David’s mother’s first husband, or second husband after the death of Jesse.
The nephews of David:

Joab “YHWH is Father.” יָוָּב yow‘ab #3097. יָוָּב יְהוָּה YHWH #3068 + אָב ab #1. Joab was the first to slay a Jebusite, at the capture of Jerusalem, and thus he became the Commander-in-Chief of David’s armies throughout the remainder of David’s life.

Abishai “My Father is a Gift.” אָב ab #1 + שַׁי shay #7862: a gift of homage. He became the chief of the thirty Mighty Men of David.

Asahel “God-made.” עֲשָׂהאֵל asahel #6214. עָשָׂה asah #6213: to make אֵל el #410. The youngest of the three brothers. Killed by Saul’s general, Abner.

Amasa “Burden.” עֲמָשָׂא amasa’ #6021. עָמַס amas #6006: to load, carry a load. The son of David’s sister, Abigail, and her husband, Jether the Ishmaelite. Amasa was selected as General of the Armies by Absalom, when he usurped David’s kingdom. David forgave Amasa, and retained his services after he was restored to power.

Jonadab “YHWH is willing.” יְהוָּה YHWH #3068 + נָדַב nadab #5068: to incite, impel; freewill offering, volunteer, make offerings willingly (see Abinadab, above). He was the son of David’s brother, Shimea. He is described as a “crafty man.”

The wives of David:

Michal “Who is like God?” מָכִירִי miykal #4354. Daughter of King Saul. Given to Palti, son of Laish, when David was exiled. Childless, as a punishment of the Lord (2nd Sam. 6:23).

Ahinoam the Jezreelitess “My brother is delight.” אֲחִינָעַם ‘achiyno’am #293. אָח ach #251 + נָעַם no’am #278: delightfulness, pleasantness. Mother of Amnon.

Abigail the Carmelitess “My Father is Joy.” אֲבִיגַיִל abiygayil #26. אָב ab #1 + נִעָם noam #278: a rejoicing. Widow of foolish Nabal (1st Sam. 25:3ff.). Mother of Chileab/Daniel.

Maacah “Oppression.” מַעֲכָה ma’akah #4601. מָעַ ma’ak #4600: to press, squeeze. Daughter of Talmai, King of Geshur. Mother of Absalom, & Tamar.

Haggith “Festive.” חַגִּית chaggiyth #2294. חַג chag #2282: festival. Mother of Adonijah.

Abital “My father is the dew.” אֱבִיטָל abiytal #37. אָב ab #1 + טל tal #2919: dew. Mother of Shephatiah.

Eglah “Heifer.” עֶגְלָה eglah #5698. עֵגֶל egel #5695: a calf. Mother of Ithream.

Bathsheba “Daughter of an oath.” בַּת־שֶּׁבַע bath-sheba’ #1339. בַּת bath #1323: daughter + שֶׁבַע shaba’ #7650: to swear, make an oath.

The daughter of Eliam (2nd Sam 11:3) and granddaughter of Ahithophel the Gilonite (2nd Sam. 23:34), the trusted friend and counselor of David who later betrayed him. Mother of Solomon, Shimea, Shobab, Nathan.

Other wives & other concubines.
The sons (and one daughter) of David:

Amnon "Faithful." אַמְנׄון amnown #550.  אָמַן aman #539: to confirm, support.

Chileab "Like his father." כִּלְאָב kil'ab #3609.  כּ + ל + אָב ab #1. In 1st Chr. 3:1, he is known as Daniel. “God is my judge.” דָּנִיֶּל dani'el #1840.  דִּין diyn #1777: to judge + אֵל el #3068.  In 1st Chr. 3:1, he is known as Daniel. “God is my judge.” דָּנִאֵל dani'el #1840.  דִּין diyn #1777: to judge + אֵל el #3068.

Absalom "My father is peace." אֲבִישָׁלוֹם abiyshalowm #53.  אָב ab #1 + שלום shalom #7695: peace.

Adonijah "My Lord is YHWH.” דֹנִיָּהוּאֲ adoniyyahu #138.  אָדוֹן adown #113: lord + יהוה YHWH #3068.  Three different OT characters with this name.

Shephatiah "YHWH has judged.” שְׁפַטְיָה shephatyah #8203.  שָׁפַט shaphat #8199: to judge, govern + יהוה YHWH #3068.  Nine different OT characters with this name.

Ithream "Profit of the people.” יִתְרְעָם yithra'am #3507.  יֶתֶר yether #3499: remainder, excess + עַם am #5971: people.

Solomon "Peace.” שְׁלֹמֹה shealom #8010.  שָׁלוֹם shalom #7695: peace.

Shimea "Fame.” שִׁמְעָא shim'ah #8092.  שָׁמַע shama' #8085: to hear.

Shobab “Rebellious.” שׁוֹבָב showbab #7727.  שׁוּב shuwb #7725: to turn back. Two OT characters share this name.

Nathan "Giver.” נָתָן nathan #5416.  שָׁמַע shama' #8085: to hear. Six OT characters share this name. Called Elishua in 1st Chr. 3:1 "God is salvation.” אֱלִישׁוּעַ eliyshua' #474.  אֵל el #410 + יָשַׁע yasha' #3467: to save, deliver.

Ibhar “YHWH chooses.” יִבְחָר yibchar #2984.  בָּחַר bachar #977: to choose.

Elishama “My God has heard.” אֵל שָׁמַע el shama' #8085: to hear. Six OT characters share this name. Called Elishua in 1st Chr. 3:1 “God is salvation.” אֱלִישׁוּעַ eliyshua' #474.  אֵל el #410 + יָשַׁע yasha' #3467: to save, deliver.

Eliphelet "God is deliverance.” אֱלִיפֶלֶט eliphelet #467.  שׁוּב shuwb #7725: to turn back. Six OT characters share this name.

Elishama (See above).

Eliada “God knows.” אֱלִיָּדָע eliyada' #4840.  בְּאֵל be'ali #1182: Baal knows.

Eliphelet (See above).

Tamar (daughter) "Palm Tree.” תָּמָר tamar #8559.  Three OT females share this name.

Other sons & daughters by other wives & concubines.
The Anointing of David (1st Sam. 16:1-13)

1. Background to Samuel
   a. Samuel was the child of faith given to Hannah (1st Sam. 1:19,20).
   b. Samuel was dedicated to the Lord from birth (1st Sam. 1:25-28).
   c. Samuel grew up in the house of Eli (1st Sam. 2:11), observing the priest’s evil sons (1st Sam. 2:12ff).
   d. Samuel was called as a prophet of the Lord (1st Sam. 3:19-21).
   e. Samuel was the last in the long line of judges that the Lord sent to Israel (1st Sam. 7:6,15). (Samuel’s sons were also judges, but they were wicked).
   f. Samuel was an old man, when he was selected as God’s agent for the anointing of Saul as King of Israel (1st Sam. 8:7,22; 9:15-17; 10:1,24).
   g. Samuel rebuked King Saul for Saul’s disobedience, and prophesied that the Lord had selected another King for himself (1st Sam. 13:8-15; 15:10-35).
   h. Samuel then retired to his home, and prophetic school, at Ramah (1st Sam. 15:34,35 cf. 10:5,10; 19:18-20).

2. Samuel is selected as God’s agent for the anointing of David as King of Israel.
   a. Samuel had been grieving over Saul (1st Sam. 15:35; 16:1).
   b. God had rejected Saul from being King over Israel (1st Sam. 16:1).
   c. God has selected a son in the house of Jesse the Bethlehemite.

3. Samuel expresses his concern for personal safety (1st Sam. 16:2).
   a. Samuel knows that if Saul discovered his purpose to anoint his successor, that Saul would murder Samuel to prevent that anointing from occuring.
   b. The Lord provides the pretense for Samuel’s mission in Bethlehem.
   c. The Lord intended for David’s anointing to be a private affair between Samuel, Jesse, and David (1st Sam. 16:3).

4. Samuel’s arrival at Bethlehem prompted a degree of fear (1st Sam. 16:4).
   a. חָרַד charad #2729: to tremble, be terrified.
   b. The elders of Bethlehem asked, “Do you come in peace?”
   c. Samuel was renowned as the prophetic judge, and agent of the Lord’s dismemberment (1st Sam. 15:32,33; Hos. 6:5).
   d. The Lord Jesus Christ prompted a similar response (Lk. 5:8; 8:37).

5. Samuel proclaims a sacrifice, and instructs the people of Bethlehem to consecrate themselves (1st Sam. 16:5a).
   a. זָבַח zabach #2076: to slaughter for sacrifice. Used 144x127vv. (Gen. 31:54).
      1) The קָרְבָּן qorban #7133, is used for the offering in approx. 70 OT pssg. It is not tied to any specific offering, but stresses the approach of the believer to God. The verb קָרַב qarab #7126 signifies to approach, draw near.
      2) The עֹלָה 'olah #5930: whole burnt offering. The root verb עָלָה alah #5927 signifies to go up, ascend.
      3) The מִנְחָה minchah #4503 gift, meat offering.
      4) The זֶבַח zebach #2077: sacrificial feast. The root verb זָבַח zabach #2076 signifies to slaughter, either for eating, or sacrificing.
   b. קָדַשׁ qadash #6942: to be set apart, consecrated.

6. Samuel personally consecrated Jesse and his sons (but not David, v.11).
   a. Jesse is called “the Bethlehemite.” This may be nothing more than a reference to where he was from, or it may indicate his honored headship in the village of Bethlehem.
   b. Samuel invites Jesse’s house to join him in the sacrificial feast.

7. Samuel carefully observes the arrival of Jesse and his sons (1st Sam. 16:6-10).
   a. Samuel is impressed by Eliab’s stature and appearance (1st Sam. 16:6,7).
   b. The Lord admonishes Samuel to not be misled by the outer appearance (1st Sam. 16:7).
   c. Six additional sons pass by Samuel, and one-by-one the Lord informs Samuel that His selection has not yet appeared (1st Sam. 16:8-10).

8. Samuel concludes that there must yet be a son remaining, and calls for his immediate appearance (1st Sam. 16:11).
9. The description of David (1st Sam. 16:11,12).
   a. The youngest. קָטָן qatan #6996: small, young, unimportant, least.
   b. A shepherd. רָעָה ra'ah #7462: to shepherd, tend.
   c. Ruddy. אדמונית admoniy #132: red, ruddy. Fr. the same as Adam/Edom; red/earthy.
   d. Beautiful eyes. יָפֶה yapheh #3303: fair, beautiful. עֵינַיִם ayin #5869: eye.
   e. Handsome appearance. רֹאִי טוֹב ro'iy towb #2896: pleasant, agreeable, good.

10. The Lord positively identified His anointed one, as He does again for John the Baptist at the Jordan river (1st Sam. 16:12; Matt. 3:16,17; John 1:32,33).
11. Samuel then anoints David with his horn of oil (1st Sam. 16:13a).
    a. His family was present for the anointing, but it is not clear that they understood the significance of what they were observing.
    b. David had not been present for the family’s consecration. Jesse & the older sons may have assumed that Samuel’s anointing of David was nothing more than the consecration for the feast.
    c. Jesse & the older sons may also have assumed that David was being anointed as a prophet and/or judge.
12. The result of this anointing is the indwelling of God the Holy Spirit (1st Sam. 16:13b).
    a. This indwelling was powerful. צָלַח tsalach #6743: to rush, break forth. This expression was also used of Samson (Jdg. 14:6,19; 15:14), King Saul (1st Sam. 10:6,10; 11:6). An evil spirit will also come upon Saul mightily (1st Sam. 18:10).
    b. This indwelling was life-long. This was very unusual for an OT saint.
13. Samuel departed for Ramah, and left David with his family (1st Sam. 16:13c).
Anointing

I. Introduction & Definition
A. [English] anoint: 1. to smear or rub with oil or an oily substance; 2a. to apply oil to as a sacred rite especially for consecration; 2b. to choose by or as if by divine election.

B. [Hebrew]
1. כְּסוּ suwk #5480: to pour, anoint. Used 9x9vv (Ex. 30:32; Dt. 28:40; Ruth 3:3; 2nd Sam. 12:20; 2nd Sam. 14:2; 2nd Chr. 28:15; Ezek. 16:9; Dan. 10:3; Mic. 6:15). This term is exclusively used in mundane applications of oil.
2. מָשַׁח mashach #4886: to smear, anoint. Used 70x67vv. מָשִׁיחַ mashiach #4899: anointed, anointed one, Messiah. This term is used in the ritual consecration of prophets, priests, kings, altars, temples, and other objects for God’s express purpose and service. (There is one exception: Amos 6:6 has a mundane use of mashach, where we would expect to see suwk).

C. [Greek]
1. ἀλείφω aleipho #218: to anoint. Used 9x8vv (Matt. 6:17; Mk. 6:13; 16:1; Lk. 7:38,46x2; 11:2; 12:3; Jn. 12:3; Jms. 5:14).
2. χρίω chrio #5548: to anoint. Used 5x5vv (Lk. 4:18; Acts 4:27; 10:38; 2nd Cor. 1:21; Heb. 1:9). χρίσµα chrisma #5545: anointing. Used 3x2vv (1st Jn. 2:20,27x2).
Χριστός christos #5547: anointed one, Christ. Used 531x500vv.

II. Development & Application
A. OT uses of anointing
1. The first occurrence of an anointing is Jacob’s stone at Bethel (Gen. 28:18; 31:13).
2. The next occurrences of anointing were the consecrating of the priests (Ex. 28:41) and high priest (Ex. 29:7) of the Levitical priesthood.
3. The tabernacle, its furniture, and its vessels were anointed (Ex 30:26–28).
4. The anointing separated the thing or person unto God for special service, thus becoming sacred and untouchable (Ex. 30:29; 1st Sam 24:6; 26:9).
5. Whereas men accomplish the external activity of pouring the oil, it is God Who is said to accomplish the actual activity of anointing (1st Sam. 9:16 cp. 10:1). This is a natural extension of God’s activity—that which He commands others to perform, He is Himself said to have accomplished it.
6. In addition to priests, other people for anointing included prophets (1st Kgs. 19:16), and kings (1st Sam. 10:1; 16:3,12,13; 2nd Sam. 2:4,7; 5:3,17).

B. The anointing by God was accompanied by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit (1st Sam. 10:9,10; 16:13; Isa. 61:1).

C. The OT significance of anointing was the Jewish anticipation of their Messiah (Ps. 45:7; 89:20; Isa. 61:1; Dan. 9:25).
1. Ps. 45 is a maskil of the Sons of Korah, celebrating the King’s marriage (Ps. 45:1 prescript).
2. The King is addressed, as God (Ps. 45:6).
3. His kingdom is eternal.
4. His scepter is uprightness. רֹזִית myshwar #4334: a level place, uprightness. Fr. יָשַׁר, yashar #3474: to be smooth, straight, right.
5. He has loved righteousness and hated wickedness. Thus, He demonstrates an identical viewpoint with YHWH (Ps. 45:7 cp. 11:4-7).
   a. אָהַב ahav #157: to love.
   b. צֶדֶק tsedeq #6664: righteousness, righteousness.
   c. שָׂנֵא sane #8130: to hate.
   d. רֶשַׁע resha #7562: wickedness, evil.
6. As a result of His merit, God’s God will anoint God, with “the oil of joy.”
7. This very wish-prayer was expressed by Hannah, as she gave birth to the boy who would later anoint the first Kings of Israel (1st Sam. 2:10).
8. David wrote of this joyful anticipation in his own psalm (Ps. 2 cp. Acts 4:25,26).
D. David was anointed three times (1st Sam. 16:3,12,13; 2nd Sam. 2:4,7; 5:3,17).
   1. His first anointing was accompanied by the Holy Spirit, and power (1st Sam. 16:3,12,13).
   2. His second anointing was as a King over volitionally-willing subjects (Judah), with a much larger body of volitionally-unwilling people who rejected his kingship (all Israel) (2nd Sam. 2:4,7).
   3. His third anointing was as a King over all Israel (2nd Sam. 5:3,17).
   4. David’s three anointings match the Lord Jesus Christ, who received the Holy Spirit and power at His first anointing. He presently reigns as King over volitionally-willing subjects, but is awaiting His universal coronation.

E. NT uses of anointing
   1. The first verse of the first book introduces the Christ, “anointed one.” By name, the Christ is Jesus, son of David, son of Abraham (Matt. 1:1,16).
   2. The Jews were anticipating a shepherd-king to arise from Bethlehem (Matt. 2:4,6).
   3. Peter understood Jesus to be the Son of Man, and thus to be the Christ, the Son of the Living God (Matt. 16:13,16).
      a. Martha, like Peter, understood the issue of Christ as the Son of God, Who comes into the world (Jn. 11:27).
      b. The Pharisees, however, only understood (or only admitted to) the Christ to be the son of David (Matt. 22:42 cp. Ps. 110:1).
      c. The high priest knew the Christ to be the Son of God, but did not understand the title Son of Man (Matt. 26:63-65).
      d. The title “Son of Man” was a problem-issue for the Jews who were anticipating the Christ (Jn. 12:34).
      e. Belief in Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, is the essential element of belief for salvation (Jn. 20:31).
   4. The Anointed One will be a teacher when He comes (Jn. 4:25,26).
   5. The Lord Jesus Christ was anointed by God the Father with the Holy Spirit, and with power (Acts 10:38).
      a. This same power was then bestowed upon His Apostles (Acts 1:8).
     b. This same power is provided for every believer of this dispensation (Eph. 3:16).
   6. The Church Age believer is also an “anointed one” (2nd Cor. 1:21; 1st Jn. 2:20,27).
      a. Each believer is anointed at the moment of salvation, as a work of God on our behalf (2nd Cor. 1:21).
      b. The Holy Spirit is the sealing agent of this anointing, and indwells each believer as a down-payment on his future inheritance (2nd Cor. 1:22).
      c. The anointing that each believer receives provides each believer with the spiritual capacity to know the Truth (1st Jn. 2:20,27).

III. Summary & Conclusion
   A. Satan was the anointed cherub (Ezek. 28:14a).
   B. Satan was consecrated for God the Father’s purpose (Ezek. 28:14b).
   C. Satan rebelled against the Father’s purpose, and sought to achieve his own “higher” purpose.
      1. Unrighteousness was found in him (Ezek. 28:15).
      2. He was internally filled with violence (Ezek. 28:16).
      3. His heart was lifted up (Ezek. 28:17).
      4. His wisdom was corrupted (Ezek. 28:17).
      5. He sinned (Ezek. 28:16).
      6. He profaned his sanctuaries (Ezek. 28:18).
   D. Satan had his anointing revoked (Ezek. 28:16).

P= The believer should be extremely mindful of Satan’s fall. Although our anointing is eternal (2nd Cor. 1:22; 5:1-5; 1st Pet. 1:4,5), and in no danger of revocation (Rom. 11:29), the pattern is there for our warning (Heb. 4:11). When we fall into sin and evil, we are falling from a higher position than Satan ever attained (Heb. 2:1-9).
The Musical Ministry of David (1st Sam. 16:14-23)

1. King Saul’s indwelling of the Holy Spirit is revoked (v.14).
2. In place of God the Holy Spirit, an evil spirit is sent to terrorize King Saul (v.14,15).
   a. There are innumerable demons, evil spirits, and fallen angels eager to function within God’s permissive will, and anxious to afflict believers (1st Kgs. 22:19-23).
   b. Satan was eager to function within God’s permissive will, and afflict Job (Job 1:11,12; 2:5-7).
   c. Paul’s thorn in the flesh is also a Satanic messenger (2nd Cor. 12:7).
3. Saul’s servants suggest that soothing music would ease the king’s demonic terror (v.16).
   a. They do not suggest seeking Samuel, and for Saul to repent of his wickedness.
   b. A prophetic/music ministry was employed in Saul’s initial indwelling by God the Holy Spirit 1) (1st Sam. 10:5).
   c. The powerful influence exerted by music upon the state of the mind was well known even in the earliest times; so that the wise men of ancient Greece recommended music to soothe the passions, to heal mental diseases, and even to check tumults among the people. KEIL & DELITZSCH.
4. One servant knows of David, and recommends David for Saul’s service (v.18).
   a. A son of Jesse the Bethlehemite.
   b. A skillful musician. נַגֵּן nagan #5059: to play a stringed instrument.
   c. A mighty man of valor. חַיִל chayil #2428: strength, power. Used of Gideon (Jdg. 6:12), Jephthah (Jdg. 11:1), Boaz (Ruth 2:1), Saul (1st Sam. 9:1), David (1st Sam. 16:18), Jeroboam (1st Kgs. 11:28), Naman the Syrian (2nd Kgs. 5:1).
   e. Prudent in speech. דָּבָר dabar #1697: speech, word.
   g. The Lord is with him.
5. Saul was eager to surround himself with such heroes (1st Sam. 14:52).
6. Saul commands for Jesse to send his son (v.19 cp. 8:11,16).
7. Jesse sends David to the king, along with appropriate gifts (v.20).
8. David served in King Saul’s court (v.21).
   a. He “attended” the king. לְפָנָיו יַעֲמֹד la'amad #5975: to stand.
   b. Saul loved him greatly. מְאֹד יֶּאֱהָבֵהוּ moad ahav #157: to love.
   c. David was added to Saul’s staff of armor bearers (cp. 2nd Sam. 18:15).
9. The King sends to Jesse and requests David’s permanent attachment to his staff (v.22).
10. David’s music ministry continued, on an intermittent basis, with return trips to Bethlehem, to continue in the work of tending Jesse’s flocks (v.23 cp. 17:15).
Music

1. Music is older than the human race, as it was practiced by angels in the Dispensation of Angels.
   a. The morning stars sang together (choir), and all the sons of God (angels) shouted for joy (Job 38:7).
   b. Singing continues to be a heavenly activity (Rev. 5:9).

2. The Bible is filled with music, from the very beginning, and the Bible employs a number of terms to reflect musical activity.
   a. זמר zamar \(^{2160}\): to make music, sing, sing praises. Used 90x41vv. מִזְמוֹר zamiyr \(^{2158}\): song. Used 6x6vv. מִזְמֶר zimrah \(^{1272}\): melody, song (in praise of Yah). Used 6x6vv. מִזְמָרָה mizmor \(^{4210}\): a melody. Used in prescript to 57 different psalms. Zimri = “my music.”
   b. עָנָה 'anah \(^{6631}\): to sing. Used 10x10vv. (Ex. 32:18; Num. 21:17; 1" Sam. 18:7; 21:11; 29:5; Ezra 3:11; Ps. 119:172; 147:7; Isa. 27:2; Hos. 2:15). (עָנָה 'anah \(^{6631}\) normally means: to oppress, afflict, humble, bring low).
   c. רְנָנָה rinnan \(^{7442}\): to give a ringing cry, sing for joy. Used 52x52vv. רֵינָה ranan \(^{7740}\): a ringing cry, joyful shout, joyful singing. רְנָנָה rinnan \(^{7445}\), a ringing cry, joyful shout, joyful singing.
   d. שִׁירָה shiyrah \(^{7891}\): to sing. Used 81x77vv (Ex. 15:1). שִׁירָה shiyr or שִׁירָה shiyrah \(^{7892}\): a song. Used 59x56vv (Gen. 31:27; Ex. 15:1).
   e. נָגַן nagan \(^{5568}\): to touch, or play a stringed instrument. Used 16x12vv. נָגִיתָה n'gyynah \(^{5568}\): music, song. Used 9x7vv.
   f. ψάλος psalo \(^{4210}\): to sing. Used 5x5vv (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16; Rev. 5:9; 14:3; 15:3). ὧν ὁ ὀδός \(^{5603}\): a song. Used 7x5vv (same vv. as above).
   g. κιθαρίζω kitharizo \(^{2790}\): to play on the lyre, harp. κιθάρα kithara \(^{2788}\): a harp.
   h. συμφωνία symphonia \(^{4458}\): symphony, music. Used 1x1v. (Lk. 15:25).
   i. ἑκάστος humneos \(^{5214}\): to laud, sing praise. Used 4x4vv. (Mt. 26:30; Mk. 14:26; Acts 16:25; Heb. 2:12). ἑκάστος humnos \(^{5215}\): a hymn. Used 2x2vv (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16).
   j. πολὺ ψαλτέον psallo \(^{5567}\): to pull, twang, play, sing. ψαλμός psalms \(^{5568}\): a psalm.

3. Among the most ancient extant specimens of heathen literature, particularly those in the primitive Sumerian language, there are hymns in praise of the gods.

4. Instrumental music was developed under the way of Cain (Gen. 4:21).
   Cain, Enoch, Irad, Mehujael, Methushael, Lamech. Jubal was the second son of Lamech, by Lamech’s wife Adah.

5. Music was in common use in the ancient world, for secular purposes (Gen. 31:27).

6. Music (including poetry) was the only art which the Hebrew people developed to any degree.
   They developed no other forms, such as painting, sculpture, architecture, etc.

7. The celebration of Israel after crossing the Red Sea was a celebration of song (Ex. 15).
   The beautiful hymn which was sung on that occasion (Ex. 15) was not the work of a novice, nor was it a primitive expression of a people to whom sacred music was a still undeveloped art. It indicates a skill which could have been reached only through many years of cultural development.

8. King David initiated a “Golden Age” of Music (1" Chr. 15:16-28; 25; Neh. 12:24).
   During this time, King David contributed more than any other individual to raising music to its exalted position in the national life. David was born both a musician and a poet. His was a genius, the like of which the world was never known. To his natural gifts he added a deep devotion to the Lord, and when he became king he brought music to the highest place of honor in the service of worship. David was also an inventor of musical instruments (1" Chr 23:5; Neh. 12:36).

   a. The Lord Jesus Christ sang hymns with His disciples (Matt. 26:30; Mk. 14:26).
   b. Music is the expression of God’s Word dwelling richly within the believer (Col. 3:16).
      1) Christian music should teach.
      2) Christian music should challenge.
   c. Music is both a man-ward, and a God-ward mode of communication and spiritual expression (Eph. 5:19; 1" Cor. 14:15).
      1) Christian music must be Spirit-led.
      2) Christian music must be intelligent.
The Battle of Elah (1st Sam. 17:1-58)

1. The Philistines gathered for battle against Israel (vv.1-3).
   a. Abraham and Isaac had dealings with Abimelech, an early Philistine settler/king at Gerar (Gen. 20,21,26).
   b. God directed Moses to avoid the land of the Philistines when He led Israel out of Egypt (Ex. 13:17).
   c. The land of the Philistines remained unconquered throughout the conquest by Joshua (Josh. 13:2,3).
   d. God used the Philistines to afflict Israel during the judging eras of Shamgar (Judg. 3:31), Samson (Judg. 13-16), and Samuel (1st Sam. 4:1-7:14).
   e. The Philistines were a source of affliction before and during the reign of King Saul (1st Sam. 9:16; 10:5; 14:52). Saul’s son, Jonathan, achieved great victories over the Philistines (1st Sam. 13:3; 14:1-15).
   f. The Philistines had a monopoly on blacksmithing, particularly with iron-working (1st Sam. 13:19-22).

2. King Saul mustered his army, and drew up the battle lines in the Valley of Elah.

3. A champion came out from the armies of the Philistines (vv.4-11,16).
   a. יִשְׂרָאֵל שֵׁם רְשָׁבָם (ish-habbenayim. בֵּין bayin #4996: an interval, space between.
   b. גָּלְיָת golyath #1555: splendour (?) conspicuous (?). גָּלָה galah #1540: to uncover, remove, reveal, carry to exile.
   c. גַּת gath was one of the five Philistine cities (with Ekron, Ashdod, Ashkelon, and Gaza), and by this time was considered the capital of the five cities.
   d. Six cubits and a span. 117" tall. 9'9"
   e. Heavy armor, 5,000 shekels of bronze. Over 126 pounds!

4. Goliath, as The Philistine, challenges Israel to produce a champion, and fight against him for a resolution to their national war (vv.8-11). This challenge will be issued morning and evening for 40 days (v.16).

5. David’s oldest three brothers are serving in Saul’s army, but David is tending Jesse’s flocks (vv.12-15).

6. Jesse sends David to the battle with provisions for his sons, and for their commanders (vv.17-20).

7. While in conversation with his brothers, David hears the giant’s challenge (vv.22,23).

8. The men of Israel flee in fear, and discuss among themselves if any champion for Israel could possibly come forward (vv.24,25). They discuss the reward that King Saul had offered to the man who could kill Goliath (v.25).

9. Young David cannot believe that somebody hasn’t already stepped forward (vv.26,27,30). He is oriented to the living God.
   a. IsraeI is a unique people because they are the audience for the voice of The Living God (Dt. 5:26).
   b. The Living God is the Lord of Hosts, and the God of Israel (Jer. 23:36).

10. Eliab is angry with David, and accuses him of selfish ambition (v.28).

11. David is brought into Saul’s presence, and volunteers to kill the giant (v.32).

12. Saul is so oriented to failure, and thinking with human viewpoint, that he tells David that he is not qualified for the battle (v.33).
13. David laid out his qualifications as being an object of YHWH’s personal protection and deliverance (vv.34-37a).
   a. He has killed both lions and bears.
   b. Goliath is an uncircumcized Philistine.
   c. He is a mighty man of valor (חַיִל gibbor chayil), and a man of war (יִשׂ וְלִי שׁ iysh milchamah) (1st Sam. 16:18).
14. Saul agrees that his nation’s freedom will rest on David’s battle, and dresses David for the conflict (vv.38-40).
15. David rejects the armor and weapons, because they don’t fit, and they don’t matter anyway (vv.39,40,45).
16. Saul instructs Abner to investigate David’s tribe, clan, and family (vv.55,56).
17. David took his shepherd’s stick, and his sling to the battle. In the stream he picked out five smooth stones (v.40).
   Why five stones? Goliath had four sons: Ishbi-benob, Saph, Goliath the Gittite, and an unnammed son with six fingers, and six toes (2nd Sam. 21:15-22).
18. Goliath taunts David with his Satanic proclamations (vv.43,44).
19. David teaches a Bible class for all the men of Israel, and all the Philistines in audience (vv.45-47).
20. The battle is joined, and David killed Goliath with a single stone (vv.48-50).
21. David then beheads the giant with the giants own sword (v.51a).
22. The Philistines respond to the death of their champion by fleeing the field of battle (v.51b).
23. The armies of Israel pursue the Philistines in a tremendous victory (vv.52,53).
24. The trophies of battle will be (years later) placed in Jerusalem, and in the Lord’s tent (v.54, 21:9; 2nd Sam. 5:6-10).
25. David returns from the battle, and King Saul verifies David’s tribe, clan, and family (vv.57,58). It is now a matter of public record that David will be given the daughter of Saul in marriage, and that the family of Jesse is tax-exempt.
Giants

1. Terms employed
   a. Nephilim. נֵפִּילִים n’phiyiym  #5303: giant. Used 3x2vv. (Gen. 6:4; Num. 13:33). “The sons of Anak are part of the Nephilim.”
   b. Rephaim. רְפָאִים r’pha’iym  #7496: shades, ghosts, departed spirits. Used 8x3vv. (Job 26:5; Ps. 88:10; Prov. 2:18; 9:18; 21:16; Isa. 14:9; 26:14, 19). רְפָּאִים r’pha’iym  #7497: Rephaim. רְפָּא ה rapha’ or רְפָּא ה raphah  #7498: giant.
   c. Anakim. עֲנָקִים naq  #6061: Anak. Moabite name for (a certain line of) Rephaim (Deut. 2:10, 11). #6061 & #6062 used 18x16vv. (Gen. 13:33; 15:8; 21:16, 18, 20, 22; 23:13; 1st Chr. 8:2; 11:15; 14:9; 20:4, 6, 8; Isa. 17:5)
*The Valley of Rephaim  Proper name: 5
   d. Emim. אֵימִים eymiym  #6062: giant. Moabite name for (a certain line of) Rephaim (Deut. 2:11). Used 3x3vv. (Gen. 14:5; Dt. 2:10, 11).
   e. Zamzummin. זַמְזֻמִּים zamzummiym  #2157: giant. Ammonite name for (a certain line of) Rephaim (Deut. 2:20).

2. The Nephilim originated during the world-wide evil of the days of Noah.
   a. The Nephilim were the offspring of fallen angels and human women (Gen. 6:4).
      1) Although angels do not procreate (Matt. 22:30; Mk. 12:25), they do have a fathering potential (Gen. 3:15).
      2) They were mighty men. גִּבּוֹר gibbor  #1368: strong, mighty warrior.
      3) They made human beings seem like grasshoppers (Num. 13:33).
      4) Of old. עָלָם olam  #5769: long duration, antiquity, futurity.
      5) Men of renown. יִשֵּׁש yish  #3767: name, fame.
      6) In those days, and also afterward.
   b. Since only Noah, and his 7 family members survived the flood, the Nephilim of old were all destroyed (Gen. 7:21-23).
   c. The Nephilim reappear after the flood, indicating their supernatural origin (Num. 13:33).
   d. In the patriarchal age immediately after the flood, the Rephaim, Zuzim, & Emmim make their first appearance, but are afflicted by the human kings of that epic period (Gen. 14:5; 15:20).
   e. Job understood the Rephaim to be the shades, and occupants of Sheol, with Abaddon as their King (Job 26:5; Rev. 9:1-11). This is also the understanding in the Psalms (88:10,11), and Isaiah (14:9; 26:14,19).
   f. During the bondage of Israel in Egypt, fallen angels (including Arba?) populated the land of promise with their children, in various lines of descent, all termed Rephaim (Num. 13:22, 28, 33; Dt. 1:28; 2:10, 11, 20, 21).
   g. Under Moses leadership, Israel defeated Og, King of Bashan, one of the Rephaim, and the last remaining of his line (Deut. 3:11).
   h. Joshua thoroughly defeated the Anakim and the refugees fled to Philistia (Josh. 11:21, 22).
   i. Caleb defeated a trio of Anak’s sons, in order to secure Hebron (Josh. 14:12-15; 15:13, 14; Jdg. 3:20).
   j. Goliath was the champion of the Philistines (1st Sam. 17:4), called The Philistine (1st Sam. 17:8), and The Giant (2nd Sam. 21:16, 18, 20, 22). He fathered four additional giants (2nd Sam. 21:16-22).
   k. Following the deaths of Goliath’s offspring, the giants to not return in either Old or New Testament.
   l. Tentative Conclusion: The offspring of fallen angels and human women are giants (Nephilim/Rephaim). Once a giant is slain, he continues to exist as a shade (Rephaim) under the kingship of Abaddon, and is commonly referred to as a demon. (Stay tuned for additional study in angelology/demonology/satanology).
David & Jonathan  (1st Sam. 18:1-9)

1. Jonathan was Saul’s oldest son (1st Sam. 14:49,50).
   a. יְהוֹנָתָן Yehonathan: The Lord has given.
   יְהוָה YHWH: prop. name for God + נָתַן nathan: to give.
   b. He first appears in Scripture as Saul’s “crown prince,” in command of 1/3 of Saul’s standing army (1st Sam. 13:2).
   c. Jonathan achieved a remarkable military victory against the Philistines at Geba, but was robbed of the glory by his father Saul (1st Sam. 13:3,4).
   d. Jonathan and his armor bearer raided the enemy Philistine camp in another tremendous military victory (1st Sam. 14:1-15).
   e. Jonathan was a spiritually minded son, who grieved over his father’s rejection of the will of God (1st Sam. 14:24-30). This incident threatened Jonathan’s life, but that was a payment he was willing to make in obedience to his father’s command (1st Sam. 14:36-46).

2. Jonathan hears David’s testimony concerning the Lord (1st Sam. 18:1).

3. His soul was knit to the soul of David (1st Sam. 18:1).
   a. “Knit” niphal perf. קָשַׁר qashar: to bind, league together, conspire. Used 45x44vv. Only niphal perfect use. Only one other niphal (imperfect) (Neh. 4:6).
   b. Such soul-bondage was also existent between Jacob & Benjamin (Gen. 44:30).

4. Jonathan loved David with perfect, sacrificial, integrity love.
   a. אָהַב ahab: to love.
   b. Used of a father for a son (Gen. 22:2; 25:28a); a husband for a wife (Gen. 24:67); a mother for a son (Gen. 25:28b); a man for a meal (Gen. 27:4,9,14); of man to God (Ex. 20:6); a slave for a master (Ex. 21:5); love for a neighbor (Lev. 19:18); love for strangers and aliens (Lev. 19:34); God for man (Dt. 4:37); a daughter-in-law for a mother-in-law (Ruth 4:15); a king for an armor-bearer/musician (1st Sam. 16:21); a friend for a friend (1st Sam. 18:1,3; 20:17); a nation for a general (1st Sam. 18:16); a wife for a husband (1st Sam. 18:20,28); a king for another king (1st Kgs. 5:1); a king for the soil (2nd Chr. 26:10); a man’s friends aside from his wife (Est. 5:10,14; 6:13).

5. David became a permanent member of Saul’s house (1st Sam. 18:2).

6. Jonathan and David entered into a covenant/contract (1st Sam. 18:3; 20:8; 23:18).
   a. The covenant consisted of Jonathan’s recognition of David’s anointing. Jonathan dressed David with the robe of the Crown Prince of Israel.
   b. The covenant consisted of Jonathan’s surrendering his weapons and armor for David’s use.

7. David begins his full-time service to the King as the field commander of the armies (1st Sam. 18:5-7).
   a. He went out everywhere Saul sent him.
   b. Saul appointed him over the men of war. (Abner was the Captain of the Army, שַׂר צְבָא, 1st Sam. 14:50).
   c. David’s achievements was admired by the general population of Israel, and by the personal staff of the King.
   d. The achievements of David resulted in more appreciation and admiration than even the king received.

8. King Saul responded to David’s blessings with an angry and evil heart (1st Sam. 18:8,9).
   a. חָרָה charah: to burn, be kindled with anger. מְאֹד m’od: very.
   b. He will look upon David with suspicion, fearing to lose his kingdom (1st Sam. 15:28).

David's First Marriage (1st Sam. 18:10-30)

1. The demonic attack upon King Saul was now permitted to afflict him, even with David’s spiritual music ministry (v.10).
2. Under demonic impulse, King Saul attempted to murder David (v.11a).
3. David is delivered from two attempts on his life (v.11b).
4. King Saul is held captive by Satan’s agent, through the weapon of fear, and makes his decisions according to Satan’s will (v.12; cp. Rom. 8:15; 2nd Tim. 1:7; 2:26; Heb. 2:14,15).
5. King Saul’s fearful decision assigns David a military command as a border-unit commander (v.13).
   a. The Lord was with David, and he enjoyed career success in his appointment (v.14).
   b. David’s continued blessing resulted in Saul’s increased fear (v.15), and the people’s increased admiration (v.16).
6. King Saul makes another fearful decision, and formulates a plot to murder David (vv.17-19).
   a. King Saul offers the older of his two daughters, Merab (v.17a). מֵרַב merab #4764: “increase.” Fr. רָבַב rabab #7231: to be, or become many/much/great.
   b. This was a reward that David had already earned, when he killed Goliath (1st Sam. 17:25).
   c. King Saul envisions a doomed military campaign against the Philistines, as the agents of David’s murder (v.17b).
      This foreshadows King David’s greatest failure, when he engineered the death of Uriah (2nd Sam. 11:14,15).
   d. David responds with humility, and unwittingly thwarts the evil plot (v.18,19). This again foreshadows Uriah, in the expression of Uriah’s humility (2nd Sam. 11:11).
7. King Saul is given a second chance to implement his conspiracy (vv.20-29).
   a. King Saul had not realized that his younger daughter, Michal, actually loved David (v.20).
   b. King Saul recognized that this option would work for him better than the first option, as Michal would be a snare to David. מַוקֵשׁ moqesh #4170: bait, lure, snare (Ex. 23:33; 34:12; Dt. 7:16,25; Josh. 23:13; Jdg. 2:3; 8:27).
      1) Michal kept teraphim in her home (1st Sam. 19:13).
      2) Michal was a liar (1st Sam. 19:14,17).
      3) Michal had no appreciation for the Lord’s victories (2nd Sam. 6:20).
   c. King Saul includes his household servants in his conspiracy (vv.22-24).
   d. King Saul sets the dowry price as 100 Philistine foreskins (v.25).
   e. David is pleased by the idea of smiting so many of the uncircumcized Philistines (v.26a; cp. 17:26,36).
8. David doubles the requirement within the allotted time, and presents King Saul with 200 Philistine foreskins (v.26b,27a).
9. David then is married to his first wife (v.27b).
   a. He is enjoying an intimate, personal relationship with the Lord (v.28a).
   b. He has a wife who loves him (v.28b).
   c. He has a successful military career (v.30).
10. He will become the personal nemesis of King Saul’s for the remainder of Saul’s days (v.29).
Snares

I. Introduction & Definition (1st Sam. 18:21).
   A. Saul’s desire was to lead David into sin, and thus out of God’s favor, by the influence of his daughter’s idolatry.

   B. Vocabulary
      1. יָקשׁ yaqosh #3369: to lay bait, lure.
         a. יָקְשׁ yaqosh #3352 & יָקּשׁ yaqush #3353: fowler, trapper.
         b. יָקְשָן yoqshan #3370: Jokshan.
            מֹקֵשׁ moqesh #4170: bait, lure, trap.
      2. σκανδαλίζω skandalizo #4624: to put a snare, or stumbling block in the way.
         σκάνδαλον skandalon #4625: bait, trap, snare, stumbling block.

II. Development & Application
   A. Unbelievers will consider believers to be a snare to them (Ex. 10:7; Matt. 15:12), but the believer should make efforts to not be such a snare (Matt. 17:27).
   B. Idol worshipers will be a snare to faithful believers (Ex. 23:33).
      1. This danger required absolute separation.
      2. Believers should identify such snares, and tear them down (Ex. 34:12,13; 2nd Cor. 10:5).
      3. God permits for these snares to be effective when His children turn away from Him (Josh. 23:11-13).
   C. God delivers faithful believers from such snares (Ps. 91:1-4; 141:8-10).
   D. The Lord Jesus Christ is a snare to Israel ( Isa. 8:14, 15; Rom. 9:31-33; 1st Pet. 2:8).
   E. The removal of snares may be painful, but is ultimately beneficial (Matt. 5:29,30; 18:8,9).
   F. Believers become snares for other believers when they are not oriented to the Will of God (Matt. 16:23; Rom. 14:13; 1st Cor. 8:13; 1st Jn. 2:10), and believers should be particularly mindful of the negative effects upon children (Matt. 18:6,7).
   G. The study and application of the Word of God will keep a believer from stumbling (John 16:1).

III. Summary & Conclusion: Snares are an urgent matter for pastoral concern (2nd Cor. 11:29).
   A. This is the internal spiritual conflict that pastors wage on behalf of their flock (2nd Cor. 11:28).
   B. The pastor is spiritually burned when his flock is snared. πυρόω purōo #4448: to set on fire, (pass.) burn.
Three Times Rescued (1st Sam. 19:1-24)

1. Saul’s attempt to have David die in battle has not succeeded.
2. Saul then gives the order for David to be executed (v.1a).
   a. Jonathan is ordered to do so, despite his love for David (1st Sam. 18:1).
   b. The servants are ordered to do so, despite their love for David (1st Sam. 18:5,16).
3. Jonathan greatly delighted in David (v.1b). פָּרָצָה pharatsa #2654: to delight in, take pleasure, desire.

Used 82x71vv. (Gn. 34:19; Num. 14:8; Deut. 25:7,8; Ruth 3:13; 1st Sam. 18:22; 2nd Sam. 22:20; Ps. 18:19; 22:8; 40:6,8; Ezek. 18:23,32).

4. Jonathan warned David of the execution order (vv.2,3).
   a. He advised David to go into hiding (v.2).
   b. He promised to plead David’s case before Saul (v.3).
5. Jonathan speaks to his father, and admonishes him concerning his sin before God (vv.4,5).

6. Saul responds to his son’s desire (v.6).
   a. He does not necessarily respond to the Lord.
   b. He makes a vow in the Lord’s name, and on the Lord’s life.
   c. Saul will repeatedly attempt to violate his vow, but the Lord holds him to it!
7. Jonathan is then able to bring David out of hiding, and restore him to the King’s court (v.7).
8. Saul’s kindness towards David lasts until David is given another tremendous military victory (v.8).
9. Another demonic fit of rage comes upon Saul, and he makes another attempt on David’s life (vv.9,10a).
10. David flees to his house, and Saul’s servants set an ambush (vv.10b, 11a).
11. Michal warns David to flee, helps him escape, and then engineers a deception (vv.11b-13).
    a. She assists his escape out the window (v.12).
    b. She makes a dummy-replica of David to lay in the bed (v.13).
12. Michal tells a lie in order to preserve the deception (v.14), but must tell another lie when her first lie is found out (v.17).
13. David flees to Samuel, where he will be rescued for the third time (v.18).
    a. Samuel was leading his prophetic school.
    b. David, as a prophet (Acts 2:30), spends time in that school.
14. Saul is informed of David’s whereabouts, and he sends his hit-teams after him (vv.19-21).
    a. Each team in turn is Spirit-filled, and added to the prophetic school.
    b. This incident is similar to a later incident with Elijah (2nd Kgs. 1:9-15).
15. With no other options available, Saul travels to Ramah, in the effort to personally murder David (v.22).
16. Saul himself is once again given the Holy Spirit (vv.23,24).
    a. He is stripped naked, like Isaiah (20:2) and Micah (1:8).
    b. He had previously prophesied at his anointing (1st Sam. 10:10).
    c. This is Saul’s final Spirit-filled ministry (1st Sam. 28:6,15).
Fleeing

I. Introduction & Definition
   A. fleeing: to run away often from danger or evil; to hurry toward a place of security; to pass away swiftly.
   B. Three Hebrew Terms
      1. בָּרַח barach #1272: to flee. Used 67x66vv. (Gen. 16:6,8; 27:43; 31:20-22,27; 1st Sam. 19:12,18; Jon. 1:3,10; 4:2).
      2. חָסָה chasah #2620: to seek refuge, flee for refuge, trust. Used 37x36vv. (Ruth 2:12; Ps. 2:12 & oft. in Ps.).
      3. נוּס nus #5127: to flee, escape. Used 159x142vv. (Gen. 14:10; 19:20; 39:12,13,15,18; 1st Sam. 14:22; 17:24,51; 19:8,10).
      1. ἐκφεύγω ekpheugo #1628: to flee away, escape. Used 8x8vv. (Lk. 21:36; Acts 16:27; 19:16; Rom. 2:3; 2nd Cor. 11:33; 1st Thess. 5:3; Heb. 2:3; 12:25).
      2. καταφεύγω katapheugo #2703: to flee for refuge. Used 2x2vv. (Acts 14:6; Heb. 6:18).

II. Development & Application
   A. There is an appropriate time in which to flee, and in which to stand fast (Ecc. 3:1).
      1. David fled in the Will of God.
      2. The Lord Jesus Christ fled in the Will of God (Mt. 2:13; Lk. 4:30; Jn. 8:59; 10:39; 12:36).
   B. Fleeing apart from the Will of God is a fruitless endeavor.
      1. Taught by David (Ps. 139:7-12).
      2. Illustrated by Jonah (Jon. 1:3,10; 4:2).
      3. Realized by fallen Jerusalem (Isa. 10:3; Jer. 39:4,5).
   C. Fleeing in the Will of God is a provision of refuge.
      1. Under the Mosaic Law, provision was made for accidental killers to flee (Ex. 21:13; Num. 35:10-34).
      2. God expects faithful believers to flee to Him for protection (Ps. 2:12; 5:11; 7:1; 11:1; 16:1; 18:2; 31:1; etc.).
      3. Joseph was commanded to take his wife & child, and flee to Egypt (Matt. 2:13).
   D. The believer is commanded to flee:
      1. Immorality (1st Cor. 6:18). πορνεία porneia #4202: fornication.
      2. Idolatry (1st Cor. 10:14). εἰδωλολατρία eidololatria #1495: image worship, idolatry.

III. Summary & Conclusion—Fleeing in the Angelic Conflict
   A. Satan is the defeated foe; called the fleeing serpent (Job 26:13; Isa. 27:1).
   B. The Lord is the One Who goes before, and drives out the enemy (Ex. 33:1-3).
   C. The Lord Jesus Christ defeated and disarmed the forces of darkness (Col. 2:15).
   D. God the Father leads believers in His triumph in Christ (2nd Cor. 2:14).
   E. The Church Age believer is a victorious champion in Christ, from Whom Satan must flee when the believer stands firm and resists him (Jms. 4:7).
      1. Submit to God.
      2. Draw near to God.
      3. Cleanse & purify yourself for His service.
The Choice of Jonathan (1st Sam. 20:1-42)

1. David fled from Samuel’s prophetic “school” in Ramah (1st Sam. 20:1; cp. 19:18-24).
   a. King Saul’s prophetic activity was only of a temporary nature.
   b. King Saul’s murderous intent is still actively at work against David.

2. David appeals to Jonathan, and asks what charge the King could possibly make against him.
   a. Iniquity. עָוֹן \(\text{avon} \ #5771\): iniquity, guilt, punishment. עָוָה \(\text{avah} \ #5753\): to bend, twist, commit iniquity, do wrong.
   b. Sin. חַטָּאָה \(\text{chatta’ah} \ #2403\): sin, sin offering.

3. Jonathan denies any such execution order, but David assures him that it is true (1st Sam. 20:2,3).

4. Jonathan submits himself to David’s authority (1st Sam. 20:4).
   b. This is a conscious choice, rejecting his own natural heritage (1st Sam. 20:30).

5. David offers a plan of deception through which Jonathan may learn of Saul’s intent (1st Sam. 20:5-7).

6. David reminds Jonathan of their previous covenant (1st Sam. 18:3,4) and asks that Jonathan personally administer the execution, if it is called for (1st Sam. 20:8).

7. Jonathan responds with shocked outrage that such a thing need to happen (1st Sam. 20:9).

8. Jonathan and David make the arrangements for clandestine communication (1st Sam. 20:10-23).

9. Jonathan recognizes that his actions may result in his death (1st Sam. 20:14).

10. Jonathan makes a covenant with the house of David (1st Sam. 20:15-17).

11. King Saul becomes aware of Jonathan’s involvement in David’s absence, and is moved to attack Jonathan (1st Sam. 20:24-33).
    a. Saul’s anger burned against Jonathan (1st Sam. 20:30).
       1) וַיִּחַר אַף \(\text{charah} \ #2734\): to burn, be kindled with anger.
       2) אַף \(\text{aph} \ #639\): nostril, nose, face, anger.
       3) וַיִּחַר אַף occurs 24x in the OT (Gen. 30:2; Ex. 4:14; 32:19; Num. 11:10; 22:22,27; 24:10; 25:23; 32:10,13; Dt. 29:27; Josh. 7:1; Jdg. 2:14,20; 3:8; 10:7; 1st Sam. 17:28; 20:30; 2nd Sam. 6:7; 12:5; 2nd Kgs. 13:3; Ps. 106:40; 1st Chr. 13:10; 2nd Chr. 25:15). \(\text{אַפָּם וַיִּחַר} \) occurs in 2nd Chr. 25:10.
    b. Saul’s anger also included his own wife.
       1) Niph.ptc.fem.sing. עָוָה \(\text{avah} \ #5753\): to bend, twist, commit iniquity, do wrong.
       2) מַרְדּוּת \(\text{marduth} \ #4780\): rebellion, rebelliousness. מָרַד \(\text{marad} \ #4775\): to rebel.
    c. Saul’s anger motivated another attempted murder (1st Sam. 20:33).

12. Jonathan is then filled with fierce anger (1st Sam. 20:34).
    a. חֳרִי רָע \(\text{choriy} \ #2750\): n.m. heat of anger, burning anger.
    b. חֳרִי רָע occurs 5x (Ex. 11:8; 1st Sam. 20:34; Isa. 7:4; Lam. 2:3; 2nd Chr. 25:10).
    c. Jonathan’s anger motivated fasting & grieving.

14. Jonathan and David then say their farewells (1st Sam. 20:41,42).
Tough Choices

1. Jonathan chose to place his loyalty in David, rather than in his own natural family (1st Sam. 20:30).
   a. His choice was motivated by sacrificial love (1st Sam. 18:3,4).
   b. His choice was in keeping with the will of God (1st Sam. 13:14; 14:29,30).
   c. His choice was not without much grief (1st Sam. 20:34).
   d. Even after making his tough choice, Jonathan continued to live up to his family responsibilities (1st Sam. 31:1-3).

2. Abraham chose to obey the Lord, and leave his natural family.
   a. He was commanded to leave his land, relatives, and father’s house (Gen. 12:1; Acts 7:2,3).
   b. Terah was 70 when he became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran (Gen. 11:26). Terah died at the age of 205 (Gen. 11:32). (Abraham was 135)
   c. Abram travelled with his father, Terah, to Haran (Gen. 11:31,32; Acts 7:4).
   d. Abram left Haran after Terah “died” (Acts 7:4), at age 75 (Gen. 12:4), 60 years before Terah died (Gen. 11:32).
   e. Conclusion: Abraham allowed the dead to bury the dead, and proceeded to obey the Lord (Matt. 8:22).

3. Ruth chose to follow the Lord, and leave her natural family & homeland (Ruth 2:11).
   a. Her choice was motivated by sacrificial love (Ruth 1:14-17).
   b. Her choice was in keeping with the will of God (Ruth 1:15,16).
   c. Her choice was to seek refuge under His wings (Ruth 2:12).

4. The disciples chose to follow the Lord, and left their natural families and businesses (Mk. 10:28-31).
   a. ἀφίημι: apo, from, and hieμι, to send, has three chief meanings, (a) to send forth, let go, forgive; (b) to let, suffer, permit; (c) to leave, leave alone, forsake, neglect.
   b. The Lord promised that such choices will always result in spiritual life blessings, both in time and eternity.
   c. The spiritual life blessings come with a spiritual family, and spiritual afflictions.
   d. The return on the investment is stated as 100-fold, i.e. the best of the best for the seed sown on good soil (Mk. 4:8).

5. The issue of Jesus Christ is a dividing issue, and acceptance of that division is a cross for every believer to bear (Matt. 10:34-39).
From Bad to Worse (1st Sam. 21:1-15)

1. David fled from Saul’s house, and came as a fugitive to Nob (1st Sam. 21:1).
   a. He sought out Ahimelech for help.
   b. Ahimelech’s father was Ahitub (1st Sam. 22:9,11), his grandfather was Phinehas, and his great grandfather was Eli (1st Sam. 14:3). This line of priests descended from Aaron, through Ithamar (1st Chr. 24:3).
   c. Ahimelech was the father of Abiathar (1st Sam. 22:20-23), who alone escaped from Doeg the Edomite. Abiathar was the father of another Ahimelech (2nd Sam. 8:17).

2. Nob is a town of uncertain location. Assyrian invaders halted there confronting Jerusalem (Isa. 10:32). Nob was inhabited by Benjamites after the Exile (Neh 11:32).

3. Ahimelech was troubled by David’s appearance. הָרָד charad #2729: to tremble, be terrified.
   Used 39x39vv. (Gen. 42:28; Ex. 19:16,18; Ruth 3:8; 1st Sam. 16:4; 28:5; Ezek. 34:28).

4. Ahimelech was troubled by David’s being alone.

5. David answers Ahimelech’s question with a direct lie (1st Sam. 21:2).
   a. He lies about his mission.
   b. He lies about his men.
   c. He asks for food (v.3).

6. Ahimelech has no food for David, except for the consecrated bread (1st Sam. 21:4).
   a. Twelve loaves were kept on the table in the holy place at all times, being exchanged for fresh loaves every week (Ex 25:30).
   b. The week-old loaves were for the feeding of the priests (Lev. 24:5-9; Matt. 12:4).
   c. Ahimelech states that David & his men are acceptable to eat such bread, but only if they were not ceremonially unclean (Ex. 19:15; Lev. 15:16-18).

7. David is then forced to communicate a second lie concerning his men (1st Sam. 21:5).

8. Ahimelech’s provision of bread is observed by Doeg the Edomite (1st Sam. 21:6,7).
   a. He was a servant of Saul.
   b. He was detained before the Lord. רָצָץ atsar #6113: to restrain, retain. Used 45x45vv. (Gen. 16:2; 20:18; Num. 16:48,50; Jdg. 13:15,16; 1st Sam. 21:5,7; 1st Chr. 12:1; Neh. 6:10).
   c. His name means fearing, yet he was mighty among Saul’s shepherds.

9. David then puts forth is third lie, when he requests weaponry (1st Sam. 21:8).

10. Ahimelech is not an armorer—he’s a priest! He only has one sword, and he only has it because David had dedicated it to the Lord as a memorial of the Lord’s faithfulness (1st Sam. 17:54).

11. David, who normally disliked unwieldy armament (1st Sam. 17:39,40), was delighted to take Goliath’s sword (1st Sam. 21:9).

12. David then flees the kingdom of Saul, and seeks refuge in Philistia (1st Sam. 21:10ff.).
   a. It was a place of safety from Saul.
   b. It was a place of great danger to David.

13. David comes to Achish, King of Gath. He probably intends to offer himself for service in the King’s court (1st Sam. 21:15 cp. 27:1-7).

14. He is recognized by the King’s servants, and realizes his tremendous danger (1st Sam. 21:11,12).

15. David then “disguised his sanity” and was released to flee again (1st Sam. 21:13-15).
Madness

1. In antiquity the madman was held in universal dread, for his insanity was believed to be the result of special contact with a deity, generally through demon possession.
2. As a consequence no one interfered with him and all contact was carefully avoided, as reflected in the attitude of Achish toward David’s feigned madness (1st Sam. 21:12–15).
3. Madness was regarded as divine judgment meted out to those who disobeyed God’s law (Deut. 28:28).
4. It was also attributed to a spirit sent by God (1st Sam. 16:14; 18:11; 20:30–34; 28:20).
5. It was a trait of demon possession (Lk. 8:2,29–30).
6. Classic examples of madness in Scripture are Saul and Nebuchadnezzar (Dan. 4:28-37).
7. Jesus was accused of being mad (Mk. 3:21; Jn. 10:20), as was Paul (Acts 26:24,25).
The Cave of Adullam (1st Sam. 22:1-5)

1. David fled from Philistia (v.1).
   a. He departed. הָלַךְ halak #1980 & יָלָכָּ yalach #3212: to go, walk, come.
   b. He escaped. מָלַט malat #4422: to slip away, escape, be delivered. Used 98x85vv. (Gen. 19:17,19,20,22; 1st Sam. 19:10,11,12,17,18; 22:1,20; Est. 4:13; Job 1:15,16,17,19; Ezek. 17:15,18).

2. The cave of Adullam.
   a. Adullam was one of the royal cities of the Canaanites (Josh. 12:15; 15:35).
   b. Hirah, the Adullamite was a friend of Judah (Gen. 38:1). Mrs. Judah was probably an Adullamite.
   c. It stood in the valley of Elah, which was the scene of David’s memorable victory over Goliath (1st Sam. 17:2), and not far from Gath.
   d. It was one of the towns which Rehoboam fortified against Egypt (2nd Chr. 11:7).
   e. At this place is a hill some 500 feet high pierced with numerous caverns. Some of these caverns are large enough to hold 200 or 300 men.

3. Jesse & his entire household will come to David for refuge.
   a. This is reminiscent of Israel and his sons going to Joseph for refuge (Gen. 46:2-4).
   b. This is a shadowing of the Lord Jesus Christ, and His responsibility for His earthly family (John 2:12).

4. A drove of distressed, disconted debtors was drawn to David (v.2a).
   b. נֹשֶׁא noshé #5378: to lend on interest or usury, be a creditor.

5. David became their Captain (v.2b).

6. David repents, and confesses his personal sins, then takes the leadership and spiritual-teaching responsibility for this band of dependents (Ps. 56,34).
   a. David learned to fear God, and not fear man (Ps. 56:11-13).
   b. David learned to bless the Lord, and praise Him for His deliverance (Ps. 34:1-3).
   c. David used his own example as an encouragement to the crowd that had gathered, and led them in worship and praise (Ps. 34:3,5,9,11).

7. David secures asylum for his family with the King of Moab (vv.3,4).
   a. Saul was an enemy of Moab (1st Sam. 14:47).
   b. David was a descendant of Ruth the Moabitess (Ruth 4:17).

8. The prophet Gad provides David with spiritual counsel (v.5a).
   a. Gad, the seer. A prophet who advised David to leave Moab (1st Sam. 22:5).
   b. Announced to David the Lord’s choice of punishment for taking a census (2nd Sam. 24:11–17; 1st Chr. 21:9–17).
   c. Suggested the erection of an altar at “the threshing floor of Araunah” (2nd Sam. 24:18–19; 1st Chr. 21:18–19).
   d. He was one of the historians of David’s reign (1 Chr 29:29).
   e. Together with Nathan encouraged David in forming the Levitical orchestra for “the house of the Lord” (2nd Chr. 29:25).

9. David established a camp in the forest of Hereth (v.5b).
Murder at Nob (1st Sam. 22:6-23)

1. King Saul’s intelligence network locates David & his band in the forest of Hereth (vv.5,6a).
2. Saul is not in his palace, but on the height, under the Tamarisk tree (v.6b).
   a. אֵשֶׁל eshel #815: Tamarisk tree. Used 3x3vv. (Gen. 21:33; 1st Sam. 22:6; 31:13).
      1) Abraham planted a Tamarisk at Beersheba (Gen. 21:33).
      2) Saul will be buried under a Tamarisk tree at Jabesh (1st Sam. 31:13).
   b. His servants were stationed around him. נָצַב natsab #5324: to stand, be stationed.
3. Saul accuses his Benjamite servants as being in league with the “traitor” David (vv.7,8).
   a. He reminds them of their rewards for faithful service (v.7).
   b. He refers to David as the son of Jesse, not the son of Judah.
   c. He accuses them of complicity by not informing him of Jonathan’s treason (v.8).
4. Doeg the Edomite formally answers the charge of conspiracy by providing what information he knows (vv.9,10).
   a. He answered and said. עָנָה 'anah #6030: to answer, respond, testify + אָמַר 'amar #559: to say, speak, utter.
   b. He identified Ahimelech as one who gave aid and comfort to David.
      1) Inquired of the Lord for him (cf. 1st Sam. 9:9).
      2) Gave him provisions.
      3) Gave him Goliath’s sword.
5. Saul immediately summons not only Ahimelech, but his entire family as well (v.11).
6. Saul prosecutes the “son of Ahitub” for conspiracy with the “son of Jesse” (vv.12,13).
7. Ahimelech formally answers the charge of conspiracy by proclaiming the integrity, honor, and glory of David, and denying any knowledge of wickedness on David’s part (vv.14,15).
   a. David is praised for being faithful. נֶאֱמָן niph.ptc. אָמַן aman #539: to support, confirm, be faithful.
   b. David is recognized as the King’s son in law.
   c. David is famous as the Captain of the King’s Guard.
   d. David is publicly honored in Israel.
   e. David has a long record of turning to the Lord’s counsel.
   f. Ahimelech concludes his defense by forbidding the King to impute wickedness where there is no wickedness.
8. King Saul responds in anger, and pronounces death upon Ahimelech, and his entire family of priests (v.16), in direct violation of Mosaic Law (Deut. 24:16). This was simply the jealous hatred of Saul at work (cf. Est. 3:6).
9. Saul’s servants are not willing to carry out the execution (v.17; Ps. 105:15; Gen. 20:7). The fear of the Lord will prevent a Godly believer from carrying out a wicked king’s order (Ex 1:17).
10. Saul then orders Doeg to carry out the execution, which he does with great enthusiasm (vv.18,19).
11. One son of Ahimelech escapes and flees to David—Abiathar, son of Ahimelech (vv.20-23).
   a. Abiathar = “my father is great” בָּאָב ba: father + יָתַר yathar #3498: to leave over, excell, be great.
   b. David feels accountable for the death of Ahimelech’s family, and keeps Abiathar in his service for the remainder of his life.
   c. Abiathar will promote Adonijah over Solomon for the throne after David’s death, and will suffer banishment from office because of it (1st Kgs. 1:7ff.; 2:26,27).
   d. The doom of Ahimelech’s family was not David’s fault, or even Saul’s fault, but the faithfulness of God in completing His judgment upon the house of Eli (1st Kgs. 2:27; 1st Sam. 2:27-36; 14:3; 22:9,11,20; 1st Chr. 24).
12. David then composed Ps. 52 as a testimony to Doeg’s evil.
Inquiring of the Lord

1. The first recorded person who inquired of the Lord was Abraham (Gen. 15:1-4).
   a. Inquiring of the Lord was based upon previously revealed Truth.
   b. Inquiring of the Lord brought about an immediate verbal reply.
   c. Inquiring of the Lord was direct verbal conversation (Gen. 17:3, 17-22).
   d. Inquiring of the Lord determined what the Lord’s will was, but also had the potential for asking for something to become the Lord’s will (Gen. 18:17, 18, 22-33).
   e. Abraham established a Tamarisk tree at Beersheba for the purpose of calling upon the Lord (Gen. 21:33).

2. The first recorded explicit inquiry to the Lord was made by Rebekah (Gen. 25:22).
   a. This inquiry was based upon previously answered prayer (Gen. 25:21).
   b. This inquiry also brought about an immediate verbal reply (Gen. 25:23).

3. During the Exodus and wilderness wanderings, Moses & Aaron were the primary designated officials to inquire of the Lord.
   a. At first, Moses’ responsibilities in this role were nearly overwhelming (Ex. 18:15).
   b. Jethro wisely counselled that increased teaching would decrease the need for many inquiries (v.20).
   c. Aaron was given the Urim & Thummim as devices for his inquiries to the Lord (Ex. 28:30; Num. 27:21).
   d. Moses was blessed to inquire of the Lord “face to face” (Ex. 33:7, 11).
   e. These inquiries brought about immediate verbal replies (Num. 9:6, 8; 27:5).

4. Gentile prophets also had the privilege of inquiring of God (Num. 22:8).

5. God revoked the privilege of inquiry as an expression of Divine discipline (1st Sam. 14:37; 28:6, 7).

6. Inquiry can also be made to Satanic sources for information, but such evil is always an abomination in God’s eyes (Isa. 8:19; 1st Chr. 10:13, 14; Lev. 20:27; Deut. 18:10-12).

7. King Ahazia chose to inquire of Baal-zebub, rather than the Lord (2nd Kgs. 1:2, 3).

8. Believers who have defiled themselves through idolatry have forfeited their rights to divine inquiry (Ezek. 20:31; 1st Jn. 5:18-21).

9. The Church Age believer-priest has a face-to-face relationship with Jesus Christ, and like Moses, has full privileges of inquiry (1st Cor. 13:12; Heb. 12:2; 4:16).

10. The process for the Church Age believer-priest in making his inquiry, is the process of prayer.
    a. We have full access through Christ, to ask for anything according to His will (Mt. 21:22; Jn. 16:24).
    b. Our answers don’t come in the form of immediate verbal replies, but in the form of an enlightened heart, and transformed mind (Eph. 1:18; Rom. 12:2).
Rescue at Keilah (1st Sam. 23:1-13)

1. David receives word that the Philistines are plundering the threshing floors of Keilah (v.1).
   a. קְעִילָה qe‘iylah #7084: “fortress” Keilah. Fr. קָלַע qala’ #7049: to sling, hurl forth, carve.
   b. A fortified city in the Shephelah allotted to Judah (Josh. 15:44).
   c. Mentioned in the Amarna letters as Qilti.
   d. Identified with Khirbet Qila it is situated eight miles NW of Hebron and overlooking the N-S route from the Valley of Elah to Hebron.
   e. In the time of Nehemiah the city had been reoccupied by Jews returning from Babylon (Neh. 3:17–18).

2. David inquired of the Lord, and asked His will concerning the Philistines (v.2).
   b. David is promised to deliver. יָשַׁע yasha’ #3467: to save, be saved, deliver.

3. David's men expressed their fear (v.3), prompting David to inquire of the Lord a second time (v.4).

4. Just as the Lord promised, David was given a great victory over the Philistines at Keilah (v.5).

5. It is at this time that Abiathar arrives, having escaped from Saul’s massacre, and comes to David with the High Priest’s ephod (v.6).

6. Saul also comes to know of David’s whereabouts, and is delighted at the prospect of finally murdering his hated enemy (v.7).
   a. In his insanity, Saul looks at these circumstances as the will of God.
   b. He views God as alienating David. Piel of נָכַר nakar #5234: 1. to recognize, acknowledge, know, respect, regard; 2. to act, or treat as foreign or strange.
   c. He is excited that David is now trapped within a city’s walls.

   a. Saul gathers 3,000 “chosen men” (1st Sam. 24:2).
   b. David had about 600 (1st Sam. 23:13).

3. Saul needs to “cover his feet” and unknowingly picks the cave in which David & his men are hiding (1st Sam. 24:3).

4. David’s men are convinced that God was arranging circumstances to fulfill prophecy (1st Sam. 24:4a).
   a. Such a direct prophecy is not revealed in Scripture.
   b. God’s promise to David before Keilah was to deliver the Philistines into his hand (1st Sam. 23:4).
   c. Jonathan had promised David that David would be the next king, but only stated that Saul’s hand would not be successful against David. He made no mention of David’s hand against Saul (1st Sam. 23:17).

5. David responds to the urging of his men, but not in a violent manner against Saul (v.4b).

6. Although David clipped off Saul’s robe as proof of his innocence, David’s conscience was burdened because of what he had done against Saul (v.5).

7. David’s conscience does not allow him to stretch out his hand against the Lord’s anointed (1st Sam. 24:6,12; 26:9,11,16; 2nd Sam. 1:14,16; Rom. 14:5,22,23).
   a. מָשִׁיחַ mashiyach #4899: anointed one, Messiah.
   b. Χριστός christos #5547: anointed one, Christ, Messiah.

8. David followed Saul out of the cave, and gave himself up to the mercy of the Lord (vv.8-15).
   a. He cried out, “Adonai the King” (v.8). אָדוֹן 'adown #113: lord, LORD.
   b. David lies flat on the ground and gives his verbal defense in a defenseless position.
   c. Certain men have lied to Saul about David (v.9).
   d. If David listened to his men, he would have killed Saul (v.10).
   e. David addresses Saul as “father” and proves his innocence (v.11).
   f. David calls upon the LORD for judgment between him and saul (v.12a).
   g. David is willing to lay down his life, if Saul decides to take it (v.12b).
   h. David quotes “a proverb of the ancients” and again declares his innocence (v.13).
   i. David humbles himself before Saul, and makes no claims to merit (v.14).
   j. David concludes with his second appeal to the Lord for judgment and deliverance (v.15).

9. Saul’s response was of grief and sorrow for what he had done against David, and the unrighteousness of his activity (vv.16-21).

10. David agrees to Saul’s vow, but chose to remain in En-Gedi rather than return to court at Gibeah (v.22).
Nabal & Abigail (1st Sam. 25:1-44)

1. It is following the events of En-Gedi that the prophet Samuel dies (v.1).

2. Samuel was an important and influential character in David’s life, but following his death, another important character is introduced.

3. Nabal
   a. From Maon, but his business was in Carmel.
      1) מָעוֹן ma’own #4584: habitation.
      2) כַּרְמֶל karmel #3760: garden land.
   b. Very great. מְאֹד gadowl me’od. גָּדוֹל gadowl #1419: great, large, important.
   c. He had 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats. (Job had 7,000 sheep).
   d. His name means foolish. נָבָל nabal #5036: foolish. Nabal נabal #5037: foolish.
      1) קָשֶׁה qasheh #7186: hard, cruel, severe, obstinate (+עֹרֶף ‘oreph #6203: stiff-necked).
      2) רַע ra’ #7451: bad, evil.
      3) מַעֲלָל ma’alal #4611: deed, act, practice (usually bad). fr. עָלַל galal #5953: to deal with severely, make a fool of someone.
   4) Calebite. Caleb was a son of Jephunneh the Kenezite (Num. 32:12), and also a son of Hezron (1st Chr. 2:18). The Kenezites were an Edomite tribe roaming the deserts of Sinai (Gen. 36:15). Moses married into this clan (Jdg. 1:16). Caleb was evidently a gentile (dog) adopted into the tribe of Judah, clan of Hezron. His land was given to him along with the sons of Judah (Josh. 15:13).

4. Abigail
   a. “My Father is Joy.” אֲבִיקָיִל abiygayil #26. אָב ab #1 + גִּיל giyl #1524: a rejoicing.
   b. טוֹבַת־שֶׂכֶל towbath-sekel: of good understanding. טוֹב towb #2896: good + שֶׂכֶל sekel #7922: prudence, insight, understanding.
   c. תוּאַר וִיפַת wiyphath to’ar. יָפֶה yapheh #3303: fair, beautiful, handsome. תֹּאַר to’ar #8389: shape, form, figure.

5. David sends ten men to ask Nabal for provisions (vv.4-8).
   a. He has acted in grace, and asks for grace.
   b. He asks Nabal to provide an unspecified amount.

6. Nabal replies by denying David’s request, and insulting David’s position (vv.9-12).

7. David is filled with anger over Nabal’s insult, and prepares to exact his own revenge (v.13,21,22).
   a. He arms 2/3 of his men to go slay the house of Nabal (v.13).
   b. He feels that his work in the wilderness was “in vain” (v.21).
   c. He feels that he deserved better.
   d. “May God do so to the enemies of David” and yet it wasn’t God who was going forth in wrath, it was David (v.22).

8. One of Nabal’s servants informs Abigail of the incident, and looks to her for spiritual leadership (vv.14-17).

9. Abigail rushes to David, and keeps him from making a terrible mistake (vv.18-31).
   a. She assumes a prone position before David (v.23).
   b. She assumes the blame for the insult to David’s men (v.24a).
   c. She asks that David would pay heed to her, and ignore the foolishness of Nabal (vv.24b,25).
   d. She reminds David that the Lord has prevented him from sinning, and reminds David that the Lord will work on David’s behalf (v.26).
   e. She asks that David will accept her grace gift (v.27).
   f. She asks for David’s forgiveness (v.28a).
   g. She anticipates the glories of David’s coming kingdom (vv.28b-31).

10. David rejoices in the Lord’s faithfulness, and praises Abigail for her ministry towards him (vv.32-35).
11. The death of Nabal (vv.36-38).
   a. She will later become the mother of Chileab (2nd Sam. 3:3), also known as Daniel (1st Chr. 3:1).
   b. Abigail’s godliness is noteworthy by the lack of trouble that Chileab/Daniel ever gave to his father.
13. David marries Ahinoam (v.43).
   a. Jezreel was the name of two towns, one in Judah (Josh. 15:56), and one in Issachar (Josh. 19:18). Ahinoam was from the southern (Judean) Jezreel.
   b. Amnon was the son of Ahinoam, who raped his half-sister, and was murdered by Absalom (2nd Sam. 13).
14. Comment is made on David’s first wife, Michal (v.44). She had been given to Palti (2nd Sam. 3:14-16).
Polygamy

1. Definition: marriage in which a spouse of either sex may have more than one mate at the same time — compare Polyandry, Polygyny.
   a. Polyandry: the state or practice of having more than one husband or male mate at one time.
   b. Polygyny: the state or practice of having more than one wife or female mate at one time.

2. The original institution of marriage was established between one man and one woman (Gen. 2:18,21,22,24).
   a. The Lord supplies all of our needs perfectly (Phil. 4:19; James 1:17). One mate is perfect supply for our needs (Prov. 12:4; 18:22; 19:14; 31:10-31).
   b. Polygamy, then, is an expression of dissatisfaction with God’s perfect provision.
   c. Scripture records many instances where men practiced polygamy, but no instances where that polygamous relationship produced satisfaction.

Note: Before making mention of the instances of polygamy in the Scriptures, it should be noted that the instances of polygamy represent a clear exception, rather than the rule of life for most believers and unbelievers alike.

3. The first recorded practitioner of polygamy was Lamech (Gen. 4:19).
   a. His wives were Adah (עָדָה 'adah: ornament) & Zillah (צִילָה tsillah: shade).
   b. He was certainly one who followed the “way of Cain” as a murderer (Gen. 4:23,24; Jude 11).

4. The second recorded practitioner of polygamy was Abraham (Gen. 16).
   a. He entered into a polygamous relationship in a human effort to bring about the promise of God.
   b. The polygamous relationship immediately revealed the problems of jealousy in such relationships.
   c. The mental attitude sin resulted in overt sin in domestic violence against Hagar.
   d. The LORD directed for Hagar to return to the troubled home, and submit to the test.
   e. After the birth of Isaac, the LORD directed Abraham to send Hagar away (Gen. 21:9-12).
   f. Along with Keturah’s sons, Abraham sent Ishmael away with gifts (Gen. 25:6).

5. Isaac learned from the lessons of Abraham, and maintained a monogamous life with Rebekah, but their two sons, Esau & Jacob, each became polygamists (Gen. 26:34,35; 28:8,9; 29:23,28; 30:4,9).

6. Other Old Testament polygamists:
   a. Gideon (Jdg. 8:30,31).
   b. Elkanah (1st Sam. 1:1,2).
   c. Saul (2nd Sam. 3:7).
   d. David (2nd Sam. 5:13).
   e. Solomon (1st Kgs. 11:3).
   f. Rehoboam (2nd Chr. 11:21).
   g. Belshazzar (Dan. 5:2,3).
   h. Ahaseurus (Est. 2:2,3,13,14).

7. New Testament polygamists:
   a. The Mishnah & Talmud allow for polygamy, and the indications are that it was still practiced in some instances.
      1) The Mishnah was compiled about 200AD. It allowed for up to four wives (Ketubot 10:5).
      2) The Palestinian Talmud, 5th Cent. AD. The Babylonian Talmud, 6th Cent. AD. Talmudic traditions continued to be compiled through the 10th Cent. AD. It allowed for up to four wives, or up to eighteen wives for kings (Jewish Encyclopedia, x, 121).
   b. Herod. Had ten wives, nine of them still living at one point (Jos. Ant. XVII, Ch. 17, Sec. 3; Wars BookI, Ch. 28).

8. A man who volitionally chose to be a polygamist could not reduce the support of previously married wives or concubines (Ex. 21:10). This command presupposes that polygamy is not absolutely prohibited.

9. A man who volitionally chose to be a polygamist could not take sisters, mothers & daughters, or grandmothers & granddaughters for wives (Lev. 18:17,18). This command presupposes that polygamy is not absolutely prohibited.

10. A man who volitionally chose to be a polygamist could not show favoritism in the disposition of his estate (Deut. 21:15-17). This command presupposes that polygamy is not absolutely prohibited.
11. Kings were prohibited from multiplying wives (Deut. 17:17).
   a. This is widely observed as a prohibition against polygamy.
   b. If so, then it prohibits polygamy for kings, but permits it for common people.
   c. This is contradictory when it is realized that kings were more likely to have more than one wife.
   d. The prohibition was not against adding wives, but rather multiplying wives. רָבָה rabah 97235: to become great, mighty, multiply. יָסַף yasaph 3254: to add, increase, do again.
   e. The danger in this command is not in the immorality of the multiple marriages, but in his heart turning away to foreign gods (Deut. 17:17b; 1st Kgs. 11:4).

12. A man who’s brother died childless was required to be a polygamist, and raise up a child to continue his brother’s name (Gen. 38:8; Deut. 25:5-10).

13. The New Testament teaching of the ideal shows the beauty of portraying Christ and the Church (Matt. 19:5,6; Eph. 5:33).
David Spares Saul’s Life Again (1st Sam. 26:1-25)

1. The Ziphites again approach Saul in order to betray David (v.1 cp. 23:19).
2. Saul once again goes forth with 3000 men (v.2 cp. 24:2).
3. David sends out his intelligence network to verify that it was in fact Saul coming out to get him once again (vv.3,4).
4. David’s intelligence network confirmed Saul’s participation, but David went out personally to observe Saul’s location (v.5).
5. Saul was sleeping in the camp, next to his commanding general, Abner (v.5).
   a. Abner was Saul’s uncle, and thus a fellow Benjamite (1st Sam. 14:50,51).
   b. Abner stood by Saul at the battle of Elah (1st Sam. 17:55,57).
   c. Abner regularly dined at Saul’s table (1st Sam. 20:25).
   d. Abner is eulogized by David as a “prince and great man” (2nd Sam. 3:38).
6. David “answered” and said to two of his men (v.6).
   a. עָנָה 'anah: to answer, respond. Common idiom: answered and said.
   b. David’s actions in vv. 7-12 are a direct response to the circumstances of vv. 1-6.
   c. David offered two different men the opportunity to go with him.
      1) Ahimelech the Hittite. He appears only here in Scripture.
      2) Abishai the son of Zeruiah. This is his first appearance in Scripture, but he appears many more times (2nd Sam. 16:9; 19:21; 21:17; 23:18; 1st Chr. 18:12,13).
7. David & Abishai sneak into Saul’s camp, and steal his spear, and his water jug (vv.7-12).
   a. The Lord sends a supernatural sleep in order to provide for David’s covert operation (v.12).
   b. Abishai succumbs to temptation and asks permission to slay Saul (v.8).
   c. David takes the opportunity to teach a Bible class (vv.9-11).
8. David calls out to Abner, and rebukes him for his faithlessness (vv.13-16).
   The extraordinary purity and elasticity of the air in Palestine enable words to be distinctly heard that are addressed by a speaker from the top of one hill to people on that of another, from which it is separated by a deep intervening ravine. Hostile parties can thus speak to each other, while completely beyond the reach of each other’s attack. It results from the peculiar features of the country in many of the mountain districts. Commentary Critical and Explanatory on the Whole Bible / Jamieson, Fausset and Brown.
   a. David does not address King Saul, nor does he defend himself, until Saul addresses him (vv.17-20).
   b. David displays the spear and water jug as tokens of his innocence, and Abner’s negligence.
9. Saul is then shamed once again into an admission of guilt (vv.21-25).
Daredevils

- David is willing to face Goliath for the glory of the Lord (1st Sam. 17).
- The Three Mightiest Men volunteered to fetch some water for David (2nd Sam. 23:13-17).
- Abishai is more willing than Ahimelech to face danger with David (1st Sam. 26:6).
- Joab was willing to be first into battle, in order to obtain earthly glory (1st Chr. 11:6).
- Othniel is willing to face danger on behalf of his uncle Caleb (Josh. 15:17).
- Esther is willing to face danger on behalf of her people (Est. 4:13-17).
- Peter is willing to face danger with the Lord (Lk. 22:33; Jn. 13:37).
David Abandons Israel (1st Sam. 27:1-12)

1. David takes his eyes off of the Lord, and begins to view his circumstances as hopeless (v.1).
   a. He said to himself—in his heart. He is not addressing the Lord.
   b. I will perish. סָפָה caphah #5595: to sweep or snatch away, catch up, destroy, consume (Gen. 18:23,24; 19:15,17; 1st Sam. 26:10; Ps. 40:14).
   c. There is nothing better than to escape into the land of the Philistines. מָלַט malat #4422: to slip away, escape, be saved/delivered (Gen. 19:17,19,20,22; 1st Sam. 19:10,11,12,17,18).

2. David leads his 600 men to Philistia (v.2).
   a. He had previously fled there alone (1st Sam. 21:10-22:1).
   b. He now has responsibility over 600 men and two wives (v.3).
   c. Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath accepts David into his household.

3. David’s human effort works, and Saul does not pursue him in Philistia (v.4).

4. David feels unworthy to dwell in the Philistine royal city, and requests a more remote home for his exile (v.5 cp. 1st Sam. 18:18,23).

5. Achish not only gives David a place where he can live with his family, but makes him the ruler of Ziklag (vv.6,7).

6. David experiences great career success as the ruler of Ziklag (vv.8-12).
   a. He has victory over the Geshurites, Girzites, and Amalekites (v.8).
   b. He leaves no witnesses behind.
   c. He deceives Achish about his activity.
Better Things

1. David said, “There is nothing better for me” (1st Sam. 27:1). (NIV the best thing I can do).
   a. He is looking at his problems entirely from the perspective of human viewpoint.
   b. He selects the least worst option. (Lesser of two evils).
2. Human viewpoint has a reversed view of what is better, and what is worse (Ex. 14:12; Num. 14:3).
3. Human viewpoint often sees bigger as better (Jdg. 18:19).
4. Human viewpoint gets wrapped up in relative standards of better and worse (1st Sam. 15:28).
5. Human viewpoint fails to recognize the better messages (2nd Sam. 17:14).
6. Human viewpoint thinks that our own ideas are better than God’s commands (2nd Kgs. 5:12).
7. Human viewpoint places their trust in people, but the better thing is to trust the Lord (Ps. 118:8,9).
8. An inward heart of obedience is better than external acts of ritual (1st Sam. 15:22; Ps. 69:30,31).
9. The poverty of a believer is a better life than the prosperity of the unbeliever (Ps. 37:16; Prov. 16:8).
10. The Word of God is better than any financial prosperity (Ps. 119:72; Prov. 3:14; 8:11,19; 16:16).
11. Grace is better than any financial prosperity (Prov. 22:1).
12. Personal integrity is better than any financial prosperity (Prov. 28:6).
13. The lovingkindness of God is better than physical life (Ps. 63:3).
   a. The carnal believer loses sight of this, and views physical death as better than physical life (Job 7:15,16; 1st Kgs. 19:4; Jon. 4:3,8).
   b. A mature believer can view physical death as better than remaining in life, but only in the light of arriving in victory (Phil. 1:23,24).
14. Being in fellowship is better than being out of fellowship (Ps. 84:10). Prolonged carnality makes it harder for the believer to finally realize this (Hos. 2:7).
15. Mental attitude patience and self-control is better than earthly achievements & glory (Prov. 16:32).
16. Believers understand that our eternal reward is better than any amount of hardship in this life (Isa. 56:5).
17. Believers functioning in grace are better servants in temporal life (Dan. 1:20).
18. There is nothing in this life worse than eternal destruction following death (Matt. 5:29,30; 18:8,9).
19. There is no activity in this life worse than setting stumbling blocks for fellow believers (Matt. 18:6).
20. The exercise of Christian liberty is neither better, nor worse, but the setting of stumbling block is certainly for the worse (1st Cor. 8:8).
21. Moral depravity is no better than immoral depravity (Rom. 3:9).
22. The assembly of believers is desinged as a better thing for us, but it becomes a worse thing when it is not accomplished in love and unity (1st Cor. 11:17).
23. God’s plan includes our salvation, and the “better things” that accompany salvation (Heb. 6:9-12).
   a. Sacrificial ministry to fellow believers.
   b. Diligence in maintaining our life of hope (Heb. 6:11; 7:19).
24. Believers who are focussed on eternity are excited about the better possessions we will obtain (Heb. 10:34), and the better place in which we will live (Heb. 11:16).
25. Believers who faithfully endure testing obtain a “better” resurrection (Heb. 11:35).
26. Church Age believers live in a better age than the Old Testament saints (Heb. 11:40).

1st Sam. 25 (David & Abigail)
- Psalm 141

1st Sam. 26-31
- Psalm 101

Psalm 63
1. David expresses his love for the Lord in the morning (v.1). שָׁחַר shachar: look early, diligently, for the dawn.
2. The Lord meets his physical and spiritual needs (v.1).
3. David’s focus is directed to heaven (v.2).
4. David has Divine viewpoint concerning physical life (v.3a). חֶסֶד chesed: blessed lovingkindness.
5. David is motivated to worship the Lord in three primary activities (vv.3b,4):
   a. Praising Him. שָׁבַח shabach: piel. to laud, praise.
6. David is daily nourished/satisfied with God’s word (v.5).
7. David expresses his love affair with the Lord in the evening (vv.6-8).
   a. He cries out in joy. רָנַן ranan: to cry out, shout for joy, give a ringing cry.
   b. He clings to the Lord. דָּבַק dabaq: to cling, stick close, cleave (Gen. 2:24).
   c. The Lord holds him. תָּמַ tamak: to grasp, support, lay hold of, hold fast.
8. David looks to his eternal inheritance with great anticipation (vv.9-11).

Psalm 12
2. David laments the lack of godly and faithful men in his generation (v.1). חָסִיד chasiyd: faithful, kind, godly, holy one, saint, pious. אָמַן aman: to support, confirm, be faithful, true.
3. David describes the evil activity of the liars (vv.2-4).
4. The Lord agrees with David’s perspective, and promises to act on his behalf (v.5).
5. David praises the Lord for His words and His deeds (vv.6-8).

Psalm 57
1. David begins this psalm with a demand for the Lord’s grace—a demand he repeats twice (v.1). חָנַן chanan: to be gracious, show favor. (cf. Hannah). חֵן chen: grace, favor.
2. David cries out to God Most High (v.2). אֱלֹהִים elohim: God, gods. עֶלְיׄון el’elyown: most high. More usual term is אלהי el’elohi often times in a Gentile context (Gen. 14:18,19,20,22; Num. 24:16; Dan. 3:26).
4. David is surrounded by fire-breathing lions, and yet he is encouraged to praise the Lord even more (vv.4,7-11).
Psalm 58
1. David challenges the angelic and human instruments of evil (vv.1,2). יְהוָה יִשְׁכָּב: god, mighty one. (cf. Ps. 82:1,6,7; 95:3; 96:4; 97:7; 138:1)
2. David recognizes total depravity from birth (v.3).
3. David describes them with serpent/snake metaphors (vv.4,5).
4. David then commands the Lord to destroy such workers of wickedness (vv.6-9).
5. David understands, though, that this ultimate judgment must await the good pleasure of the Lord (vv.10,11).

Psalm 141
1. David begins this psalm by demanding the Lord’s immediate attention (v.1). חֻשׁ: to haste, make haste, hurry. (cf. Hushai the Archite).
2. David is not in a position to offer the appropriate sacrifices, but he can come to the Lord in prayer (v.2).
3. David asks the Lord to hinder him from all forms of sin—verbal, mental attitude, and overt—even to not enjoy the pleasures of such activity (vv.3,4).
5. David leaves himself in the Lord’s keeping and protection, rather than attempt to take his own vengeance in wickedness (vv.8-10).
David Joins the War on Israel (1st Sam. 28:1,2)

1. The united Philistine forces assembled for a major inland offensive against the nation of Israel (v.1a).
   a. מַחֲנֶה mach'neh #4264: encampment, camp. Gen. 32:2 Mahanaim = two camps.
   b. קָבַץ qabats #6908: to gather, collect (Used 127x120vv. Gen. 41:35,48; 1st Sam. 7:5,6,7; 8:4; 22:2; 25:1; 28:1,4).
   c. צָבָא tsaba' #6633: wage war (Num. 31:7,42; 1st Sam. 28:1; Isa. 31:4).
   d. לָחַם lacham #3898: to fight, do battle.

2. The last time this happened, David slew the giant (1st Sam. 17:1).
   a. אָסַף 'acaph #622: gather, collect. Asaph = “gathered”
   b. מִלְחָמָה milchamah #4421: battle, war.

3. Achish admonished David strongly (v.1b).
   a. יִדַּע yada' #3045: to know. (Gen. 15:13; 43:7; Josh. 23:13; 1st Sam. 20:9; 28:1; 1st Kgs. 2:37,42; Prov. 27:23; Jer. 13:12; 26:15; 40:14; 42:19,22).
   b. מִלְחָמָה milchamah #4421: battle, war.

4. David agrees to the message of Achish (v.2a).
   a. כֵּן ken #3651: adv. so, thus. prep. לָכֵן according to such conditions, that being so, therefore. Used idiomatically, in conversation, in reply to an objection, to state the ground upon which the answer is made (Gen. 4:15; 30:15; Jdg. 8:7; 11:8; 1st Sam. 28:2; 1st Kgs. 22:19; Job 20:2).

5. David’s united kingdom was tested by two Philistine invasions (vv.17-25).
   a. The Philistines “sought out” David (v.17a).
   b. David did not allow the Philistines an audience (v.17b).
   c. The Philistines responded to David’s slight by fielding their army for another war (v.18). The location of their assembly was the Valley of Rephaim. רְפָאִים rēpha’īym #7497: giant, Rephaim.
   d. David engages the enemy only upon instructions from the Lord (v.19).
   e. Invasion #1 was destroyed at Baal-perazim (v.20), and great financial blessings were reaped for Israel (v.21, cf. Job 27:16,17; Prov. 13:22; 28:8; Ecc. 2:26).
   f. Invasion #2 was destroyed when the Lord went forth and drove the Philistines into David’s trap to their rear (vv.22-25, cp. 2nd Kgs. 7:6), providing a crushing victory over the united Philistine armies (v.25). Total domination of the Philistine nation will shortly come (2nd Sam. 8:1), although they will revolt again near the end of David’s life (2nd Sam. 21:15-22).
David Brings the Ark to Jerusalem (2nd Sam. 6:1-23; 1st Chr. 13,15)

1. David’s standing army totals 30,000 “chosen men.” בוחר יִבְרָא מַלְאָכָה רְאוּ הַעֲרָיָהוֹת אָבָה: to choose.
   a. Pharaoh had 600 “select chariots” (Ex. 14:7).
   b. Benjamin had 700 “chosen men” who were expert left-handed stone slingers (Jdg. 20:15,16).
   c. King Saul had 3,000 chosen men (1st Sam. 13:2). 2,000 for himself, and 1,000 under Jonathan’s control.
   d. Saul’s chosen men were the ones entrusted with the capture of David (1st Sam. 24:2; 26:2).
   e. Rehoboam will have 180,000 “chosen men” to put down Jeroboam’s rebellion (1st Kgs. 12:21; 2nd Chr. 11:1).
   f. Abijah and Jeroboam will wage war with 400,000 and 800,000 “chosen men” (2nd Chr. 13:3,17).

2. The ark has been at Kiriath-Jearim since 1st Sam. 7:1,2.
   a. The Philistines captured the ark (1st Sam. 5:1ff.).
   b. The Philistines returned the ark (1st Sam. 6:1ff.).
   c. The inhabitants of Beth Shemesh begged Kiriath-Jearim to take the ark (1st Sam. 6:20,21).
   d. Eleazar, son of Abinadab became the custodian for the ark (1st Sam. 7:1,2).
      1) יְהוָה יִלְּאָב: God has helped.
      2) צָרַע יִלְּאָב: to help, succour, support.
   e. David appeals to the people of Israel to bring the ark back to Israel (1st Chr. 13:1-4).

3. The ark is placed on a new cart, and transported by Uzzah & Ahio, sons of Abinadab (2nd Sam. 6:3,4; 1st Chr. 13:5-7).
   a. עֹבֵד יָרֵא כָּרְא: strength. יָרֵא might, strength.
   b. אָבָה עַשְׂרִי: brotherly.
   c. The Philistine procedures for moving the ark were not being followed (Num. 4:5,6,15; 7:6-9).
   d. The Lord’s proceedings for moving the ark were not being followed (Sam. 6:5; 1st Chr. 13:8).

4. David & all Israel celebrated in the parade (2nd Sam. 6:5; 1st Chr. 13:8).
   a. שָׂחַק יָרְאָה יָרְאָה: to laugh, play, mock.
   b. Before the Lord. מִלְאָה יִשְׁלָח: (Phil. 3:1; 4:4).

5. Uzzah is struck dead for touching the ark (2nd Sam. 6:6,7; 1st Chr. 13:9,10). שָׁלָה שָׁלָה: error, fault, irreverence.

6. David becomes angry, afraid, and adamant (2nd Sam. 6:8,9,10; 1st Chr. 13:11,12,13).
   a. הָאָבָה הָאָבָה: to be hot, furious, burn.
      Gen. 4:5,6; 1st Sam. 17:28; 18:8, 20:7,30; 2nd Sam. 3:8; 6:7,8; 12:5; 1st Chr. 13:10,11).
   b. כָּרְא כָּרְא: to fear, revere, be afraid.
      Gen. 3:10; 1st Sam. 17:11,24; 18:12,29; 2nd Sam. 3:11; 6:9; 12:18; 1st Chr. 13:12; Job 1:1; Ps. 23:4; Pr. 31:30).

7. Obed-Edom the Gittite (2nd Sam. 6:11).
   a. Obed-Edom. אָבָד אָבָד אָבָד. servant of Edom.
      2nd Sam. 6:10,11; 15:18,19,22; 18:2; 21:19; 1st Chr. 13:13; 20:5). “Gittite” refers to Philistines from the Philistine royal city of Gath. Some view Obed-Edom the Gittite as a resident of Gath-Rimmon, a Kohathite/Levitical city in the tribal territory of Manasseh (Josh. 21:25).
   c. Other Obed-Edoms in the OT.
      1) A son of Korah (a Levite) appointed musician (1st Chr. 15:16,18,21,24; 16:5,38a).
      2) The son of Jeduthun, a Levite appointed gatekeeper in the temple (1st Chr. 16:38b; 26:4,8,15).
      3) The treasurer or steward of the vessels in the temple in the days of Amaziah. He was taken captive by Joash of Israel (2nd Chr. 25:24).

Note: #1 & #2 may be the same Obed-Edom. #1 and/or #2 may be the same as the Gittite. Obed-Edom was faithful in his responsibilities, and blessed by the Lord (2nd Sam. 6:11,12; 1st Chr. 13:14; 26:5?).
8. The ark finally arrives in Jerusalem (2nd Sam. 6:12-19; 1st Chr. 15:1-28).
   a. From the house of Obed-Edom, David followed Levitical procedures for the transportation of the ark (1st Chr. 15:1-28).
   b. David presided, not as a priest, but as a Prophet-King (2nd Sam. 6:14; 1st Chr. 15:27 cp. 1st Sam. 2:18).
9. The reaction of Michal (2nd Sam. 6:20-23; 1st Chr. 15:29).
The Arrangement of the Priesthood (1st Chr. 15:16-29; 16:1-43)

1. David instituted a reform of the Levitical responsibilities, by creating an orchestral choir (1st Chr. 15:16ff., 16:4-7,37-42).
   a. He gave instructions to the Levitical chiefs to make the appointments (1st Chr. 15:16).
   b. The first rank (1st Chr. 15:17).
      1) Heman the son of Joel (and grandson of Samuel) (1st Chr. 6:33). Called the seer of David (1st Chr. 25:5). Author of Ps. 88.
      2) Asaph, son of Berechiah. Author of Ps. 73-83. “Sons of Asaph” = musician (Ezra 2:41).
      3) Ethan, son of Kushaiah. Also known as Jeduthun. Author of Ps. 89. Three psalms are written “for” or “according to” Jeduthun (Ps. 39,62,77).
   c. The second rank (1st Chr. 15:18).
   d. The instruments were primarily harps, lyres, cymbals (1st Chr. 15:16), trumpets (v.24), and another “horn” (v.28).

2. David officiated in the celebratory sacrifices (vv.1,2a).
   a. The primary responsibility to offer sacrifices in the Dispensation of Israel, Age of Law, was given to the Aaronic priests (Ex. 28).
   b. Judges enjoyed sacrificial privileges (Jdg. 6:24-26).
   c. Prophets enjoyed sacrificial privileges (1st Sam. 7:17; 1st Kgs. 18:30ff.).
   d. Kings enjoyed sacrificial privileges (1st Sam. 13:9,12; 2nd Sam. 6:18; 1st Chr. 16:2; 1st Kgs. 8:62,63), but King Saul was wrong for disobeying the prophetic instructions of Samuel (1st Sam. 10:8; 13:13), and King Uzziah was wrong for intruding into the Holy Place (2nd Sam. 26:16).

3. David blessed the people in the name of YHWH (v.2b).
   a. כְּבָרָckettir barak. to kneel, bless. Used 332x289 vv.
   b. God is the source of all blessings upon man (Gen. 1:28; 12:2; 2nd Sam. 6:11; Job 42:12).
   c. Man’s privilege is to bless God through praise and thanksgiving (Ps. 63:4; 103:1,2).
   d. Men bless other men through the agency of prayer (Gen. 27; 49; Deut. 33; Lk. 2:34; Lev. 9:22; Num. 6:24-26; 1st Sam. 2:20; Col. 1:9-14; Heb. 13:20,21).
   e. Food and drink is “blessed” through a prayer of thankfulness to the Lord for His faithful provision (Mt. 26:26; 1st Tim. 4:4,5).
   f. The opposite of blessing is cursing (Gen. 3:14,17; 9:25; 12:3; Ex. 21:17; 22:28; Josh. 9:23).
   g. David provided bread, dates, and raisin cake to all Israel (v.3 cp. 2nd Sam. 6:19).

4. David composes a psalm for this joyous occasion (1st Chr. 16:8-36). This hymn is actually a medley of three other psalms. 1st Chr. 16:8-22 = Ps. 105:1-15. 1st Chr. 16:23-33 = Ps. 96:1b-13a. 1st Chr. 16:34-36 = Ps. 106:1b,1c,47,48.
The Davidic Covenant (2nd Sam. 7:1-29; 1st Chr. 17:1-27)

1. The time frame for this chapter is not entirely clear, but some observations can be made (vv.1,2).
   a. David was established in the house that Hiram built for him (2nd Sam. 5:11).
   b. David was enjoying a time of peace (cf. 2nd Sam. 8:1ff.).
   c. The Ark had remained within a temporary tent (2nd Sam. 6:17).

2. David expressed his desire to build a temple for the Lord (vv.2,3).
   a. He views his living arrangements as superior to the ark’s (v.2).
   b. Nathan supports his desire, as the mind of one who is intimate with the Lord (v.3).

3. The Lord delivered a message to Nathan that night, and prevented David from operating outside His directive will (vv.4-17).
   a. The Word of the Lord came to Nathan, containing two prophetic messages to David (vv.4,5a).
   b. In the first message, the Lord asks two rhetorical questions (vv.5b,7).
      1) Are you the one to build me a house? (v.5b).
      2) Have I ever asked for a house? (v.7).
   c. Although David’s specific prayer-request was not consistent with the will of God, his heart was correctly oriented (1st Kgs. 8:18).
   d. The Lord highlights His ministry among Israel by tabernacling among them (v.6; Jn. 1:14).
   e. In the second message, the Lord goes on to review David’s past & present, and make unconditional promises regarding David’s future (vv.8-17).
      1) God promoted David from shepherd to king (v.8).
      2) God granted David every military victory he ever achieved (v.9a).
      3) God promises to lift up David’s memory as one of the greatest human rulers in the history of the world (v.9b).
      4) God promises peace to Israel in their own land (vv.10,11a).
      5) God promises that this land will be ruled by the eternal house of David (vv.11b-16).
         a) David’s days will be complete, and he will die a physical death (v.12a).
         b) God will lift up an as-yet unborn son (v.12b). Solomon is the immediate fulfillment, but in some respect, an even greater fulfillment is found in Christ.
            1) This son (Solomon) will build a temple (v.13).
            2) This son (Solomon) will enjoy God the Father’s direct ministry in his life (v.14a).
            3) This son (Solomon) will commit iniquity, and be disciplined by the Lord (v.14b).
            4) This son (Solomon) will not have his throne removed (v.15).
      6) God promises David’s house, kingdom, and throne will endure forever (v.16).

Note: The promised Seed of the Woman is now traced from Shem (Gn. 9:26), to Abraham (Gn. 12:3), to Isaac (Gn. 26:4), to Jacob/Israel (Gn. 28:14), to Judah (Gn. 49:8-12), to David (2nd Sam. 7:12).

Note: David understood that his descendant would be God Himself (Ps. 2; 110).

Note: The prophets after David confirmed the message (Isa. 9:1-7).

4. David responds to the Lord’s message with humility, thankfulness, and praise (vv.18-29).
   a. David’s humility is seen in the question, “Who am I?” (v.18; 1st Sam. 18:18).
   b. David recognizes God’s sovereignty, and God’s grace (v.21).
   c. David is amazed that God would reveal Himself in such a way (v.21b).
   d. David is confident in claiming prayer promises, because God is faithful to fulfill His promises (vv.25-28).
David Triumphs over the Gentile Nations (2nd Sam. 8:1-18)

1. David sought the Lord’s will, and rejoiced in what the Lord granted (2nd Sam. 7).
   a. David was not to be a King of Peace until the end of his life, and thus would not be permitted to build the temple (1st Kgs. 5:3,4; 8:16-19).
   b. The Lord had provided previous military victories (2nd Sam. 7:9).
   c. The Lord will continue to do so (2nd Sam. 7:9,11).

2. After the brief rest from warfare, David returned to his work-assignment (2nd Sam. 7:1; 8:1ff).
   a. Philistines (8:1).
   b. Moabites (8:2).
   c. Zobah (8:3,4,7,8).

   b. Tasting God’s kindness produces a hunger for God’s Word (1st Pet. 2:2,3).
   c. The yoke of Jesus Christ is kind (Matt. 11:30).
Hanun’s Insult (2nd Sam. 10:1-19)

1. Nahash, King of the Ammonites died, and was succeeded by his son, Hanun (2nd Sam. 10:1,2).
   a. Nahash had been an enemy of Israel, and was thoroughly defeated by Saul (1st Sam. 11).
   b. The Ammonites continued to be hostile during the reign of Saul (1st Sam. 14:47).
   c. David, likewise, at some point took military action against some Ammonites (2nd Sam. 8:12).
   d. Nahash showed David a kindness at some unspecified time (2nd Sam. 10:2).
   e. Nahash נָחָשׁ nachash #5176: serpent (same as #5175).
   f. Hanun. חָנוּן chanuwn #2586: gracious (from חָנַן chanan #2603).

2. David was motivated to show kindness to Hanun (2nd Sam. 10:2a).

3. The Ammonite princes convinced Hanun that David’s servants were in fact spies (2nd Sam. 10:2,3).

4. Hanun expelled David’s servants with tremendous insult (2nd Sam. 10:4,5; Isa. 50:6).

5. David’s servants crossed the Jordan back into Israel, but would not proceed any further than Jericho because of their shame (2nd Sam. 10:5). David’s understanding of their shame provided for their extended stay in that location.

6. The Ammonites recognized that Hanun’s actions were a declaration of war, and hastily purchased the assistance of the Arameans (2nd Sam. 10:6). Some of these Arameans (i.e. Zobah) had previously been defeated by David (2nd Sam. 8).

7. David responds to the Ammonite insult, and the Aramean rebellion, by sending the army, under Joab, and the “Mighty Men” special forces, under Abishai (2nd Sam. 10:7).
   a. This is evidently a punitive strike, and not a war of conquest.
   b. Thus, David does not lead the forces, but delegates it to his General of the Army (Joab, 2nd Sam. 8:16), and the Commanding General of the “Mighty Men” Special Forces Division (Abishai, 2nd Sam. 23:18,19).
   c. This event is possibly a winter military operation, and would need to be followed up by a spring-time offensive (2nd Sam. 11:1).

8. The Ammonites established a defensive position in front of their city, while their hired allies were positioned to strike Israel’s rear (2nd Sam. 10:8).

9. Joab observed the trap, and divided the forces accordingly (2nd Sam. 10:9-12).
   a. Joab kept a “select” group of “choice men” for himself, and engaged the Aramean trap (v.9).
   b. Abishai kept the main body of the army, and engaged the Ammonite defensive (v.10).
   c. The division of forces was designed so that if one group needed help, the other group could provide it (vv.11,12).

10. As the battle engaged, the Arameans and the Ammonites fled the field (2nd Sam. 10:13,14).
    a. The Arameans fled before Joab (v.13).
    b. The Ammonites retreated to their city (v.14a).
    c. Joab directed the expedition to return to Jerusalem (v.14b).

11. The Arameans gathered additional forces, and staged an invasion of Israel (2nd Sam. 10:15,16).
    a. Perhaps they were encouraged by Joab’s lack of pursuit.
    b. Perhaps they viewed this as an opportunity for revenge.
    c. Hadadezer rallied the various Aramean forces at Helam, and placed Shobach in command (v.16).

12. David musters the active and reserve components of Israel’s military, and personally leads them into battle (2nd Sam. 10:17-19).
    a. He gathered “all Israel.” Not just the (active duty) army, as in v.7.
    b. He defeated the Arameans in a crushing defeat, with no retreat permitted.
    c. He subjugated them to service as terms for their surrender.
David & Bathsheba (2nd Sam. 11:1-27)

1. David made the decision to not lead his nation to war against the Ammonites (2nd Sam. 11:1).

2. David pursued an exhausting night-life, and a slothful daytime existence (2nd Sam. 11:2a; Prov. 6:9-11; Rom. 13:11-14).

3. David’s evening walk was not sinful, but his mental attitude certainly was (2nd Sam. 11:2b; Matt. 5:28; Jms. 1:15).

4. David’s inquiry in itself was not sinful, but his polygamy has destroyed any capacity he might have had for temporal-life marital blessings (2nd Sam. 11:3a; 12:2&3).

5. Bathsheba
   a. בַּת־שֶׁבַע bath-sheba': daughter of an oath. בָּת bath #1323: daughter. שֹׁבַי shaba': #7630: to swear, adjure (Gen. 21:23,24,31).
   b. בַּת־שׁוּעַ bath-shua #1340: daughter of wealth (1st Chr. 3:5). Judah’s wife was also named Bath-shua (1st Chr. 2:3).
   c. Eliam. אֱלִיעָם eliy'am #463: God of the people. One of David’s mighty men (2nd Sam. 23:34), and the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite (2nd Sam. 15:12,31; 16:23; 17:23).
   d. Uriah the Hittite. אוּרִיָּה uwriyyah #223: YHWH is my light. Also one of David’s mighty men (2nd Sam. 23:39).

6. David sent messengers and brought her into his house (“took her”) (2nd Sam. 11:4a).

7. Bathsheba came to him and lay with him after her menstrual purification (2nd Sam. 11:4b).
   a. The purification was the purification of the menstrual impurity before sexual activity could occur (Lev. 15:19ff.; 18:19).
   b. The purification was not the purification of the sexual impurity after the adultery (Lev. 15:18).
   c. It is possible that during this time David made an oath to Bathsheba concerning her son’s right to the throne (1st Kgs. 1:13,17,28-30). It is also possible that this oath did not come until the “comfort” David offered her (2nd Sam. 12:24).

8. God “rewards” David’s adultery with a child that would not live beyond one week (2nd Sam. 11:5; Ps. 127:3; 139:16; Job 14:5; 2nd Sam. 12:15-23).

9. David takes the “bad” news from Bathsheba, and responds in a carnal manner (2nd Sam. 11:6).

10. David makes two attempts to make Uriah think he was the father of Bathsheba’s child (2nd Sam. 11:8,13).
    a. Uriah sleeps with the servants who arranged for his own wife’s adultery (2nd Sam. 11:9).
    b. These servants aid David by notifying him of Uriah’s uncooperation (2nd Sam. 11:10).

11. Uriah exhibits his character and godliness in his desire to remain ritually pure before the Lord (Ex. 19:15; 1st Sam. 21:4,5). Some scholars speculate that Uriah learned of Bathsheba’s adultery, and deliberately remained in the presence of witnesses.

12. When the lie cannot be manufactured, the murder must be achieved (2nd Sam. 11:14,15).
    a. Joab immediately acts upon David’s written instructions, and arranges the murder of Uriah (2nd Sam. 11:16,17).
    b. Joab reports to David “mission successful” (2nd Sam. 11:18-25).

13. Bathsheba mourned for the loss of Uriah, and married David immediately thereafter (2nd Sam. 11:26,27; Gen. 50:10; Deut. 34:8; 1st Sam. 31:13).
Adultery

I. Introduction & Definitions
A. English: voluntary sexual intercourse between a married man and someone other than his wife or between a married woman and someone other than her husband.
   1. By definition pre-marital sexual activity is not considered adultery, but is treated under the more broad category of fornication.
   2. By revelation mental-attitude consideration of the physical activity is considered as the equivalent of the physical activity (Matt. 5:27,28).
B. Hebrew:
   1. נָאַף na`aph #5003: to commit adultery (Used 31x23vv.; Ex. 20:14).
   2. נִאֻפִים ni`uphiym #5004: adulteries (Jer. 13:27; Ezek. 23:43).
   3. נַאֲפוּפִים na`aphu`phiy #5005: adultery (Hos. 2:2).
C. Greek:
   1. µοιχός moichos #3432: an adulterer.
   2. µοιχέω moicheuo #3431: to commit adultery
   3. µοιχάω moichao #3429: to commit adultery.
   4. µοιχαλίς moichalis #3428: adulteress.
   5. µοιχεία moicheia #3430: adultery.
D. Spiritual Adultery is defined as a believer who violates his marriage to Christ, and is spiritually unfaithful to Him. This is revealed in Scripture by the metaphorical uses of נָאַף and µοιχεία.

II. Physical Adultery
A. Forbidden under Mosaic Law (Ex. 20:14). נָאַף לֹא.
B. Punishable by death—for the adulterer and the adulteress (Lev. 20:10). Even if he is not caught by man, God is the judge (Heb. 13:4).
C. Leads to personal ruin before the required death (Prov. 6:32-35).
D. Begins in secrecy and shame (Job 24:15), but becomes a matter for self-justification (Prov. 30:20).
E. Physical adultery begins with Mental-Attitude Adultery (Matt. 5:27,28).
F. Adultery violates the command to Love (Rom. 13:8-10; 1 Cor. 13:4-7).
G. Mental-Attitude Adultery produces eyes “full of adultery” which can never be satisfied (2nd Pet. 2:14).
H. As with any sin, the solution to adultery is repentance and confession (2nd Sam. 12; Ps. 51; 1st Jn. 1:9).

III. Spiritual Adultery
A. Israel was guilty of Spiritual Adultery against the Lord (Jer. 3:8,9; Ezek. 16:32).
   1. Therefore, God issued her a writ of divorce (Jer. 3:8).
   2. Judah did not learn from Israel’s failure, and is reckoned as worse (Jer. 3:10,11).
B. Hosea’s marriage to Gomer was designed by God to teach this important principle (Hosea).
C. As the Church is the espoused, virgin bride of Christ, any devotion by us to anybody or anything other than Christ is Spiritual Adultery (Eph. 5:25-27).
D. God considers worldliness to be Spiritual Adultery (Jms. 4:4).
E. Spiritual Adultery can run rampant within a local church (Rev. 2:22).
F. As in the case of Physical Adultery, the remedy for Spiritual Adultery is repentance and confession (1st Jn. 1:9; Rev. 2:21).
Nathan Rebukes David (2nd Sam. 12:1-31)

1. The Lord dispatched Nathan the Prophet to deliver the message of Divine judgment to King David (2nd Sam. 12:1-15a).
   a. Nathan had previously been consulted by David when David desired to build a temple (2nd Sam. 7:1-17).
   b. Nathan begins the message with a parable (vv. 1-4).
   c. The parable incites David to anger (vv.5,6).
   d. Nathan’s indictment is then irrefutable and unarguable (vv.7-9).
   e. The Lord’s Divine discipline is spelled out (vv.10-12).
      1) David’s house would continually be in need of their military (v.10).
      2) David would have his worst enemies from his own household (v.11; Mic. 7:6; Mt. 10:36).
      3) David’s concubines will be sexually mistreated as consequences for David’s sexual misconduct (v.11,12).
   f. David responds to the Divine judgment with immediate and total repentance and confession (2nd Sam. 12:13,14).
      1) He was on the verge of the Sin Unto Death (v.13).
      2) The child of adultery must die (v.14).

2. The Lord inflicted His judgment upon David just as He had communicated through Nathan (2nd Sam. 12:15b,18a).

P= Repentance at the point of Divine judgment does not prevent the execution of Divine discipline (Gal. 6:7). Continued repentance and humility through the Divine discipline will turn that cursing into blessing (Heb. 12:11).

   a. The child was chosen for this work-assignment before he was even born (2nd Sam. 12:14; Rom. 9:11).
   b. The child is taken to heaven under the Doctrine of the Age of Accountability (2nd Sam. 12:23).

3. David responded to his Divine discipline, as he did to the Divine judgment, with continued humility and genuine repentance (2nd Sam. 12:16-23).
   a. David “inquired of God” on behalf of the child (v.16a).
   b. He fasted and prayed, day and night, throughout the child’s week-long sickness (vv.16b-18).
   c. He accepted the will of God when his prayer requests were not granted (vv.19-23).

P= God’s answers to prayer, and God’s Divine dealings, are always cause for worship, whether those answers are “yes” or “no,” and whether those Divine dealings are good or bad (2nd Sam. 12:20; Job 1:20; 2:10).

4. David has the work assignment to comfort Bathsheba through the endurance of Divine discipline (2nd Sam. 12:24a).

5. The Lord turns cursing into blessing, and rewards the repentance of David & Bathsheba (2nd Sam. 12:24b,25).
   a. The Lord loved the infant Solomon (v.24).
   b. The Lord renamed him Jedidiah, a spiritual name that Solomon will never live up to (v.25).

6. Joab finishes the war that David should have been fighting, and gives David the glory (2nd Sam. 12:26-31). David’s enslavement of these Ammonites is unusual for a Davidic conquest, but perhaps ordered by the Lord because of Ammon’s great evil (Am. 1:13).
Confession of Sin
Developed from Psalm 51

1. Confession of Sin is based entirely upon His grace (v.1).
   a. Be gracious. Qal.imper. חָנַן chanan #2603: be gracious, show favor. חֵן chen #2580: grace, favour. Hannah = “grace.”
   c. Compassion. רַחַם racham #7356: mercy, compassion.
   d. Blot out. מָחָה machah #4229: to wipe, wipe out, blot out, exterminate (vv.1,9).

2. Confession of sin is a cleansing process (vv.2,7).
   a. It is a work of God’s.
   b. It is accomplished only upon man’s initiation through prayer.
   c. It is thorough.

3. Unconfessed sin remains as a focus of our spiritual attention (v.3).

4. Sin is an offense against God, the Righteous Judge (v.4).
   a. Sin is not against man, as man is not the source of the absolute standard of righteousness.
   b. Human offense is a related, but independent issue, so far as our sins against God also have impact in the lives of other people (Acts 24:16; 1Cor. 10:32).
   c. Confession, then, must be given to God; and Restitution & Reconciliation are matters for human relationships (Rom 12:18; 14:19).
   d. Public confession is only valid in the corporate prayer meetings of a local church, under the shepherding leadership of the church elders (Jms. 3:14-16).

5. Inherent sin is the lost estate of fallen humanity (v.5).

6. Implanting Truth in the soul is God’s process of transforming the believer, and seeing that the sin does not repeat itself (v.6; Jms. 1:21; Rom. 12:2).

7. Confession is the only means for the believer to return to the fruit of the Spirit—joy (vv.8,12; Gal. 5:22).

8. The believer who is cleansed is useful for God’s service in teaching others (vv.10-13; 2nd Tim. 2:21-26).

9. The believer who is cleansed is useful for God’s service in praising God (vv.14,15).

10. Confession cannot be an empty, mechanical, external ritual. It must be the genuine, repentant, internal reality (vv.16,17).

11. The believer who is cleansed is useful for God’s service in furthering the dispensational work of God (vv.18,19).
   a. David’s prayer highlighted the future glory of Zion and Jerusalem.
   b. For the Church Age believer, confession allows for the believer to function in his role within the Body of Christ (1st Pet. 2:5; Eph. 2:21).
David’s Family Woes Begin (2nd Samuel 13:1-39)

1. Absalom the son of David (2nd Sam. 13:1).
   a. Absalom: my father is peace. #550: peace. #4601: to press, squeeze.
      ma’akah #4601. #157: to love (Gen. 22:2; 24:67; 25:28a; 34:3; Lev. 19:18).
2. Tamar. #8559: palm tree. Three OT females share this name: The daughter-in-law of Judah, mother of Perez & Zerah (Gen. 38:29,30); the sister of Absalom (2nd Sam. 13); a daughter of Absalom (2nd Sam. 14:27), whom some scholars identify with Maacah, the wife of Rehoboam (1st Kgs. 15:2).
3. Amnon. “Faithful.” amn = #550. #539: to confirm, support. First-born son of David, to Ahinoam the Jezreelitess (1st Sam. 25:43; 2nd Sam. 3:2).
4. Amnon’s mental-attitude toward Tamar (2nd Sam. 13:1,2).
   a. He loved her (2nd Sam. 13:1,4). #157: to love (Gen. 22:2; 24:67; 25:28a; 34:3; Lev. 19:18).
   b. He was frustrated (2nd Sam. 13:2). tsarar #4687: to be found, tied up, pressed, in distress.
   c. He made himself ill (2nd Sam. 13:2). hithpael infinitive construct of הִתְחַלּוֹת chalah #2470: to be, or become sick, weak. Hithpael: to make oneself sick. This form accounts for 1.4% of the verbs parsed.
   d. She was a virgin (2nd Sam. 13:2). #3308: virgin, maid. Not the virgin prophesied in Isa. 7:14 (בָּהַלָּה בֶּתֶּוּלָה = almah #5959: virgin, young woman).
5. Jonadab. “Jehovah is willing” yehownadab #3082 fr. נָדַב nadab #5068: to make willing, impel, volunteer.
   a. A cousin of Ammon’s, being the son of David’s brother, Shimeah (2nd Sam. 13:3).
   b. The crafty, and less heroic, brother of Jonathan (2nd Sam. 21:21).
   c. A very shrewd man. #1330: shrewd. Crafty and shrewd with the world’s wisdom, not God’s.
6. Jonadab suggests a course of action for Amnon to follow: feign illness, and lure Tamar into your home (2nd Sam. 13:4,5).
7. Amnon follows Jonadab’s advice, and asks David’s permission for Tamar to come to him (2nd Sam. 13:6,7).
   a. Amnon arranges for her to be in his house (2nd Sam. 13:8).
   b. Amnon arranges for them to be alone (2nd Sam. 13:9).
   c. Amnon arranges for them to be in the bedroom (2nd Sam. 13:10).
8. Having made provision for the flesh with regard to its lusts, Amnon rapes his half-sister (2nd Sam. 13:11-14).
   a. He asked first for her to voluntarily participate (2nd Sam. 13:11).
   b. Tamar refuses, as she understands the activity is not right in the eyes of God (2nd Sam. 13:12,13a).
   c. Tamar is willing to marry Amnon, but not to have sex prior to marriage (2nd Sam. 13:13b).
9. After the rape, Amnon’s mental attitude sin of lust was transformed into the mental attitude sin of hatred (2nd Sam. 13:15-19).
10. Absalom finds out about the rape, and begins to plot his own evil.
    a. He instructs Tamar to keep the matter quiet, usurping David’s authority (2nd Sam. 13:20a).
    b. He takes Tamar into his own house, again usurping David’s authority (2nd Sam. 13:20b).
    c. He began a two year long scheme for revenge (2nd Sam. 13:22,23).
11. David, meanwhile, hears the news, and has no options, but to get angry (at himself, perhaps?) (2nd Sam. 13:21).
    a. He invites King David, and the King’s entire house (2nd Sam. 13:24).
    b. When David declines, he requests that the crown-prince attend (2nd Sam. 13:25-27).
    c. Absalom arranges for his servants to assassinate Amnon in full view of all the kings sons (2nd Sam. 13:28,29 cf.
       1st Chr. 3:1-9 for a list of David’s sons).
13. David receives the first report from Baal-hazor, that Absalom has slain all the king’s sons (2nd Sam. 13:30).
   a. David and his servants tear their clothes in grief and mourning, praying to the Lord (2nd Sam. 13:31).
   b. Jonadab “encourages” David by assuring him that only Amnon is dead, as revenge for Amnon’s rape of Tamar (2nd Sam. 13:32-36).
14. As a consequence to his murder of Amnon, Absalom flees to Talmai, King of Geshur (his maternal grandfather, 2nd Sam. 3:3), and lives there in exile for three years (2nd Sam. 13:37,38).
15. David’s heart, as a father, was to go out to see Absalom, but David the king could not do such a thing (2nd Sam. 13:39).
16. David’s sexual offense followed by murder has now reaped evil in his own family—a sexual offense followed by murder (2nd Sam. 12:11).
Vengeance & Revenge

I. Introduction & Definition

A. Vengeance: [Middle English, from Old French, from vengier to avenge, from Latin vindicare to lay claim to, avenge—more at VINDICATE] (14th century) punishment inflicted in retaliation for an injury or offense: RETRIBUTION.

B. Revenge: [Middle French revenge, revenche, from revengier, revenschier to revenge] (circa 1547) 1: a desire for revenge; 2: an act or instance of retaliating in order to get even; 3: an opportunity for getting satisfaction.

C. Vindicate: [Latin vindicatus, past participle of vindicare to lay claim to, avenge, from vindic-, vindex claimant, avenger] (1570) 1: obsolete: to set free: DELIVER; 2: AVENGE; 3a: to free from allegation or blame; 3b (1): CONFIRM, SUBSTANTIATE; 3b (2): to provide justification or defense for: JUSTIFY; 3c: to protect from attack or encroachment: DEFEND; 4: to maintain a right to.

D. נָקַם naqam: to avenge, take vengeance (Gen. 4:15,24; Lev. 19:18; Deut. 32:42). נָקָם naqam & נְקָמָה niqmah: vengeance (Deut. 32:35,41,43; Isa. 34:8).

G. ἀποδίδω apodidomi & ἀνταποδίδω antapodidomi: to pay back, recompense (Matt. 6:4,6,18; 16:27; 20:8; Rom. 12:17,19; 2nd Thess. 1:6; Heb. 10:30).

II. Development & Application—The Vengeance of God

A. Vengeance belongs to God (Deut 32:35).

1. This is an application of His righteous nature (Isa. 59:17; Jer. 11:20; Nah. 1:2ff.).

2. This is a part of His care over His children (Jer. 11:18-23; Lam. 3:58-66; Lk. 18:7ff.).

B. Vengeance on God’s part was considered to be the evidence of His zeal in His just dealings with Israel and the nations according to His covenant (Lev. 26:25; Deut. 32:41-43; Isa. 59:15b-18).

C. God sometimes uses men as agents of His vengeance (Num. 35:1ff.; Josh. 10:12-14; Jdg. 11:36; Jer. 51:11) and even commissions them to act thus (Num. 35:9-34; 2nd Kgs. 9:1-10; Jer. 50:14-15).

D. Secular authority, under God’s delegated authority, has the right to take vengeance (Rom. 13:4; Gen 9:5ff.).

1. This right is exercised by kings (1st Sam. 14:24).

2. This right is exercised by nations (Est. 8:13).

3. This right is exercised by individuals (Jdg 16:28).

4. However, vengeance maliciously executed brings retribution (Ezk. 25:12–17).

E. Sin brings God’s vengeance (Jer. 5:7-9,25-29; 9:8ff.).

1. The Lord provides warnings concerning His vengeance (Lev. 26:23-25; Deut. 32:41,43).

2. The Lord fulfills His promised vengeance.

a. In time (Ps. 99:8; Nah. 1:2-8; Lk. 21:22).

b. In eternity (Jer. 20:10-12; 2nd Thess. 1:8; Jude 7).

F. God’s vengeance is distributed equally (Ps. 17:8; Jer. 50:15,28ff.) or in larger measure (Gen. 4:15,24; Rev. 18:6).

III. Men are forbidden to take vengeance with a vindictive or revengeful motive (Lev. 19:18; Rom. 12:19; Heb. 10:30).

A. Sometimes this prohibition is disobeyed (Jdg. 15:7 f.).

B. Disobedience brings judgment (2nd Sam. 4:8–12; Ezek. 25:12–17).

C. The righteous cry out to God for Him to execute His vengeance (1st Sam. 24:12; Ps. 94:1-10; Jer. 15:15; 20:10-12; Rev. 6:9ff.).
   1. God’s vengeance is a cause for rejoicing (Deut. 32:43; Ps. 58:10ff.; 149:5-9; Jer. 20:12ff.).
   2. God’s vengeance is a cause for courage (Isa. 35:3ff.; 61:2).
David’s Prodigal Son Returns (2nd Sam. 14:1-33)
1. Joab recognized the conflict in David’s heart (2nd Sam. 14:1).
   a. His heart was inclined to Absalom (2nd Sam. 14:1).
      P= Personal, emotional attachments will cloud a believer’s judgment.
   b. Justice required Absalom’s execution (Ex. 21:12-14).  P= God’s absolute standard of right and wrong cannot be modified because of personal favoritism (Jms. 2:1).
   c. Joab was also a murderer (2nd Sam. 3:26-30), and yet one on whom David failed to administer justice (2nd Sam. 3:39; 1st Kgs. 2:5,6).  P= Compromise in one instance will lead to compromise in later instances.
   d. Joab was also an accomplice to David’s murder of Uriah (2nd Sam. 11:15-18).  P= Associations with evil indebted believers to further participation with evil.
2. Joab organizes a deception to imitate Nathan’s prophetic parable (2nd Sam. 14:2-20; cf. 12:1-14).
   a. Nathan has no advisory role in the recall of Absalom (2nd Sam. 14).
      1) Nathan announced David’s upcoming Divine discipline (2nd Sam. 12:1).
      2) Nathan had no advisory role in the trouble with Amnon (2nd Sam. 13).
      3) Nathan does not reappear until the disputed succession of Solomon (1st Kgs. 1:11).
   b. Joab utilized a wise woman from Tekoa to trick David into pardoning Absalom.  Though similar to Nathan’s parable/rebuke, this stratagem is achieved through human means by human motives, and accomplishes a human result.
3. David consents to Absalom’s return to Israel, but for two years does not consent to Absalom’s restoration to fellowship in the King’s court (2nd Sam. 14:21-24).
4. Absalom is described, and every external indication is that he is the perfect successor to David (2nd Sam. 14:25-27), except for the fact that he is banned from David’s court (2nd Sam. 14:28-33).

Absalom’s Rebellion (2nd Sam. 15:1-37)
1. Absalom undertook a four year program to usurp King David’s authority, and esteem in the eyes of Israel (2nd Sam. 15:1-6).
   a. He instituted his own private military force (v.1).
   b. He infiltrated David’s judicial process (vv.2,3).
   c. He promoted his own personal loyalty in the minds of Israel (v.4).
   d. He developed personal attachments in the hearts of Israel (vv.5,6).
2. When the time was ripe, Absalom unveiled himself in Hebron, and proclaimed himself King (2nd Sam. 15:7-12).
   a. Hebron gives him the legitimacy of the elders of Judah (2nd Sam. 15:10).
   b. The men of Jerusalem went innocently to Hebron, and are either won over to Absalom’s cause, or held as hostages in Absalom’s upcoming march to the capital (2nd Sam. 15:11).
   c. Ahithophel’s alliance in the conspiracy enables the matter to succeed (2nd Sam. 15:12,30,31; cf. 16:23).
      1) Ahithophel was the father of Eliab (2nd Sam. 23:34).
      2) Ahithophel was the grandfather of Bathsheba (2nd Sam. 11:3).
3. When David hears of the coup d’état, he orders an immediate evacuation (2nd Sam. 15:13-37).
   a. David evacuates with his household, but leaves ten concubines to manage the estate (2nd Sam. 15:16).
   b. David tries to dismiss his bodyguard and bequeath them to Absalom (2nd Sam. 15:19-22).
   c. David does dismiss Zadok, Abiathar, and the priesthood to return with the ark of the covenant (2nd Sam. 15:24-29).
   d. David also dismisses Hushai the Archite to counteract Ahithophel’s counsel, and form a counter-conspiracy with Zadok & Abiathar (2nd Sam. 15:30-37).
Stinking

I. Introduction & Definition
A. כָּשׁבָּ ba’ash 𢭲 ̆: (Qal) to have a bad smell, stink, smell bad (Gen. 34:30; Ex. 5:21; 7:18,21; 8:14; 16:20,24; 1st Sam. 13:4; 27:12; 2nd Sam. 10:6; 16:21; 1st Chr. 19:6; Ps. 38:5; Prov. 13:5; Ecc. 10:1; Isa. 50:2). Aram. בְּאֵשׁ be’ēsh 𢭷 ̆ (Dan. 6:14).
   1. (Niphal) to become odious, to make oneself odious.
   2. (Hiphil) to cause to stink, (fig.) of wickedness.
   3. (Hithpael) to make oneself odious.
   4. to abhor.
B. כָּאֵשׁ be’osh 𢭳 ̆: stench, foul odour (Isa. 34:3; Joel 2:20; Amos 4:10).
C. Stinking is the aroma of death (Ex. 7:18,21; Ecc. 10:1; Isa. 34:3; Joel 2:20; Am. 4:10).

II. Stinking before Man. People can become absorbed by how they smell to others.
A. Jacob stunk in the nostrils of the Canaanites & Perizzites (Gen. 34:30).
B. Israel stunk in the nostrils of Pharaoh (Ex. 5:21).
C. Israel stunk in the nostrils of the Philistines (1st Sam. 13:4).
D. Achish was under the impression that David stunk in the nostrils of his own people (1st Sam. 27:12).
E. The Ammonites stunk in David’s nostrils (2nd Sam. 10:6; 1st Chr. 19:6).
F. Ahithophel worked to make Absalom stink in David’s nostrils (2nd Sam. 16:21).

III. Stinking before God.
A. Stinking is the result of disobedience (Ex. 16:20).
B. Obedience does not stink! (Ex. 16:24)
C. Divine discipline produces a stink that should motivate a believer to repent (Ps. 38:5).
D. The life of the unbeliever stinks (Prov. 13:5).
E. Stinking can overpower perfume (Ecc. 10:1).

IV. Smelling good before God & bad before man.
A. Our God is a loving God, Who speaks to us, sees our needs, hears our prayers, and smells our aroma (Ps. 115:6).
B. Our aroma is either pleasing or displeasing (2nd Cor. 2:15,16). To the unbelievers who are perishing, our aroma is a displeasing aroma of death!
   1. Growing in grace and knowledge is a fragrant aroma (2nd Cor. 2:14).
   2. Imitation of Christ is a fragrant aroma (Eph. 5:1,2).
   3. Sacrificial love in service to fellow believers is a fragrant aroma (Phil. 4:18).
   4. Praise & thanksgiving, doing good & sharing are also well-pleasing sacrifices (Heb. 13:15,16).
Betrayal

I. Introduction & Definition

A. English

1. to lead astray, seduce.
2. to deliver to an enemy by treachery.
3. to fail or desert, especially in time of need.
4. to reveal unintentionally; to show, indicate; to disclose in violation of confidence.

B. Hebrew

1. בָּגַד bagad †898: to act or deal treacherously (Ex. 21:8; Jdg. 9:23; Prov. 11:3,6; Isa. 21:2).
2. רָמָה ramah †7411: (piel) to beguile, mislead, mistreat, betray (Gen. 29:25; Josh. 9:22; 1st Sam. 19:17; 28:12; Prov. 26:19; 1st Chr. 12:17).

C. Greek

1. παραδίδω παράδοσις †3860: to give over, deliver. to deliver up treacherously, betray. παράδοσις †3862: n. a giving over.
2. προδίδω προδότης †4272: to give before, betray.
4. προδότης †4273: n. betrayer, traitor.

II. Development & Application—the betrayal of David by Ahithophel.

A. The narrative text (2nd Sam. 15:12,31,34; 16:15,20-23; 17:1,23).

1. Ahithophel the Gilonite was David’s counselor (2nd Sam. 15:12). יְלַשְׁנֵי yow’ets †3289: to advise, give counsel, counsellor. As David credits the Lord (Ps. 16:7; 32:8) for his counsel, we understand Ahithophel to be a wise older believer (2nd Sam. 15:12), used by the Lord for David’s blessing (2nd Sam. 16:23). (See below, in Ps. 55).

2. Ahithophel the Gilonite was the father of Eliam (2nd Sam. 23:34), and grandfather of Bathsheba (2nd Sam. 11:3). Thus, the defilement of Bathsheba is perhaps the earthly motivation for the Satanic betrayal of David.

3. The news of Ahithophel’s participation in Absalom’s rebellion was a tremendous blow to David (2nd Sam. 15:31). David can only turn Ahithophel over to the Lord at this point.

4. David is provided with a “friend” who is able to thwart the counsel of Ahithophel (2nd Sam. 15:34; 17:1-23).

5. When Ahithophel becomes aware that his plot has failed, he commits suicide by hanging himself (2nd Sam. 17:23).

B. The Psalms (Ps. 41:9; 55:12-14,21).

1. David understood that the conspiracy against him was a part of God’s Divine discipline, and a part of his soul’s healing (Ps. 41:4).
2. David has many enemies, but one in particular hurts the most (Ps. 41:5&7 cp. vv.6&8).
3. His close friend in whom he trusted, who ate his bread, is the most difficult betrayer to think about (Ps. 41:9). This verse is cited in the NT as having a fulfillment in Judas Iscariot (Jn. 13:18).
4. The spiritual communion David shared with Ahithophel makes the betrayal so much more difficult (Ps. 55:12-14,21).

III. Development & Application—the betrayal of Christ by Judas.

A. The betrayer of our Savior was “one of the twelve” (Matt. 10:4; 26:14).

B. The betrayer of our Savior was motivated by financial greed (Matt. 26:15; Jn. 12:6). This became the earthly motivation for the Satanic betrayal of Jesus Christ (Lk. 22:3; Jn. 13:2,27; cf. 1st Cor. 2:8).

C. The betrayer of our Savior was opportunistic (Matt. 26:16 cf. Lk. 4:13; 22:6).

D. David had a friend who was able to thwart the betrayer. Jesus called his betrayer “friend” (Matt. 26:50).

E. Unlike Ahithophel, the conspiracy that Judas participated in worked as designed. When Judas saw that his conspiracy worked, he became only the second person in all the Bible to hang himself (Matt. 27:3-5).
IV. Summary & Conclusion—the betrayal of believers (Jer. 20:10-13; Mic. 7:5,6; Matt. 10:16-20; 2nd Tim. 3:4).

A. When the faithful believer is betrayed by his friends, the Lord becomes his dread champion (Jer. 20:10-13).

B. The world system is so untrustworthy that even a man’s own household contains potential betrayers (Mic. 7:5,6). This is particularly applicable during the Church Age (Matt. 10:35,36; 2nd Tim. 3:4).

C. Betrayal is to be expected as we are sheep in the midst of wolves. However, believers should be encouraged that the event of their betrayal is the open-door opportunity for the Holy Spirit to witness for Christ through the persecuted child of God (Matt. 10:16-20).
Absalom’s Arrival in Jerusalem  (2nd Sam. 16:1-23)

1. David encountered two more adversaries on his way out of Israel (2nd Sam. 16:1-14).
   a. One (Ziba) professed loyalty (2nd Sam. 16:1-4).
   b. The other (Shimei) cursed his name (2nd Sam. 16:5-14).

2. Ziba.
   a. צִיבָא tsiyba’ #6717: statue.
   b. First mentioned in a favorable light as a servant of King Saul’s who serves to administer Mephibosheth’s estate (2nd Sam. 9:3,4,9-11).
   c. Appears the second time to assist David’s flight from Jerusalem, informing David of Mephibosheth’s alleged treason against the King (2nd Sam. 16:1-4).
   d. Appears the third time to assist David’s return to Jerusalem (2nd Sam. 19:17,18a), at which time Mephibosheth’s loyalty is demonstrated (2nd Sam. 19:24-30).

3. Shimei.
   a. שִׁמְעִי shim’iy #8096: renowned.
   b. A Benjamite who has held a grudge against David for years, as he bore resentment for God’s discipline of the house of Saul.
   c. He calls David a man of bloodshed, and a Belial (2nd Sam. 16:7).
      1) God agrees with the man of bloodshed epithet (1st Chr. 22:8-10).
      2) The term “man of Belial” or man of worthlessness is not fitting for David. אִישׁ הַבְּלִיָּעַל (2nd Cor. 6:15).
   d. David’s dealings with Shimei are made even more difficult by the two sons of his sister (2nd Sam. 16:9). 1,000 years later, Christ’s ministry will be made even more difficult by the two sons of his mother’s sister (Lk. 9:54-56).
   e. David’s mental attitude regarding Shimei’s slander is instructive for believers today (2nd Sam. 16:10b-14; Matt. 5:11,12).

4. Absalom falls victim to flattery & deceit by David’s friend Hushai (2nd Sam. 16:15-19).

5. Absalom secures his throne by means of an evil practice common in the ancient oriental world (2nd Sam. 16:20-23).
   a. Possession of the King’s harem was indicative of heirship and gave legitimacy to potential rulers (Gen. 35:22 cf. 49:3,4; 2nd Sam. 3:7; 16:22 cf. 20:3; 1st Kgs. 2:13-25). Evil rulers considered the wives of their predecessors to be a part of their plunder.
   b. Provision for the King’s harem was God’s protection of them (2nd Sam. 12:8). Godly rulers considered the wives of their predecessors to be a part of their responsibility.
   c. Behind all of this was God the Father’s Divine discipline upon David (2nd Sam. 12:12).
Absalom’s Bad Decision (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:1-29)

1. Ahithophel offered a plan for the decisive victory over David (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:1-4).
   a. Ahithophel’s plan correctly recognized David’s exhaustion, and the tentative support for him remaining among his followers.
   b. Ahithophel’s plan correctly recognized the key role of David’s death in the success or failure of Absalom’s coup d’état.
   c. Ahithophel’s plan was universally accepted.

2. Hushai offered an alternative plan for action against David (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:5-13).
   a. Hushai’s plan begins with Absalom’s greatest insecurity—David’s military reputation (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:8-10).
   b. Hushai’s plan overcomes Absalom’s greatest insecurity with worldly logic—guaranteed victory through numerical superiority (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:11-13).
   c. Hushai’s plan has one important difference from Ahithophel’s.
      1) Ahithopel’s plan had Ahithophel killing David and giving the kingdom to Absalom (vv.2,3).
      2) Hushai’s plan had Absalom leading the battle personally and taking the kingdom for himself (v.11).

3. God the Father’s sovereign plan determined that the options presented would be crafted in such a way as to bring about Absalom’s volitional decision (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:14).

4. David’s underground intelligence network was then placed into motion in order to warn David of Absalom’s plan (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:15-22).

5. Although events had not totally played out yet, Ahithophel understood that Absalom’s rebellion was finished (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:23).

6. David successfully escapes, even as Absalom organizes the united armies of Israel for the campaign against him (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:24-29).
   a. Amasa the son of Jether the Ishmaelite (Ithra the Israelite).
   b. 1\textsuperscript{st} Chr. 2:13-17 gives us the family of Jesse.
      1) Jesse was the father of seven sons (Eliab to David). (The eighth son apparently died young).
      2) Their sisters (not Jesse’s daughters) were Zeruiah & Abigail (1\textsuperscript{st} Chr. 2:16).
         a) The father of these girls was Nahash (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:25).
         b) Either Jesse married the widow of Nahash, taking in her two daughters, or Nahash married the widow of Jesse, and fathered two daughters.
         c) Could this be the kindness that Nahash, King of the Ammonites, showed to David? (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 10:2) It is quite likely that he married David’s mother after the death of Jesse.
      3) Zeruiah was the mother of Abishai, Joab, & Asahel.
   4) Abigail was the unwed mother of Amasa, made pregnant by Jether the Ishmaelite (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:25; 1\textsuperscript{st} Chr. 2:17).
   c. David finds assistance at Mahanaim from three supporters (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 17:27-29).
      1) Shobi, the son of Nahash was likely a younger brother of Hanun (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 10:1ff.), and possibly placed on the Ammonite throne by David after the Israel-Ammonite war (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 12:30,31).
      2) Machir, the son of Ammiel in Lo-debar had previously been a blessing to Mephibosheth (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 9:4,5), and now provided a blessing for David.
      3) Barzillai the Gileadite was an older man, whose son will later serve David & Solomon (2\textsuperscript{nd} Sam. 19:31-40).
The Death of Absalom (2nd Sam. 18:1-33)

1. David drew up the military strategy for defeating Absalom’s coming attack (2nd Sam. 18:1-5).
   a. He made sure of their organization and chain of command (v.1).
   b. He made sure of their competent leadership (v.2a).
   c. He accepted the judgment of his followers regarding his own personal safety (vv.2b-4).
   d. He gave strict and certain orders regarding the grace to be shown to Absalom (v.5).

2. Absalom’s forces suffered total defeat (2nd Sam. 18:6-8).
   a. Verses 6&7 describe a series of military actions by David’s forces against Absalom, culminating in a decisive smashing action.
   b. Verse 8 describes the attempted retreat by Absalom’s forces, and how the Lord (through nature) increased the death count on Absalom’s side.

3. “Absalom happened to meet the servants of David” (2nd Sam. 18:9). Others might choose to write “The servants of David happened upon Absalom hanging in a tree.” The author of 2nd Samuel remains consistent in the focus of this portion of the Book being Absalom himself.

4. A certain man saw Absalom’s predicament and reported it to Joab (2nd Sam. 18:10-13).
   a. This man announces his discovery to Joab with a joy that his king’s desire would be fulfilled (v.10).
   b. Joab’s outrage opens the man’s eyes to the treachery that Joab routinely functioned in (vv. 11-13).
   c. This man understood David’s order for gentleness was an order for Absalom’s protection (v.12 cf. v.5).

5. The godless Joab has no time to waste with the godliness of the certain man (2nd Sam. 18:14,15).
   a. He personally tortured Absalom with non-lethal piercings.
   b. His armor bearers completed the murder.

6. With the death of Absalom, Joab signals the end to combat operations (2nd Sam. 18:16).

7. Joab attempted to manipulate the manner in which David received the news of Absalom’s death, but Ahimaaz outran Joab’s messenger (2nd Sam. 18:19-33).
   a. The Cushite is otherwise unknown.
   b. Cushi, as a personal name, may be a reference to Cush, a Benjamite (Ps. 7 prescript).

8. God’s Sovereignty assured the results of this battle.
   a. He is bringing calamity upon Absalom (2nd Sam. 17:14).
   b. The forest killed many of Absalom’s soldiers, but David’s beloved son hung upon a tree.
The Shadow Doctrine of the Substitutionary Atonement

1. David & Absalom form a picture of God the Father and fallen man (2nd Sam. 18:33).
   a. David is referred to as “the King” יְשֵׁלָה.
   b. Absalom אָבְשָׁלוֹם “my Father is peace.”
   c. Absalom is a beloved son, who nonetheless has rebelled against the rule of his father. “My father is peace” has no peace with his father (cf. Col. 1:20,21; Rom. 5:1,2).

2. David does not wish for Absalom to perish (2nd Sam. 18:5), even as God the Father does not wish for any to perish (Ezek. 18:23,32; 1st Tim. 2:4; 2nd Pet. 3:9).

3. Absalom’s murder of Amnon was worthy of death (Gen. 9:5,6; Num. 35:16-21,30-33), as was his abuse of the King’s harem (Lev. 20:10), his rebellion against his father (Lev. 20:9; Deut. 21:18-21), his treason (1st Kgs. 2:22-25; Est. 2:23), and most of all his hostility towards the Lord’s anointed (Ex. 22:28; 1st Sam. 24:6,10; 26:9,11,16,23; 2nd Sam. 1:14,16; Acts 23:5).

4. In spite of all of that, David desired to forgive and restore his son. The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life (Rom. 6:23).

5. David’s heart (after God’s own heart, 1st Sam. 13:14) desired to become a substitutionary sacrifice in place of Absalom (2nd Sam. 18:33).

6. God the Father sent His Son to do Himself what fallen man could not do (Rom. 8:3).

7. Jesus Christ became our substitute (Mk. 10:45; 1st Pet. 3:18; Isa. 53:4-12), so when we are baptized into Christ, we identify with His very death on the cross (Rom. 6:2,3,6).
The Return of the King (2nd Sam. 19:1-43)

1. Joab observes the public opinion reaction to David’s lamentation over Absalom (2nd Sam. 19:1-8a).
   a. David’s grieving produced mourning in the hearts of his own people (vv.2,3).
   b. Joab rebuked David (vv.4-7), and David heeded Joab’s counsel (v.8a).

2. Although many came to David at Mahanaim, some were holding back, afraid of their position after supporting Absalom (2nd Sam. 19:8b-15).
   a. David in grace reached out to them—starting with Judah (vv.11-14).
   b. David even offered Joab’s position to Amasa as a sign of his forgiveness (v.13).

3. The Tribe of Judah were not the only ones nervous about the King’s return.
   a. Shimei had cursed David when David was fleeing (2nd Sam. 16:5-8,13).
      1) He now humbled himself, confessed his sin, and asked for the king’s forgiveness (2nd Sam. 19:16,18-20,23).
      2) David granted that forgiveness during his lifetime, but deferred Shimei’s judgment until after his own death (1st Kgs. 2:8).
   b. Ziba helped David to escape, and slandered the name of Mephibosheth in the process (2nd Sam. 16:1-4). Now Ziba was helping to bring David back, but Mephibosheth had the chance to set the record straight (2nd Sam. 19:24-30).

4. David offered to bless Barzillai greatly, but instead accepted Chimham’s service in Barzillai’s place (2nd Sam. 19:31-40).
   a. Chimham’s brothers joined him later in service to David (likely after Barzillai’s death) (1st Kgs. 2:7).
   b. Chimham received a land-grant near Bethlehem (Jer. 41:17).

5. The 10 northern tribes became jealous of Judah & Benjamin’s closeness to David, and here we find a forshadowing of the future civil war between the divided kingdom (2nd Sam. 19:41-43).

Yet Another Rebellion (2nd Sam. 20:1-26)

1. Although Judah favored a return of David to the national throne, the other tribes of Israel favored a return to Benjamite rule (2nd Sam. 20:1,2).
   a. Sheba, the son of Bichri, led a revolt against the return of David.
   b. שֶׁבַע sheba’ #7652: Sheba, from שֶׁבַע sheba’ #7651: seven.
   c. בִּכְרִי bikriy #1075: youthful.

2. Sheba’s rallying cry (2nd Sam. 20:1b) was not greatly successful in his own rebellion, but it will become successful in Jeroboam’s rebellion (1st Kgs. 12:16).

3. Judah safeguarded David’s return to Jerusalem, where he faced further consequences for his earlier evil (2nd Sam. 20:3).

4. David deals with the rebellion of Sheba (2nd Sam. 20:4-22).
   a. He orders Amasa to assemble the armies of Judah (2nd Sam. 20:4,5). It was David’s intention to replace Joab with Amasa (2nd Sam. 19:13).
      1) Amasa had been Absalom’s General (2nd Sam. 17:25a).
      2) Amasa was David’s nephew (2nd Sam. 17:25b).
   b. When Amasa was too slow in his work-assignment, David commissioned Abishai to lead Joab’s men in pursuit of Sheba (2nd Sam. 20:6,7).
   c. Joab didn’t appreciate being replaced, so he assassinated his replacement (2nd Sam. 20:8-13).
   d. Sheba gathered his forces, and made his stand in Abel Beth-maacah (2nd Sam. 20:14,15).
   e. A wise woman of Abel understood that Joab would level the entire city in order to get Sheba, and she arranged for Joab’s satisfaction and the sparing of her city (2nd Sam. 20:14-22).

5. With Sheba’s revolt put down, David’s kingdom was once again secured (2nd Sam. 20:23-26).

6. David allows Joab to retain his position, but regrets it to his dying day (1st Kgs. 2:5,6).
David's Testing in Older Years (2nd Samuel 21:1-22)
1. David faced the national test of famine during the later years of his reign (2nd Sam. 21:1a).
   a. David is now in a position to understand long-term national consequences for a king’s personal evil.
   b. David learns that this famine is a long-term consequence for King Saul’s personal evil (2nd Sam. 21:1b,2).
2. David satisfied the Gibeonites temporal-life grievance, and the Lord’s spiritual-life grievance (2nd Sam. 21:3-14).
   a. David surrendered seven of Saul’s descendants to Gibeonite judicial jurisdiction.
   b. David led a national prayer-effort to cleanse the land from all unresolved defilements (2nd Sam. 21:14b).
