| Second Corinthians Summary Review | 477-481 |
Second Corinthians
Πρὸς Κορινθίους Β

Second Corinthians is the Book that Paul never wanted to write. Paul’s second visit to Corinth was a sorrowful one, and a subsequent letter was likewise sorrowful. The Reluctant Autobiography (2nd Cor.) defends Paul’s Apostleship and prepares the Corinthians for his third visit among them—a visit in which none will be spared from his apostolic discipline (2nd Cor. 13:1,2).

The church in Corinth was rejecting Paul’s message and ministry as they listened to the false apostles in their midst (2nd Cor. 11:13). An excellent visit by Titus is the one thing that gives Paul hope, as Titus reports a positive response by the Corinthians to Paul’s sorrowful letter.

Title: “To the Corinthians” is named for the recipients of the epistle.
Author: The Apostle Paul is the primary author, with the scribal assistance and courier service of Timothy.

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter One

1. Paul opens the letter with a prayer for grace and peace from the Father and the Son (2nd Cor. 1:1,2).
2. Paul gives the praise to the Father for His faithful provision of comfort (2nd Cor. 1:3-7).
   a. He comforts us in every affliction (v.4a).
   b. He intends for believers who receive His comfort to extend that comfort to others (v.4b).
   c. He increases the comfort when the sufferings are increased (v.5).
   d. He designs the affliction of spiritual leaders to minister to the affliction of the flock (v.6).
   e. He designs prayer to be the means by which believers can share in the mutual affliction and comfort (vv.7,11).
3. Paul’s Ephesian afflictions were a matter of life & death from his perspective, and an opportunity for the Corinthians to join with him in them through prayer (1st Cor. 1:8-11).
4. Paul hopes that the Corinthians will understand his letter, but knows that they already have a number of problems with his previous letters & visits (2nd Cor. 1:12-14).
5. Paul explains that his previous intention to make two more visits to Corinth has been changed (2nd Cor. 1:15-2:1).
   a. Paul affirmed that his ministry is as faithful as the Father and Son Who works through him what is pleasing in Their sight (vv.18-22).
   b. Paul stated that he was led to forestall his visit to Corinth so as to not cause extensive sorrow (vv.23,24 & 2:1).
Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Two

1. Paul’s sorrowful letter was designed to show his love, and to inoculate them from Satanic exploitation (2nd Cor. 2:1-11).
   a. The man of incest responded to the sorrow by true repentance. This was a source of gladness for Paul (v.2).
   b. The Corinthian believers failed to revoke the punishment when the repentance occurred, and therefore caused excessive sorrow (vv.6-8).
   c. Lack of forgiveness gives Satan a fertile ground in which to sow his seeds of division (v.11).
2. Paul describes his spiritual unrest over the Corinthians’ treatment of Titus—especially when Titus did not meet him in Troas as expected (2nd Cor. 2:12,13).
3. Paul found spiritual rest in that test by focusing on the work of God the Father within his life (2nd Cor. 2:14-17).
   a. The Father leads us in His triumph in Christ.
   b. The Father manifests the sweet aroma of Christ through us to this lost and dying world.
   c. The Father’s work is one of total grace—who is adequate for these things?

Note: Paul’s description of the Father’s ministry through him will continue through 2nd Cor. 7:4. Some have speculated that 2nd Cor. 2:14-7:4 is a scribal insertion in between 2nd Cor. 2:12,13 & 7:5ff., but there is no manuscript support for such a hypothesis. Rather, it is best to view 2nd Cor. 2:14-7:4 as one great digression in which Paul occupies with Christ and assures himself that he is in the will of God.

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Three

1. In describing the Father’s triumphant ministry through him (2nd Cor. 2:14-17), Paul asserted that he was not commending himself in any way (2nd Cor. 3:1-6).
   a. The Corinthians themselves were the only letters of commendation Paul needed.
   b. Paul’s adequacy comes from God, as a minister (διάκονος #1249) of a new covenant (vv.5,6).
2. Paul reflects on his ministry (διάκονός #1249) of the spirit, the ministry of righteousness as an Apostle in the Dispensation of the Church (2nd Cor. 3:7-18).
   a. It is a ministry of abounding glory, vastly superior to the Old Testament ministry of death & condemnation (vv.7-11).
   b. It is a ministry of unveiled observation and transformation (vv.12-18).

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Four

1. The life of a believer in the Dispensation of the Church is quite simple (2nd Cor. 4:1,2).
   a. Receive mercy daily, and not lose heart (v.1; Lam. 3:22,23).
   b. Manifest the Truth with a clear conscience in the sight of God (v.2; 1st Tim. 1:5,19; 3:9; 2nd Tim. 1:3).
2. The believer’s manifestation of Truth goes forth into the devil’s darkness, as God Himself does the work of evangelism (2nd Cor. 4:3-6; Jn. 1:5,9-13; 3:19-21).
3. The believer’s weakness in physical life serves to illustrate our power in spiritual life (2nd Cor. 4:7ff.).
   a. The Christian Way of Life means that the believer will be afflicted, perplexed, persecuted, & struck down (vv.8,9).
   b. Through these circumstances, we exhibit (bear) the death and life of Jesus for others to observe.
   c. The eternal perspective through faith encourages the believer to endure and not lose heart (vv.16-18).

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Five

1. Our present indwelling of the Holy Spirit is simply a deposit for the eternal blessings we will enjoy in the resurrection (2nd Cor. 5:1-5).
2. This eternal perspective motivates us to greater diligence in preparation for the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Cor. 5:6-10).
3. Paul provides the Corinthians with a message of love—so that they may have an answer for Paul’s critics among them (2nd Cor. 5:11,12).
   a. This is the sacrificial love message of living for Christ controlled by the love of Christ.
   b. The message is the Gospel message of reconciliation.
   c. Our function as new creatures is to fulfill our role as ambassadors—communicating that message of reconciliation through our imputed righteousness.
Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Six
1. Believers are fellow workers, and are urged to commend themselves as ministers (διάκονοι #1249) of God, so as to not discredit the ministry (διακονία #1248) (2nd Cor. 6:1-4a).
   a. Our ministry in the Dispensation of the Church is a ministry of difficulties (vv.4b,5).
   b. Our ministry in the Dispensation of the Church is a ministry of Divine empowerment (vv.6,7).
   c. Our ministry in the Dispensation of the Church is a ministry of contradictions (vv.8-10).
2. As Paul pours out his heart to the Corinthians, he is troubled by their self-imposed restraints (2nd Cor. 6:11-13).
3. “Stop becoming unequally yoked with unbelievers” (2nd Cor. 6:14-18).
   a. A basic principle under the Mosaic Law (Deut. 22:10) finds practical application in personal relationships under Grace—marriage, business partnerships, etc.
   b. Those in Christ have no partnership, fellowship, harmony, commonality, or agreement with those in Adam.
   c. Such unequal unions defile the believer, and restrain them from fruitful ministry.
      1) Separation from unbelievers is required, but this does not preclude association with unbelievers (1st Cor. 5:9-13).
      2) Separation does preclude participation with unbelievers in their unfruitful deeds of darkness (Eph. 5:7,11).

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Seven
1. Paul brings the issue of holiness back to the Corinthians particular circumstances, as he urges them to prepare for his soon arrival (2nd Cor. 7:1-4).
2. Paul has comfort and joy in anticipation of his third visit to Corinth, because of the good report he received from Titus when they met in Macedonia (2nd Cor. 7:5-16).

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Eight
1. Chapters 8 & 9 focus on the grace gift that the churches in Galatia, Asia, Macedonia, and Achaia were preparing for the afflicted saints in Jerusalem.
   a. Paul had previously given instructions regarding this grace gift (1st Cor. 16:1-4).
   b. Titus had begun the work in Achaia during his time in Corinth (2nd Cor. 8:6,10).
2. Paul encouraged the Corinthians in the doctrine of grace giving by testifying to them the grace ministry of the Macedonian churches (2nd Cor. 8:1-5).
   a. Grace giving is a matter for believers to pursue in light of the example that Jesus Christ set (2nd Cor. 8:7-9).
   b. Grace giving is a matter for believers to pursue as a matter of mental-attitude, and not a matter of individual capacity (2nd Cor. 8:10-15).
3. Titus led a team back to Corinth excited about the privilege to be a minister of grace (2nd Cor. 8:6,16-24).
   a. Titus led the effort.
   b. “The brother” famous in the gospel through all the local churches, and appointed by those churches to accompany Paul as a precaution against descredit.
   c. “Our brother” tested and diligent, and greatly confident in the Corinthians. Pastor Bob believes this brother to be Timothy.

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Nine
1. Paul is eager to arrive in Corinth with his Macedonian delegation, confident that Titus’ advance party will have all things prepared (2nd Cor. 9:1-5).
2. Grace giving is a matter for believers to pursue bountifully, purposefully, and cheerfully, trusting in God the Father to make all grace abound (2nd Cor. 9:6-11).
3. When grace is given and received, both parties can glorify God with praise and thanksgiving being multiplied in an indescribable manner (2nd Cor. 9:12-15).
Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Ten

1. Paul urged the Corinthians to pray for his meekness and gentleness towards them, even as he comes to wage war with confidence and courage (2nd Cor. 10:1-6).
2. Paul urged the Corinthians to view their circumstances through Divine viewpoint rather than the human viewpoint they were accustomed to (2nd Cor. 10:7-11).
3. Paul’s Godly boasting with respect to the Corinthians was not to take credit for anything he had done (2nd Cor. 10:12-18).
   a. The Lord has done the work, so He gets the appropriate glory of human praise.
   b. Corinth isn’t the end of work, but a new base of operations from which to do even greater work.

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Eleven

1. The Corinthians had been listening to false apostles who had called Paul’s teaching foolishness. So, Paul gives the Corinthians several large doses of foolishness in ch. 11.
2. Paul describes his love for Corinth Bible Church as a godly jealousy. The believers of Corinth were prepared as a bride for the Lord, but Paul was afraid that they had been deceived into unfaithfulness (2nd Cor. 11:1-3).
3. The false apostles used Paul’s humility as an accusation against him. They presented him as a false apostle because he was not exercising apostolic privileges (2nd Cor. 11:4-15).
4. Paul uses a logic of folly to boast in the manner of the false apostles and to illustrate to the Corinthians how empty it all is (2nd Cor. 11:16-21).
   a. Under Law, Paul is every bit as qualified as the false apostles (2nd Cor. 11:22).
   b. Under Grace, Paul has served above and beyond anything that any false apostle had done (2nd Cor. 11:23-29).
   c. From the very beginning of his ministry, Paul’s service to the Lord has been fraught with earthly danger for the sake of heavenly reward (2nd Cor. 11:30-33).

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Twelve

1. Paul continues in his autobiography by relating the most severe testing he has ever endured for Christ—the thorn in the flesh (2nd Cor. 12:1-10).
   a. He relates the story in the third person rather than boast about it himself (vv.2-5).
   b. He tells of his rapture to Paradise in the third heaven. While there, he heard revelations that are not permissible for human revelation (v.4).
   c. When he was returned to physical life, the Lord authorized a Satanic angel to physically abuse Paul’s physical body so that Paul would not grow prideful (v.7).
      1) Paul was so abused that he asked three times for his will to be done over the will of the Lord (v.8).
      2) Paul learned to be well content with the thorn, because it was through such hardship that he learned what the power of Christ could truly do (vv.9,10).
2. Paul concludes the autobiography with an ironic comment. The Corinthians shouldn’t be expecting letters of reference on Paul’s behalf; they should be writing letters of reference on Paul’s behalf! (2nd Cor. 12:11-13)
3. Paul warns them that he will be functioning under the same Law of Love that he functioned under the first two times he was with them (2nd Cor. 12:14-18).
4. Paul’s autobiography was not a justification for the Corinthians. Paul was examining himself and preparing his own attitude before the Lord in advance of his coming Corinthian combat (2nd Cor. 12:19-21).

Thoughts & Notes on Chapter Thirteen

1. Paul’s arrival will be marked by total spiritual warfare (2nd Cor. 13:1-10 cf. 10:3-6).
2. He warns the Corinthians to test themselves, and examine what spirit is empowering them, because Paul knows what Spirit he is employing (2nd Cor. 13:5,6).
3. Like-minded believers in fellowship will celebrate Paul’s arrival and the grace, love, & fellowship that will result because of it (2nd Cor. 13:11-14).
Corinthian Conundrums

1. The greatest difficulties in isagogy for 1\textsuperscript{st} & 2\textsuperscript{nd} Corinthians is to synthesize all of Paul’s personal appearances in Corinth and written correspondence to them.

2. The conclusions drawn on these matters do not affect 1\textsuperscript{st} Corinthians in the same way they affect 2\textsuperscript{nd} Corinthians.

3. Scholars and/or commentators have proposed between 3 and 5 letters from Paul to Corinth. Personal visits are divided between 2 and 3. Pastor Bob holds to 4 letters and 3 personal visits.

4. The references in Romans help us to solidify some of our understandings regarding Corinth (Rom. 15:25–26; 16:17-18).

5. The dramatic change of tone in 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 10–13 compared to 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 7–9 prompts much discussion regarding an artificial restructuring of the text.
   a. 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 2:14–7:4 is thought of as an epistolic insertion.
   b. 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 10:1–12:21 is thought of as possibly a fifth Corinthian correspondence, or even the sorrowful letter appended to the end of letter #4.
   c. 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 6:14–7:1 is sometimes ripped out of its context and thought of as the Not to Associate Letter (from 1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 5:9).
   d. All such speculations are fruitless. 2\textsuperscript{nd} Corinthians is best understood as a composition in unity. There is no textual basis, manuscript evidence, Church Father testimony, or archaeological discovery which supports any understanding of 2\textsuperscript{nd} Corinthians as some kind of patchwork compilation.
Chronology of the Apostle Paul

A Survey of the Life & Ministry of Saul of Tarsus

I. Chronological clues from the New Testament and contemporary secular history.

A. Time references from Paul’s epistles.

1. Three years (Gal. 1:18).
2. Fourteen years (Gal. 2:1).
3. Fourteen years (2nd Cor. 12:2).
4. Until Pentecost (1st Cor. 16:8).
5. A year ago (2nd Cor. 8:10), & since last year (2nd Cor. 9:2).

B. Time references from Acts.

1. For an entire year (11:26).
2. A year and six months (18:11).
3. Three months (19:8), and two years (19:10), called three years (20:3).
4. Four months (20:3).
5. Two years (24:27).
6. Three months (28:11).
7. Two full years (28:30).

C. Evidence from Roman history.

2. Aquila & Priscilla’s expulsion from Rome (Acts 18:2) was because of Claudius’ edict (49 AD).

Chapter One
In Chapter One, Paul & Timothy open the epistle with a salutation (2nd Cor. 1:1-2), and a hymn of praise to God the Father (2nd Cor. 1:3-7). The Corinthians were then invited to become fellow helpers and fellow givers of thanks through intercessory prayer (2nd Cor. 1:8-11). Paul then introduces the first of his boastings when he states his purpose for writing (2nd Cor. 1:12-14), and his changing purpose for why his third arrival in Corinth was delayed (2nd Cor. 12:15-24).

Salutation (2nd Cor. 1:1-2)
1. This salutation is shorter than 1st Corinthians, but highly similar.
   a. Paul is an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God.
      1) ἀπόστολος Χριστοῦ Ἰησοῦ. ἀπόστολος ἀποστέλλω. Used 81x in the NT but unique to Christianity and quite unlike any previous Greek usage.
         a) The Apostles of Jesus Christ have a unique sending and commission because it is patterned after Christ Himself (Jn. 17:18; 20:21), the Apostle and High Priest of our confession (Heb. 3:1).
         b) The role of the Father and the Son in the activity of ἀποστέλλω is significant to Jesus’ garden prayer (Jn. 17:3,8,21,23,25).
      2) διὰ θελήματος θεοῦ. The will of God the Father is important to identify with for gifts, ministries, and effects.
         a) The Holy Spirit obediently cooperates with the will of the Father in providing the giftedness.
         b) Jesus Christ obediently cooperates with the will of the Father in providing the ministry.
         c) God the Father is consistent with His own will in providing the effects.
         d) Paul obediently cooperates with the will of the Father in nurturing his gift, fulfilling his ministry, and doing the work the Father has for him to do.
   b. Timothy has replaced Sosthenes for coauthor of this epistle.
      1) Jesus Christ selected the Corinthians’ founding Apostle and former synagogue leader to coauthor the first Scriptural message to them (1st Cor. 1:1 cf. Acts 18:17).
      2) Jesus Christ again selected the Corinthians’ founding Apostle to author the second Scriptural message to them, but assigned co-authorship responsibility to a minister they had despised and rejected (1st Cor. 16:10-11).
   c. The church at Corinth had expanded to include other lampstands in their Roman province. σὺν τοῖς ἀγίοις πᾶσιν τοῖς οὖσιν ἐν ἅλι καὶ ἂν Ποιμαντιζο. Paterological Praise (2nd Cor. 1:3–7)

1. This passage is a Eulogetos Hymn.
   a. εὐλογητός #2128 blessed, praised. Cognates include εὐλογέω #2127 & εὐλογία #2129. Heb. terms are primarily בָּרָּכָּה #327x, הָרָּכָּה #325x, בָּרָּק #320x 71x.
      1) Blessings and cursings are fundamental aspects of existence.
      2) The sole self-existent one (I AM) brought about all having-become-existence through the spoken expression of His will.
      3) God's bless-praising of man produces an appreciative response within those with capacity to embrace God's plan.
      4) Man's bless-praising of God also produces an appreciative response within God because of His capacity to appreciate His own plan for creating a moral realm of existence.
   b. Related NT hymns include Lk. 1:68–79; Eph. 1:3–14; & 1st Pet. 1:3–5(9).
   c. OT examples of εὐλογητός include Gen. 9:26; 12:2; 14:19,20; Ex. 18:10; Ruth 2:20; 4:14; 1st Sam. 25:32,33,39; 1st Kgs. 1:48; 5:7; 8:15,56; Ps. 18:46; 28:6; 31:21; 41:13; 66:20; 68:19,35; 72:18,19; 89:52; 106:48; 119:12; 124:6; 135:19–21; 144:1; Dan. 3:28; Ezra 7:27. εὐλογητός used 100x and εὐλογέω used more than 400x in the LXX.

2. The God and Father is a Father and God.
   a. God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
      1) During the time of Jesus' kenosis (Phil. 2:5–11), God the Father (and God the Holy Spirit) was (were) His God (Mt. 27:46; Mk. 15:34; Jn. 20:17 but see also v.28).
      2) Interestingly, Jesus continues the identification of God the Father as His God in His High Priesthood ministry to the Church (Rev. 3:2,12).
      3) Eternally, God the Father and God the Son have always functioned in this father-son relationship between themselves (Jn. 1:1–2; 17:5).
      4) Temporally, God the Father begat the humanity of God the Son at the beginning of His way (Prov. 8:22).
      5) “God and Father” occurs 14 times in the NT (Rom. 15:6; 1st Cor. 15:24; 2nd Cor. 1:3; 11:31; Gal. 1:4; Eph. 1:3; 4:6; Phil. 4:20; 1st Thess. 1:3; 3:11,13; Jas. 1:27; 1st Pet. 1:3; Rev. 1:6).
      6) The fatherhood of God is an element of Truth that enrages Muslims. Surah 17:110; 19:35; 23:91 all deny the fatherhood of God and the deity of Jesus Christ.
   b. Father of mercies and God of all comfort (παράκληματις).
      1) The Father of Mercies (ὁ πατὴρ τῶν οἰκτιρμῶν) was similar to a synagogue term, but the New Testament usage is far deeper in significance.
         a) οἰκτιρμός #5628 5x fr. οἰκτέρας, οἰκτίρω #5627 2x. Also οἰκτίρμον #5629 3x. The parallel with εἰλεῆς #1656 and related forms is evident (Rom. 9:15 quoting Ex. 33:19) and consistent with the parallel between γένεσις #2603 & γένεσις #2655.
         b) NT passages: Luke 6:36; Rom. 9:15; 12:1; 2nd Cor. 1:3; Phil. 2:1; Col. 3:2; Heb. 10:28; Jas. 5:11.
         c) The common γάλα #7355 γαπηρ#1293 “compassionate and gracious” is almost always translated οἰκτιρμον και εἰλεῆς in the LXX. Ex. 34:6; 2nd Chr. 30:9; Ps. 85:15; 102:8; 110:4; 111:4; Jl. 2:13; Jon. 4:2.
         d) Amazingly, the Koran adopts the themes of compassion (Ar-Rahman) but divorces it from any patrological significance.
      2) The God of all Parakleses.
         a) παρακλήσεως #3874 29x fr. παρακάλεσε #3870 109x. Also συμπαρακάλεσε #4837 (Rom. 1:12) & παρακλήσις #3875 5x (Helper Jn. 14:16,26; 15:26; 16:7, Advocate 1st Jn. 2:1).
         b) The NASB has four predominate ways it translates this word family.
            (1) Comfort terminology 31x, Encourage terminology 20x, Exhort terminology 23x + Urge terminology 24x.
            (2) These four ways can be paired up: Comfort/Encourage 51x, Exhort/Urge 47x.
            (3) Additional terminology includes appealing, begging, imploring, entreating (2nd Cor. 12:8).
         c) NT passages for this study: Mt. 5:4; Lk. 3:18; 16:25; Acts 2:40; 9:31; Rom. 1:12; 12:1,8; 15:50; 16:17; 1st Cor. 14:3; 2nd Cor. 1:3–7; 2:7–8; 5:20 w/ 6:1; 7:4,6,7,13; Phil. 2:1; 1st Thess. 4:18; 5:11; 2nd Thess. 2:16–17; 1st Tim. 5:1; 2nd Tim. 4:2; Phil. 7,9,10; Heb. 3:13; 10:25; Jude 3.
         d) The common LXX term is νημία nacham #5160 whereby it is manifest that the Lord is a Comfort to Israel (Isa. 40:1; 51:12) and His promised Messiah is a Comfort to Israel (Isa. 61:2). See also Ps. 23:4.
3. Verse 4 continues the “blessed be” from verse 3. Blessed be the comforting one in our every affliction. ὁ θεός καὶ πατήρ, ὁ πατήρ καὶ θεός, ὁ παρακαλῶν ἠμᾶς.

b. The Father never fails to comfort. ἔτι πάση τῇ θλίψει ἠμῶν. πᾶς ἢγνοήμα + θλίψις: a pressing together, pressure, affliction, tribulation.

1) Tribulations/afflictions can derail rocky soil believers (Mt. 13:21).
2) Tribulation/affliction is the way of the κόσμος (Jn. 16:33).
3) Tribulations/afflictions produce endurance (Rom. 5:3).
4) Tribulations/afflictions are fellowship opportunities (2nd Cor. 1:4–6; Heb. 10:23; Rev. 1:9).
5) Tribulation/affliction is temporally insignificant and eternally extravagant (2nd Cor. 4:17).
6) Tribulations/afflictions will be recompensed at the 2nd Advent (2nd Thess. 2:4–7).

c. “So that” can be taken as a purpose or result clause (or both).

d. As God comforts us, we become able to comfort others. Pres.pass.inf. δύναμαι. Volition turns ability into reality.

1) God provides sound doctrine so that we are able to admonish one another (Rom. 15:14).
2) God provides the way of escape so that (purpose & result) we are able to endure our testing (1st Cor. 10:13).
3) God provides comfort so that (purpose & result) we are able to comfort others (2nd Cor. 1:4).
4) God provides armor so that (purpose & result) we are able to stand firm (Eph. 6:11), resist (Eph. 6:13), and extinguish flaming missiles (Eph. 6:16).

4. Paul describes the abundant Christian life as a life of abundant affliction and comfort (2nd Cor. 1:5–7).

a. Paul and Timothy use their own circumstances as the illustration for the God of All Paraklesis.

1) The passions (τὰ πάθηματα) of Christ abound to them (Rom. 8:18; 2nd Cor. 1:5,6,7; Phil. 3:10; Heb. 2:10; 1st Pet. 1:11; 4:13; 5:19).

2) The manner and means for passions abounding is identical to the manner and means for comfort to abound—through Christ.

a) Marker of personal agency, through, by (John 1:3,10; Rom. 1:8; 2:16; 7:25; 1st Cor. 8:6; Col. 1:16; 3:17).

b) With focus on the originator of an action, of divine activity, of Christ (Rom. 1:5; 5:9,17f.,21; 8:37; 2nd Cor. 1:20).

3) Jesus Christ is the personal agent through which God the Father parakaleo’s each believer.

a) Christ in you (Col. 1:27), occupied with Christ (Col. 3:1–4; Tit. 2:13; Heb. 12:2), eternally blessed in Christ (Eph. 1:3; Philem. 6).

b. When the corresponding paraklesis becomes effective, the afflictions that believers patiently endure can be a “salvation” for us (2nd Cor. 1:6). Remember the three spiritual salvations!

1) Positionally, salvation references the believer’s conversion from spiritual death to eternal life (Rom. 1:16; 1st Cor. 1:21; 9:22; Eph. 1:13; 2:5,8; 1st Tim. 1:15; Tit. 3:5).

2) Experientially, salvation references deliverance from operational death to the abundant life (2nd Cor. 1:6; 7:10; Phil. 2:12; 1st Tim. 4:16; Heb. 7:25; Jas. 1:21; 5:20).

3) Ultimately, salvation references our victorious homecoming to the Father (1st Cor. 3:15; 2nd Tim. 4:18; 1st Pet. 1:5).

4) Physically: rescue from temporal dangers (Mt. 8:25; 14:30; 27:40,42,49; Phil. 1:19).

b. Koinonia fellowship incorporates shared suffering (πάθημα) and shared comfort (παράκλησις) (2nd Cor. 1:7).

Fellow Helpers, Fellow Givers of Thanks (2nd Cor. 1:8–11)

1. Paul and Timothy did not want the Corinthians to be agnostic regarding their Asian affliction. ἀγνοεῖν #50225, ἀγνόημα #51, ἀγνοεῖν #52.

a. Paul was consistently opposed to agnoia among both unbelievers and believers because it was unnecessary and for most believers it most often involved facets of the angelic conflict (Acts 17:23,30; Rom. 1:13; 2:4; 6:3; 7:1; 10:3; 11:25; 1st Cor. 10:1; 12:1; 2nd Cor. 1:8; 2:11; 6:9; 1st Thess. 4:13).
b. They were hyperballistically weighted down beyond dunamis. (Review Hyperballistic Christian Way of Life from 1st Corinthians chapter 12).
1) καθ’ ύπερβολήν. ύπερβολή #5230 fr. ύπερβαλλω #5235.
2) ύπερ δύναμιν. See 2nd Cor. 8:3 for κατά δύναμιν vs. ύπερ δύναμιν.
3) ἔβαρθημεν. Aor.pass.ind. βαρέω #916.

1. Boasting in Writing

4. a. Paul & Timothy boasted in the martyr

b. a. They despaired even of life. ἐξαποτερέω #1820 2nd Cor. 1:18; 4:8; fr. ἄποτερεω #630 4x Lk. 24:4; Jn. 13:22; Acts 25:20; 2nd Cor. 4:8; Gal. 4:20. Also ἀποτέρα #640 Lk. 21:25 & διαποτερέω #1820 4x Lk. 9:7; Acts 2:12; 5:24; 10:17. See NIGTC for a good description of this verb.

2. Life-threatening circumstances are like any and every other circumstance and detail of life.

a. They are the circumstances that God’s sovereign grace plan designed for our blessing.

b. They are included in the “all things” of Romans 8:28.

c. Their death sentence was internalized as a perfect active indicative.

d. The purpose clause reminds us that every affliction is for God’s good pleasure in glorifying His Son for all eternity (Eph. 1:11; Col. 1:16,19).

e. Life-threatening circumstances bring our persuasion and hope into proper focus (2nd Cor. 1:9,10).

3. Three deliverances. ῥύομαι #4506 to rescue from danger, deliver, preserve (Matt. 6:13; 27:43; Lk. 1:74; Rom. 7:24; 11:26; 15:31; 2nd Cor. 1:10,13; Col. 1:13; 1st Thess. 1:10; 2nd Thess. 3:2; 2nd Tim. 3:11; 4:17,18; 2nd Pet. 2:7,9).

a. The three rescues are aorist, future, future in many manuscripts; aorist, present, future in many manuscripts.

b. The aorist rescue matches well with the aorist affliction, burden, and despair from verse 8. The Asian affliction featured an Asian rescue.

c. The (present) near future rescue is what Paul & Timothy invite the Corinthians to join.

d. Paul and Timothy placed a past completed trust and hope supplying them with a present trust and positive anticipation for a future rescue.

1) Future afflictions are in store for each one of us.

2) Present prayerfulness is productive in preparation for predicted predicaments.

4. The Corinthians were expected to join in the work as fellow helpers, and fellow givers of thanks.

a. The present active participle of συνυποτερεύω #8943 ῥύομαι describes the Corinthians’ activity that coincides with God’s future rescue.

1) Joshua was described as a ὑποτερωγός in the LXX of Josh. 1:1.

2) The Corinthians’ intercessory prayer would constitute fellow-underworking.

b. The χάρισμα provided through the agency of many will also be a thanksgiving offering from many faces. τὸ εἰς ἡμᾶς χάρισμα διὰ πολλῶν.

1) Human intercessory prayers are the agent of divine action (Jas. 5:16b-18).

2) Human intercessory prayers are the substance of angelic incense (Rev. 5:8; 8:3 cf. Ps. 141:2).

b. Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, and in everything give thanks are plural imperatives (1st Thess. 5:16-18).

1) They are addressed to a plurality of recipients.

2) Each recipient can obey the imperatives individually, but even better is for the plurality of recipients to obey the imperatives corporately.

Boasting in Writing (2nd Cor. 1:12-14)

1. Paul & Timothy boasted in the martyr-testimony of their conscience (2nd Cor. 1:12).

a. Their godly conduct produced a testimony of conscience (τὸ μαρτύριον τῆς συνειδήσεως ἡμῶν) for godly boasting.

1) ἀναστρέφω #3900 Pass. in act. but nonliteral sense: to conduct oneself in terms of certain principles, act, behave, conduct oneself, live (2nd Cor. 1:12; Eph. 2:3; 1st Tim. 3:15; Heb. 13:18; 1st Pet. 1:17; 2nd Pet. 2:18).

2) συνειδήσεως #14855 the inward faculty of distinguishing right and wrong, moral consciousness, conscience (Acts 23:1; 24:16; Rom. 2:15; 9:1; 13:5; 1st Cor. 8:7,10,12; 10:25,27,28,29; 2nd Cor. 1:12; 4:2; 5:11; 1st Tim. 1:5,19; 3:9; 4:2; 2nd Tim. 1:3; Tit. 1:15; Heb. 9:9,14; 10:2,22; 13:18; 1st Pet. 2:19; 3:16,21).

2) καύχησις #2746 12x (fr. καυχάομαι #2744 23x to boast) act of taking pride in something, boasting (Rom. 3:27; 15:17; 1st Cor. 15:31; 2nd Cor. 7:8,14; 8:24; 11:10,17; 1st Thess. 2:19; Jas. 4:6); that which constitutes a source of pride, object of boasting, reason for boasting. Also καύχημα #2745 11x.

b. Holiness and godly sincerity (ἐν ἀπλότητι καὶ εἰλικρινεία τοῦ θεοῦ).
2. Changing Purpose in Coming (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 1:15–24)

1. Paul’s itinerary at the close of First Corinthians changed to a double-grace itinerary for Corinth.
   a. “Plan A” was for Paul to journey Ephesus → Macedonia → Corinth → (possibly) Jerusalem (1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 16:1–9).
   b. “Plan B” was for Paul to journey Ephesus → Corinth → Macedonia → Corinth → (definitely) Jerusalem (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 1:15–16). (Diagram below taken from The New International Greek Testament Commentary)

   !Diagram

2. “This confidence” (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 1:15) is the persuasion that mutual reciprocal boasting is generated by coordinated ministry endeavors (v.14).
   a. πεποίθησις #5372 (fr. τείθο, #3082 via the pf. τέθεσθά) (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 1:15; 3:4; 8:22; 10:2; Eph. 3:12; Phil. 3:4).
   b. Beyond the noun, significant study must engage τείθο in a variety of perfect tense and/or passive voice contexts.
1) This degree of persuasion is tantamount to obedience (Gal. 5:7; Heb. 13:17).
2) The antonyms are also vital: ἀπεθανεῖν 5:13, ἀπεθανεῖτο 5:14, ἀπεθανήσης 5:15. Rom. 2:8 has both πέθανον & ἀπεθανεῖον. Similar antithetical parallelism in Jn. 3:36 with πιστεύω & ἀπεπιθέω.

c. Confidence/conviction is a motivational factor in decision making (Mt. 27:43; Lk. 18:9; Acts 5:40; 27:11; 28:24; Rom. 8:38; 14:14; 2nd Cor. 1:9; 10:7; Phil. 1:6,14,25; 2nd Tim. 1:12).

d. Personal convictions regarding the will of God must remain subject to divine correction (2nd Sam. 7 cf. 1st Kgs. 8:17-19).

3) Frivolous decision making and carnal decision making are two human activities inconsistent with God's faithful purpose to magnify Jesus Christ (2nd Cor. 1:17-22).

a. Christ's burdens are light (Mt. 11:30), and affliction is light (2nd Cor. 4:17), but decisions in the ministry should not be made lightly (2nd Cor. 1:17).

b. Carnal decision making is never right.
   1) It reflects our former life as unbelievers (Eph. 2:3) and is inconsistent with the spiritual life we are provided in Christ (Rom. 8:3-17).
   2) It is inconsistent with the spiritual fruit produced in us (Gal. 5:13-25).

c. The triple use of βούλομαι 1:10 brings our focus to God the Father's grace eternal dispensational plan of the ages for the maximum glorification, pleasure, and blessing of God the Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Our purpose must conform to His purpose (Lk. 22:42; Heb. 6:17; 2nd Pet. 3:9).

d. God is faithful (1st Cor. 1:9, 10:13; 2nd Cor. 1:18; 1st Thess. 5:24; 2nd Thess. 3:3) and the personification of His faithfulness is Jesus Christ (Rev. 3:14; 19:11). His promises to us and through us are entirely grounded in Christ.

4. Plan A and plan B were made as faith decisions based upon conviction, yet God overruled both plans when He placed an even greater conviction in Paul's soul (2nd Cor. 1:23-2:1).

Chapter Two

In Chapter Two, Paul describes a sorrowful visit and painful letter (2nd Cor. 2:1-4). Sorrow was sufficient for “such a one” to repent, but the Corinthians remained at risk of Satanic schemes (2nd Cor. 2:5-11). This pending Satanic danger left Paul in turmoil as he travelled to Troas and on to Macedonia (2nd Cor. 2:12-13), so he adjusts his perspective back to what God is doing through his own ministry and purpose (2nd Cor. 2:14-17).

Sorrowful Visit and Painful Letter (2nd Cor. 2:1-4)

1. The Apostle Paul came to a personal judgment following his sorrowful visit.
   a. He judged in himself. Ἐκρίνα γὰρ ἐμαυτῷ τὸ θύμον (Lk. 22:45; Jn. 16:6, 20, 21, 22; Rom. 9:2; 2nd Cor. 2:13, 3, 7; 7:10, 11; 9:7; Phil. 2:27; Heb. 12:11; 1st Pet. 2:19).
      1) Some interpreters view the sorrowful visit as the Acts 18 visit on the basis of 1st Cor. 2:3.
      2) More likely is a visit to Corinth not recorded in Acts, but taking place during the time spent in Ephesus (Acts 19:8, 10; 20:31).

2. The sorrowful visit caused sorrow for the entire congregation in general and one certain man in particular.
   a. In First Corinthians, Paul responded to a report (1st Cor. 5:1-5).
      1) The Corinthians were puffed up rather than mourning (1st Cor. 5:2).
      2) Paul judged such a One and expected the Corinthians to make it happen (1st Cor. 5:3-5).

   b. During the sorrowful visit, Paul grieved all of Corinth. ἐγὼ λυπόμην ἡμᾶς. λυπῶ 1:10; (Mt. 14:9; 17:23; 18:31; 19:22; 26:22, 23; Mk. 10:22; 14:19; Jn. 16:20; 21:17; Rom. 14:15; 2nd Cor. 2:2, 4, 5, 6, 10; 7:8, 9, 11; Eph. 4:30; 1st Thess. 4:13; 1st Pet. 1:6).
      1) The emphasis on “again” testifies to Paul’s distressing of Corinth on a prior occasion.
      2) The one (and only) who makes Paul glad at this point is the one (and only) Paul originally intended to make sorrowful. Only ὁ λυπομένως is now be ὁ ἐφαρμόνον.

3. When Paul returned to Ephesus after the sorrowful visit he composed a painful letter (2nd Cor. 2:3-4).
   a. The painful letter was not First Corinthians, but the written documentation of Paul's personal judgment not to return in sorrow.
   b. The Corinthian congregation ought to have been the ones causing Paul’s rejoicing. Instead, the Corinthians collectively caused even more sorrow.
c. Paul was persuaded that the painful letter would produce multiplied joy. Perf.act.ptic. πείθω (2Cor. 2:5). Personal judgment not to come led to a persuaded confidence that the painful letter would communicate Paul’s love.
d. “Much affliction and anguish of heart” formed the circumstantial conditions which motivated Paul’s personal judgment and persuasion concerning the Corinthians.

1) ἢκ γὰρ πολλῆς θλίψεως. θλίψεις δοκιμασίας, tribulation, affliction; fr. θλίβω to press, afflict.
   a) Second Corinthians has 12/55 NT uses of θλίψεις & θλίβω (2nd Cor. 1:6,8; 2:4; 4:8,17; 6:4; 7:4,5; 8:2,13).
   b) Most believers don’t want any affliction/tribulation, but the Lord can use such circumstantial conditions to motivate much fruit (cf. 2nd Cor. 1:4 and notes there).

2) συνοχῆς καρδίας. συνοχή ὧν: anguish, dismay (Lk. 21:25; 2nd Cor. 2:4). Fr. συνέχω (Mt. 4:24; Lk. 4:38; 8:37,45; 12:50; 19:43; 22:63; Acts 7:57; 18:5; 28:8; 2nd Cor. 5:14; Phil. 1:23).

Such a One (2nd Cor. 2:5-11)

1. A new causer of sorrow is introduced in verse 5.
   a. The verb was 1st person singular “I” in v.2, a τίς “any” 3rd person singular in v.5.
   b. Paul’s λυπέω activity in v.2 is present tense. This new λυπέω activity is perfect tense.

2. Paul shows some caution as he wants to clarify the reality without exaggeration (2nd Cor. 2:5b).
   a. “You know who” no longer brings Paul sorrow (he actually now makes him glad, v.2b).
   b. “You know who” caused sorrow in the past and continues to be a source of grief to the present to the entire Corinthian congregation.

3. Verse 5’s “Any” is spelled out as “Such a One” (2nd Cor. 2:6,7 cf. 1st Cor. 5:5,11; Gal. 6:1).
   a. Such a One was punished. ἐπιτιμία (2209) Hapax fr. ἐπιτιμάω (2208) to express strong disapproval of someone, rebuke, reprove, censure (Lk. 17:3; 2nd Tim. 4:2; Jude 9).
   b. Such a One’s punishment was sufficient. ἰκανός (2425) 39x.
      1) Sufficient to satisfy Divine wrath, Righteousness or Justice?
      2) Sufficient to satisfy Corinthian norms?
      3) Sufficient to produce repentance (Mt. 18:15-18).
   c. Such a One’s punishment was by the majority/rest of the congregation (ὑπὸ τῶν πλείονῶν). Impossible grammatically to be dogmatic about the translation. Clearly though corporate discipline had been applied.

4. Such a One is now entitled to forgiveness and comfort as a reaffirmation of ἀγάπη love (2nd Cor. 2:7-8).
   a. Forgiveness is not ἑρμήνευται (963) but rather aor.mid.inf. χαίρω (2453) (Lk. 7:21,42,43; Acts 3:14; 25:11,16; 27:24; Rom. 8:32; 1st Cor. 2:12; 2nd Cor. 2,7,10,11; 12:13; Gal. 3:18; Eph. 4:32,5; Phil. 1:29; 29; Col. 2:13; 3:13,21; Philem. 22).
   b. Comfort/exhort/encourage παρακαλέω (3870) see all the notes in Chapter One.

5. The sorrowful letter (v.3) was written as a test for approval in order for the Corinthians obedience to be demonstrated in the angelic conflict (2nd Cor. 2:9). δοκιμάζω (1382) (Rom. 5:4; 2nd Cor. 2:9; 8:2; 9:13; 13:3; Phil. 2:22). See also δοκιμάζω & δοκιμασία 23x δοκίμω (1383) δοκίμος (1384) & ἀδόκιμος (96) 8x.

6. Paul has already graced out Such a One so as to guard his own heart and mind from Satanic thinking (2nd Cor. 2:10–11).
   a. Paul’s forgiveness of Such a One was for the Corinthians’ sake “in the presence of Christ” (2nd Cor. 2:10 cf. 1st Cor. 5:4; Matt. 18:20; 28:20).
   b. Satanic thinking exploits ungracious believers.
      1) Satanic thinking—νοήμα θετούμενον (2nd Cor. 2:11; 3:14; 4:4; 10:5; 11:3; Phil. 4:7).
         a) Satanic thinking is grace-deficient thinking (2nd Cor. 2:11).
         b) Grace-deficient thinking hardens the mind (2nd Cor. 3:14).
         c) Satan uses such hardened/blinded minds to counter the work of evangelism (2nd Cor. 4:4).
         d) The battle for the mind is the epitome of the angelic conflict for the Church (2nd Cor. 10:5).
         e) This battle is both personal and corporate (2nd Cor. 11:3ff).
         f) The two biggest blessings for any believer in this conflict is Bible study (Rom. 12:1–2; Eph. 4:20–24*) and prayer (Phil. 4:6–7). *Note how this Bible study motivates fellowship (Eph. 4:25–32).

2) Exploits. πλεονεκτέω (2nd Cor. 2:11; 7:2; 12:17,18; 1st Thess. 4:6).
   a) Sin is exploitive (1st Thess. 4:6).
   b) Failure to forgive sin is exploitive (2nd Cor. 2:11).
   c) Rebutting sin is neither exploitive nor condemning (2nd Cor. 7:2–3).
   d) Faithful servants of Jesus Christ will not financially exploit the flock (2nd Cor. 12:17–18).

Paul’s Turmoil (2nd Cor. 2:12–13)

1. Paul came to Troas for the gospel of Christ (2nd Cor. 2:12a).
   a. Troas is featured four times in the NT always in connection with the Apostle Paul (Acts 16:8,11; 20:5,6; 2nd Cor. 2:12; 2nd Tim. 4:13).
   b. The purpose clause establishes the Gospel as the reason for being in Troas rather than simply passing through Troas. εἰς τὸ εὐαγγέλιον τοῦ Χριστοῦ εἰς εὐαγγέλιον θου Christou.

2. And a door having been opened for Paul in/by the Lord (2nd Cor. 2:12b).
   a. Open door opportunities are volitional obedience tests for Christian ministers (Acts 14:27; 1st Cor. 16:9; Col. 4:3). This specific door was explicitly having been opened to Paul by Jesus Christ. θύρας μοι ἀνεῳγμένης ἐν κυρίῳ θυρας moi aneō(i)gmenēs en kuriō(i).
   b. Jesus Christ is the Head of the Church and the Member of Trinity who opens ministry doors (1st Cor. 12:5; Rev. 3:7,8).

3. Paul had no rest for his spirit—not finding Titus (2nd Cor. 2:13a).
   a. The perfect active tense describing Paul’s unrest matches vividly with the perfect passive tense describing Paul’s open door in/by the Lord.
   b. ἀνεῳγμένης anesis #325 ἔν χριστων a door having been opened to Paul by Jesus Christ. θύρας μοι ἀνεῳγμένης ἐν κυρίῳ θυρας moi aneō(i)gmenēs en kuriō(i).

4. Taking his leave of them, Paul departed for Macedonia (2nd Cor. 2:13b).

P: When an affliction becomes a condition, an alteration of location is not a solution (2nd Cor. 2:13 cf. 7:5).

Paul’s Perspective-check (2nd Cor. 1:14–17)

1. When reflecting upon his turmoil in Troas, Paul was inspired to compose a thanksgiving psalm (2nd Cor. 2:14).
   a. The human author selected to write “in everything give thanks” (1st Thess. 5:18) obeyed that imperative and identified a thanksgiving offering to God the Father. Τῷ δὲ θεῷ χάρις.
   b. Paul identified two present divine activities to thank God for. θυματιβούντες θανατοῦ & φανεροῦντες δι’ θανατοῦ.
      1) Leading us in triumph. This great perspective check reminds the believer of God’s past completed victoria and present ongoing triumphus.
      2) Manifesting through us a sweet aroma. This great perspective check reminds the believer of God’s present work spreading the fragrance of Christ throughout the world.

2. The Triumph was the highest accolade provided by the Senate for a victorious general.
   a. Unger’s Bible Dictionary article on Triumph.
b. Our triumph from the Father is eternally in Christ. τῷ πάντοτε θριαμβεύοντι ἡμᾶς ἐν τῷ Χριστῷ.

1) θριαμβεύοντι Pres.act.ptc masc.sing, dat, G 2358; 2x.
2) God the Father and Jesus Christ are always (πάντοτε) triumphing even when individual believers fail at certain moments in time.
3) Jesus Christ’s triumphal parade route began in Hades (Col. 2:15).

3. Just as the Roman triumph featured a long train of persons carrying perfumes, God the Father manifests an aroma to this fallen κόσμος.

a. Two odorous terms are used in this passage.
1) ὁσμή osmē #5664: odor, smell, aroma (Jn. 12:3; 2nd Cor. 2:14,16,5; Eph. 5:2; Phil. 4:18).
2) εὐωδία euōdia #2175: aroma, fragrance (2nd Cor. 2:15; Eph. 5:2; Phil. 4:18).

b. οἱ θριαμβεύοντες osmē εὐωδίας in the NT is the same θριαμβεύοντες as θριαμβεύοντες in the OT (Gen. 8:21; Ex. 29:18,25,41 etc.; Lev. 1:9,13,17 + 32x). This soothing aroma has an eschatological fulfillment in the restoration of Israel (Ezek. 20:41).

c. The same fragrance has two descriptions.
1) The aroma of the knowledge of God (v.14).
2) The fragrance of Christ (v.15).
   a) The γνῶσις gnōsis #1108 of God is the worldwide manifestation of His grace.
   b) God the Father has variously revealed Himself through: Creation, Revelation, Inspiration, Incarnation, Aromatization.

d. We have an aromaticity duplicity: to the being saved (ἐν τοῖς σωτηρίας) and to the perishing (ἐν τοῖς ἀπολλυμένοις) (v.15-16a).
1) An aroma out of death leading to death.
2) An aroma out of life leading to life.
   Tremendous quote by Barclay at this point.

4. Not one Church Member is adequate in themselves for God the Father’s aromatization effect (2nd Cor. 2:16b). Personal inadequacy is a divine viewpoint perspective regarding divine adequacy (2nd Cor. 2:16b cf. 3:5-6).

5. Divine adequacy is put on display through genuine Biblical Christianity (2nd Cor. 2:17). Biblical Christianity has nothing to peddle. καταπληκτικὸν κατάπληκτον #2518: to peddle, sell. The context of 2:17 with δολοῦ doloō #1389: in 4:2 spotlights the shady practices of tavern-keepers in adulterating their product.

b. Biblical Christianity is a way of life that withstands the scrutiny of the sun’s rays. εἰλικρινές εἰλικρίνη #1108: 2x (1st Cor. 5:8; 2nd Cor. 1:12; 2:17; Phil. 1:10; 2nd Pet. 3:1).

c. Biblical Christianity is a way of life “in Christ” from God the Father and before God the Father (2nd Cor. 2:17; 12:19 cf. 1st Cor. 8:6).

Chapter Three

In chapter three, Paul expands upon the theme of adequacy introduced in chapter two (2nd Cor. 2:16b-17). Genuine Biblical Christianity is not a false humility, and legitimate credentials come when God does the work (2nd Cor. 3:1-3). Divine adequacy is even more remarkable in the abounding glory of the Church (2nd Cor. 3:4-11). Divine adequacy and abounding glory produce a face to face spiritual transformation (2nd Cor. 3:12-18).
Legitimate Credentials (2nd Cor. 3:1–3)

1. Paul & Timothy’s confession of genuine Biblical Christianity (2nd Cor. 2:17) was not intended to form a commendation (2nd Cor. 3:1a). Ἀρχόμεθα πάλιν ἑαυτοὺς συνιστάναι;
   a. Paul & Timothy have no interest in a “fresh start” or “do-over” with the Corinthians. Interesting combination of ἀρχέω archē #756 begin and πάλιν palin #3825 again.
   b. Self-commending recommendations serve no purpose anyway. ἑαυτοὺς + pres.act.inf. συνιστάναι sunistānō #4921 (Rom. 3:5; 5:8; 16:1; 2nd Cor. 3:1; 4:2; 5:12; 6:4; 7:11; 10:12,18; 12:11; Gal. 2:18). Related forms συνιστάω sunistāō and συνιστήμι sunistēmī are also indexed as #4921. Variant manuscript readings mix and match these three forms.
   c. The subject of appropriate and inappropriate self-commendation is discussed at length by Plutarch, On Inoffensive Self-Praise (Mor. 539–47).

2. Paul & Timothy should be the last people on earth to require letters of commendation to/from Corinth (2nd Cor. 3:1b).
   a. The second question in this verse is expressed with an expectation of a negative response. μὴ + pres.act.ind. χρῆσαι chreōs #5355, to have need of (Mt. 6:32; Lk. 11:8; 12:30; Rom. 16:2; 2nd Cor. 3:1).
   b. Letters of commendation. συστατικός sunstatikos #4921 used only here once (or twice).
      1) The συστατική ἐπιστολή (συστατικῶν γραμμάτων) is well attested in secular literature as a formal letter of reference similar to modern practices (Moulton-Milligan, Deissmann, etc.).
      2) Such letters were often provided in duplicate (one copy rolled and sealed): the διπλωμα.

3. The flock in Corinth corporately formed the only reference letter or diploma Paul & Timothy required (2nd Cor. 3:2).
   a. Y’all (plural) are collectively our ἑπιστολή epistole #1391 recorded in our heart. Perf.pass.ptc. ἐγραφᾶμαι engraphō #4921 recorded in our heart. (Lk. 10:20; 2nd Cor. 3:2).
   b. Known & read by all men are both present passive participles describing the attendant circumstances to the Corinthians state of being.
      1) The work of God in this present age is one of legal testimony (Eph. 3:10; Col. 2:14).
      2) This passage would appear to make every local church an affidavit on record in the Father’s present legal case.
   c. You presently, continuously are an Epistle of Christ servant–ministered by us. 66 inspired texts by more than 40 human authors. Jesus Christ authored none of them. His present authorship is in the transformed life of each and every Member of His Body.
      1) A third present passive participle combines the first two. Known & read = being manifested.
         φανερώσαμεν phanerōsāme #3199 & φανερώσαται phanerōsātai #3199. Related terms include φανερός phanerōs #5318, φανερός phanerōs #5320, φανερώσις phanerōsis #3521. All from φαίνω phainō #5316, to shine. Combined refs in Corinthian epistles: 1st Cor. 3:13; 4:5; 11:19; 12:7; 14:25; 2nd Cor. 2:14; 3:3; 4:2,10,11; 5:10,11; 7:12; 11:6.
      2) An epistle of commendation is an epistle of Christ. Nothing but Christ commends us for anything.
      3) Ministering to other believers via the Holy Spirit’s giftedness and empowerment supplies the venue in which the Holy Spirit engraves Christ within our hearts (2nd Cor. 3:3). Διακονεῖ διακοινοῦσα #3179, to minister, serve. Related terms include διακονοῦσα διακοινοῦσα #3129 & διάκονος διακοινοῦσα #3129. Combined refs: 1st Cor. 3:5; 12:5; 16:15; 2nd Cor. 3:6,7,8,9; 11:1; 5:18; 6:3,4; 8:4,19,20; 9:1,12,13; 11:8,15,23.

4. Having Christ written upon our hearts equips us to serve as ministers to Israel when they receive Kingdom Law written within their hearts (2nd Cor. 3:3,6; Jer. 31:31,33).
   a. Such conditions were commanded by Moses (Deut. 6:6–9; 11:18–21).
   b. Such conditions were experienced by David and other psalmists (Ps. 37:31; 40:8; 119:11).
   c. Such conditions will be realized by the entire nation of Israel when Christ is seated on David’s throne (Ps. 51:7; Jer. 31:31,33).

Divine Adequacy and Abounding Glory (2nd Cor. 3:4–11)

1. Our heart-written Christ epistle creates a condition of confidence in our relationship to God the Father (2nd Cor. 3:4). Review the principles of πεποίθησις pepoithēsis #4006 from chapter one.
   a. Through Christ to the Father is our eternal standing in reconciliation (2nd Cor. 5:18; Col. 1:20).
   b. Through Christ to the Father is our standard mechanism for priestly function (Rom. 1:8; 7:25; Col. 3:17; Heb. 13:15; 1st Pet. 2:5; 4:11).
2. Christian confidence does not come through self-adequacy, but through divine adequacy (2nd Cor. 3:5).
   a. Adequacy = sufficiency. ἰκανός hikanos #2673 1a; ἰκανότης hikanotēs #2674 1a; ἰκανοόν hikanoo #2587 2a.
   b. Adequacy/inadequacy becomes irrelevant in the light of grace (1st Cor. 15:9-10).
   c. Adequacy/inadequacy becomes irrelevant in the scope of God the Father’s ongoing work (2nd Cor. 2:14-16).
   d. Adequacy/inadequacy has no bearing on our inheritance (Col. 1:12).
   e. Adequacy/inadequacy for training a generation of Bible teachers stems from the proper placement of trust (2nd Tim. 2:2).

3. God the Father adequatized the Church as new covenant servant-ministers (2nd Cor. 3:6).
   a. This adequatizing is the Spirit written provision of life, rather than the stone-engraved letters of death.
   b. This spiritual life-giving Body is the perfect mate for the Second Adam life-giving spirit (1st Cor. 15:45).

4. Israel’s stewardship (Dispensation of Israel) under the circumstantial conditions of Mosaic Law (Age of Law) was a glory, but not in comparison with the glory of the Church (2nd Cor. 3:7-11).
   a. Compared to the Church, Israel’s glory did not exist (v.10). The glory that fades is inferior to the eternal shining glory (v.11).
   b. The Dispensation of Israel: Age of Law is called the ministry of death (ἵ διακονία τοῦ θανάτου διακονία του thanatou v.7), and the ministry of condemnation (ἵ διακονία τῆς κατακρίσεως tês katakriseōs v.9).
   c. The Church’s ministry is called the ministry of the Spirit (ἵ διακονία τοῦ πνεύματος tou pneumatos v.8), and the ministry of righteousness (ἵ διακονία τῆς δικαιοσύνης tês dikaiosūnês v.9).
   d. Israel’s difficulty looking to Moses gives way to the blessing we have looking to Jesus (2nd Cor. 3:7; Ex. 34:29-35; Heb. 12:2; also see the next section for an expansion on 1st Cor. 13:12; 2nd Cor. 3:18).

Unveiled Faces (2nd Cor. 3:12-18)

1. Having “such confidence” (2nd Cor. 3:4) leads to having “such a hope” (2nd Cor. 3:12).
   a. “Such confidence” (v.4) is the spirit-written Christ epistle on the heart (vv.1-3). Having such confidence benefits our priestly function through Christ to the Father.
   b. “Such hope” (v.12) is the divine adequacy being adequatized as servants of a new covenant (vv.5-6).
   c. Having such a hope ("Εχοντες χωριστήτα πνεύματα" causes great plain-spoken ministry (πολλή παρρησία χρώμεθα).
   1) Pres.act.ind. χράομεθα #5410: use, to make use of, employ (Acts 27:3;17; 1st Cor. 7:21,31; 9:12,15; 2nd Cor. 1:17; 3:12; 13:10; 1st Tim. 1:8; 5:23).
   2) παρρησία παρρεσία #3984 31a, b outspokenness, frankness, plainness (Mk. 8:32; Jn. 7:13; 10:24; 11:14; 16:25,29; Acts 2:29; 2nd Cor. 3:12; also Diogn. 11:2; MPol. 10:1); b openness to the public (Jn. 7:26; 11:54; 18:20; Acts 28:31; Col. 2:15; Phil. 1:20); b courage, confidence, boldness @ in association with humans (Acts 2:29; 4:13,29,31; 2nd Cor. 7:4; Philmem. 8: Eph. 6:19; also 1st Clem. 34:1); b in relation to God (Eph. 3:12; 1st Tim. 3:13; Heb. 3:6; 4:16; 10:19,35; 1st Jn. 2:28; 3:21; 4:17; 5:14; also 1st Clem. 34:5; 35:2). Context must determine whether 1, 2 or 3 (a or b) is appropriate for this passage.

2. Our boldness is not like Moses’ boldness (2nd Cor. 3:13,18).
   a. Moses’ boldness was a lonely one. His veil could only be removed in the tent of meeting (Ex. 34:29-35).
   b. The head veil was necessary and prudent. Israel “could not” see the full glory (v.7) and “would not” see the end of the fading away glory (v.13).
   c. The fading principle applies in the Church specifically related to the in-part giftedness of the Apostolic Age (1st Cor. 13:8,10,11). καταργέω #2673 to invalidate, make powerless; abolish, wipe out; to discharge, release.
   d. Our unveiled faces are “beholding as in a mirror” the glory of the Lord.
   1) καταπταίρω καταπραίσ #2734 #2734. Often rel. to 1st Cor. 13:12 but important differences exist.
   2) In 1st Cor. the activity was looking (βλέπω blepō) through (δια dia) a mirror (ἔσοπτρον esoptron) enigmatically (ἐν αἰνίγματι en amigmati).
   3) In 2nd Cor. the mirror terminology is a verb rather than a noun. We are not looking, we are mirroring.
   4) Our mirroring activity is paralleled with our metamorphosis (μεταμορφοφέον metamorpho #3339).
   5) Our metamorphosed glory doesn’t fade, but abides (2nd Cor. 3:11), and requires no veil because we are all within the tent (2nd Cor. 3:18).

3. Israel’s mental veil (2nd Cor. 3:14-17).

4. The Evangelistic Life

In chapter four, applications are made from the principles developed in chapter three. The ministry of the Spirit (3:8) & righteousness (3:9) generates hope and motivates boldness (3:12) in our Christian transformation (3:18). This transformation is 1) an evangelistic life (2nd Cor. 4:1-6), 2) a persecuted life (2nd Cor. 4:7-15), and 3) a hyper-ballistic life of glory (2nd Cor. 4:16-18).

The Evangelistic Life (2nd Cor. 4:1-6)

1. The evangelistic life described in Ch. 4 echoes God the Father’s triumph in Ch. 2.
   a. Renounced the things hidden (4:2) as from sincerity (2:17).
   b. Not adulterating the Word of God (4:2) nor peddling the word of God (2:17).
   c. Manifestation of truth (4:2) manifests us the sweet aroma (2:14).
   d. In the sight of God (4:2) in the sight of God (2:17).
   e. To those who are perishing (4:3) among those who are perishing (2:15).
   f. We preach Christ Jesus as Lord (4:5) we speak in Christ (2:17).
   g. The knowledge of the glory of God (4:6) the knowledge of Him in every place (2:14).

2. The god of this age blinds minds today in a description in chapter four that echoes Israel’s blinded heart/mind in chapter three (2nd Cor. 4:3-4 || 3:14-16).

3. Having this ministry means we have been the objects of divine mercy (2nd Cor. 4:1).
   a. Finding mercy is an expression of salvation (1st Tim. 1:16).
   b. Objects of mercy should become sources of mercy (Matt. 18:33).
   c. Sources of mercy in the Kingdom will reap additional mercy (Matt. 5:7).
   d. Mercy showing is a spiritual gift in the Church (Rom. 12:8).
   e. Divine mercy is particularly focused on the lost estate of humanity in Adam (Rom. 11:32).

4. Having this ministry—and embracing its significance—means we do not lose heart (2nd Cor. 4:1).
   a. In an active sense, not merely being in possession, but taking hold of it and operating under the obligations and expectations of something.
   b. Loss of heart (4:1) includes weariness, burnout (2nd Cor. 4:16; Gal. 6:9; 2nd Thess. 3:13). This is a spiritual gift in the Church (Rom. 12:8).
   1) Wearing down against spiritual burnout include persistent prayer (Lk. 18:1), identification with salvation mercy (2nd Cor. 4:1), and anticipation of resurrection glory (2nd Cor. 4:16).
   2) Burnout is a danger not only in the face of tribulation (Eph. 3:13) but also in the face of the as yet unrewarded doing good (Gal. 6:9; 2nd Thess. 3:13).
5. The evangelistic life is open, transparent, clean-conscience life (2nd Cor. 4:2).
   a. Christians should not only avoid shameful practices, but actively renounce them. ἀπείπον ἀπειπόνον \footnote{Hapax} (but see also Eph. 5:11-12; 2nd Jn. 10,11).
   b. Secret things of shame will eventually be exposed, so they ought to be forsaken immediately. τὰ κρυπτά τῆς αἰσχύνης τὰ κρυπτά \footnote{Hapax} (Lk. 8:17; Rom. 2:16; 1st Cor. 4:5; 14:25; 2nd Cor. 4:2). This principle was an emphasis for the Apostolic Fathers (1Eph. 15:3; Poly. 4:3).
   c. Craftiness is the realm of Satan's operation, caught every time by the glorious wisdom of God. πανουργία \footnote{Hapax} (Lk. 20:23; 1st Cor. 3:19 (Job 5:12,13); 2nd Cor. 4:2; 11:3 (cf. Gen. 3:1); Eph. 4:14). Paul uses the adj. πανουργος \footnote{Hapax} sarcastically in 2nd Cor. 12:16.
   d. Adulterating the Word of God parallels peddling the Word of God (2:17). δολόω δολόω \footnote{Hapax} to falsify; adulterate. The context of 4:2 with in καταπλαίω καταπλαίω \footnote{Hapax} (2:17) spotlights the shady practices of tavern-keepers in adulterating their product. The practice is designed to result in the detriment of the unknowing victim and maximum personal benefit to the barman.

6. The evangelistic life confronts another god (2nd Cor. 4:3-4).
   a. The καλύμμα καλύμμα \footnote{Hapax} 4 from chapter three (3:13,14,15,16) introduces the καλύττω καλύττω \footnote{Hapax} in chapter four (4:3,). This verb is used twice as periphrastic perfects. The gospel presently continuously is having been veiled.
   b. The presently continuously having been veiled gospel is in the case of the perishing ones. Pres. mid. ptc. ἀπόλλυμι ἀπολλύμι \footnote{Hapax} The present participle is used substantively by Paul to refer to the unregenerate (1st Cor. 1:18; 2nd Cor. 2:15; 4:3; 9; 2nd Thess. 2:10) in contrast with the being saved ones, and  in parallel with the unbelieving ones 2nd Cor. 4:4.
   c. The god of this age (ὁ θεός του αἰώνος τούτου ho theou tou aiōnos toutou) is pathetically inferior to the Creator of the Ages (Heb. 1:2 11:3), the Only God, Immortal, Invisible, King of the Ages (1st Tim. 1:17). αἰών αἰών \footnote{122x5} a long period of time, age.
      1) The rulers of this age operate by an inferior wisdom (1st Cor. 2:6,8).
      2) The wisdom God provides us preceded this age, and will survive this age (1st Cor. 2:7).
      3) Our salvation is a rescue from this present, evil age (Gal. 1:4).
      4) Demas didn’t love the κόσμος, but he did love this αἰών (2nd Tim. 4:10).
      5) The conformity we are prohibited from is not conformity to this κόσμος, but conformity to this αἰών (Rom. 12:2).
   d. The god of this age works to keep the Image of God from being seen (2nd Cor. 4:4).

7. We preach (2nd Cor. 4:5) while the Father shines (2nd Cor. 4:6).
   a. The Only God, Immortal, Invisible, King of the Ages works to ensure that the Image of God will be seen (2nd Cor. 4:6).
   b. Our gospel preaching is not self-exalting but Christ honoring (2nd Cor. 4:5a).
   c. Our servant heart is the Christ honoring life compatible with the gospel preached (2nd Cor. 4:5b).

The Persecuted Life (2nd Cor. 4:7-15)

1. The persecuted life must be studied and embraced in the context of “this treasure” (2nd Cor. 4:7a). θησαυρός \footnote{Hapax} is the illuminated heart (2nd Cor. 4:6 cf. Mt. 6:21; 12:34,35).
   a. Our treasure is the Father’s illuminated heart (2nd Cor. 4:6).
   b. The light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ comes with a reproach, which is greater than any riches the world can offer (Heb. 11:26).
   c. Gospel treasure leads to a greater treasure of love-knitting (Col. 2:2-3).

2. Earthen vessels are weak by design so that God can evidence His hyperballistic dynamic power (2nd Cor. 4:7b,16-18).
   a. ὀστράκινοι \footnote{Hapax} vessel, used of human beings, often with stress on their bodies (Acts 9:15; Rom. 9:22,23; 2nd Cor. 4:7 1st Thess. 4:4; 1st Pet. 3:7).
   b. The hyperbole of the power is manifested through our weaknesses (2nd Cor. 4:8-12; 12:9-10). ὑπερβολή \footnote{Hapax} for δύναμις dunamis \footnote{Hapax} 3 Four illustrations are given for how God’s power is evidenced (2nd Cor. 4:8-9).
   a. These illustrations manifest throughout the Christian Way of Life and illustrate how God the Father continues to delineate the adversary’s maximum permitted activity (cf. Job 1:12; 2:6).
b. “In everything” for the Corinthians ought to parallel “in everything” for the Thessalonians (1st Thess. 5:18). Perhaps a better rendering would be “at all times and in every place and circumstance” (Theophylact)

c. Afflicted but not crushed.
   1) θάραξις thlipsis #2347 45ς (2nd Cor. 1:6; 4:8; 7:5; 1st Thess. 3:4; 2nd Thess. 1:6,7; 1st Tim. 5:10; Heb. 11:37) rel. to θλίψεως thlipsis #2347 45ς (Jn. 16:33; Rom. 5:3; 8:35; 12:12; 2nd Cor. 1:4,8; 2:4; 4:17; 6:4; 7:4; 8:2,13) but not στενοχορέος stenochoreoς #1720 3ς (2nd Cor. 4:8; 6:12,2ς) rel. to στενοχορία stenchoria #1720 4ς (Rom. 2:9; 8:35; 2nd Cor. 6:4; 12:10).

d. Perplexed but not despairing.
   1) ἀπορέος aporeoς #609 ῥ (Mrk. 6:20; Lk. 24:4; Jn. 13:22; Acts 25:20; Gal. 4:20) but not ἐξαπορέος exaporeoς #1820 2ς (2nd Cor. 1:8; 4:8).

e. Persecuted but not forsaken.
   1) διώκω diōkō (Mt. 5:10,11,12,44; Jn. 15:20; Rom. 12:14; 1st Cor. 4:12; 2nd Tim. 3:12) rel. to διοιγμός dioigmos #1375 10ς (Mt. 13:21; Rom. 8:35; 2nd Cor. 12:10; 2nd Thess. 1:4; 2nd Tim. 3:11,2ς) but not εξαπορέω exaporeō (Mt. 27:46; Acts 2:27,31; 2nd Tim. 4:10,16; Heb. 10:25; 13:5).

f. Struck down but not destroyed.
   1) καταβάλλω kataballō #2346 2ς (a technical term in wrestling, boxing, or battle: “throw down,” “knock down,” “strike down”) but not
   2) ἀπολλυμι ἀπολλυμι #222 9ς (Jn. 3:16; 10:28; 11:50; 17:12; Rom. 14:15; 1st Cor. 1:18,19; 8:11; 10:9,9; 15:18; 2nd Cor. 2:15; 4:3,9; 2nd Thess. 2:10; 2nd Pet. 3:9).

g. Earthen vessels displaying the Father’s power describes the Church Age portrayal of the death and life of Jesus Christ (2nd Cor. 4:10–11).
   1) We “carry about” Jesus’ νέκρωσις nekrōsis #3500 2ς (Rom. 4:19; 2nd Cor. 4:10) as we are constantly betrayed to θάνατος thanatos #2288 19ς.
   2) Our mortal flesh becomes the stage to evidence the life of Christ. θνητός thnētos #2349 6ς (Rom. 6:12; 8:11; 1st Cor. 15:53,54; 2nd Cor. 4:11; 5:4) + σαρξ sarx #6020 8ς.

4. Paul ended this discourse with a significant “so then” conclusion (2nd Cor. 4:12–15). ὥστε hōste #660 ὦς.
   a. Death & life within us are fundamental to the Father’s working. ἐνεργεῖον energēion #1754 21ς (2nd Cor. 4:12 cf. 1st Cor. 12:6; Eph. 1:11; Phil. 2:13; 1st Th. 2:13).
   b. Verse 12 helps identify the betrayer from verse 11. Just as the Father delivered over the Son (Acts 2:23; 4:28; Rev. 13:8), so too does the Father constantly deliver us over to death for Jesus’ sake (cf. the Father’s complicity in Job 2:3).
   c. The Spirit of Faith empowers the talk & walk of faith (Ps. 116:10; 39:3; Jer. 20:9; Acts 4:20; 2nd Cor. 5:7).
   d. This (talk &) walk identifies with the Father’s purpose as we are presented before Him in time (Rom. 6:13,16,19; 12:1; 2nd Tim. 2:15) and in eternity (Rom. 14:10; 1st Cor. 8:8; 2nd Cor. 4:14; 11:2; Eph. 5:27; Col. 1:22,28).
   e. The sacrificial Christian walk multiplies grace, causes thanksgiving to abound, and remains focused on the glory of God (2nd Cor. 4:15 cf. 1:11; 9:11,12).

The Hyper-Ballistic Life of Glory (2nd Cor. 4:16–18)

1. Believers can ward off burnout by rightly contrasting outer man and inner man realities (2nd Cor. 4:16).
   a. The outer man (1st Sam. 16:7; II l the body Rom. 8:10) decays. διαφθείρω diaphtheirō #2349 6ς + σαρξ sarx #6020 8ς.
   b. The inner man (Rom. 2:29; 7:22; 1st Pet. 3:4) is renewed daily. ἀνακαινόω anakainō #1311 2ς (2nd Cor. 4:16; Col. 3:10) cf. ἀνακαίνισις anakainiosis #342 2ς (Rom. 12:2; Tit. 3:5) & ἀνανεωσία ananeos #165 (Eph. 4:23).
   c. The contrast between outer & inner can be starkly different (1st Sam. 16:7; Mt. 23:27,28; 2nd Cor. 10:7).

2. Believers can ward off burnout by rightly contrasting temporal and eternal realities (2nd Cor. 4:17).
   a. Affliction is not modified by two adjectives (momentary & light), but rather the light/insignificant thing is modified by two adjectives (momentary & “of affliction”). For the momentary insignificance of our affliction, τῷ γὰρ παραστίκην ἑλήφθην τῆς θλίψεως ἡμῶν.
      1) παραστίκην parastrikēn #3910 pert. to a point of time immediately subsequent to another point of time, on the spot, at once.
      2) ἑλθθῆν ἑλήφθην elaphthēn: having little weight, light, insignificant.
      3) θλίψεως thlipsis #2347 4ς; tribulation, affliction.
b. Glory is not modified by two adjectives (eternal & weighty), but rather the heavy/significant thing is modified by two adjectives (eternal & “of glory”). An eternal significance of glory. αἰώνιον βάρος δόξης.
   1) αἰώνιος αἰώνιος #1660: eternal.
   2) βάρος βαρός #922 ὁ: burden, weight.
   3) δόξα δόξα #1391 #166: glory.

c. The relationship of light things to heavy things is perfectly taught by Jesus’ illustration of the light burden (Mt. 11:30) and in His contrast between affliction and reward (Lk. 6:23).

d. Shortly after arriving in Corinth, Paul will expand this doctrinal line of reasoning in his epistle to the Romans (Rom. 8:18).

The West Expanded NT translation says it well:

Wherefore, we are not losing courage. But and if, as is the case, our outward self is progressively decaying, yet our inward self is being changed into a new kind of life [fit for the new spiritual existence into which we have been ushered in salvation, and constantly being conformed to the image of the Lord Jesus] day by day. For our momentary light burden of affliction is working out for us more and more surpassingly an eternal, heavy weight of glory while we are not contemplating the things that are seen but the things which are not seen, for the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

3. Eternal glory is a present production far beyond all comparison (2nd Cor. 4:17).
   a. Pres.mid.ind. κατεργάζομαι katergazomai #2716 #225: produce, work out (2nd Cor. 4:17; 5:5; 7:10,11; 9:11; 12:12; Phil. 2:12; Jas. 1:3).
   b. Excessively to excess: καθ’ ύπερβολὴν εἰς ύπερβολὴν καθ’ ύπερβολὴν εἰς ύπερβολὴν.
      1) ύπερβολὴ ύπερβολή #9236 8x (Rom. 7:13; 1st Cor. 12:31; 2nd Cor. 1:8; 4:7,17,23; 12:7; Gal. 1:13) & ύπερβάλλω #9235 5x (2nd Cor. 3:10; 9:14; Eph. 1:19; 2:7; 3:19) form the basis for Pastor Bob’s hyper-ballistic terminology.
      2) The double prepositional phrases must be translated and understood as a compound superlative.

Verse 17 Pastor Bob Translation: For our momentary triviality of affliction is presently producing within us exceedingly to exceed an eternal significance of glory.

4. The eternal significance of glory is not a future promise, but a present production for present continuous viewing (2nd Cor. 4:18).
   a. Not looking (σκοπέω skopeō #4037 at the things which are able to be seen (βλέπω blepō #991).
   b. Looking at the things which are not able to be seen is only possible through the operational functions of faith (2nd Cor. 5:7; Heb. 11:1), hope (Rom. 8:24,25), and love (1st Pet. 1:8).
   c. Setting our minds on the things above is our way of life imperative (Col. 3:2).
   d. Moses illustrated this principle (Heb. 11:27) and Jesus typified it for our own application (Heb. 12:2-3).

Chapter Five

The eternal/temporal contrast from chapter four creates a courage for life and death in chapter five. The death of this body is not fearful but exciting as we look forward to the new body and residence with Christ (2nd Cor. 5:1-10). Until we are out of our bodies we ought to be out of our minds for the ministry of reconciliation (2nd Cor. 5:11-21).

Earthly Tents and Heavenly Buildings (2nd Cor. 5:1-10)

1. Although the inner man renewal mitigates the outer man decaying (2nd Cor. 4:16), the outer man decaying might culminate in physical death (2nd Cor. 5:1).
   a. “If our earthly tent-house is torn down” is a 3rd class condition that may or may not take place.
   b. From Adam to Paul, physical death was an inevitability (Gen. 3:19; Ps. 89:48; Heb. 9:27) with only two recorded exceptions (Gen. 5:24; 2nd Kgs. 2:11).
   c. Through the Apostle Paul, the mystery of the Rapture makes physical death a condition that may or may not take place (1st Cor. 15:51-55).

2. In the event of physical death, Members of the Church have a heavenly body prepared (2nd Cor. 5:1).
   a. The only component of our humanity susceptible to death is our earthly tent-house. ἐπιγείεις epigeios #1919 (Jn. 3:12; 1st Cor. 15:40,45; 2nd Cor. 5:1; Phil. 2:10; 3:19; Jas. 3:15).
b. A building from God we have, a house non-handmade eternal in heaven. ἀχειροποίητος acheiropoietos (Mk. 14:58; 2nd Cor. 5:1; Col. 2:11). Contrasted with χειροποίητος cheiropoietos (Mk. 14:58; Acts 7:48; 17:24; Eph. 2:11; Heb. 9:11-24).

3. Mortality features a groaning (2nd Cor. 5:2-4). στεναζω stenazō #4727 (Mk. 7:34; Rom. 8:23); 2nd Cor. 5:2; 4; Heb. 13:17; Jas. 5:9). * also συστεναζω sustenazō #9059 (Rom. 8:22) & στεναγμός stenagmos #4726 (Rom. 8:26).

a. Groaning parallels longing (2nd Cor. 5:2). ἐπιπόθεω epipotheō #1971 (Rom. 1:11; 2nd Cor. 5:2; 9:14; Phil. 1:8; 2:26; 1st Thess. 3:6; 2nd Tim. 1:4; 1st Pet. 2:2; Jas. 4:5). See also ἐπιπόθησις epipothēsis #1972 (2nd Cor. 7:7,11); ἐπιπόθησις epipothēs #1971 (Phil. 4:1); ἐπιποθία epipothia #1974 (Rom. 15:23).

b. Groaning parallels being burdened (2nd Cor. 5:4a). βαρέω bareo #902 (2nd Cor. 1:18; 5:4; 1st Tim. 5:16). See also βάρος baros #6026 & βαρύς bars #6026.

c. The longing is to be clothed and not be found naked (2nd Cor. 5:3). γυμνός gumnos #1131 (Mt. 25:36,38,43,44; Mk. 14:51,52; Rev. 3:17). See also γυμνότης gymnotes #1132.

d. The burden is to be clothed so that mortality can be swallowed up by life (2nd Cor. 5:4b). καταπίνω katapinō #2716 (Mt. 23:24; 1st Cor. 15:54; 2nd Cor. 2:7; 5:4; 1st Pet. 5:8).

4. The timing and identification of this embodiment is in question.

a. The resurrection of the dead and transformation of the living is an event that coincides with the παρουσία of Jesus Christ (1st Cor. 15:42-49).

1) The earthly perishable dishonorable weak soul body is sown and the heavenly imperishable glorious powerful spirit body is raised.

2) This reality is so vivid that the imperishable glorious powerful spirit body is commonly referenced as the “resurrection body.”

b. Putting on the heaven-house is an event that coincides with the teardown of the earth-tent (2nd Cor. 5:1-4).

c. The heaven-house of this chapter is therefore not the resurrection body but precedes that embodiment for those heavenly citizens who die prior to the Rapture.

d. Abraham, Lazarus & the rich man illustrate bodily forms in Sheol apart from the earthly perishable dishonorable weak soul bodies that were placed in the ground (Lk. 16:19-31). This passage is significant in that it demonstrates both believers and unbelievers after physical death but it does not show resurrection bodies and it does not feature the Bride of Christ: heavenly citizens with a place prepared.

e. Tribulation martyrs illustrate disembodied souls and the interim white robes they were provided for their necessary rest (Rev. 6:9-11; 20:4-6). This passage is significant in that it demonstrates a provisional embodiment (robe) and a commanded rest prior to and until a promised resurrection. This passage also does not feature the Bride of Christ and her heavenly citizenship.

Conclusion: The Heaven-Building we put on when we take off the Earth-Tent is an interim body supplied to the portion of the Bride who are at home with the Lord in heaven awaiting the resurrection—seeing Him as He is (2nd Cor. 5:8; 1st Jn. 3:2).

5. God prepared us for mortality to be swallowed up by ζωή life (2nd Cor. 5:5).

a. God is the ultimate planner & preparer. He prepared us for our sequential mortal-immortal phases of ζωή life (1st Cor. 15:42-44), κατεργάζομαι katergazomai #2247: achieve, accomplish, bring about, produce (cf. “producing” 2nd Cor. 4:17).

b. This very purpose = this thing itself. εἰς αὐτῷ τοῦτο. Refers back to the “so that” from v.4: “what is mortal will be swallowed up by life.”

c. The pledge of the Spirit coincides with the groaning of creation and fallen humanity in hope (Rom. 8:23). Our hope is a living hope (1st Pet. 1:3) by which we also see the sequential mortal-immortal phases of ζωή life.

d. The pledge of the Spirit is an essential ingredient for our present hope in the established, anointed, sealed position in Christ (2nd Cor. 1:21-22). ἀρραβών arrabon #922 (2nd Cor. 1:22; 5:5; Eph. 1:14) loanwordfr. Semitic. Heb. אָרָבָּב ʿarrabon #6162 (Gen. 38:17,18,20). Lat.: arrabo.

e. The pledge of the Spirit includes every aspect of what God the Holy Spirit did at the moment of our salvation and continues to do in the out-working of our salvation. These are down-payments for what we will experience in the last remaining salvation—the redemption of our bodies in eternal glory. Examples:

1) Anointing us & teaching us (1st Jn. 2:20-27; Jn. 14:26; 1st Cor. 2:12-13).

3) Empowers us (Acts 1:8; Rom. 15:13; 1st Cor. 2:4; Eph. 3:16; 1st Thess. 1:5; 2nd Tim. 1:7).
6. Walking by faith generates courage as the temporal-eternal perspective becomes an absent versus present homeowner & residency perspective (2nd Cor. 5:6-8)†.
   a. Being courageous and knowing (v.6) enables the Bride of Christ to show courage and prefer (v.8). Participles (v.6) lead to indicatives (v.8).
   b. θεαρχεῖν θαρρέω #2292 6x: to have certainty in a matter, be confident, be courageous (2nd Cor. 5:6,8; 7:16; 10:1,2; Heb. 13:6).
   c. The antonyms define the contrasting realities.
      1) ἐνδημέω #1736 3x: to be in a familiar place, to be at home (2nd Cor. 5:6,8,9). Endemic, native.
      2) ἐκδημέω #1553 3x: to be in a strange land, live in exile, be away (2nd Cor. 5:6,8,9). Classical Greek more commonly used διαλέγομαι apodèmeō. Not native, alien, living abroad.
      3) Related terms: παρεπιδημέω & παρεπιδήμος παρεπίδημος #1218 4x: exile, stranger, resident alien (1st Pet. 1:1; 2:11; Heb. 11:13). All of these are compounds of δῆμος δῆμος: people (societal).

7. Our guaranteed future mandates a present accountability (2nd Cor. 5:9-10).
   a. Our resident-alien ambassadorial status here on earth produces an inherent ambition (2nd Cor. 5:9). φιλοτιμέομαι philotimeoai #5389 3x: c.inf. strive to do a thing, endeavor, aspire (Rom. 15:20; 1st Cor. 3:3b; 1st Thess. 4:11).
   b. The ambition is unchanged in both native and exile circumstances. We conduct our lives in our mortal bodies as if we were in already in the immediate presence of Jesus Christ.
   c. Our ambition is to be pleasing to the Lord. εὐαρέστως euarestos #2101 9x: pleasing, acceptable. Also εὐάρεστος euarestos #2102 Hiph. (Rom. 12:1,2; 14:18; 2nd Cor. 5:9; Eph. 5:10; Phil. 4:18; Col. 3:20; Tit. 2:9; Heb. 11:5,6; 12:28; 13:16,21).
   d. Pleasing Jesus Christ is the good/bad criterion for recompense at the Judgment Seat of Christ (2nd Cor. 5:10; Rom. 14:10,12; 1st Cor. 3:10-15).

Our Ministry of Reconciliation (2nd Cor. 5:11-21)

1. Pleasing God with the Judgment Seat of Christ in view is the manifestation of the fear of the Lord for Members of the Church (2nd Cor. 5:11; Psalm 111; Prov. 2:1-8; Ecc. 12:13-14).
   a. Knowing the fear of the Lord is achieved through learning and living His precepts (Ps. 111:10).
   b. Knowing the fear of the Lord equals knowing God (Prov. 2:1-5).
   c. Even after prolonged carnality, the only hope is to return to the fear of the Lord for eternal evaluation (Ecc. 12:13-14).

2. The fear of the Lord motivates our work of persuasion (2nd Cor. 5:11a). πειθό peitho #1842 52x:
   b. Persuasion is an integral endeavor in Scripture reasoning ministry (Acts 13:43; 17:2,4; 18:4; 19:8,9; 28:23,24). διαλέγομαι dialogemai #1256 13x:
   c. Our persuasion of men comes in manifestation to God, and may also have impact in third party observers (2nd Cor. 5:11b).
      1) The fear of the Lord is fully known (οἶδα oida #1149 317x) as we are completely manifest (φανερόω phaneroo #5319 99x) before Him.

† Pastor Bob has a great appreciation for the Holman Christian Standard Bible’s translation of this passage. Their handling of the participles and indicative verbs is excellent.

Austin Bible Church Pastor Bob Bolender Page 29 of 95
a) The manifestation in time (v.11) is the same term for our appearance in glory (v.10 cf. 1st Cor. 3:13; 4:5).

b) Our final evaluation will be much less stressful if our present actions are fully laid bare in present accountability before our God (Eph. 5:13; Heb. 4:12,13; 1st Jn. 3:18-21; Ps. 139:23,24).

2) Third party observers can be strengthened in their conscience through observing fear and persuasion at work in other believers (cf. Phil. 3:13,14,17).

3. Paul is not reopening his defenses from earlier (2nd Cor. 1:12-14; 3:1-3), but rather demonstrating a practical benefit to transparent obedience in manifestation to the Lord (2nd Cor. 5:12 cf. 4:2).

a. Paul & Timothy are offering a gift to the Corinthians: an opportunity for boasting.
1) ἀφορμή aphormē #674: occasion, opportunity (Rom. 7:8,11; 2nd Cor. 5:12; 11:12-13; Gal. 5:13; 1st Tim. 5:14).
2) καιχήμα kauchēma #2765: that of which one glories or can glory; glorying, boasting. See the intro to this book study for the word frequencies in Pauline literature. 29 occurrences in Second Corinthians: 1:12,14; 5:12-13; 7:4,14,23; 8:24; 9:2,3; 10:8,13,15,16,17; 11:10,12,16,17,18; 2:21; 12:1,5,6,9.

b. Godly boasting takes place in contrast to inappropriate boasting (2nd Cor. 5:12b).
1) ἐν face. ἐν προσώπῳ, πρόσωπον prosōpon #4383.
2) ἐν heart. καρδία kardia #2588. 1st Sam. 16:7 LXX uses the same contrast, whereby we learn that our standard of boasting should mirror God’s standard of evaluation.

3) Satan could boast in appearance (Ezek. 28:12,17), but Jesus Christ had no such claim (Isa. 53:2).

4. Paul makes use of his questioned sanity in order to emphasize why sacrificial love motivates sacrificial ministry (2nd Cor. 5:13-15).

a. There were numerous occasions in which Paul’s sanity was questioned (Acts 17:18; 26:24,25; 1st Cor. 4:10).
1) This is a wonderful imitation of Christ (Mk. 3:21; Jn. 10:20).
2) This is perhaps the first instance where the dementia is shared—Paul and Timothy both beside themselves.

b. By concession, if insanity is to be admitted it will only be admitted in a context pertaining to God. This may result in the spiritual/temporal paradox that the world finds foolish (1st Cor. 1:18,20,21; 2nd Cor. 6:8-10).

By concession, if sanity is to be admitted, it will be admitted in a context pertaining to man. In a very remarkable reality, “fanatic” believers in total submission to the will of God are the most “sane” people in the world (Rom. 12:3; Eph. 5:17-21; 2nd Tim. 1:7).

d. Insanity versus sanity is couched in terms of what controls the mind (2nd Cor. 5:14). In Paul & Timothy’s case, the love of God became their “delusion.”
1) συνέχω sunechō #5712: to hold together; metaphor. To occupy someone’s attention intensely; to provide impulse for some activity; to hold within bounds so as to manage or guide, direct, control (Acts 18:5; Phil. 1:23).
2) Sound minds (σοφρονέω sōphroneō #5228) result from Scriptural transformation (Rom. 12:3) and spiritual maturity (Tit. 2:6). Such stable thinking allows for prayerful awareness of difficult times (1st Pet. 4:7).

e. The love of Christ is the love Jesus had for us when He sacrificially provided for our redemption (2nd Cor. 5:14-15).

5. This passage presents critical (life & death) truths related to the sacrificial work of Christ.

a. “For ἐν, for ἐν, for ἐν, for ἐν, on their behalf” establishes a powerful syntactic argument with tremendous theological significance. Dying is hyper, living is dative. Dying and rising again is also hyper.

b. One died for all. εἷς ὑπὲρ πάντων ὑπερθάνει heis huper pantōn apethanen. ὑπέρ huper #5228 + gen. on behalf of and/or for the sake of.

Principle: All means all within the framework of the immediate context and the parameters of the immediate contrast.

c. All died. The logical consequence of the substitutionary death of Christ is that everyone for whom He died also died. Two separate issues pertaining to judicially imputed death must be distinguished.
1) In Adam all die (1st Cor. 15:22).
2) When Jesus died, all died (2nd Cor. 5:14).

d. They who live is a subset of “for all” and “all died.” It is “they who live” who are the ones on whose behalf Christ died and rose again (2nd Cor. 5:15 cf. Rom. 4:25).

e. The living dead live for themselves, but the living alive live for Christ.
1) “No longer” means that prior to living, the dead lived for themselves (cf. Eph. 2:1–3).
2) of ἡεντὸς τοίμων are the presently-eternally-living ones with a new walk (cf. Eph. 2:10).

6. Living for the risen Savior creates two perspective realities (2nd Cor. 5:16–17).
   a. The incarnation has given way to the session of Jesus Christ. This pattern gives us a reality perspective for how we serve Him and one another (2nd Cor. 5:16; Jn. 1:14; 1st Tim. 3:16; 1st Jn. 1:1–4; Heb. 9:24; 10:19–25).
   b. The new creation is the Body of Christ. New things have come, and having come we are expected to work together with Christ in the new things (2nd Cor. 5:17).
      1) This is the Christian walk in the newness of life (Rom. 6:4–6).
      2) This is the Christian walk in the newness of the Spirit (Rom. 7:4–6).
   c. These new things require the laying aside of the old and being renewed in the spirit of our mind (Eph. 4:20–24).

7. These perspective realities shape our ambassador function (2nd Cor. 5:18–21).
   a. The work of the Father through Christ and in Christ established the pattern for the work of the Father through us and in us in Christ (2nd Cor. 5:18,19 cf. Phil. 2:9,11,13; Heb. 13:21).
   b. The Father makes His appeal through us as we function as Christ’s embassy (2nd Cor. 5:20,21).
   c. Our ministry of reconciliation stresses one making and one becoming.
      1) Christ was made (ποιεῖν poiēs #4160) to be sin on our behalf.
      2) We become (γίνομαι ginomai #1096) God’s righteousness in Christ.

Chapter Six

Chapter six steamrolls from chapter five and keeps on rolling into chapter seven. Ministers of reconciliation (2nd Cor. 5:18–21) must not be discredited (2nd Cor. 6:1–4a) but self-commended as ministers of God (2nd Cor. 6:4b–10). Paul & Timothy pause in their hortatory discourse with a passionate appeal for the Corinthians to embrace this vision of ministry (2nd Cor. 6:11–13 & more to follow in 7:1–4). A huge obstacle to the Corinthians’ harmony with Paul is their unequal yoke with darkness (2nd Cor. 6:14–18).

Not Discredited, but Commended (2nd Cor. 6:1–10)

1. The chapter break is unfortunate, as three themes carry over from chapter five.
   a. ἑνεργεῖν energei #4160 (6:1) carries over the principle of God the Father working in and through us (5:18,19,20), but adds the active portion we contribute to the co-working (6:3,4).
   b. παρακαλεῖν parakalei #2059 (6:1) carries over the appeal of God through believers (5:20), and adds the importance of purpose to the ministry.
   c. Receiving grace (6:1) || being reconciled (5:20) & becoming the righteousness of God in Christ (5:21).

2. Receiving grace in vain was a subject taught powerfully in First Corinthians (2nd Cor. 6:1 cf. 1st Cor. 15:2).
   b. 2nd Cor. 6:1 uses an adverbial prepositional phrase: εἰς καθαρτίαν eis katharitían #2275.
   c. How empty is the life of a believer who believes in Christ for positional salvation, but fails to believe for experiential salvation! (1st Cor. 15:1–2)
   d. “Grace in vain” is a concept dear to Paul’s heart (Gal. 2:2; 4:11; Phil. 2:16; 1st Thess. 2:1; 3:5).

3. Paul’s citation of Isaiah 49 brings this appeal into a vivid focus (Isa. 49:4,8).
   a. Jesus Christ ministered faithfully, but faced the discouragement of vain labors (Isa. 49:4).
   b. Jesus Christ endured as the Despised One, entrusting Himself to His righteous Father and was saved on that glorious day of Calvary (Isa. 49:7–8; 1st Pet. 2:21,23).
   c. The same Father who worked in and through Christ during His incarnation now works in and through Christ’s body during His session.
      1) The quotation in 2nd Cor. 6:2 references Christ.
      2) The exhortation in 2nd Cor. 6:2 references us.

4. A pair of present participles portrays our portion and participation in this patrological partnership (2nd Cor. 6:3–4).
   a. What we must never do under any circumstances. In anything.
5. The practical outcome of causing offense is a discredited ministry. μομομαί #3460 2x (2nd Cor. 6:3; 8:20). Fr. μόμος mōmos #570 #570 Hiph: blemish (2nd Pet. 2:13).

b. What we must always do in every circumstance. In everything.
1) Commending. ἐαυτοὺς + pres.act.ptc. συνιστήμαναν sinistēmī #4921
2) Servants. διάκονοι diakonoi masc.plur.nom. διάκονος diakonos #1240.

An avalanche of conditional circumstances frames twenty-six realities of the Christian experience (2nd Cor. 6:5–10).

a. “In” 18x.
1) εν υπομονῇ polli en haponomē, pollē, much endurance. υπομονή haponomē #3281 32x (Rom. 5:3,4; 2nd Cor. 1:6; 6:4; 12:12; Col. 1:11).
2) θλίψις thlipsis #2347 45x: afflictions, tribulations (Rom. 5:3,2; 2nd Cor. 1:4,25; 8:2; 4:17; 6:4; 7:4; 8:2,13).
3) ἀνάγκη anankē #3730: necessity, pressure, hardships (1st Cor. 7:26,37; 9:16; 2nd Cor. 6:4; 9:7; 12:10).
4) στενοχώρια stenoschōria #4730: distresses (Rom. 2:9; 8:35; 2nd Cor. 6:4; 12:10).
5) πληγὴ plēge #4127 22x: beatings (2nd Cor. 6:5; 11:23).
6) φυλακὴ phulakē #4348 46x: prison, imprisonments (2nd Cor. 6:5; 11:23).
7) ἀκαταστασία akatastasia #1411 3x: turmoil (1st Cor. 14:33; 2nd Cor. 6:5; 12:20).
8) κόπος kopos #2877 18x: labors (1st Cor. 3:8; 15:58; 2nd Cor. 6:5; 10:15; 11:23,27).
9) ἀγρυπνία agropnia #7125: sleeplessness (2nd Cor. 6:5; 11:27).
10) δυνάμεις dynaemēs #136: hunger (2nd Cor. 6:5; 11:27).
11) ἁγίος hagios #225: purity (2nd Cor. 6:6; 11:3).
12) γνῶσις gnōsis #1108 29x: knowledge (Rom. 2:20; 11:33; 15:14; 1st Cor. 1:5; 8:1,5,7,10,11; 12:8; 13:2,8; 14:6; 2nd Cor. 2:14; 4:6; 6:6; 8:7; 10:5; 11:6; Eph. 3:19; Phil. 3:8; Col. 2:3; 1st Tim. 6:20).
13) μακροθυμία makrothumia #3115 14x: patience (2nd Cor. 6:6; Gal. 5:22; Eph. 4:2; Col. 1:11; 3:12).
14) χριστότητα christōtēta #5544 10x: kindness (2nd Cor. 6:6; Gal. 5:22; Col. 3:12).
15) τὸ πνεύμα τὸ ἁγιός τὸ πνεύμα hagios pneumata #4151 379x & ἁγίος hagios #39: the Holy Spirit.
16) ἀγάπη agaphē #26: genuine love (Rom. 12:9).
17) ἐν λόγῳ λόγου en logos logos #3056 329x & ἀληθεία aletheia #225 109x: the word of truth.
18) ἐν δυνάμει δυναμὶ en dunamimi #1411 119x & θεοῦ theos #2316 1312x: the power of God.

b. “By” 2x. The switch from “in” to “by” marks particular instruments through which the power of God is exhibited: the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and the left.

1) Weapons of righteousness are the believers alternative to the instruments (weapons) of unrighteousness (Rom. 6:13). ὅπλα hopla neut.pl. ὀπλον hoplon #3690 6x (Jn. 18:3; Rom. 6:13; 13:12; 2nd Cor. 6:7; 10:4).
   a) Cognate terms include ὀπλίζω hoplizō #3730 Hiph. (1st Pet. 4:1), καθοπλίζω kathoplizō #2528 Hiph. (Lk. 11:21) & πανοπλία panoplia #8333 3x (Lk. 11:22; Eph. 6:11,13).
   b) This vocabulary was embraced and employed by the church fathers (IPoly. 6.2; Poly. 4.1; MPoly. 7.1; Harn. Man. XII.,iii,4).

2) The ὅπλα hopla are described appositionally and ambidextrously in a chiastic arrangement.
   a) By glory and dishonor. διὰ δόξης καὶ ἀτιμίας dia doxēs kai atimias. δόξα doxa #1391 139x & ἀτιμία atimia #1975. This same antithesis was previously employed with the Corinthians (1st Cor. 11:14-15; 15:43).
   b) By evil report and good report. διὰ δυσφημίας καὶ ἐυφημίας dia dusphēmias kai euphēmias. δυσφημία dusphēmia #1426 Hiph. & ἐυφημία euphēmia #2162 Hiph.

   c. “As” (regarded as) 7x2. The soldier function of the Church operates within a realm of paradox. Kosmos unreality is contrasted with divine reality.
   1) “As deceivers yet true” is a beautiful imitation of Jesus Christ (Mt. 27:63; 1st Thess. 2:3,4).
   2) “As unknown yet well-known” contrasts kosmos insignificance with divine appearance (Acts 17:18-20; 25:26,27; 1st Jn. 3:1).
3) “As dying yet behold, we live!” demonstrates our attitudes regarding life and love (Jn. 15:13; 1st Jn. 3:16; 1st Cor. 4:9; 2nd Cor. 1:8-10; 4:10, 11).

4) “As punished yet not put to death” exemplifies a loving Father to this dying world (1st Cor. 11:32; Heb. 12:6, 7, 10; Rev. 3:19).

5) “As sorrowful yet always rejoicing” guarantees that an accurate gospel message will not appeal to carnal thinking (Isa. 53:3, 4; Mt. 26:37, 38; Phil. 4:4, 5; 1st Thess. 5:15, 16).

6) “As poor yet making many rich” manifests a clear distinction in value systems (2nd Cor. 8:9; 9:8-15).

7) “As having nothing yet possessing all things” portrays the essence of grace (1st Cor. 3:21-23; 7:30-31).

d. Every one of these realities must feature our self-commendation as God’s ministry servants in His ministry of reconciliation (2nd Cor. 6:4a).

O Corinthians! (2nd Cor. 6:11-13)

1. Paul & Timothy’s description of the ministry of reconciliation (2nd Cor. 5:16-6:10) provokes an interruption (2nd Cor. 6:11-13). The Christian walk is awesome and the Corinthians are missing out! O Corinthians!

2. Their message to the Corinthians came from the heart (2nd Cor. 6:11).

a. Their mouth is perfect-actively opened. Perf.act.ind. ἄνοιγμα anoigē #1455<sup>77</sup>.

b. Their heart is perfect-passively opened wide. Perf.pass.ind. πλατύνω platunō #4115<sup>3x</sup> (Mt. 23:5; 2nd Cor. 6:11, 13).

LXX uses the verb with καρδία in Dt. 11:16; Ps. 119:32. Unlike the medical condition, an enlarged heart is Biblically desirable!

c. The mouth issues forth what the heart produces (Mt. 15:18).

d. The shared heart and shared mouth are noteworthy for believers in pursuit of unity (Phil. 2:2).

3. The Corinthians are restrained (2nd Cor. 6:12).

a. The Corinthians wrongly felt restrained by Paul & Timothy. στενοχώρεω stenochōrēō #4720<sup>3x</sup> (2nd Cor. 4:8; 6:12). See also στενοχώρια stenochoria #4730<sup>4x</sup>: distresses from 6:4.

b. The reality was an emotional bondage internal to the Corinthians. σπλάγχνον splanchnon #6089<sup>11x</sup> (Lk. 1:78; Acts 1:18; 2nd Cor. 6:12; 7:15; Phil. 1:8; 2:1; Col. 3:12; Philerm. 7, 12, 20; 1st Jn. 3:17). See also σπλαγχνίζομαι splanchizomai #4097<sup>12</sup> (Mt. 9:36; 14:14; 15:32; 18:27; 20:34; Mk. 1:41; 6:34; 8:21; 9:22; Lk. 7:13; 10:33; 15:20).

4. Paul & Timothy urge the Corinthians with childlike tenderness to open wide (2nd Cor. 6:13).

a. Paul uses childlike terminology to make his point. ὡς τέκνοις λέγω hōs teknōs legō.

b. In a like exchange (NASB), in return for the same (NKJV), as a fair exchange (NET). ἀντιμισθία antimisthia #1409<sup>2x</sup> (Rom. 1:27; 2nd Cor. 6:13).

c. Like the (perfect) indicative of v.11, the (aorist) imperative of v.13 is also passive voice. πλατύνω platunō #4115<sup>3x</sup>.

Do Not Be Unequally Yoked (2nd Cor. 6:14-7:1)

1. An obstacle to open hearted affection for the saints is an unequally-yoked affection for unbelievers (2nd Cor. 6:11, 13, 14).

2. The negative imperative (prohibition) is not a verb of doing, but periphrastically a verb of being/becoming. ἴησον ἑτεροζυγωῦντες ἀπίστοις mē ginethe heterozugountes apostois.

a. γίνομαι ginojmai #1096<sup>6214x</sup> (cf. John 1:1, 12, 14 also v.12 for the contrast with εἰμί; 2nd Cor. 5:17, 21 for near context).

b. ἑτεροζυγόν heterozugon #2080<sup>Hap.</sup> (cf. συμμετέχω Phil. 4:13).

3. The unequal yoke was an Old Testament prohibition for Israel (Lev. 19:19; Deut. 22:10).

4. The unequal yoke is a New Testament prohibition for the Church (2nd Cor. 6:14). The inequality is the contrast between believers and unbelievers.

5. For (by way of explanation), Five rhetorical questions explain the intrinsic inequality between believers and unbelievers.

a. What partnership? μετοχή metochē #3352<sup>Hap.</sup>. See also μετέχω metechō #3348<sup>8x</sup> (1st Cor. 9:10, 12; 10:17, 21, 30; Heb. 2:14; 5:13; 7:13); μέτοχος metochos #3350<sup>16x</sup> (Lk. 5:7; Heb. 1:9; 3:1, 14; 6:4; 12:8) & συμμετέχως summetauchos #1432<sup>2x</sup> (Eph. 3:26; 5:7).

b. What fellowship? κοινωνία koinōnia #2842<sup>19x</sup> (Acts 2:42; Rom. 15:26; 1st Cor. 1:9; 10:16, 25; 2nd Cor. 6:14; 8:4; 9:13; 13:13; Gal. 2:9; Phil. 1:5; 2:1; 3:10; Philerm. 6; Heb. 13:16; 1st Jn. 1:3<sup>α</sup>, 6, 7). See also κοινωνείν koinōneō #2841<sup>8x</sup> (Rom. 12:13; 15:27; Gal. 6:6; Phil. 4:15; 1st Tim. 5:22; Heb. 2:21; 4th Pet. 4:13; 2nd Jn. 11) & κοινωνός koinōnos #2844<sup>10x</sup> (Mt. 23:30; Lk. 5:10; 1st Cor. 10:18, 20; 2nd Cor. 1:7; 8:23; Philerm. 17; Heb. 10:33; 1st Pet. 5:1; 2nd Pet. 1:4).
c. What harmony? συμφωνήσις συμφωνήσεις. The verb συμφωνεῖσθαι συμφωνοῦσθαι (Mt. 18:19; 20:2,13; Lk. 5:36; Acts 5:9; 15:15). Wonderful use in Shepherd of Hermas 3,5,1 in a local church context; Also the adj. συμφωνός συμφωνός. 1 Cor. 7:5 & AF usages: Eph. 4.1,2; 5.1.

d. What in common? μέρις μερίς (Lk. 10:42; Acts 8:21; 16:12; 2 Cor. 6:15; Col. 1:12).

Syn. with μέρος μερός (Jn. 13:8; 1 Cor. 13:9,10,12; Rev. 20:6; 21:8).

What agreement? συγκατάθεσις συγκατάθεσις. Used outside the Bible for mental assent to philosophical insight. This is the mental attitude behind confession. One use of the verb συγκατατίθημι συγκατατίθημι (Lk. 23:51). Intriguing use of the verb in IPhld. 3.3.

6. The contrasts. These spheres or realms represent the operational realms of believers in contrast with unbelievers.

a. Righteousness vs. Lawlessness. δικαιοσύνη δικαιοσύνη. These terms are not pure antonyms, but they are linked in two other passages (Rom. 6:19; Heb. 1:9).

b. Light vs. Darkness. φῶς φῶς (Jn. 1:4,9). This contrast goes back to the very beginning of Scripture (Gen. 1:2-4). This contrast has four significant parallels in addition to this passage (Rom. 13:12; Eph. 5:8; 1 Thess. 5:5; 1 Pet. 2:9).

d. Believer vs. Unbeliever. Πιστός Πιστός vs. ἀπίστος ἀπίστος (Jn. 10:21,22).

Believers vs. Unbelievers are linked in two other passages.

e. The Temple of God vs. Idols. ναός ναός (Jn. 2:19,21; 2 Cor. 6:16).

The verb συζάω συζάω is seven English words to translate συζάω συζάω in the NT. The verb συζάω συζάω is often used in a local church context.

f. Righteousness vs. Lawlessness is not a synonym for unregenerate as this term often applies to regenerate individuals who are not walking by faith.

7. For (again, by way of explanation) we are the temple of God (2 Cor. 6:16-18).

a. Compatible with OT promises to Israel, this is a truth that we apply (Lev. 26:12; Jer. 31:33; Ezek. 37:27). Compatibilities and similarities do not necessitate identity or “replacement.”

b. Significantly different realities for the NT promises to the Church (1 Cor. 3:16; 6:19; Eph. 2:21).

c. OT principles for Israel generate NT principles for the Church. We have to learn how those principles transfer, and under what conditions those principles don’t transfer at all.

1) Both Israel and the Church have responsibilities to worship God and reject idols.

2) Both Israel and the Church have requirements for separation from evil.

3) Both Israel and the Church have residency proximity to God.

8. The bottom line issue in breaking free from unequal yokes is product holiness (2 Cor. 7:1). “Cleanse yourself from all defilement of flesh and spirit” (7:1) is it to “do not be bound together with unbelievers” (6:14).

a. Hearing motives doing. “Having these promises” requires action.

b. Separation/Defilement cleansing is a self-cleansing. This is different than confession of sin cleansing (1 Jn. 1:9).

c. The holiness is perfected not when remedial confession restores the fellowship but when the fear of God breaks the yoke and prevents the sin from taking place (2 Cor. 7:1 cf. 1 Jn. 1:7).

Chapter Seven

Paul & Timothy’s desire from chapter six, that the Corinthians would open wide (2 Cor. 6:11-13), is restated in chapter seven, that the Corinthians would make room (2 Cor. 6:2-4). Paul is confident in the Corinthians because of the powerful paraklēsis (comfort) he received by the long delayed reunion with Titus (2 Cor. 7:5-7,13-16). Titus provided an encouraging report on the Corinthian repentance and acceptance of Paul’s previous rebukes (2 Cor. 7:8-12).

Make Room (2 Cor. 7:2-4)

1. “Make room for us in your hearts” is seven English words to translate Χωρήσατε ήμᾶς chōrēsate hēmas (2 Cor. 7:2a).

a. Aor.act.imp. χωρέω χωρέω. χωρέω χωρέω: to have room for, to make room for, to have capacity (Mt. 15:17; 19:11,12,12; Mk. 2:2; Jn. 2:6; 8:37; 21:25; 2 Cor. 7:2; 2 Pet. 3:9). Contrast with στένωσις στένωσις, stenōsws (2 Cor. 6:12; and therefore parallel with the pleadings to open wide (2 Cor. 6:11,13).

b. The definition for “make room for us” is not defined by lexicons, but by context. The definition comes by correlation to parallel expressions (2 Cor. 7:3b). “You are in our hearts to die together and to live together.”

1) συναποθνῄσκω συναποθνῄσκω ( Mk. 14:31; 2 Cor. 7:3; 2 Tim. 2:11).

2) συνεζήτατε συνεζήτατε (Rom. 6:8; 2 Cor. 7:3, 2 Tim. 2:11).
2. Paul listed three things he was not guilty of (but likely accused of) which left no reason for the Corinthians to not make room (2nd Cor. 7:2b-3).
   a. No one was wronged. οὐδενα ἡδίκησαμεν οὐδενα ἐδικέσαμεν. Αορ.αкт.συν. ἡδικέω adikeo #991 [1st Cor. 6:7,8; 2nd Cor. 7:2,12; Gal. 4:12; Col. 3:25; Phil. 18].
   b. No one was corrupted. οὐδενα ἐφθείραμεν οὐδενα ἐπθείραμεν. Αορ.αкт.συν. ἐφείρω phtheiro #5551 [1st Cor. 3:17,2; 15:33; 2nd Cor. 7:2; 11:3; Eph. 4:22].
   c. No one was taken advantage of. οὐδενα ἐπλεονεκτήσαμεν οὐδενα ἐπλεονεκτήσαμεν. Αορ.αкт.συν. πλεονεκτέω pleonekteo #4122 [2nd Cor. 2:11; 7:2; 12:17,18; 1st Th. 4:6].
   d. No one is being condemned by these three statements. πρὸς κατάκρισιν οὐ λέγω πρὸς κατακρίνω ou lego.
      1) Even the ¼ congregation that didn’t support Paul had to admit to the truth of these statements.
      2) From Paul’s standpoint, the entire congregation had room in his heart (cf. Rom. 12:8; Heb. 12:14).
   e. These three human offences are not obstacles to forgiveness (Eph. 4:32; Col. 3:13; 2nd Cor. 2:7,10), but may very well be hindrances to open hearted placement (2nd Cor. 7:2).

3. In chapter six, Paul had no confidence that the Corinthians would, or even could open wide. They were restrained by their own affections (2nd Cor. 6:12) and their unequal yokes had left them defiled (2nd Cor. 6:14; 7:1). In chapter seven, something extraordinary has happened, which produces confidence, boasting, comfort & joy (2nd Cor. 7:4). This event spark this paragraph and the joy of this entire section of the epistle (chs.7-9).
   a. Great boldness in speech towards the Corinthians is matched by great boasting in speech concerning the Corinthians.
      1) Great boldness: πολλή μοι παρρησία πρὸς ύμᾶς. παρρησία parresia #9554; openness, plain-speaking (2nd Cor. 3:12; 7:4; Eph. 3:12; 6:19).
      2) Great boasting: πολλή μοι καύχησις ὑπὲρ ὑμῶν. καύχησις kauchēsis #2746; subject for pride, boast (Rom. 15:17; 1st Cor. 15:31; 2nd Cor. 1:12; 7:4,14; 8:24; 11:10,17; 1st Th. 2:19).
   b. Filled with comfort and over-filled with joy (despite affliction).
      1) Filled: perf.pass.ind. παρρησίᾳ πλήρῳ plerō #1510; to make full, fill (Rom. 15:13,14; Eph. 3:19; 5:18; Col. 1:9; 2nd Tim. 1:4; Jn. 15:11; 1st Jn. 1:4; 2nd Jn. 12).
      2) Over-filled: pres.pass.ind. ὑπερπερισσεύω huperperisseuo #5248; to cause to superabound (Rom. 5:20; 2nd Cor. 7:4).

Reunion with Titus (2nd Cor. 7:5-7,13-16)

1. The narrative of 7:5-7 resumes the narrative from 2:12-13.
   a. The sorrowful visit (2:1) prompted a painful letter (2:4) carried by Titus back to Corinth (2:13; 7:13,15).
   b. Titus’ delay caused Paul to fear the worst (cf. 1st Cor. 16:10). The true reason for the delay was actually the opposite of what was feared.
   c. Review the Chapter Two notes: “Sorrowful Visit & Painful Letter” and “Paul’s Turmoil.”

2. Changing geography didn’t change Paul’s restless condition (2nd Cor. 7:5).
   b. Choosing your own conclusion violates 1st Cor. 10:13.

3. External & internal battles illustrate the two-front war we fight against the world, the flesh, and the devil.
   a. ἔξοδον μάχαι exochen machai. Fem.pl. μάχη machē #3163; (2nd Cor. 7:5; 2nd Tim. 2:23; Tit. 3:9; Jas. 4:1).
   b. ἔσοδον φόβοι esochen phoboi. Masc.pl. φόβος phobos #5401; (1st Cor. 2:3; 2nd Cor. 5:11; 7:1,5,11,15).

4. Filled with comfort and over-filled with joy (2nd Cor. 7:4b) is expanded in the twin passages describing Paul’s reunion with Titus.
   a. Filled with comfort (2nd Cor. 7:6-7).
   b. Overfilled with joy (2nd Cor. 7:13b-16).

5. God comforts the depressed.
   a. Paul’s depression was an affliction-produced “lowliness” (2nd Cor. 7:6a cf. Isa. 49:13; ταπεινοῦς tapeinos #5011 [Mt. 11:29; Lk. 1:52; Rom. 12:16; 2nd Cor. 7:6; 10:1; Jas. 1:9; 4:6; 1st Pet. 5:5]. Rel. expression ταπεινοφροσύνη tapeinophrosyne #5012; (Acts 20:19; Eph. 4:2; Php. 2:3; Col. 2:18,23; 3:12; 1st Pet. 5:5).
   b. The coming of Titus was Paul’s felt-need (2nd Cor. 7:6b), and yet the provision of the Father was much more (2nd Cor. 7:7).

6. God over-fills with joy those who turn to Him for their comfort (2nd Cor. 7:13).
   a. Comfort is provided when we are brought low, but overflowing joy is provided to (spiritually) bring us up high.
b. Overflowing joy is received and extended in a similar manner as that of comfort—through the joy testified by fellow believers.
c. Eternal joy in spiritual refreshment creates the emotional byproduct of affection (2nd Cor. 7:15).

Sorrow, Regret, Repentance & Earnestness (2nd Cor. 7:8–12)

1. In chapter two, Paul recounted a sorrowful visit and a painful letter (2nd Cor. 2:1-11). In chapter seven, once Paul receives Titus' report, he continues the story of how that additional sorrow was productive (2nd Cor. 7:8-12).
a. For the man of incest, the sorrow was sufficient (2nd Cor. 2:6). Any more would have been excessive (2nd Cor. 2:7).
b. For the Corinthians, additional sorrow was generated by their failure to forgive, and the advantage that Satan takes in such circumstances (2nd Cor. 2:5,6,11).

2. This passage centers on four main concepts.
a. Sorrow. λυπέω 26x (2nd Cor. 2:2,4,5,52; 7:8,29,9,3,11) & λύπη λυπέω 16x (2nd Cor. 2:1,3,7; 7:10,52).
   5x & 3x in ch.2; 6x & 2x in ch.7.
b. Regret. μεταμέλομαι 6x (2nd Cor. 7:8,12) & ἄμεταμέλητος ametamelētos 2x (2nd Cor. 7:10).
c. Repentance. μετάνοια metanoia 12x (2nd Cor. 7:9,10).
d. Earnestness. σπουδὴ spoudē 12x (2nd Cor. 7:11,12; 8,7,8,16).

3. Paul previously regretted the sorrowful letter (2nd Cor. 7:8). Since his reunion with Titus, he no longer regrets it (2nd Cor. 7:9).
a. Seeing the Corinthians' sorrow prompted an initial regret within Paul for the letter he wrote.
b. Despite the emotional cost to Paul, defying the will of God was never an option (Gal. 1:10; 1st Th. 2:4).

4. “Sorrowful according to the will of God” produces a “sorrow unto repentance” (2nd Cor. 7:9,10). This was the testimony of the man of incest, and now thankfully it is the testimony of the entire Corinthian assembly.
   a. ἐλυπήθησεν γάρ κατὰ θεόν. Aor.pass.ind. λυπέω (v.9) ll ἡ γὰρ κατὰ θεόν λύπη (v.10).
   b. ἐλυπηθεὶς εἰς μετάνοιαν. εἰς + acc. expressing either purpose or result (or both).
   Note: Repentance is not the only purpose/result for God's instrumental use of human sorrow, but as this passage demonstrates, it is very effective for this purpose/result.
   Note: Human sorrow is not the only instrument for God's purpose/result of repentance, but as this passage demonstrates, it is a very effective instrument.

5. Timely repentance prevents loss of eternal reward (2nd Cor. 7:9 cf. 1st Cor. 3:15).
a. Jesus taught on loss in a contrast between the world and one's soul (Mt. 16:26; Mk. 8:36; Lk. 9:25).
b. Paul taught on loss as a contrast to reward in the context of the Judgment Seat of Christ (1st Cor. 3:15).
c. Paul also taught on temporal-life loss as a contrast to spiritual-life gain in Christ (Phil. 3:8).

6. Repentance without regret encapsulates phase two salvation (2nd Cor. 7:10).
a. All uses of σωτηρία sōtēria in 2nd Corinthians are phase two salvation references (1:6; 6:2,5; 7:10).
b. Phase two salvation & death are the contrasts between righteousness and sin in the experiential sanctification of believers positionally in Christ (Rom. 6:6-23).
   1) Because of phase one salvation, each believer can embrace phase two salvation from slavery to sin (Rom. 6:6,7).
   2) Phase two salvation requires volitional consideration (Rom. 6:11).
   3) Phase two salvation requires a rejection of sin sovereignty (Rom. 6:12) and a submission to Spirit sovereignty (Rom. 6:13,16).
   4) Spirit sovereignty submission is nurtured by heart obedience to committed Bible teaching (Rom. 6:17,18).
   5) Spirit sovereignty submission presents our members to God’s use in experiential sanctification (Rom. 6:19; 12:1; 1st Cor. 6:20; 1st Pet. 2:24).
c. This change of thinking is without regret because regret looks backward, but Christ-like thinking looks forward (Phlp. 3:12-16).

7. Godly sorrow has another product alongside repentance: earnestness (2nd Cor. 7:11-12). (See above, 2d.)
a. The Corinthian earnestness was on behalf of Paul & Timothy. Responding positively to loving discipline is a respect-response to the authority who administers the discipline (cf. Heb. 12:9,11).
b. The Corinthians had to have their earnestness made known to them. This is the inverse corollary to 2nd Cor. 2:4.

8. Earnestness has seven facets (2nd Cor. 7:11). What earnestness! Emphatically expanded and illustrated.
a. Vindication of yourselves. ἀπολογία apologia #627: defense (Acts 22:1; 25:16; 1st Cor. 9:3; 2nd Cor. 7:11; Php. 1:7,16; 2nd Tim. 4:16; 1st Pet. 3:15).

b. Indigation. ἀγανάκτησις aganaktēsis #2414: fr. ἀγανακτέω aganakteō #271: be indignant, angry (Mt. 20:24; 21:15; 26:8; Mk. 10:14,41; 14:4; Lk. 13:14). Indigation is an anger prompted by resentment (cf. 1st Clem. 56:2; 2nd Clem. 19:2).

c. Fear. φόβος phobos #5460: fear (1st Cor. 2:3; 2nd Cor. 5:11; 7:1:5,11,15).

d. Longing. ἐπιπόθησις epipōthēsis #1972: yearning desire, longing (2nd Cor. 7:7,11) fr. ἐπιποθέω epipothē #1971: long for (2nd Cor. 5:2; 9:14).

e. Zeal. ζῆλος zēlos #2566: zeal, jealousy (Rom. 10:2; 13:13; 1st Cor. 3:3; 2nd Cor. 7:7,11; 9:2; 11:2; 12:20; Gal. 5:20; Php. 3:6).

f. Avenging of wrong. ἐκδίκησις ekdikēsis #1567: vengeance, punishment (Lk. 18:7,8; Rom. 12:19; 2nd Cor. 7:11).

g. Commended Innocence. συνιστάμεθι sunistēmi #4721: commend (2nd Cor. 3:1; 4:2; 5:12; 6:4; 7:11; 10:12,18,25; 12:11) & ἀγανάκτησις ἁγνός #562: pure (2nd Cor. 7:11; 11:2; Php. 4:8; 1st Tim. 5:22; Tit. 2:5; Jas. 3:17; 1st Pet. 3:2; 1st Jn. 3:3).

9. Summary: The seven facets of earnestness describe the consequences of God-provoked repentance.

   Our only defense is God’s grace. We’re angry over the wood, hay & stubble we produced. We fear the Lord knowing that we are vulnerable to relapse. We long for an intimacy with God so we don’t relapse. We develop a jealousy for Him and view His rivals for our affection as a threat. We recoup our past time in darkness with a present intensity walking in the light. No regret and no guilt has any power over us because our present walk demonstrates our restored innocence.

Chapters Eight and Nine

The earnestness development from chapter seven leads to grace ministry applications in chapters eight and nine. Macedonian grace serves to illustrate what the Corinthian grace could be (2nd Cor. 8:1-15). Confident in the Corinthians’ earnestness, Titus and two brothers have been appointed to join the administration of these grace ministries (2nd Cor. 8:16-9:5). This section of the epistle concludes with a discourse on cheerful giving (2nd Cor. 9:6-15).

Macedonian & Corinthian Grace (2nd Cor. 8:1-15)

1. Macedonian grace is a tremendous example for any local church in the Dispensation of the Church to imitate (2nd Cor. 8:1-5).

a. The grace giving of the Macedonian churches is not a private matter, but a public matter for the Corinthians to know. γνωρίζω gnōrizō #2160: to cause information to become known: make known, reveal (Rom. 9:22-23; 16:26; 1st Cor. 12:3; 15:1; 2nd Cor. 8:1; Eph. 1:9; 3:3,5,10; 6:19,21; Phil. 4:6).

b. The grace Paul describes is God’s grace, having been given by the local churches of Macedonia. χάρις charis #5485: (1st Cor. 3:4,3; 10:30; 15:10,53,57; 16:3,23; 2nd Cor. 1:2,12,15; 2:14; 4:15; 6:1; 8:1,4,6,7,9,16,19; 9:8,14,15; 12:9; 13:14). Paul uses 100 of the New Testament’s 155 usages of grace. 18 in 2nd Corinthians is second only to the 24 usages in Romans. The 7 usages in this chapter is the most of any Pauline chapter.

c. Grace giving flourishes in the midst of angelic conflict (2nd Cor. 8:2). A syntactical diagram of this verse spotlights important concepts.

1) The venue is a great ordeal of affliction. ἐν πολλῇ δοκιμῇ θλίψεως en pollē dokimē thlipeōs: to abound. (Rom. 5:4,2; 2nd Cor. 2:9; 8:2; 9:13; 13:3; Php. 2:22).

2) Two “ingredients” overflow. περισσεύω perisseuō #4105: to abound.

   a) Abundance of joy. ή περισσεύα τῆς χαρᾶς hè perisseia tēs charas.

   b) Deep poverty. ή κατὰ βάθος πτωχεία hè kata bathous ptōcheia.

3) The product of the overflow is the wealth of their generosity. εἰς τὸ πλούσιον τῆς ἀπλότητος εἰς τὸ πλούσιον τῆς haploτēs. ἀπλότης haploτēs #572: simplicity, frankness (Rom. 12:8; 2nd Cor. 1:12; 8:2; 9:11,13; 11:3; Eph. 6:5; Col. 3:22).

4. Ability is irrelevant, but positive volition is essential for appropriate grace giving (2nd Cor. 8:3).

   1) God is fully aware of our abilities when He designates our stewardship assignments (Mt. 25:15).

   2) The test is the test of volitional faithfulness (Mt. 25:21,23).
3) “Beyond ability” means that the grace-oriented believer will see the Father supply and multiply beyond what we can even imagine (Eph. 3:20).
4) “Their own accord” stresses the positive volition essential to grace giving. αὐθαίρετος authairetōs #1728 (2nd Cor. 8:11,12,19; 9:2). See also προθύμος prothumōs #2071.
2) προνεώμενοι proenarchomai #1248 (2nd Cor. 8:6,10).
2) ἐπιτελέω epiteleō #2005 (Rom. 15:28; 2nd Cor. 7:1; 8:6,11; Gal. 3:3; Php. 1:6).
b. Paul connected the Corinthians’ spiritual revival with an opportunity for them to abound in grace (2nd Cor. 8:7).
1) The Macedonians joy and poverty overflowed in their generosity, but the Corinthians overflow in everything (v.2 cp. v.7).
2) Faith, utterance, knowledge, earnestness & love were all overflowing at present. How simple would it be for the Body of Christ. The household of faith, born again believers wherever they may be (Gal. 6:10b).
3) Unbelievers (Gal. 6:10a).

2. Corinthian grace demonstrates what a church can do when they end their schisms and come together for the glory of Jesus Christ (2nd Cor. 8:6-15).
a. Paul connected his surprise over Macedonia with his surprise over Corinth as reported by Titus, and exhorted Titus to complete in Corinth what was previously begun (2nd Cor. 7:6,7; 8:5,6,10,11).
1) προνεώμενοι προεναρχομαι #1248 (2nd Cor. 8:6,10).
2) ἐπιτελέω epiteleō #2005 (Rom. 15:28; 2nd Cor. 7:1; 8:6,11; Gal. 3:3; Php. 1:6).
b. Paul connected the Corinthians’ spiritual revival with an opportunity for them to abound in grace (2nd Cor. 8:7).
1) The Macedonians joy and poverty overflowed in their generosity, but the Corinthians overflow in everything (v.2 cp. v.7).
2) Faith, utterance, knowledge, earnestness & love were all overflowing at present. How simple would it be for that overflowing abundance to include this gracious work as well.

c. Paul isn’t commanding the Corinthians to match or top the Macedonians in their giving, but he does make use of the Macedonians earnestness as a benchmark for the proving of the Corinthians genuine love (2nd Cor. 8:8).
1) Participation is not commanded. ἐπιταγή epitagē #1785 (1st Cor. 7:6,25; 2nd Cor. 8:8 cf. Phil. 3:8).
2) Love is demonstrated (proven). διακονία διακοινώω #1249 (2nd Cor. 3:13; 11:28; 16:3; 2nd Cor. 2:9; 8:8,23; 13:5; 1st Th. 2:4,12; 5:21; 1st Tim. 3:10; 1st Pet. 1:7; 1st Jn. 4:1). ἐπιταγή epitagē #1785.

d. Our greatest example for grace giving isn’t the Macedonians—it is Jesus Christ (2nd Cor. 8:9).
1) The Kenosis teaches us everything we need to know about humility and grace (Phil. 2:1-11).
2) The pattern of Christ is for us to emulate (2nd Cor. 6:10).
3) Christ’s sanctification on our behalf (Jn. 17:19) ought to motivate our sanctification on behalf of Christ (Gal. 2:20).

e. Not a command, but an opinion: Paul urges the completion of a previously made beginning (2nd Cor. 8:10-12).
Gal. 3:3; Phil. 1:6 have additional contrasts with ἐνάρχομαι enarchomai #1728.
1) The greatest start in the world can be ruined by a follow through that fails to be consistent (Gal. 3:3).
2) God the Father doesn’t start a project and then neglect to bring it to the designed purpose (Phil. 1:6). As His fellow workers (1st Cor. 3:9; 2nd Cor. 6:1), we should adopt His standard of perfection (Matt. 5:48) and attitude for achieving it (Phil. 3:15).
3) Steps for completion are spelled out
   a) Doing has a beginning before a completion. At which step is the doing said to be done?
   b) Before there is a doing there is a desire. θέλω thelo #2074 (Rom. 7:18; Phil. 2:13; 2nd Th. 3:10).
   c) Before there is a desire there is a readiness. προθυμία prothumia #4288 (Acts 17:11; 2nd Cor. 8:11,12,19; 9:2). See also πρόθυμος prothumos #4289 (Mt. 26:41; Mk. 14:38; Rom. 1:15) & προθυμίας prothumias #4289 (1st Pet. 5:2).
   d) Readiness is the attitude that is acceptable, no matter the economic conditions a person is in (2nd Cor. 8:12).
f. A collection for the saints (1st Cor. 16:1) is a local church application whereby God's definition of equality is displayed (2nd Cor. 8:13-15).

1) Paul is not afflicting Corinth so that Judea can be at ease, but overseeing a process by which the equality of local churches is manifest (2nd Cor. 8:13).
   b) Relief (ἀνεσίς) has been mentioned twice already in this epistle (2nd Cor. 2:13; 7:5) but a contrast with tribulation/affliction (θλίψις) in this application should not be made.
   c) Intended equality (ἰσότης; equality (2nd Cor. 8:13,14; Col. 4:1), fr. ἴσος (2ηθος; equal (Mt. 20:12; Mk. 14:56,59; Lk. 5:18; Acts 11:17; Phil. 2:6; Rev. 21:16). The concept of equality is most important in Greek law and politics. There is hardly a term which is so common as this in discussions of law, and nowhere has the close connection between equality and law found such clear and full expression, such plain recognition, as among the Greeks. Above all, we must insist that the Greeks saw much more fully than the Romans that equality is necessary in legal relationships. Law is based on equality. TDNT

2) Equality between congregations recognizes abundance and deficiency at particular moments of opportune time (2nd Cor. 8:14).
   a) The open door for this ministry and the working of these effects is a matter of recognized opportune time. ἐν τῷ νόμῳ καιρῷ εν τῷ, non kairō. It is a matter of kairos as defined rather than χρόνος. See R.C. Trench, Synonyms.
   b) The Macedonian & Corinthian abundance (περίσσευμα: perisseuma) is designed for the Judean deficiency. ὑστέρημα husterēma (Lk. 21:4; 1st Cor. 16:17; 2nd Cor. 8:14; 9:12; 11:9; Phil. 2:30; Col. 1:24; 1st Thess. 3:10).
   c) The consequence of this is that Judean abundance is designed for Macedonian & Corinthian deficiency. This might be a financial provision at a future time, or it might be a non-financial provision at a present or future time.
   d) The OT affirms that those who fear the Lord are deficient in nothing (Ps. 34:9, 33:10LXX). The NT testifies to this great privilege even under persecution (1st Clem. 37,38).

3) The provision of manna to Israel illustrated the principle in shadow for the Church reality that Paul is teaching (2nd Cor. 8:15; Ex. 16:18).
   a) God's manna provision included the exact substance, quantity, and schedule (Ex. 16:13-31).
   b) Disobedience to God's procedures sparked displeasure (Ex. 16:20,28).
   c) Jesus taught that the Father was faithful to supply daily bread (Matt. 6:11), and that the manna of Moses' day was a picture of the coming Christ (Jn. 6:32,33,48-51).
   d) Paul stressed the sufficiency of manna as an illustration for Church equality (2nd Cor. 8:15).
      (1) The miracle of manna perfectly provided one omer per capita as the head of each family would gather more or less according to the size of his household.
      (2) The greatness of grace perfectly provides for the Church as the Head of our family distributes to His entire household (Eph. 2:19; Gal. 6:10; 1st Tim. 3:15; Heb. 3:6; 1st Pet. 4:17).
      (3) Jesus Christ, as Head of the Church, distributes gifted leaders to congregations as He sees fit (Eph. 4:11-12); allots sheep to shepherds as He sees fit (1st Pet. 5:3); and provides materially to each lampstand as He sees fit (2nd Cor. 9:12). Never forget the active role of our Lord throughout the Dispensation of the Church: Age of the Local Church (Rev. 1:12-16,20).

Apostolic Administration Associates (2nd Cor. 8:16-9:5)

1. Paul begins this section of his letter with a thanksgiving prayer to God for His work in the heart of Titus (2nd Cor. 8:16-17).
   a) Thanks (grace) be to God. Χάρις δέ τῷ θεῷ. Common Pauline phrase (Rom. 6:17; 7:25; 1st Cor. 15:57; 2nd Cor. 2:14; 8:16; 9:15).
   b) To the One Who put. τῷ δόθην τῷ, don'ti aor. H. δίδωσι, don'ti. H. common verb, but in connection with the heart in a handful of passages (2nd Cor. 1:22; 8:16; Heb. 8:10; 10:16; Rev. 17:17).
   c) The same earnestness on your behalf. τὴν αὐτήν σπουδήν ὑπέρ ὑμῶν ἐν αὐτῇ spoudēn huper humōn. σπουδή spoudē (2nd Cor. 7:11,12; 8:7,8,16).
d. Titus accepted (δέχομαι dechomai #1290, Paul & Timothy's appeal (παράκλησις paraklesis #3874) of greater earnestness (σπουδαϊτέρος spoudaioteros comp. of σπουδαῖος spoudais #4705) (2nd Cor. 8:17b).

f. Titus departed for Corinth "of his own accord" (2nd Cor. 8:17c). As seen in v.3, above, his own accord stresses positive volition. αὐθαίρετος authairetos #932 (2nd Cor. 8:3,17), αὐτός + αἱρέω haireo #138 (Phlp. 1:22; 2nd Th. 2:13; Heb. 11:25).

Important to note: God placed earnestness in Titus' heart, and Paul & Timothy exhorted him to do this work, but the final decision to respond to all such influences remained a volitional matter for Titus to choose.

2. The brother with gospel fame (2nd Cor. 8:18-21).

a. Robertson, following Souter, makes a compelling case for "the brother" to be relative "his brother" i.e. Luke (also in 2nd Cor. 12:18).

1) In Paul's Corinthian correspondence, he consistently leaves adversaries anonymous (1st Cor. 3:10; 5:1,5; 2nd Cor. 2:5-10; 7:12; 10:10; 11:5).

2) In Paul's Corinthian correspondence (and other writings), he consistently names his allies (1st Cor. 16:10-15; Rom. 16:1; Phil. 2:20-25; Col. 4:7-10; Tit. 3:12-14; Acts 15:22,22,25,27).

3) These two anonymous brothers appear to be inconsistent with Paul's normal mode.

b. This brother's fame is in the gospel, through all the churches (2nd Cor. 8:18). ἐπαινοῦσα εἰρήνη #1368 praise (Rom. 2:29; 13:3; 1st Cor. 4:5; 2nd Cor. 8:18; Eph. 1:6,12,14; Phil. 1:11; 4:8; 1st Pet. 1:7; 2:14).

c. This brother is not only famous, but appointed by those same churches (2nd Cor. 8:19). χειροτονεῖ cheirotonei #5505 (Acts 14:23; 2nd Cor. 8:19). 4x in the AF (IPhld 10.1; ISmyr 11.2; IPoly 7.2; Did. 15.1).

Note: This is not an ordination as in the case of "laying on of hands" (Acts 6:6; 13:3; 1st Tim. 4:14; 5:22; 2nd Tim. 1:6) or put in charge (Acts 6:3; Tit. 1:5) but it is clearly a related term (esp. Acts 14:23).

d. This brother is appointed as a traveling companion. συνέκδημος synekdemos #1498 (Acts 19:29; 2nd Cor. 8:19).

e. Additional men of reputation are guarantees that the honor of Jesus Christ is regarded, and that discredit to His name is avoided (2nd Cor. 8:20-21).

1) Avoidance-precaution puts distance between a person and a problem. στέλλω stello #4724: keep away, stand aloof (2nd Cor. 8:20; 2nd Thess. 3:6).

2) Discrèdit to the ministry is a terrible consequence, antithetical to the plan of God the Father. μομαομαι momaomai #3469 (2nd Cor. 6:3; 8:20). Compare also μόριος momios #3470: blemish (2nd Pet. 2:13) & ἁμομος amomos #2999: blameless (Eph. 1:4; 5:27; Phil. 2:15; Col. 1:22; Heb. 9:14; 4th Pet. 1:19; Jude 24; Rev. 14:5).

3) This careful walk requires forethought. προνοεῖ pronoei #4306: thinking beforehand, with consideration or regard (Rom. 12:17; 2nd Cor. 8:21; 1st Tim. 5:8).

f. This financial activity is being administered/ministered/deaconed.

1) Pres,pass.ptc. διακονεῖ διακονεῖ διακονεῖ #1247: to serve, minister (Acts 6:2; 19:22; Rom. 15:25; 2nd Cor. 3:3; 8:19,20; 1st Tim. 3:10,13; 2nd Tim. 1:18; Philem. 13; 1st Pet. 4:10,11).

2) διακονεῖ διακονεῖ #1248: ministry, service (Acts 1:17,25; 6:1,4; Rom. 12:7,21; 1st Cor. 12:5; 16:15; 2nd Cor. 3:7,8,9,12: 4:1; 5:18; 6:3; 8:4; 9:1,12,13; 11:8; Eph. 4:12; Col. 4:17; 1st Tim. 1:12; 2nd Tim. 4:5,11; Heb. 1:14).

3) διακονεῖ διακονεῖ #1249: servant, minister, deacon (Rom. 16:1; 1st Cor. 3:5; 6:4; Eph. 6:21; Phlp. 1:1; Col. 1:7; 4:7; 1st Tim. 3:8,12).

g. The famous expulsion of the Jews from Rome by Nero in 50AD was a consequence of financial shenanigans (Apr. 18,3,5 § 81).

Recent events had made collecting money for Jerusalem an even more sensitive issue. Josephus reports that a Palestinian Jew and three cohorts were instructing people in Rome on the law. They induced one of the notable converts, Fulvia, to send valuables for the temple in Jerusalem. Rather than conveying the goods to Jerusalem, they absconded with them. When their dishonesty was discovered, it created such an uproar that the emperor Tiberius ordered all Jews to be banished from Rome.

NEW AMERICAN COMMENTARY

3. Paul & Timothy's brother, tested & diligent (2nd Cor. 8:22).

a. "We" references Paul & Timothy and "our" references at least Paul & Timothy, and possibly the Corinthians as well. Erastus, Sosthenes, and Tychicus are often suggested as Corinthian candidates. Others are named as Macedonian candidates.
b. We have tested often in many ways. Already seen earlier in this chapter (v.8). ἀνακοινώσων δεικτικόν #1381. (Rom. 12:2; 14:22; 1st Cor. 3:13; 11:28; 16:3; 2nd Cor. 2:9; 8:8,22,13:5; 1st Th. 2:4,9; 5:21; 1st Tim. 3:10; 1st Pet. 1:7; 1st Jn. 4:1). ἀνακοινωνίας δοκιμή #1382.

c. Being diligent, now much more diligent. Already seen earlier in this chapter (v.17). σπουδαίως σπουδαιος #4705. (2nd Cor. 8:17,22,23). Mentioned in the Readiness/Eagerness study. σπουδάζων σπουδαῖον #4704. be diligent, make every effort (Eph. 4:3; 2nd Tim. 2:15; 4:9,21; Tit. 3:12; Heb. 4:11; 2nd Pet. 3:14).

4. No objections could be raised against any of these three faithful men (2nd Cor. 8:23).
   a. Titus is the partner (κοινονός κοινόνος #3394) and fellow worker (συνεργός συνεργός #4904) of Paul.
   b. The brethren are apostles (ἀπόστολος ἀπόστολος #652) of the local churches. Servant-ministers tasked for apostolic assistance (cf. Php. 2:25 and possibly Rom. 16:7).

5. Paul challenges the Corinthians to live up to the boasting (2nd Cor. 8:24-9:4).
   a. As representatives of the Macedonian churches, the Corinthians ought to receive the three messengers in a demonstration of love (2nd Cor. 8:24).
   b. Boasting creates pressure (2nd Cor. 8:24; 9:3,4).
      1) The consequence for empty boasting is shame (2nd Cor. 9:4).
      2) Human boasting that proves empty results in human shame.
      3) Boasting in the Lord that proves empty results in the shame of a discredited ministry (2nd Cor. 8:24 cf. v.23).
   c. Paul boasted in the Corinthians’ eagerness. The determinant factor for this boast is their being prepared or unprepared when the Macedonian messengers arrive (2nd Cor. 9:3,4).
      1) Perf.mtd.ptic. παρασκευάζων παρασκευάζω #3903: to prepare (Acts 10:10; 1st Cor. 14:8; 2nd Cor. 9:2,3). Cf. παρασκευή παρασκευή #3904: (day of) preparation (Mt. 27:62; Mk. 15:42; Lk. 23:54; Jn. 19:14,31,42).
      2) Masc.pl.acci. ἀπαρασκευάστως ἀπαρασκευάστω #532: unprepared.

6. The admin team will actually precede the ministry team (2nd Cor. 9:5).
   a. The finances are to be administered without covetousness (2nd Cor. 9:5).
   b. This separation of previously-arranged finances frees up the subsequent ministry to be done in grace (1st Cor. 16:1-2).
   c. Paul’s participation in the Jerusalem journey is not necessary (1st Cor. 16:3-4).
   d. Paul had several warnings regarding this trip.
      2) Paul was hurrying with a deadline of Pentecost (Acts 20:16).
      3) Paul claims spiritual bondage for this journey (Acts 20:22-23).
      6) Agabus, with four prophetesses also mentioned (Acts 21:8-11).
      7) Paul’s companions “we” and local residents of Caesarea (Acts 21:12).

Cheerful Giving (2nd Cor. 9:6-15)

1. At the mention of covetousness (2nd Cor. 9:5), the context in the text shifts from corporate giving in grace to individual giving in grace (2nd Cor. 9:6-15).
   a. Two “he who” statements in v.6.
   b. “Each one must” statement in v.7.

2. Individual giving in grace is developed under the imagery of sowing & reaping (2nd Cor. 9:6,10).
   a. Sowing. σπειρώσας σπειρῶ #1467. (37x in Gospels; 1st Cor. 9:11; 15:36,37;x,42,43,x,44; 2nd Cor. 9:6,10; Gal. 6:7,8; Jas. 3:18).
   b. Reaping. θερίζων θερίζω #5215. (10x in Gospels; 1st Cor. 9:11; 2nd Cor. 9:6,10; Gal. 6:7,8;x,9; Jas. 5:4).
   c. The imagery of sowing & reaping in the Pauline epistles is used in three applications.
      1) Spirituality vs. carnality consequences (Gal. 6:7-9), with particular mention of Bible teachers (Gal. 6:6).
      2) Bible teachers and their flocks (1st Cor. 9:6-11).
      3) Individual giving in grace (2nd Cor. 9:6-11).
   d. Sowing metaphorically describes activities we engage in, while reaping describes the consequences and results that God administers.

3. Proportions are contrasted with adverbial descriptions of sparingly and bountifully (2nd Cor. 9:6).
a. Sparingly. φειδομένως πειθομένως πειθομένος #5340 2x. Adv. of the ptc. φειδομαι πειθομαι #5339 16x; to spare (Acts 20:29; Rom. 8:32; 11:21; 1st Cor. 7:28; 2nd Cor. 1:23; 13:2; 2nd Pet. 2:4,5).

Note: Individual giving in grace that identifies what can and cannot be spared is one approach to the spiritual use of material resources.

b. Bountifully. ἐπ' εὐλογίας ἐπ' εὐλογίαις. On the basis of a praise/blessing. εὐλογία eulogia #2129 16x (1st Cor. 10:16; 2nd Cor. 9:5,12,6,12; Eph. 1:3). Rel. to the double use in v.5. After being called a gracious gift (2nd Cor. 8:1,4,6,7,19), the focus now shifts to the recognition of God's blessing for God's praise.

Note: Individual giving in grace that identifies what God's blessings are and praises Him for it is a better approach to the spiritual use of material resources.

4. Heart motivations are highlighted as the determinant factor between the contrasting proportions of verse 6 (2nd Cor. 9:7 cf. 1st Cor. 4:5).

a. The contrast between giving sparingly and giving bountifully is defined by each individual's heart purpose.

1) The heart is where our decisions are launched (Mt. 15:18,19).
2) The heart is the location of God's examination and judgment (1st Cor. 4:5; Heb. 4:12).
3) Heart purposed giving was also featured in the OT (Ex. 25:2; 35:5,21-29; 36:2-7).

b. Inappropriate heart purposes include grace giving that's done in sorrow or compulsion.

1) Grudgingly. Lit. out of sorrow. λύπη Hap. #9077 10x (2nd Cor. 2:1,3,7; 7:10,12; 9:7).
2) Under compulsion. ἀνάγκη anankê #3318 17x (1st Cor. 9:16; 2nd Cor. 9:7; Phil. 14). See also adv. ἀναγκαστικός anankastos #5177 Hap. (1st Pet. 5:2).

c. Appropriate heart purpose: Cheerfully. ἰλαρός hilaros #2431 Hap. See also the noun ἰλαρότης hilarotēs #2432 (Rom. 12:8).

d. God loves the appropriate heart purpose because this is ultimately why He created a volitionally accountable (moral) universe. We are tasked to love God and serve Him on a volitional basis (Deut. 6:5; 7:9; Josh. 24:15; Prov. 8:12-36; Jn. 14:21; Col. 1:16-20; 2nd Thess. 2:10).

5. God's grace program is one of indescribable abundance (2nd Cor. 9:8-15).

a. Our Pater possesses power to provide a pentepastic preponderance of grace (2nd Cor. 9:8).

1) Five universal quantifiers make this concept pentepastic. “all, always, all, everything, every.” The Christian Way of Life is not limited to many areas or even most areas of application (1st Cor. 1:5; Col. 1:10; 2nd Thess. 2:17; 2nd Tim. 1:3; 2nd Pet. 1:3,4).

2) Ability does not mean always doing something (Dan. 3:17). Grace will not always abound any more than stones will become Jews (Lk. 3:8). Able means can (Eph. 3:20; Jude 24).

3) Able means Can but we must operate within God's program so that Can will Do (2nd Tim. 3:16 cp. Heb. 4:2. See also 2nd Pet. 1:5-9 in relation to vv.3,4).

b. The abundant grace giver (2nd Cor. 9:9) was portrayed in Psalms (112:9) and Proverbs (11:24).

1) The primary application of Psalm 112 pertains to Jesus Christ.
2) Secondary application pertains to believers functioning as imitators of Jesus Christ.
3) Temporal graciousness is a reflection of spiritual graciousness.

c. Full supply is defined as supply multiplied (2nd Cor. 9:10).

1) God fully supplies seed and God fully supplies bread. The raw material is God's to give and the finished product is God's to give. ἐπιχορηγεῖστο epichorēgei #2434 3x (2nd Cor. 9:10; Gal. 3:5; Col. 2:19; 2nd Pet. 1:5,11) contrasted with ἔχορηγεῖστο chorēgei #2524 2x (2nd Cor. 9:10; 1st Pet. 4:11).

2) Multiplied seed removes all excuses against bountiful sowing and provides for the increased harvest. This multiplication is undoubtedly tied to attitude and aptitude (2nd Cor. 8:3 cf. Mt. 25:15).

3) The generous/liberal attitude considers how God's supply chain reaches the end consumer (Gen. 45:5; Isa. 45:4; Est. 4:14b; Acts 7:25).

d. The instrument of God's provision is the one who is enriched (2nd Cor. 9:11; Acts 20:35; Phil. 4:17).

1) God's selection of an instrument and the instrument's willingness to be used in that way creates a liberal enrichment.

2) πλούτιζω ploutizō #4148 3x (1st Cor. 1:5; 2nd Cor. 6:10; 9:11) & ἀπλότης haplotēs #572 8x; simplicity, frankness (Rom. 12:8; 2nd Cor. 1:12; 8:2; 9:11,13; 11:3; Eph. 6:5; Col. 3:22).
3) The result of this liberal enrichment is that both the middleman and the final recipients of God's supply participate together in the thanksgiving production back to God (2nd Cor. 9:11).

e. Supplying the needs of the saints goes without saying. What overflows is the multiplied thanksgivings to God (2nd Cor. 9:12 cf. 1:11; 4:15).

f. God's glory is magnified when God's will is exemplified (2nd Cor. 9:13-14). Word studies for this passage include the δοκιμάζω family & the δοξάζω family.
   1) Proving the will of God requires transformed believers by means of renewed minds (Rom. 12:2).
   2) Our public light shining follows Christ's example and obeys Christ's instruction (Matt. 5:16).
   3) Such a public demonstration of love is a testimony to our position in Christ (Jn. 13:35).

g. Paul defines two objects for Judean thankfulness (2nd Cor. 9:13).
   1) The Corinthians "obedience to your confession of the gospel of Christ."
      a) Confession of the Gospel of Christ is the public acknowledgment of one's personal faith in Christ (Rom. 10:9-10). This is obedience to the Gospel (2nd Thess. 1:8; 1st Pet. 4:17; cf. Rom. 2:8).
      b) Obedience to the Confession of the Gospel describes a Christian walk that is conformed to the grace that saves us (Eph. 4:1; Phil. 1:27; Col. 1:10; 1st Thess. 2:12).
   2) The liberality of their financial fellowship to them and to all. The financial gifts are not merely charitable, they are venues for Christian fellowship. κοινωνία κοινοῦντα "#2842; (2nd Cor. 9:14).
   3) This thankfulness produces a reciprocal intercessory prayer ministry (2nd Cor. 9:14).

h. No matter how we describe God's grace, gifts bestowed by that grace will remain indescribable (2nd Cor. 9:15).

Chapter Ten

A dramatic change of subject has Paul taking the Corinthians into the depths of angelic conflict doctrine (2nd Cor. 10:1-6). Part of this conflict includes a certain one who will be reckoned with when Paul arrives (2nd Cor. 10:7-11). Any victories God achieves through us are occasions for His boasting and not our own (2nd Cor. 10:12-18).

Confidence and Courage in Conflict (2nd Cor. 10:1-6)

1. Paul himself, apart from Timothy, and apart from any Scripture citation, exhorts Corinth to action (2nd Cor. 10:1).
   a. I, Paul, myself. Emphatic, redundant, and clear. See also Gal. 5:2; Eph. 3:1; Col. 1:23 cp. Phm. 9. See especially 1st Cor. 7:10, 12, 25.
   b. Paul invokes the meekness and gentleness of Christ as the witness to His paraklēsis adjuration.
      1) Similar adjurations are found in Rom. 12:1; 15:30; 1st Cor. 1:10. Pastoral adjurations are found in 1st Tim. 5:21; 6:13; 2nd Tim. 4:1.
      2) Previous paraklēsai to Corinth (1st Cor. 1:10; 4:16; 16:15; 2nd Cor. 2:8). Subsequent paraklēsai from Corinth (Rom. 12:1; 15:30; 16:17).
      3) τραγούδης πραιτερα "#4240; gentleness (1st Cor. 4:21; Gal. 5:23; 6:1; Eph. 4:2; Col. 3:2; 2nd Tim. 2:25; Jas. 3:13; 1st Pet. 3:15), meekness (2nd Cor. 10:1), consideration (Tit. 3:2), humility (Jas. 1:21). See also τραγούδης πραιτερα "#4240; gentle (Mt. 5:5; 11:29; 21:5; 1st Pet. 3:4).
      4) ἐπιεικείαι epieikeia "#1932; kindness (Acts 24:4), gentleness (2nd Cor. 10:1). See also ἐπιεικείαι epieikeia "#1932; gentle (Php. 4:5; 1st Tim. 3:3; Tit. 3:2; Jas. 3:17; 1st Pet. 2:18).
   c. Paul's critics mocked him for what they viewed as hypocrisy (cf. v.10).
      1) Humble when present. τατινηός tapinos "#950; humble (Mt. 11:29; Lk. 1:52; Jas. 1:9; 4:6; 1st Pet. 5:5), lowly (Rom. 12:16), meek (2nd Cor. 10:1), depressed (2nd Cor. 7:6).
      2) Bold when absent. θαρρέω tharreo "#2922; : boldness, confidence, courage (2nd Cor. 5:6,8; 7:16; 10:1,2; Heb. 13:6).
   2. Paul requests both the Lord and the Corinthians that his arrival in Corinth not include his proposed bold and confident courage (2nd Cor. 10:2).
      a. As in First Corinthians, the nature of Paul's next visit is entirely up to their volitional response (1st Cor. 4:18-21).
      b. Paul proposes boldness against certain miscalculators.
   3. Walking "in" is not walking "according to." Εν σαρκί is not κατά σάρκα. The Basic Doctrinal Study of Peripatology teaches us the appropriate walk in, by, and according to.
   4. Warring is a walking function. As such, it has three levels of training (cf. 1st Jn. 2:12-14).
a. The Basic Doctrinal Study of Agonology teaches us the basic training level of the Church Member’s soldier function.
b. The Intermediate Doctrinal Study of Polemology teaches us the command and general staff college level of the Church Member’s soldier function.
c. The Advanced Doctrinal Study of Stratology teaches us the national war college level of the Church Member’s soldier function.

5. Our warfare is then detailed (2nd Cor. 10:4-5).
a. The angelic conflict in the Dispensation of the Church is “our warfare.” στρατεύμα ήμῶν strateia hēmōn.
b. Our weapons are not fleshly but God-powered.
1) τὰ γὰρ ὀπλα. ὀπλὸν ἡμῶν #3606 ἔστω weapon (Jn. 18:3; 2nd Cor. 6:7; 10:4), instrument (Rom. 6:13a,2), armor (Rom. 13:12).
2) οὐ σαρκικὰ. σαρκικὸς sarikos #4559 fleshly, material (Rom. 15:27; 1st Cor. 3:3; 9:11; 2nd Cor. 1:12; 10:4; 1st Pet. 2:11).
3) ἀλλὰ δυνατὰ τὸ θεός. δυνατὸς dunatos #1415 able, powerful (1st Cor. 1:26; 2nd Cor. 10:4; 12:10; 13:9). Powerful “to God” as a dative case expressing close personal interest. Ethical dative? In the face/eyes/presence of God. Superlative idiom?

c. The destruction of fortresses (speculations and lofty things) allows us to take our own thoughts captive.
1) Destruction & destroying.
   a) καθαίρεσις kathairesis #2506: tearing down, destruction (2nd Cor. 10:4,8; 13:10).
   b) καθαίρεω kathaireō #2507: take down, destroy (Mk. 15:36,46; Lk. 1:52; 12:18; 23:53; Acts 13:19,29; 19:27; 2nd Cor. 10:5).
2) When the object is a building or structure, this verb is in contrast with οἰκοδομέω oikodomeō (Isa. 49:17; Jer. 49:10; 51:34; Ezek. 36:36; Lk. 12:18; B. 16:3,4).
3) Ignatius took this concept seriously in his own ministry (I Eph. 13:1).

   a) Philo understood the nature of mental fortresses in lieu of God’s interests (Philo Conf. 129,130).
   b) Josephus used a superlative form in describing Herod’s fortification of Machaerus (Wars VII.6.2).
3) Speculations (arguments). λογισμός logismos #3834: thoughts, reasoning (Rom. 2:15; 2nd Cor. 10:5).
   a) Aristotle viewed “reason” as the highest element of humanity—defining humanity.
   b) 114 LXX usages include “plans” (Ps. 32:10,11; Prov. 6:18; 12:5; 15:22,26; 19:21; Jer. 29:11).
   c) “Calculations” apart from God’s wisdom is a part of the life of vanity (Eccles. 7:27,29; 9:10).
4) Lofty things. ὑψόμα hupsōma #5310: height, lofty thing (Rom. 8:39; 2nd Cor. 10:5). See also ὑψόμα hupsōd #5312 ὑψόμα hupsōd #5313 & ὑψόμα hupsōt #5313. The Louw-Nida semantic domains for ὑψόμα hupsōma include i. the world above, ii. supernatural power & iii. arrogance.
   a) Cosmologically speaking, ὑψόμα hupsōma can reference the realm above and encompasses the angelic realm (cf. Eph. 1:20-21). The superlative “most High” refers to God and His realm.
   b) The verb means to lift up or exalt. All such matters that God has not exalted must be brought low (Isa. 14:13-14; Dan. 4:37; Job 40:11-12; 41:34; Mt. 23:12; Lk. 18:14). Our blessing is to humble ourselves and allow God to exalt us in His timing (Jas. 4:10; 1st Pet. 5:6).
   c) Israel had to contend against “high places” of gentile paganism (Hos. 4:11-14). The Church must contend against “high places” in the heart (Ps. 10:4; 18:27; Isa. 2:11,12,17).
5) Raised up against. ἐπάνω epanaw #1869. With επί or κατά αὐτῷ be in opposition, raised up over or against something (1st Mac. 8:5; 10:70; 1st Clem. 16:1; 2nd Cor. 10:5).
   a) Eyes should be lifted up in divine viewpoint (Jn. 4:35; 17:1).
   b) Hands should be lifted up in prayer (1st Tim. 2:8).
   c) Voices should be lifted up in praise (Lk. 11:27; Acts 2:14).
   d) Not one thing should be lifted up in opposition to the knowledge of God (Prov. 2:5; Hos. 6:6; Phil. 3:8).
6) Taking captive. αἰχμαλωτίζω aichmalotizō #164: to cause someone to become a prisoner of war (Lk. 21:24; Rom. 7:23; 2nd Cor. 10:5; 2nd Tim. 3:6). See also αἰχμαλωτιζόμενοι aichmalotizō #164 captives (Lk. 4:18).
   a) Any thoughts we fail to capture are captivated by the flesh (Rom. 7:23).
   b) Believers who fail to follow Christ are vulnerable to being led astray by Satan (2nd Cor. 11:3).
7) Obedience of Christ.
6. Paul is prepared to engage in additional warfare operations when he arrives in Corinth, because he already engages in his internal warfare operations day by day (2nd Cor. 10:6).
   a. Standing in readiness. The 3rd coordinated nominative plural participle attached to the weapons of our warfare. See NICGTC for this explanation.
      1) Fortress destruction and thought captivity must be achieved before disobedience in others can be punished.
      2) Spiritual M.A.S.H. operations are appropriate and necessary warfare operations (Mt. 7:1-5).
   b. To punish all disobedience. ἐκδικέω ekdikeō #1356, (Lk. 18:3,5; Rom. 12:19; 2nd Cor. 10:6; Rev. 6:10; 19:2). See Deut. 32:43 & 2nd Kgs. 9:7 to resolve the apparent contradiction.
   c. Whenever your obedience is complete. The Corinthians have the opportunity and obligation to repent of their own volition before corrective punishment is applied by the Apostle upon his arrival (cf. Mt. 16:19; 18:15-18).

Certain Reckoning (2nd Cor. 10:7-11)

1. Look! You are looking (are you looking?)
   a. The present active verb can be understood as an imperative, indicative or interrogative. Τὰ κατὰ πρόσοπον βλέπετε τὰ κατὰ προσώπων blepete.
   b. The context is not one of internal versus external viewpoints (cf. 2nd Cor. 5:12; 1st Cor. 16:7; Jn. 7:24; 1st Pet. 3:4).
   c. The “according to face things” are what is being looked at (cf. 2nd Cor. 10:1; Acts 25:16; Gal. 2:11).
   d. Paul is not yet face to face with them, present, in-person (2nd Cor. 10:1,2,10,11) but he urges the Corinthians to look at the things which are face to face with them—especially a certain one with a certain reckoning (2nd Cor. 10:7,8,11 cp. 1st Cor. 4:18-21).
   e. This particular such a one and those like him are agents of the adversary sent in to lead our minds astray (2nd Cor. 11:3,4,12-15,20 & Gal. 2:4).

2. Seeing plainly what is before you is critical in warfare operations of counterespionage (2nd Cor. 10:7b-11).
   a. A certain one has reckoned in such a way as to persuade himself. Perf.act.ind. πείθω peithō #3982, persuade, convince, obey (Lk. 18:9; Acts 17:4; 18:4; 19:8,26; 21:14; 26:26,28; 27:11; 28:23,24; Rom. 8:38; 14:14; 15:14; 2nd Cor. 1:9; 5:11; 10:7; Phil. 3:3,4; Heb. 13:17,18).
   b. Such a one must re-reckon within himself the reality of Paul’s service to Christ. λογιζέσθω λογιζομαι logizomai #3984, logizesthō logizesthō palin. λογιζέσθω λογιζομαι logizomai #3984, (2nd Cor. 3:5; 5:19; 10:2,7,11; 11:5; 12:6).
   c. Belonging to Christ is indeed worthy of boasting (Jer. 9:24; Lk. 10:20) but not with regard to superiority over others who also belong to Christ (1st Cor. 4:7).
   d. At the risk of boasting “a bit too much” Paul also mentioned his authority (2nd Cor. 10:8-9). καυχάομαι kauchao -#2744: boast, exult, glory (Rom. 2:17,23; 5:2,3,11; 1st Cor. 1:29,31; 3:21; 44:7; 13:3; 2nd Cor. 5:12; 7:14; 9:2; 10:8,13,15,16,17,18; 11:10*,12,16,17*,18,30; 12:1,5,6,9) *cognate term.
      1) Authority in the Church is given by the Lord, for His purposes (Mt. 28:18; Eph. 1:20-22; 4:11-13).
      2) For edification, not for destruction. This contrast was developed in vv.4&5 in the destruction of fortresses.
      3) Nothing to be ashamed of.
   e. Reputations are not always reality (2nd Cor. 10:10-11).
      1) Satan’s agents will besmirch the character of the Lord’s servants (2nd Cor. 10:10; Mt. 5:11; 1st Pet. 3:16).
      2) Satan’s agents will puff up their own reputations (Mt. 7:15,16,19; Rom. 16:18; 2nd Cor. 11:13-15).
      3) The light of truth exposes every falsehood (1st Cor. 11:19; 1st Thess. 5:21; 2nd Tim. 3:9; 1st Jn. 2:19-20).

Godly Boasting (2nd Cor. 10:12-18)

1. The boldness Paul here disclaims is neither the παρεσία parēsia #3984 (2nd Cor. 10:12) nor the θαρρεῖον tharreῖον #2292 (2nd Cor. 10:1,2) boldness previously referenced (see also 2nd Cor. 5:6,8). Here it is a τολμάω tolmā #5111, “daring,” almost presumptuous boldness that Paul first proposed, but hoped to not exhibit (cf. Mt. 22:46; Acts 5:13; Rom. 15:18; 1st Cor. 6:1; 2nd Cor. 10:12; 11:21; Jd. 9).

   2. Paul wouldn’t dream of clasping or comparing himself with any self-commenders (2nd Cor. 10:12).
a. ἐγκρίνω enknino #1460 & σοφρίνω sunkrino #4793 (1st Cor. 2:13; 2nd Cor. 10:12a2).

b. To be classified with an elite group has a terrific illustration with Josephus’ description of the Essenes (Jos. Bell. 2, 138). Another excellent illustration comes in the debate over the acceptance of 2nd & 3rd John (FPap. 5:1).

c. To commend is to testify your willingness to stand by/with a person or thing. Self-commendation is therefore absurd. συνιστήμι sunitēmi #2801: commend, demonstrate (Rom. 3:5; 5:8; 16:1; 2nd Cor. 3:1; 4:2; 5:12; 6:4; 7:11; 10:12,18a2; 12:11). The literal translation is Lk. 9:32, while two remarkable and puzzling uses are Col. 1:17 & 2nd Pet. 3:5.

1) Proverbs make very clear how unacceptable this practice is (Prov. 12:15; 16:2; 20:6; 21:2; 25:27; 27:2; 30:12).

2) The Church has the highest of identities in Christ, so the OT message is much more applicable in the NT (Rom. 12:3; Gal. 6:3; 4; Phil. 2:3).

d. Self-commending requires self-measuring, but our measure comes from God and reaches to the fullness of Christ (Eph. 4:7,13,16).

e. Any self-measured self-commendation is outside the realm of comprehension. Great play on words between συνιστήμι sunitēmi and συνιστήμι sunitēmi #4290.

3. Boasting must be measured according to sphere (2nd Cor. 10:13-16).

a. The measured and unmeasured word studies will quantify the importance of this subject. μέτρον metron #3558; ἀμετρος ametros #2801; μέτρεο metres #3554 (Mt. 7:23; Mk. 4:24; Lk. 6:38; Jn. 3:34; Rom. 12:3; 2nd Cor. 10:12,13,15; Eph. 4:7,13,16).

b. The sphere we are placed in is the canon by which we are judged. κανόν kanon #2583 (2nd Cor. 10:13,15,16; Gal. 6:16).

c. Our sphere is increased as others we minister to grow in grace and knowledge (2nd Cor. 10:15 cf. 1st Cor. 3:10-15).

4. Boasting in the Lord is a confession with the Lord’s boasting (2nd Cor. 10:17-18).

a. Boasting in the Lord is to be a fellow-worker with God the Father (Ps. 2:7; Isa. 42:1; Mt. 3:17; 17:5; Eph. 1:6; 2nd Pet. 1:17-19).

b. Boasting in the Father is to be a fellow-worker with God the Son (Jn. 4:34; 5:30; 6:38; 8:29,49; 13:31-32; 17:4).

c. Boasting in the Lord is fitting and due (Ps. 29:1,2; 48:1; 96:4,8; 145:3).

Chapter Eleven

In Chapter eleven, Paul plays the foolish game his opponents play, by boasting in some self-commendation. Paul is fearful that his daughter is no longer virgin (2nd Cor. 11:1-4). He recounts all the ways he “failed” the believers in Corinth (2nd Cor. 11:5-11). The “glories” of his opponents shame him by comparison (2nd Cor. 11:12-21a). Finally, Paul unloads his reluctant autobiography (2nd Cor. 11:21b-29). The chapter concludes with a transition into chapter twelve (2nd Cor. 11:30-32).

Virgin Daughter, Fearful Father (2nd Cor. 11:1-4)

1. Oh that you would tolerate a tiny bit of foolishness (2nd Cor. 11:1).

a. The uninflated particle ὁφελον ophelon #3785 x1 introduces an unattainable wish. “Oh that” or “would that” (1st Cor. 4:8; 2nd Cor. 11:1; Gal. 5:12; Rev. 3:15).

b. Biblical tolerance is not the UNESCO definition of tolerance. ἀνέχω anechō #430: to regard with tolerance, endure, bear with, put up with (Mt. 17:17 || Mk. 9:19 || Lk. 9:41; Acts 18:14; 1st Cor. 4:12; 2nd Cor. 11:1a2,19,20; Eph. 4:2; Col. 3:13; 2nd Thess. 1:4; 2nd Tim. 4:3; Heb. 13:22).

c. Foolishness (μωρός, mawro, mawrion, mowria) was a theme in First Corinthians (1st Cor. 1:18,21,23,25; 2:14; 3:19) that gets an encore (ἀφρων, ἀφρωσύνη) in Second Corinthians (2nd Cor. 11:1,16a2,17,18,21; 12:6,11).

2. Paul claims fatherly jealousy as a motivation for his foolishness (2nd Cor. 11:2).

a. Godly jealousy is like-minded with the God named Jealous (Ex. 34:14).

b. The Levitical priesthood mandated virgin marriage (Lev. 21:13-15) and the Church is the pure virgin bride espoused to Christ (Eph. 5:27).

c. The betrothal was a period in which virgin faithfulness was expected (Mt. 1:18-25).

* Tolerance is respect, acceptance and appreciation of the rich diversity of our world’s cultures, our forms of expression and ways of being human. Tolerance is not concession, condescension or indulgence.
d. Virgin contracts were matters of public record (Dt. 22:13-21).

3. The mental seduction is the real tragedy (2nd Cor. 11:3).
   a. Satan’s deception of Eve is an object lesson for all eternity (Gen. 3:1-7; 2nd Cor. 11:3; 1st Thess. 3:5; 1st Tim. 2:12-15; Rev. 12:9; 20:2).
   b. Spiritual adultery is a prime target for God’s jealousy (Ezek. 16:1-59; 23:1-30).
   c. The walk in Christ is a walk of simplicity and purity.
      1) ἀπλότης haplothes #972; simplicity, sincerity (Rom. 12:8; 2nd Cor. 1:12; 8:2; 9:11,13; 11:3; Eph. 6:5; Col. 3:22).
      2) ἁγνότης hagnotos #170; purity, sincerity (2nd Cor. 6:6; 11:3 fr. ἁγνός hagnos #93; pure, holy (2nd Cor. 7:11; 11:2; Phil. 4:8; 1st Tim. 5:22; Tit. 2:5; Jas. 3:17; 1st Pet. 3:2; 1st Jn. 3:3).

4. Different is not necessarily wrong, but in the realm of Jesus, the Gospel, and the Spirit of Truth, different is always Satanic (2nd Cor. 11:4).
   a. Another Jesus is a favorite false doctrine promoted by the spirit of antichrist (1st Jn. 4:2,3). It is logically impossible for “another of the same kind” to exist when Jesus Christ is the “one of a kind” Son (Jn. 1:14,18; 3:16,18; 1st Jn. 4:9).
   b. A different Spirit is always going to be false because the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth (Jn. 14:17; 15:26; 16:13; 1st Jn. 4:16).
   c. A different gospel is not another gospel. It does not save. It distorts and disturbs and its evangelists are to be anathema (Gal. 1:6-9).

Begging your Pardon (2nd Cor. 11:5–11)

1. Unlike the Corinthians’ considerations, Paul acknowledged no inferiority whatsoever (2nd Cor. 11:5). “Not a whit behind” (KJV)
   a. Not in even one aspect (μιμήσην) inferior. ὑπερλίαν apostolōn #1060; to miss, fail, fall short (Mt. 19:20 || Mk. 10:21; Jn. 2:3; Rom. 3:23; 1st Cor. 1:7; 8:8; 12:24; 2nd Cor. 11:5,9; 12:11; Phil. 4:12; Heb. 4:1; 11:37; 12:15).
   b. Super-apostles. τῶν ὑπερλιῶν ἀποστόλων τῶν ὑπερλιῶν apostolōn. ὑπερλίαν ἀποστόλων #5241; beyond measure (2nd Cor. 11:5; 12:11).
   c. This theme is restated more forcefully in chapter twelve (2nd Cor. 12:11,13).

2. Speech and knowledge are contrasted as evaluation criteria for those in ministry (2nd Cor. 11:6).
   a. The unskilled has no business participating with or competing against the professionals. ἰδιώτης idiōtēs #2309; layperson, amateur (Acts 4:13; 1st Cor. 14:16,23,24; 2nd Cor. 11:6).
   b. Unskilled in word can be overcome, but not the unskilled in knowledge. λόγος logos #3056 vs. γνώσις gnōsis #1108; (1st Cor. 1:5; 2nd Cor. 8:7). Paul grants a demerit in rhetoric (cf. 2nd Cor. 10:10), but even that claim is dubious (Acts 14:12).
   c. Every circumstance in every way manifested Paul’s doctrinal knowledge (cf. 1st Tim. 4:15,16 & Jcr. 9:23-24).

3. Paul asked the Corinthians if his demonstrated humility in service was something that missed their mark and required their pardon (2nd Cor. 11:7-9).
   a. Self-humbling to exalt another is the epitome of the Plan of God (Mt. 23:12; Lk 14:11; 18:14; Jas. 4:10; 1st Pet. 5:6).
   b. Paul “robbed” believers in Philippi and elsewhere so as to not “burden” the church with no capacity to apply financial grace (2nd Cor. 11:8,9; Phil. 4:15-19; Acts 18:3,5; 2nd Cor. 8:1-5).

4. Accusations to the contrary, Paul loves Corinth and calls God as his witness (2nd Cor. 11:10-11; 1st Cor. 9:15-18).
   a. “As the Truth of Christ is in me” formulates a solemn vow (cf. Harris NIGTC, Robertson Grammar).
   b. The New Testament prohibits vows (Mt. 5:34-37; Jas. 5:12) as the Old Testament makes clear how serious they are (Dt. 10:20; 23:21-23).
   c. Pastoring without pay is proof of an anti-hireling shepherd’s heart (Jn. 10:12-13; Phil. 2:19-22).

Seductive Predators (2nd Cor. 11:12–21a)

1. Paul refuses to back down because the seductive predators need to be cut off (2nd Cor. 11:12).
   a. Cut off. ἐκκόπτω ekkotpē #1521; cut off, cut down, exterminate (Mt. 3:10; 5:30; 7:19; 18:8; Lk. 3:9; 13:7,9; Rom. 11:22,24; 2nd Cor. 11:12).
b. The opportunity of those who desire an opportunity. ἀφορμή aphorme occasion, opportunity (Rom. 7:8,11; 2nd Cor. 5:12; 11:12; Gal. 5:13; 1st Tim. 5:14).

c. The thing in which they boast stands in stark contrast to the thing in which Paul boasts (contrast v.10 with v.12).
d. To be found even as we also are found. Aor.pass.subj. εὑρίσκον heurisko be found (1st Cor. 4:2; 2nd Cor. 11:12; 12:20; Phil. 2:7; 3:9; 1st Pet. 1:7; 2:22; 2nd Pet. 3:14).

2. His virgin daughter doesn't see it, but Paul sees clearly what these snakes are all about (2nd Cor. 11:13).
   a. False apostles. ψευδάπτυστολος pseudapostolos false/spurious/bogus apostle (2nd Cor. 11:13).
      This word is one of the compounds with ψευδο(o) of which ψευδάδελφος, ψευδοδιδάσκαλος, ψευδόματας, etc. are also found in the NT. It does not occur elsewhere. TDNT
   b. Deceitful workers. ἐργάται ἀδόλου. ἀδόλος dolios (2nd Cor. 11:13). See also δολιός dolios (Rom. 3:13), δόλος dolos (Jn. 1:47; Acts 13:10; Rom. 1:29; 2nd Cor. 12:16; 1st Thess. 2:3; 1st Pet. 2:1,22; 3:10), δολός dolos (2nd Cor. 4:2) all in the Craftiness, Deception, Corruption study.
   c. Self-disguised as apostles. Pres.midi.pnc. μετασχηματίζω metaschmatizō transform, change, disguise (1st Cor. 4:6; 2nd Cor. 11:13,14,15; Phil. 3:21).
   d. This role is natural for the brood of vipers imitating their diabolical father (2nd Cor. 11:14-15; Jn. 8:38,41,44; Mt. 3:7; 12:34; 23:33).

3. The Lord never utilized such foolishness, but Paul does so in an attempt to communicate to the Corinthians (2nd Cor. 11:16-21a).
   a. As the chapter began, Paul reminds the Corinthians of his foolishness (2nd Cor. 11:11,16). Review the points there regarding foolishness and tolerance.
   b. The Lord undoubtedly would communicate the same doctrine, but He would not do it in this same way (2nd Cor. 11:17).
   c. Paul plays along with the methodology of the super-apostles (2nd Cor. 11:18-19).
   d. The abusive relationship is then outlined (2nd Cor. 11:20).
      1) εἰ τις ὡς καταδουλοῖ. καταδουλόω kataadoulou (2nd Cor. 11:20; Gal. 2:4).
      2) εἰ τις κατεσθίει. κατεσθίεω katesthie (Mt. 13:4; Mk. 4:4; 12:40; Lk. 8:5; 15:30; 20:47;
         Jn. 2:17; 2nd Cor. 11:20; Gal. 5:15; Rev. 10:9,10; 13:5; 12:4; 19:9).
      3) εἰ τις λαμβάνει. λαμβάνω lambanō (Mt. 13:4; Mk. 4:4; 12:40; Lk. 8:5; 15:30; 20:47;
         Jn. 2:17; 2nd Cor. 11:20; Gal. 5:15; Rev. 10:9,10; 11:5; 12:4; 12:4; 19:9).
      4) εἰ τις ἐπαίρεται. ἐπαιρέω epairēō (Mt. 13:4; Mk. 4:4; 12:40; Lk. 8:5; 15:30; 20:47;
         Jn. 2:17; 2nd Cor. 11:20; Gal. 5:15; Rev. 10:9,10; 11:5; 12:4; 19:9).
      5) εἰ τις πρόσωπων ως ἄρει. δέρω derō (Mt. 21:35; Mk. 12:3,5; 13:9; Lk. 12:47,48;
   e. In comparison, Paul is weak (2nd Cor. 11:21a cf. 10:10-12). A nobody (2nd Cor. 11:12).

Paul's Reluctant Autobiography
(2nd Cor. 11:21b-29)

1. Paul begins with a triple testimony to his Jewishness (2nd Cor. 11:12).
   a. Hebrew. Ἑβραῖος Hebraios (Acts 6:1; 2nd Cor. 11:22; Phe. 3:5,29). See also Ἑβραῖς Hebrais (Acts 21:40; 22:2; 26:14) & Ἑβραίτη Hebraisti in Hebrew (Jn. 5:2; 19:13,17,20; 20:16; Rev. 9:11; 16:16).
      2nd Cor. 11:22). Fr. Ἰσραήλ Israel (Gen. 22:18; Gal. 3:16).
   c. Seed of Abraham (σπήρμα Αβραάμ sperm Abraam) goes beyond the ethnic and geopolitical terminology to a theological designation for eternal blessing (Gen. 22:18; Gal. 3:16).

2. Paul's three "me too" statements gives way to the 4th comparison, which only the insane could draw (2nd Cor. 11:23).
   a. Servant of Christ (διάκονοι Χριστοῦ diakonoi Christou). They may be disguised as deacons of righteousness but they are actually deacons of Satan (v. 15).
   b. Only insanity speaking could make the claim they make. παραφρονέω paraphreneō (to be beside oneself.
      Cf. παραφρονία paraphronia (2nd Pet. 2:16).
   c. This suffering servant reality follows two previous discourses on the subject (2nd Cor. 4:8-11; 6:3-10).
      1) This reality is the hallmark of Paul's ministry (Acts 9:16; 1st Thess. 3:3).
      2) This reality is the essence of imitation of Christ (Isa. 53; Jn. 15:19-21; 16:33).
3. The four comparisons give way to a series of incomparable “far more” statements (2nd Cor. 11:23).
   a. Far more labors. ἐν κόποις περισσοτέρως. κόπος κορίδιον #2873: labor, toil, bother (1st Cor. 3:8; 15:58; 2nd Cor. 6:5; 10:15; 11:23; Gal. 6:17; 1st Thess. 1:3; 2:9; 3:5; 2nd Thess. 3:8). Fr. κοπιάω κορίδα #2872: to weary oneself in labor.

   b. Far more imprisonments. ἐν φυλακαῖς περισσοτέρως. φυλάκη φυλασσέ #5438: the act of guarding (Lk. 2:8); embodied in a person, guard (Acts 12:10), the place where guarding is done, prison (21x in Luke & Acts). Only 2x in Paul: 2nd Cor. 6:5; 11:23). Fr. φυλάσσω φυλασσό #5442: to guard.

   Note: Paul’s Caesarean (Acts 24:27) and Roman (Acts 28:30) imprisonments have not yet happened when he wrote 2nd Corinthians. His Philippian imprisonment is the only other incident we know of in the NT (Acts 16:23-30).

   d. Often in danger of death. ἐν θανάτοις πολλακις. θάνατος thanatos #2826: death, sometimes the danger of death (2nd Cor. 1:10; 4:11,12; 11:23; Phil. 2:30; Heb. 5:7).

1) Faith–rest views “danger” as a circumstance like every other that comes under God’s control (Phil. 4:11,12; 2nd Thess. 3:16).

2) Even “danger” to the point of life or death remains under God’s control (Rom. 14:7,8; Phil. 1:19-21).

4. Numbered hardships (2nd Cor. 11:24-25).
   a. Five times from the Jews thirty-nine. When did this happen? Acts 9:24,29 are possibilities.

   Forty lashes was the Torah maximum (Deut. 25:3). Rabbinic tradition lowered this number by one (Makkot 3:10). Why? “from a scrupulous fear of transgressing the letter of the law, in case a mistake should be made in the counting; yet they felt no conscientious scruples about using a whip of twisted thongs instead of a stick.” (Kiel & Delitzsch)

   b. Three times beaten with rods. ἁβδῶνω ὁ ἁβδώνω #4463: beat with a rod (Acts 16:22; 2nd Cor. 11:25). The Roman punishment was called admonitio. The use of rods was called fistigatio. A lashing was called catigatio. Flogging with chains was called verberatio.

   c. Once stoned. λθασζω λθασζ #1034: throw stones, stone to death (Jn. 8:5; 10:31,32,33; 11:8; Acts 5:26; 14:19; 2nd Cor. 11:25; Heb. 11:37). Detailed procedures were established by Rabbinic tradition (Sanhedrin 6).

   d. Three times shipwrecked, with a night and a day spent in the deep. ναυαγεω ναυαγε #349: to live through a ship’s destruction, suffer shipwreck, come to ruin (2nd Cor. 11:25; 1st Tim. 1:19). The metaphoric use was employed twice by Philo (On Dreams 2.147).

5. Traveling dangers (2nd Cor. 11:26). Frequent journeys with their attendant dangers. ὁδιστορία hodoiporia #3597: journey (Jn. 4:6; 2nd Cor. 11:26). κύνδυος κύνδυο #794: peril (Rom. 8:35), danger (2nd Cor. 11:26; 8). Paul’s discourse on traveling dangers finds an interesting similarity in Josephus’ autobiography (Jos.Vi.10-12) and Plutarch’s Life of Caesar (Caeasar 17.1-3).

   a. River dangers. ποταμός potamos #4215: riever.

   b. Robber dangers. λήστης lēstēs #3027: robber, pirate, insurrectionist (Mt. 21:13; 26:55; 27:38; Mk. 11:17; 14:48; 15:27; Lk. 10:30,36; 19:46; 22:52; Jn. 10:1,8; 18:40; 2nd Cor. 11:26).

   c. Jewish dangers. γένος genos #1085: kind, race (lat. genus). Paul was of the Jewish race as reckoned according to the flesh (Rom. 9:3; Gal. 1:14; Phil. 3:5). (In Christ, however, we are a new race (1st Pet. 2:9; 1st Cor. 10:32)).

   d. Gentile dangers. εθνος ethnos #1484: Gentile, nation. Paul was a Roman citizen, of Cilician/Syrian birth.

   e. City dangers. πόλις polis #1163: city. Paul’s ministry centered in the largest cities in the Roman empire.

   f. Wilderness dangers. ἐρήμων ερήμω #2047: desert. Fr. ἐρήμιος ερήμω #2068: isolated, desolate. Because the Roman empire was so spread out, individual population centers were often separated by vast swaths of wilderness.

   g. Sea dangers. θάλασσα thalassa #2281: sea, lake. For long-distance travel, the time and expense considerations made sea travel the least bad option.

   h. False brethren dangers. ψευδάδελφος pseudadelphos #560: false brother (2nd Cor. 11:26; Gal. 2:4; Pol. 6.3).

   a. Labor repeats κόπος κορίδιον #2873: labor, toil, bother from v.23.

   b. Hardship often appears in tandem with labor. μόχθος mochthos #3449: exertion, hardship (2nd Cor. 11:27; 1st Thess. 2:9; 2nd Thess. 3:8).
c. Often in wakefulness. ἀγρυπνία agrupnia #3308: sleeplessness (2nd Cor. 6:5; 11:27). Fr. ἀγρυπνιῶν agrupneō #641: be alert, vigilant, care for (Mk. 13:33; Lk. 21:36; Eph. 6:18; Heb. 13:17).

d. In hunger. λιμὸς limos #3042: famine (Mt. 24:7; Mk. 13:8; Lk. 4:25; 15:14; 21:11; Acts 7:11; 11:28; Rom. 8:35; Rev. 6:8; 18:8), hunger (Lk. 15:17; 2nd Cor. 11:27).

e. In thirst. δίψος dipsos #1373: thirst (2nd Cor. 11:27). See also διψῶν dipsaō #1373: be thirsty, thirst (Mt. 5:6; 25:35,37,42,44; Jn. 4:13,14,15; 6:35; 7:37; 19:28; Rom. 12:20; 1st Cor. 4:11; Rev. 7:16; 21:6; 22:17).

f. Often without food. νηστεία nēsteia #3521: fasting (Lk. 2:37; Acts 14:23; 27:9; 2nd Cor. 6:5; 11:27). See also νηστεύον νεστευόν #3522: to fast (Mt. 4:2; 6:16,17,18; 9:14,15; Mk. 2:18,19,20; Lk. 5:33,34,35: 18:12; Acts 13:2,3).

g. In cold. ψύχος psychos #5992: cold (Jn. 18:18; Acts 28:2; 2nd Cor. 11:27).

h. In nakedness. γυμνότης gymnōtēs #1132: nakedness (Rom. 8:35; 2nd Cor. 11:27; Rev. 3:18).

7. Everything listed until verse 27 is brushed aside as external circumstances (2nd Cor. 11:28). The real apostolic ministry takes place in spiritual labor on behalf of the Church (2nd Cor. 11:29).

a. The brush-off is hard to translate:
   1) Apart from such external things (NASB).
   2) Apart from the things unmentioned (NASB Footnote).
   3) Besides the other things (NKJV).
   4) Not to mention other things (HCSB, New American Commentary).
   5) Quite apart from many other bodily hardships which I pass over (NIGTC NT Paraphrase).

b. Daily pressure. ἐπισύστασις episustasis #1999: stoppage, pressure (Acts 24:12; 2nd Cor. 11:28). Paul is “mobbed” every day by the weight of his apostolic responsibilities. The Majority text uses ἐπισύστασις επισυστάσις episustasis uprising, insurrection in both passages.

c. Concern. μῆριμνα merimna #3308: anxiety, worry, care. See also μηριμνίας merimnias #3309: be anxious, be concerned. Combined verse list for both (Mt. 6:25,27,28,31,34,35; 10:19; 13:22; Mk. 4:19; Lk. 8:14; 10:41; 12:11,22,25,26; 21:34; 1st Cor. 7:32,33,34,35; 12:25; 2nd Cor. 11:28; Phil. 2:20; 4:6; 1st Pet. 5:7).

d. Weakness. ἀσθενεία astheaia #3770: to be sick, weak. See also ἀσθενεῖς asthenes #772: to be sick, weak. Combined verse list to the Corinthians (1st Cor. 1:25,27; 2:3; 4:10; 8:7,9,10,11,12; 9:22,23; 11:30; 12:22; 15:43; 2nd Cor. 10:10; 11:21,29,30; 12:5,9,13,10,13:3,4,9).

e. Intense concern. πυρόω purō #4448: burn (1st Cor. 7:9; 2nd Cor. 11:29; Eph. 6:16; 2nd Pet. 3:12; Rev. 1:15; 3:18).

Previewing the Thorn in the Flesh (2nd Cor. 11:30–33)

1. As an extension to the previous section, Paul continues to demonstrate how ministry weakness is suitable (even necessary) for legitimate boasting (2nd Cor. 11:30 cf. 12:1,5,9).

2. God the Father is called upon as witness to the truth (2nd Cor. 11:31 cf. 1:23; 11:10,11).

3. Damascus was the scene for Paul’s apostolic calling and his first exposure to ministry weakness (2nd Cor. 11:32-33; Acts 9:23-25).
   a. Paul was likely saved as an Old Testament believer from his childhood (Acts 22:3). The Damascus Road “conversion” was Paul’s repentance (cf. Acts 2:38) and acceptance of Jesus the Nazarene as the Christ (Acts 22:8 cf. 9:22 & etc.).
   b. Paul’s matriculation into the Church and his call to ministry included a clear understanding of how much he would be required to suffer on behalf of Jesus Christ (Acts 9:16).
   c. Just as the Jews in Jerusalem enlisted the Romans to put Christ to death, so did the Jews in Damascus enlist gentiles to put Paul to death.

1. Aretas Ἀρέτας #702: Nabatean (Arab) king, Aretas IV Philopatris (9BC–40AD). Father-in-law to Herod Antipas. Waged war on Herod in 36AD for divorcing his daughter (Jos.Ant.xviii.5.1-3; Mt. 14:3-12).

2. The Ethnarch ἔθναρχης #1141: See article in the Tyndale Bible Dictionary. Historians are unclear on who this Ethnarch might have been, and what his responsibilities were to Rome and to Petra.
4. Paul became an imitator of Jesus Christ from the very first of his ministry.
   a. Sometimes the way of escape (ἐκβάσις ekbasis #1219) (1st Cor. 10:13) is to flee (Lk. 4:28-30; Jn. 7:30; 8:20,59; 10:39; 12:36) and sometimes it is to die (Jn. 18:6,7).
   b. Either way, the outcome should be the glorification of Jesus Christ (Phil. 1:20).

Chapter Twelve
In Chapter Twelve, Paul concludes his autobiography with his personal rapture and thorn in the flesh testimony (2nd Cor. 12:1-10). An epilogue to his autobiography is a reflection on what the Lord accomplished by bringing such a fool to such a place as Corinth (2nd Cor. 12:11-13). Paul then begins to wrap up the epistle with a pair of warnings concerning his imminent arrival (2nd Cor. 12:14-21 & 13:1-10).

The Thorn in the Flesh (2nd Cor. 12:1-10)
1. Paul does not question the necessity of his foolish boasting (2nd Cor. 11:16ff.), but he denies any profitability to the exercise (2nd Cor. 12:1a).
   a. καυχάομαι kauchaomai #2744, Combined with καυχήµα kauchēma #2745, and καυχήσις kauchēsis #2746, used 38x in 1st & 2nd Corinthians.
   b. Impersonal verb δεῖ δεί #1163 to be under necessity of happening, it is necessary, one must, one has to (Rom. 1:27; 8:26; 12:3; 1st Cor. 8:2; 11:19; 15:25,53; 2nd Cor. 2:3; 5:10; 11:30; 12:1; Eph. 6:20; Col. 4:4,6; 1st Thess. 4:1; 2nd Thess. 3:7; 1st Tim. 3:2,7,15; 5:13; 2nd Tim. 2:6,24; Tit. 1:7,11,23). EDNT has a good summary of the term.
   c. συµφέρω sumphero #1015: to be advantageous, help, confer a benefit, be profitable/useful (Mt. 5:29,30; 18:6; 19:10; Jn. 11:50; 16:7; 18:14; Acts 19:19; 20:20; 1st Cor. 6:12; 10:23; 12:7; 2nd Cor. 8:10; 12:1; Heb. 12:10).
   d. Although Paul discounts any profitability to this exercise, its incorporation into the Bible means it is profitable to the reader (2nd Tim. 3:16) and therefore rewardable to Paul (1st Cor. 3:8-14).
      1) Boasting entirely in human achievements is without profit.
      2) Another sense for this statement is to contrast the chapter eleven boasting with the thorn in the flesh passage to follow. Paul “goes on” to boastings that will absolutely be profitable.

2. Visions and revelations of the Lord (2nd Cor. 12:11b).
   a. ὠπτασία optasia #3701 a: vision, sight (Lk. 1:22; 24:23; Acts 26:19; 2nd Cor. 12:1). See also ὠραµα horama #3703, & ὠρασις horasis #3706. LXX usages of these three terms spans both the קַח בַּשַּׁלַּוּ chazown #2377, and the צָל מָר לֵא mar’eh #8758 word groups.
   b. ἀποκάλυψις apokalypsis #624: revelation (Lk. 2:32; Rom. 2:5; 8:19; 16:25; 1st Cor. 1:7; 14:6,26; 2nd Cor. 12:1,7; Eph. 1:17; 3:3; 2nd Thess. 1:7; 1st Pet. 1:7,13; 4:13; Rev. 1:1).

3. I know a man in Christ (2nd Cor. 12:2-6).
   a. A man “in Christ” is specifically a New Testament believer. “In Christ” is one of the most fundamental studies for believers today to absorb (Jn. 14:19,20; Gal. 3:26-28; Rom. 3:24; 6:11; 8:1,39; 12:5; 16:3,7,9,10; 1st Cor. 1:30; 2nd Cor. 5:17,21; Eph. 2:10).
   b. Fourteen years ago can be fixed with certainty. 2nd Corinthians and Romans were written in the winter of 56-57AD. Paul’s rapture and thorn episode therefore took place in 42-43AD. That time-frame was Paul’s final year in Tarsus before Barnabas brought him to Antioch (Acts 11:25-26).
   c. In the body or out of the body, Paul does not know (2nd Cor. 12:2,3). Ezekiel was carried about outside his body in a purely visionary experience (Ezek. 8:3; 11:24).
   d. Paul was raptured to the Third Heaven, to Paradise (2nd Cor. 12:2,4).
      1) Rapture is an English word from the Latin rapturo. The Greek verb is ἄρπαξ ἢρπαξ ἀρπάξ harpazo #6226, to make off with someone’s property by attacking or seizing, steal, carry off, drag away; to grab or seize suddenly so as to remove or gain control, snatch/take away (Mt. 11:12; 12:29; 13:19; Jn. 6:15; 10:12,28,29; Acts 8:39; 23:10; 2nd Cor. 12:2,4; 1st Thess. 4:17; Jude 23; Rev. 12:5). See also LXX Jdg. 21:21.
      2) Third Heaven. ἐκ τῶν οὐρανῶν οὐρανοῦ heōs tritou ouranou.
         a) οὐρανός ouranos #3772, heaven (21x by Paul: Rom. 1:18; 10:6; 1st Cor. 8:5; 15:47; 2nd Cor. 5:1,2; 12:2; Gal. 1:8; Eph. 1:10; 3:15; 4:10; 6:9; Phil. 3:20; Col. 1:5,16,20,23; 4:1; 1st Thess. 1:10; 4:16; 2nd Thess. 1:7). Much heavier in Matt. & Rev.
         b) οὐρανοὶ ἄνω shamayim #4202, heaven & ג ה ש מ Shamayin #8065. Heavy in Gen., Deut., Ps., Isa., Jer., Dan.
c) Wycliffe Bible Encyclopedia article on Heaven.
d) Testament of Levi 2:7–10; 3:1–4 conceives of the heavenly spheres as three in number (perhaps deduced from 1 Kgs. 8:27, “the heavens and the heavens of the heavens” (see also Neh. 9:6; 2 Chr. 2:6; 6:18; Ps 68:33; and 148:4). The following works locate paradise in the third heaven: 2 Enoch 8:1; Apoc. Mos. 37:5; and 3 Apoc. Bar. 4:8.¹

3) Paradise. εἰς τὸν παράδεισον εἰς τον παρών

a) παραδείσους παραδεισὸς #3857: enclosed park, pleasure-ground, paradise (Lk. 23:43; 2nd Cor. 12:4; Rev. 2:7).
b) σαράδεισον #5085: park, enclosed garden ( Neh. 2:8; Song. 4:13; Ecc. 2:5). LXX uses παράδεισος for Eden (Isa. 51:3) and garden (Gen. 2:8,9,10,15,16; 3:1,2,3,8,10,23,24; 13:10; Joel 2:3; Ezek. 28:13; 31:8,9).
c) The connection of Paradise to the Tree of Life (Gen. 2:9; Rev. 2:7) requires that expression to also be included in Paradise studies (not to mention Water of Life and Bread of Life references as well).
d) Great summary in the Lexham Bible Dictionary.

e) Inexpressible words not humanly permitted to speak (2nd Cor. 12:4). ἄρρητα ῥήματα.

2) ῥῆμα rhēma #4487: utterance, spoken word (Mt. 4:4; 12:36; Eph. 5:26; 6:17).

3) ἐξετιν εὐς exestin #1832: to be authorized, permitted, proper (Mt. 12:2,4,10,12; 20:15; 27:6; 1st Cor. 6:12,15; 10:23,24).

f) The boasting contrast is pretty clear (2nd Cor. 12:5-6).

1) The guy who is lowered down in a basket (2nd Cor. 11:30-33) can only boast in his weakness.

4. The thorn (2nd Cor. 12:7).

a) The hyper-ballistic revelations were of such a nature that God required a remedy for Paul's pride. ὑπερβολὴ huperbolē #5236: excess, extraordinary (Rom. 7:13; 1st Cor. 12:31; 2nd Cor. 1:8; 4:7,17,12; 12:7; Gal. 1:13).

b) Twice it is stated: to keep me from exalting myself. ὑπεραίρω huperairō #5229: to have an undue sense of one's self-importance, rise up, exalt oneself, be elated (2nd Cor. 12:7,12; 2nd Thess. 2:4).

c) An angel of Satan is tasked to become an implanted thorn in Paul's physical body.

1) ἀγγέλος σατάν. ἀγγέλος angelos #4038: σατανάς satan #4567: (also σατάν satan #4560): adversary, Satan, The Enemy (36x). Fr. Hebrew יְֶשָּׁנ satan #7854 (27x).

2) σκόλοψ tē σκολόψ skolops τē, sarki. σκόλοψ skolops #6407: (cf. LXX Num. 33:55; Ezek. 28:24; Hos. 2:8(6)).

d) Satanic tormenting = Divine humbling. What God permits, He permits for His own purposes (cf. Job 1&2).

κολαφίζω kolaphizō #2852: 3x: beat, treat harshly (Mt. 26:67; Mk. 14:65; 1st Cor. 4:11; 2nd Cor. 12:7; 1st Pet. 2:20).

Important to note this is not the tormenting of hell, as represented by the βάσανος/βασανισμός/βασανίζω family of terms.

e) The specific nature of this thorn and how it was manifested has been debated ad nauseam.

1) Hindrances to travel (1st Thess. 2:18).

2) Internal death sentence (2nd Cor. 1:9).

3) Physically disgusting, eye related (Gal. 4:13-15).

5. The consequences (2nd Cor. 12:8-10).

a) On three occasions the Apostle Paul exhorted the thorn’s departure (2nd Cor. 12:8). ἀφίστημι aphištēmi #688: depart, withdraw, fall away.

b) The final time Paul exhorted the Lord, the Lord spoke of sufficient grace (2nd Cor. 12:9).

1) The verb ἀρκέω arkeō #714: (Mt. 25:9; Lk. 3:14; Jn. 6:7; 14:8; 2nd Cor. 12:9; 1st Tim. 6:8; Heb. 13:5; 3rd Jn. 10) and the adjective ἀρκετός arkeōs #713: (Mt. 6:34; 10:25; 1st Pet. 4:3) form a marvelous study to promote a relaxed mental attitude for Church Members.

2) Power joins faith (Jas. 2:22) and love (1st Jn. 2:5; 5:12,17,18) in a perfecting process.

c) The consequence of ongoing, non-stop testing is a well-content strong believer (2nd Cor. 12:10). The present indicative δυνατός εἰμι requires a present subjunctive ὅταν ἀφθενῶ.

The Signs of a True Apostle (2nd Cor. 12:11-13)

1. As Paul concluded his reluctant autobiography he points out that it never should have happened.
   a. He should have been commended by the Corinthians. ὅφειλον ophelēō #3784 to be indebted, under obligation.
   b. The should’ve would’ve could’ve reflections of believers is sometimes quite ironic (1st Cor. 5:10).
   c. Second Corinthians is the Book of Commendations—expected, not expected, wrongly expected, ought to have expected, self-extended and more (2nd Cor. 3:1; 4:2; 5:12; 6:4; 7:11; 10:12,18,19; 12:11).

2. No inferiority to the most eminent apostles (2nd Cor. 12:11 cf. 11:5).
   a. Paul was not lacking even one thing in comparison with the greatest apostles.
   b. “I am a nobody” represents the maximum perspective for “He must increase and I must decrease” (Jn. 3:30).

3. The Corinthians could not disprove the signs of an apostle during Paul’s visits (2nd Cor. 12:12).
   a. Signs of an apostle are productively performed. κατεργάζωμαι katergazomai #2716 (Rom. 15:18; 2nd Cor. 4:17; 7:10,11; 9:11; 12:12; Jas. 1:3).
   1) Among believers in a local church (ἐν ἑαυτῶν en humin cf. Rom. 1:12,13; 1st Cor. 1:6,10,11; 2nd Cor. 1:19).
   2) With total perseverance (ἐν πάσῃ ὑπομονῇ en pasēi, hupomonēi, cf. 2nd Cor. 6:4–7; Col. 1:11).
   b. Signs, wonders and miracles were the Lord’s undeniable credentials (Jn. 3:2; 10:38; Acts 2:22), and in the early Church served as the Apostolic credentials (Acts 4:16,17; Rom. 15:18,19; Rev. 2:2).
   1) σημείων σημείων #502775x (Acts 14:5; 15:12; Rom. 4:11; 15:19; 1st Cor. 1:22; 14:22; 2nd Cor. 12:12,42; 2nd Thess. 2:9).
   2) τέρας τερας #509116x (Acts 14:3; 15:12; Rom. 15:19; 2nd Cor. 12:12; 2nd Thess. 2:9).
   3) δύναμις δυναμη #141119s (Acts 19:11; 1st Cor. 12:10,28,29; 2nd Cor. 12:12; Gal. 3:5).
   c. Signs are no longer necessary when the foundational role of the Apostles is complete (Eph. 2:20; 1st Cor. 13:8; 2nd Cor. 5:17; Heb. 8:13), yet Satan will provide such for his beloved son in the Tribulation (2nd Thess. 2:9).

4. The Corinthians felt mistreated in a bizarre alternate reality (2nd Cor. 12:13 cf. 11:19-21).

5. “Forgive me this wrong” represents the Apostle Paul’s prophetic imitation of Steve Martin (“Well, excuuuuuse me!”).

Ready or Not... (2nd Cor. 12:14-21)

1. Behold! I am ready for my third visit.
   a. Visit #1 was the establishment of a church in Corinth on Paul’s 2nd missionary journey (Acts 18:1-18).
   b. Visit #2 was the painful visit, which prompted the sorrowful letter (2nd Cor. 2:1-4). It is not recorded in Acts, but likely occurred during Paul’s three years at Ephesus (Acts 19:8,10; 20:31).
   c. “Behold!” is the language of a prophet in the declaration of woe, but not the language Paul typically employs (1st Cor. 15:51; 2nd Cor. 5:17; 6:9; 7:11; 12:14; Gal. 1:20).

2. No burdens (2nd Cor. 12:14-16).
   a. In the past, Paul was not a burden to the Corinthians (2nd Cor. 12:16 cp. 1st Cor. 9:6-15; 2nd Cor. 11:7-11).
   b. Paul doesn’t see what they have. He seeks them (2nd Cor. 12:14b cp. Phil. 4:17).
   c. This trip will be more of the same because parents should save up for their children (2nd Cor. 12:14c).
   d. The grace perspective on giving is an agape love application (2nd Cor. 12:15).
   1) ἀδελφόν ἀδελφῶν #256250; gladly (Mk. 6:20; 12:37; 2nd Cor. 11:19; 12:9,15).
   2) δαπανάω δαπανάω #515051: spend (Mk. 5:26; Lk. 15:14; Acts 21:24; 2nd Cor. 12:15; Jas. 4:3).
   3) ἐκδαπανάω ekdapanao #1575: exhaust (2nd Cor. 12:15). Josephus usage is quite interesting (Ant.15.117).
   e. “Crafty fellow that I am” (2nd Cor. 12:16) is an ironic expression given Paul’s earlier doctrinal development (2nd Cor. 11:3).

3. Paul’s agents and trainees were likewise not abusive (2nd Cor. 12:17-18) in imitation of Paul and quite unlike the OT example of Gehazi (2nd Kgs. 5:20-27).
   a. Timothy was a possible messenger after the sending of First Corinthians, but he had reason for fear (1st Cor. 16:10-11).
   b. Apollos was another potential messenger, but he had no desire to minister there again after his first such occasion (1st Cor. 16:12 cf. Acts 18:27-19:1).
   c. Titus was sent to Corinth after the painful visit, likely as the courier for the sorrowful letter (2nd Cor. 2:13; 7:6,13,14; 8:16-17).
   d. “The Brother” was almost certainly Titus’ brother, Luke (2nd Cor. 8:18-19).
   e. “Our Brother” was likely Sosthenes (2nd Cor. 8:22 cf. Acts 18:17; 1st Cor. 1:1).
4. Paul’s apology was not to the Corinthians, but in the sight of God for the edification of the Corinthians (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 12:19).
   a. Apologetic/defense ministry is like every other grace ministry of the Word of God—speaking in Christ in the sight of God (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 2:17). || expression for speaking the Truth in Love (Eph. 4:15).
   b. Apologetic/defense ministry is not for the correction of incorrect but the building up of the weak (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 12:19; Rom. 15:1-2).
5. Paul fears his own humiliation and mourning (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 12:20,21).
   a. Paul fears his Corinthian reunion will be a mutual-reciprocal disappointment (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 12:20). Mutually exclusive wisdom applications will produce dis-concordant dis-fellowship (Jas. 3:14-18; 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 6:14-15).
   b. Paul’s anticipated humiliation comes from watching believers not apply the Word they have been fed (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 12:21; Phil. 3:18,19; 3\textsuperscript{rd} Jn. 3,4).

\textbf{Chapter Thirteen}

Paul wraps up the epistle with a pair of warnings concerning his imminent arrival (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 12:14-21 & 13:1-10). His closing benediction forms a timeless blessing for every local church in every generation of the Church Dispensation (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:11-14).

\textbf{... Here I Come (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:1-10)}

1. Paul again declares that his third visit is pending (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 12:14; 13:1).
   a. Under Law, God declares a two or three witness to be sufficient for the administering of justice (Deut. 17:6; 19:15; Heb. 10:28).
      1) The Lord restates this principle in His corporate discipline instruction (Mt. 18:16).
      2) This principle carries into Church practice as well (1\textsuperscript{st} Tim. 5:19).
   b. Paul considers each of his two prior visits to be sufficient witness and on his third visit he will be administering justice (cf. 1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 4:18-21; 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 1:23; 10:2,6).
   c. Paul’s second visit was a painful visit and with his parting words promised no quarter (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:2).
      \textit{φειδομαται} \textit{pheidomai} \textsuperscript{2} also \textit{φειδομένος} \textit{pheidomenos}: spare, sparingly (Acts 20:29; Rom. 8:32; 11:21,2; 1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 7:28; 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 1:23; 9:6,2; 12:6; 13:2; 2\textsuperscript{nd} Pet. 2:4,5).
   d. On his second visit, the Corinthians sought proof of Christ in Paul (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:3 cf. 10:1-2). On his third visit, they will see that proof in high definition! (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:6)
2. Weakness and strength are prime illustrations that God’s wisdom (1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 1:20-25) and God’s ways (Isa. 55:8-9) are not ours (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:3-4).
   a. Paul was accused of being weak/unimpressive when present (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 10:1-2).
   b. Weakness is actually the occasion when the strength of God is at its greatest (1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 2:1-9; 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 12:9-10).
   c. Even greater than the illustration of Paul is the ultimate example of the Lord Jesus Christ (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:4).
      1) He was crucified because of weakness, yet lives because of power (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:4a; Phil. 2:5-11; Acts 2:24).
      2) Our Christian walk is similarly paradoxical (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:4b; cf. 4:7-10).
   d. The evidence of Christ in another believer is His ministry through that other believer, internal to the one who is edified (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:3 cf. 1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 9:2; 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 3:1-3; 10:15).
3. Paul orders a self-examination before he arrives (2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:5-6).
   a. The emphatic order comes as a trio of yourselves, yourselves, yourselves.
   b. Tempt and test are normally contrasted. Here they are compounded.
   c. The \textit{peirázō} family is often malevolent, but sometimes used as a neutral testing for identification.
      1) \textit{πειράζω} \textit{peirázω} \textsuperscript{3}\textit{b}: test, tempt (Mt. 4:1,3; 1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 7:5; 10:9,13; 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 13:5; Gal. 6:1; 1\textsuperscript{st} Th. 3:5,\textit{a}; Heb. 2:18,\textit{a}; 3:9; 4:15; Jas. 1:13x3,14).
      2) Also \textit{πεισμός} \textit{peirasmos} \textsuperscript{2}\textit{a}: temptation (Mt. 6:13; 26:41; 1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 10:13,\textit{a}; Jas. 1:2,12; 1\textsuperscript{st} Pet. 1:6; 4:12).
   d. The \textit{dokimázō} family is always for approval.
      1) \textit{δοκιμάζω} \textit{dokimazō} \textsuperscript{2}\textit{b}: examine, approve (Rom. 12:2; 14:22; 1\textsuperscript{st} Cor. 3:13; 11:26; 2\textsuperscript{nd} Cor. 8:8,22; 13:5; 1\textsuperscript{st} Th. 2:4; 5:21; 1\textsuperscript{st} Tim. 3:10; 1\textsuperscript{st} Pet. 1:7; 1\textsuperscript{st} Jn. 4:1).
      2) Also the related terms \textit{δοκιμή} \textit{dokime} \textsuperscript{2}\textit{a}, \textit{δόκιμον} dokimion \textsuperscript{1}\textit{b}, \textit{δόκιμος} dokimos \textsuperscript{1}\textit{c}, \textit{αδόκιμος} adokimos \textsuperscript{8}\textit{c}.
e. In the faith equals walking in the grace operation of the Christian Way of Life (Gal. 1:23; 3:23,25; 1st Tim. 1:19; 3:9,13; 4:1,6; Jd. 3).
1) This walk is experientially volitional despite the positional reality of Christ in us (Jn. 6:56; 14:23; 15:4,5; 17:23,26; Rom. 8:10; Gal. 2:20; Col. 1:27; 1st Jn. 3:24).
2) Self-testing for the experiential walk avoids judgment (1st Cor. 11:28-32), but the best self-testing comes about through the Word of God (Heb. 4:12) by God Himself (Ps. 26:2-3; 139:23-24).
4. Paul makes a final appeal for the Corinthians to change their thinking (2nd Cor. 13:7-10).
   a. Paul and his team joined in a corporate prayer for the Corinthians to do the right thing, for their own sake, even at the expense of Paul’s own seeming failure (v.7).
   b. The Truth is unchanging reality (v.8). We can do nothing against it (Prov. 21:30; Isa. 46:10,11; Acts 5:39).
   c. Paul’s only focus was on the Corinthians’ edification and completion (vv.9,11; 1st Cor. 1:10; Eph. 4:12). His own weakness was irrelevant (v.9 cf. 12:13).
   d. A positive response to this epistle will make Paul’s pending judgment unnecessary (v.10 cf. 2:3; 10:2).

Finally (2nd Cor. 13:11-14)

1. Similar to the pentad of imperatives at the end of 1st Corinthians (1st Cor. 16:13-14), the farewell for this Epistle features a five-fold imperative (2nd Cor. 13:11a).
   a. Rejoice. Pres.act.imper. χαίρω chairō #5463; (Rom. 12:15; 2nd Cor. 13:11; Phil. 2:18; 3:1; 4:4,12; 1st Thess. 5:16). Rejoicing is the active expression of God’s joy. χαρά chara #5479. (Rom. 14:17; 15:13,32; 2nd Cor. 8:2; Gal. 5:22).
   b. Be made complete. Pres.mid./pass.imper. καταρτιζω kataritizō #2675. The kataritō root includes five other terms (Lk. 6:40; 14:28; 1st Cor. 1:10; 2nd Cor. 13:9,11; Gal. 6:1; Eph. 4:12; 1st Thess. 3:10; 2nd Tim. 3:17; Heb. 10:5; 11:3; 13:21; 1st Pet. 5:10).
   c. Be comforted. Pres.mid./pass.imper. παρακαλεω parakaleō #3870;109α + παράκλησις paraklēsis #3874;20α & παράκλητος paraklētōs #3875;5α. Developed extensively in chapter one (10x in 2nd Cor. 1:3-7).
   d. Be like-minded. Pres.act.imper. φρονεω phroneō #5426;20α (Rom. 12:3,23; Gal. 5:10; Phil. 1:7; 2:5; 3:15,19; Col. 3:2). τὸ αὐτὸ φρονεῖτε = think the same thing (Rom. 12:16; 15:5; 2nd Cor. 13:11; Phil. 2:2; 4:2).
   e. Live in Peace. Pres.act.imper. εἰρήνευο εἰρενευο #1514;4c (Mk. 9:50; Rom. 12:18; 2nd Cor. 13:11; 1st Thess. 5:13). Great article in TLNT.

2. This pentad has a consequence: the personal presence of the God of Love and Peace (2nd Cor. 13:11b).
   a. The personal presence of Jesus Christ is significant for the Great Commission (Mt. 28:20) and for the Lampstand operation of local churches (Rev. 1:12,13,20f; 2:1,5).
   b. This book began with the Father of Mercies and God of all Comfort (2nd Cor. 1:3).
   c. This book ends with the God of Love and Peace (2nd Cor. 13:11b).
      1) This expression more commonly the God (Lord) of Peace (Rom 15:33; 16:20; 1st Cor. 14:43; 2nd Cor. 13:11; Phil 4:9; 1st Thess. 5:23; 2nd Thess. 3:16; Heb. 13:20). * Great syntactical parallel.
      2) The God of Love and Peace is quite the antithesis of The God of Vengeance (Ps. 94:1) or the God of Recompense (Jer. 51:56).

3. Internal and external greetings are then exchanged (2nd Cor. 13:12-13).
   a. Greetings are testimonies of welcome (21x in Rom. 16), withheld when necessary (Rom. 16:17; 2nd Jn. 10).
   b. The holy kiss (φιλημα philema #5370) of the NT (Rom. 16:16; 1st Cor. 16:20; 2nd Cor. 13:12; 1st Thess. 5:26; 1st Pet. 5:14) and the early Church fathers (Athenagoras 32,3; Just.Apol.1,65) is the regular opportunity to express honor, affection, and genuine interest of well-being towards one another.
   c. Judas Iscariot (Lk. 22:48) and Joab (2nd Sam. 20:9-10) illustrate the dangers of kissing: intimacy creates a vulnerability to betrayal (Prov. 27:6).
   d. Holy kiss greetings are expressions of (φιλεω phileō #5368) rapport-love for the Lord Jesus Christ (1st Cor. 16:22).
   e. Hagia philemata are appropriate expressions of greetings and affection between hagioi (2nd Cor. 13:13).
4. The benediction to this Epistle is a Trinitarian blessing (2nd Cor. 13:14).
   a. God’s sovereign will creates a corresponding reality. His statements of “let there be” create a corresponding “and there was” (Gen. 1:3 & etc.; Isa. 46:10,11).
   b. Our prayer life in agreement with God’s sovereign will requests Him to produce that corresponding reality. Our statements of “let there be” are functionally equivalent to “thy will be done” (Mt. 26:39; 1st Jn. 5:14-15).
   c. Paul cannot create charis, agapē, and koinōnia ex nihilo, but he can prayerfully bless the Corinthians in harmony with the will of God (cf. Num. 22:6,12; 23:11,25; 24:9,10).

   Mk. 1:32,34,39; 3:15,22,25; 5:15,16,18,18; 6:13; 7:26,29,30; 9:38; 16:9,17;
   Jn. 7:20; 8:48,49,52; 10:20,21,22; Acts 17:18; 1st Cor. 10:20,21; 1st Tim. 4:1; Jas. 2:19; Rev. 9:20; 16:14; 18:2.
a. Unclean (Mt. 10:1; 12:43; Mk. 1:23,26,27; 3:11,30; 5:2,8,13; 6:7; 7:25; 9:25; Lk. 4:36; 6:18,8; 29; 9:42; 11:24; Acts 5:16; 8:7; Rev. 16:13). Many vs. III δαμόνιον.
b. Evil (Lk. 7:21; 8:2; Acts 19:12,13,15,16). III δαμόνιον.
c. Demonic (Lk. 4:33; Rev. 16:14).
d. Mute (Mk. 9:17); Deaf & mute (Mk. 9:25).
5. θρόνος chronos #2362: chair, seat, throne (Col. 1:16).
6. κυριότης kuriotēs #2963: dominion, authority (Eph. 1:21; Col. 1:16; 2nd Pet. 2:10; Jd. 8).
II. Developments & Applications

A. Creation of Angels.
1. The invisible spirit realm is a created realm in juxtaposition to the visible physical realm (Col. 1:16).
2. The Bible gives no information on sequence or stages for angelic creation. The typical assumption is for a single-point creation of the entire heavenly host (Ps. 33:6; Isa. 45:12).
3. The angelic realm of creation bore witness to the creation of the earth (Job 38:7). This helps us to place the unmentioned angels within the Genesis 1 framework.
4. The only uncreated angel is the Angel of the Lord.
   a. Several passages identify the Angel of YHWH (Gen. 16:7,9,10,11) is actually YHWH Himself (Gen. 16:10,13). Another excellent passage is Judges 2:1.
   b. In passages where the Angel of the Lord is distinct from the Lord, it is readily apparent to see God the Son as the agent of God the Father (2nd Sam. 24:16; Zech. 3:1ff.).
   c. The Angel of the Lord never reappears in the Bible after the Word became flesh (Jn. 1:14).
B. Proper Names are recorded in the Bible for only a small number of angelic beings.
1. Michael the Archangel (Jude 9 cf. Rev. 12:7), one of the chief princes (Dan. 10:13,21), defender of Israel (Dan. 12:1).
2. Gabriel is called an archangel in extra-biblical texts. Biblically, he is said to “stand in the presence of God (Lk. 1:19,26) and goes forth from God to deliver special messages (Dan. 8:16; 9:21).
3. Satan, the adversary (1st Chr. 21:1; 14x in Job 1&2; Zech. 3:1-2; 16x in Gospels; 2x in Acts; 10x in Paul; 7x in Revelation).
4. Rahab, poetic name for Satan (Job 9:13; 26:12; Ps. 87:4; 89:10; Isa. 30:7; 51:9).
5. Leviathan, the fleeing/twisted serpent (Job 3:8; 41:1; Ps. 74:14; 104:26; Isa. 27:1--2).

7. Chowthêm Tak'niyth (Ezek. 28:12). The Seal(er) of Perfection.

8. Abaddon/Apollyon, the angel of the Abyss (Job 26:6; 28:22; 31:12; Ps. 88:11; Prov. 15:11; 27:20; Rev. 9:11).

10. Belial, the antithesis of Christ (2nd Cor. 6:15). OT foundation (Ps. 18:4; 41:8; Prov. 6:12). Sons of (Jdg. 19:22) and daughter of (1st Sam. 1:16).

C. The original stewardship of Angels is glimpsed in priestly and judicial terminology. Both functions require just weights and measures.

1. The prime passage for the Sealer of Perfect Measurement is filled with priestly terminology (Ezek. 28:12-19).
   a. Chowthêm Tak'niyth (the Sealer of Perfect Measurement) was full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. Since temple construction and operations require precision in their proportions (Ex. 30:22-37; Ezek. 43:10; 45:11), the greatest created Angel was perfectly suited.
   b. Eden, the Garden of God, is not the paradise of Adam & Eve, but the paradise locality for the angelic stewardship.
   c. On the day he was created, Chowthêm Tak'niyth was fitted with jewels comparable to the Aaronic ephod (Ezek. 28:13 cf. Ex. 28:17-20).
   d. Chowthêm Tak'niyth was the Messiah Cherub (Ezek. 28:14), a Covering Cherub (Ezek. 28:14,16 cf. Ex. 25:20; 37:9; 1st Kgs. 8:7; 1st Chr. 28:18).
   e. Chowthêm Tak'niyth was posted to the Holy Mountain of God, walking in the midst of the Stones of Fire (Ezek. 28:14,16). Purification stones? Isa. 6:6
   f. Although created blameless, unrighteousness was discovered within Chowthêm Tak'niyth (Ezek. 28:15-16).
      1) Abundant trade led to an internal Chamas violence. Compare (Gen. 6:11,13) and contrast (Isa. 53:9).
      2) Abundant trade lifted up his heart, beauty became splendor, wisdom became corrupted, and abundant trade became unrighteous trade and profaned his sanctuaries (Ezek. 28:17-18).
      3) Chowthêm Tak'niyth was cast as profane off of the holy mountain (cf. temple profanity in Ex. 20:25; 31:14; Lev. 18:21; 19:8,12,29; 20:3; 21:4,6,9,21,15,23; 22:2,9,15,32).
      4) Chowthêm Tak'niyth was Abad-destroyed by God in this expulsion (Ezek. 28:16).
      5) Fire from within consumed Chowthêm Tak'niyth and left him ashes upon the earth, on display as an eternal object-lesson (Ezek. 28:17-19).

2. The Judicial and Guardianship role of Angels is seen in the prime Divine Council passage of the Old Testament (Ps. 82).
   a. The Congregation of El is where Elohim judges the elohim (Ps. 82:1), sons of the Most High (Ps. 82:6).
   b. These elohim judges are perverse, partial, and crooked towards those who need them (Ps. 82:2-5).
   c. The judgment of these elohim is man–like death and subjection of the peoples to Elohim (Ps. 82:7-8).

D. The Fall of Satan is the true Original Sin and introduced Evil into the kosmos.

1. YHWH lamented the fall of Chowthêm Tak'niyth, in which his original sin was demonstrated through three pairings of cause & effect (Ezek. 28:16,17).
   a. Internal (mental attitude) violence motivated the first sin in the universe (Ezek. 28:16). יִכָּמָּה chamas (Gen. 6:11,13; 16:5; 49:5).
   b. Fixation on personal beauty produced a prideful heart (Ezek. 28:17a). הבַּה gabah be high, exalted (2nd Chr. 26:16; Ps. 103:11; 131:1; Prov. 18:12; Isa. 7:11; 52:13; 55:9,2; Ezek. 28:2,5,17; Zeph. 3:11).
c. Splendor (shining beauty, rather than reflective beauty) corrupted Satan’s wisdom (Ezek. 28:17b). יִפְעָה yiph’ah #3314: brightness, splendour (Ezek. 28:7,17). Fr. יָפַע yapha’ #3313: shine forth (Deut. 33:2; Ps. 50:2; 80:1; 94:1).

2. YHWH taunted the fallen star when The 5 I Wills of Heylēl ben Shachar are demonstrated to be empty boasts (Isa. 14:4-21).

a. I will ascend to heaven. הַשָּׁמַֹ֣יִּים אֶָֽעֱלֶֶ֔ה

1) עָּלָּה #5927: to ascend is the root behind almost every verse in this pentad.
2) Jesus ascended, but was entitled to ascend by virtue of His previous and victorious descent (Ps. 68:18; Eph. 4:9; Rom. 10:7).
3) Satan and Jesus form the perfect patterns for Paterological pleasure (Prov. 29:23; Mt. 23:11-12; Jas. 4:6,10; 1st Pet. 5:5,6).

b. I will raise my throne above the stars of God. מִמַּעַל ל כָֹֽוכ בֵֹי־אֵָ֖רִּים כִּס אִִּ֑י

1) It is debatable whether Heylēl ben Shachar even had a throne prior to his fall.
2) The stars of God are a rank of spirit beings (angels) that provide governance over the physical universe (Gen. 1:16,18; Deut. 4:19; 17:3; Jdg. 5:20; Job 38:7).
3) The role of “star” angels is to communicate via natural revelation (Ps. 19:1-6) what is expanded in special revelation (Ps. 19:7-14).

c. I will sit on the mount of the assembly in the recesses of the north.

1) The mount of the assembly is where the Divine Council issues their judicial rulings. Freely mixing אֵשֶּׁב #5927 with מוֹעֵד #4150, קָּהָּל #6951 & סֹד #5475.
2) The recesses of the north expresses the dominion over the spirit realm (Ps. 48:2).
3) Angelic north is juxtaposed with angelic south (Job 9:9).

d. I will ascend above the heights of the clouds. אֶעֱלֶָ֖ה עַל־בָּּמֳתֵי עִָּ֑ב

1) The clouds are protective layers separating God’s glory and shading lesser beings (Ex. 19:9; Ezek. 10:3-4).
2) Only God is entitled to this cloud separation, but Satan wants a similar privilege (Ps. 104:3).

e. I will make myself like the Most High. אֶדַמ הָלָּוָּם #5927: to ascend is the root behind almost every verse in this pentad.

1) No contingent being is like the Necessary Being (Ps. 89:6; Isa. 40:18,25; 46:5,c2).
2) God is not like His creation (Ps. 50:21). What God intends, becomes the reality of existence (Isa. 14:24).
3) “ Likeness” is characteristic of comparative pride, and mocked by God (Ezek. 31:2,8,18).
4) The blessings of Adam are to be made in God’s likeness (Gen. 1:26; 5:1).

3. Additional details for the fall of Satan are provided in the verses surrounding the 5 I Wills.

a. Rephaim and fallen angel kings will stand to greet the arrival of Heylēl ben Shachar ( Isa. 14:9).

b. Maggots and worms provide disgusting but edifying doctrine (Isa. 14:11).

1) The fallen angels scorn humanity with maggot and worm pejoratives (Job 25:6).
2) The Lake of Fire features such “worms” (Isa. 66:24; Mk. 9:47-48).
3) Jesus became a “worm” to deliver us from this destiny (Ps. 22:6).

4. Satan’s rebellion sparked a widespread revolt against the Lord, as one-third of all angels followed his lead (Rev. 12:3-4).

a. Heads, horns and diadems are on one end of this dragon (Rev. 12:3), but his tail is the other end (Rev. 12:4).
b. A past throwing down (Rev. 12:4) is contrasted with a future throwing down (Rev. 12:9-10).

c. One-third of all stars may apply only to that classification of spirit beings, or it may refer to the entirety of the spirit realm of creation. The simple division between elect and fallen (Rev. 12:7) and the panorama nature of this chapter argues for the entirety of the spirit realm.

d. One-third of all spirit beings rebelled against God in the wake (tail) of Satan’s rebellion against God. Important considerations:
   1) Not all on one occasion. Time seems to pass in Rev. 12:7-8 as well as Ezek. 28:16-18.
   2) Not all for the same reasons. Elohiym (Ps. 82:6) and Sariym (Ps. 82:7) had different criteria for their judgment.
   3) Although under the Dragon’s banner (Rev. 12:7; Mt. 25:41), not all in support of the Dragon’s program (Mt. 12:26; Dan. 10:20; 11:40-45).

5. Divine wrath left the angelic earth tohu wabohu (Jer. 4:23-26).
   a. Jeremiah’s lament over Jerusalem’s rebellion (Jer. 4:19-22) shifts to a vision of the pre-Adamic angelic rebellion (Jer. 4:23-26), before shifting to an eschatological judgment upon Israel (Jer. 4:27-31).
   b. Mountains and hills may be topographical or political (Jer. 4:24).
   c. Man and birds portray the terrestrial and celestial divisions of spirit beings (Jer. 4:25).
   d. The headquarters for this rebellion is called Carmel, “the fruitful land” (Jer. 4:26) and likely represents Satan’s country and people (Isa. 14:20). This locality name makes the location for Elijah’s contest even more remarkable (1st Kgs. 18:19-20).
   e. The end result of YHWH’s fierce anger left the earth in the Genesis 1:2 circumstances (Jer. 4:23 cf. Gen. 1:2).

E. Angelity-Past and Humanity-Present
   1. The creation of angels, their stewardship, rebellion, warfare and tohu wabohu judgment can all be classified within the world-age of Angelity-Past.
   2. The restoration of the earth, creation of Adamic mortal beings, and everything since then can all be classified within the world-age of Humanity-Present.
   3. The work-assignment of angels changed with the advent of Humanity-Present (Heb. 2:2; 2nd Pet. 3:5-6).
      a. Elect angels became locked into their eternal state and began their Humanity-Present instruction & protection roles.
      b. Fallen angels became locked into their eternal state and began their Humanity-Present deception and temptation roles.
   4. The work-assignment of angels will change again in the Fulness of Times when elect angels will assume their eternal servant capacity (Heb. 1:14) and fallen angels will be banished in the Lake of Fire (Mt. 25:41).

F. Humanity-Present Deception & Temptation Roles.
   1. Tempting Humanity is a primary satanic tactic (Gen. 3; Matt. 4) because it is not possible to curse whom God has blessed (Num. 22:12 cf. 25:1-9; 31:16; Gen. 1:28 cf. 3:14,17).
   2. Murdering Humanity, specifically targeting the Seed of the Woman promise was a tactic until the Christ was born (Jn. 8:44; 1st Jn. 3:12; Gen. 4:8; Ex. 1:16; Matt. 2:16). After the cross, Satan’s only hope for “victory” is the extermination of the Jewish people (Jer. 31:35-37; 33:24-26).
   3. Genetically Corrupting Humanity served as an additional line of attack against the Seed of the Woman promise. The Kinsman-Redeemer cannot serve God the Father if there are no kinsmen to redeem (Gen. 6:1-4,11,12; 2nd Pet. 2:4-5; Jd. 6,7).
   4. Terrorizing Humanity by spiritual oppression of political leaders (1st Sam. 16:14-22 cf. Dan. 11:1).
   5. Deceiving Humanity through advisors placed in key positions (1st Kgs. 22:19-22).
III.

D. All judgment has been given to the incarnate, crucified, and risen Son (Dan. 7:14; Heb. 10:12; 1 Cor. 15:23).

C. The judgment of the Ancient of Days favors not only the Son of Man but also the Saints of the Highest One (Dan. 7:13-28).

B. Jesus’ message of Satan’s fall coincided with His disciples’ manifestation of divine authority (Lk. 10:18).

A. The Church Dispensation the defeated and disarmed fallen angels coincides with the Church’s manifestation of divine authority (Col. 1:15-20; 2:19).

1. The logic that makes this connection is the giving of all judgment to the Son and the related giving of judgment to the Bride (1 Cor. 6:21).

2. The past-castings of Satan lead to an inescapable destiny in the Lake of Fire.

3. From heaven as a consequence of his sanctuary defilements (Ezek. 28:16,17).

4. From heaven as a consequence of military defeat (Rev. 12:7-13).

5. Into the Abyss for 1,000 years (Rev. 20:1-3).

6. Into the Lake of Fire for all eternity (Rev. 19:20; 20:14,15).

7. Bearing witness to the solemn oaths of the ordained elders in a local church (1 Tim. 5:17).

8. Satan Sifts the Saints in this present evil age. Armor is necessary! (Lk. 22:31-32; Eph. 6:10-20; 1 Pet. 5:8-11).

9. Deceiving Humanity through systematic philosophical indoctrination (1 Tim. 4:1-5).

10. Accusing Humanity is fruitless, but Satan keeps at it nonetheless (Rev. 12:10; Zech. 3:1-2; Rom. 8:33,34).

G. Humanity-Present Instruction & Protection Roles.

1. Jacob’s ladder illustrates the dimensional gateway angels make use of in traveling from heaven to earth (Gen. 28:12,17).

   a. 콜램: ladder, stairway. No further description (e.g. ziggurat, beanstalk) provides vocabulary assistance.

   b. בֵית-אֵל: Bethel = house of God. מָשָּׁם: bayith שֵַעַר הַש ָּמָָּֽיִּם = sha’ar hashshāmāyim, Gate of Heaven.

   c. מָשָּׁם = ladder, stairway. No further description (e.g. ziggurat, beanstalk) provides vocabulary assistance.

2. Patrolling the Earth and then reporting back on what they’ve observed and learned (Job 1:6-12; 2:1-6; Zech. 1:7-11; 4:10; 6:1-8; Heb. 13:2; 1 Cor. 11:10; Eph. 3:10).

   a. Angels are tasked to protect humanity from physical and spiritual stumbling blocks (Ps. 91:11-13).

   b. The Authority of Jesus Christ provides immunity against the power of the enemy (Lk. 10:17-20).

   d. Unclear references to children’s angels (Mt. 18:10) and Peter’s angel (Acts 12:15).

5. Providing guidance (Lk. 1:11-22,26-38; Mt. 1:20-23; Lk. 2:9-14; Acts 8:26; 10:3-8,22).

7. Denying all worship (Col. 2:18; Rev. 19:10; 22:8-9).

III. Summary & Conclusion: The Angelity Past, Humanity Present, and Eternity Future Judgments of Angels.

A. God the Father condemns the Seed of the Serpent and exalts the Seed of the Woman when the Son of Man presents Himself before the Ancient of Days (Gen. 3:15; Dan. 7:9,10,13,14).

B. The judgment of the Ancient of Days favors not only the Son of Man but also the Saints of the Highest One (Dan. 7:18,22 cf. Heb. 2:9-11).

C. All judgment has been given to the incarnate, crucified, and risen Son (Jn. 3:19; 5:22,27; 9:39; Acts 10:42; 17:31).

   1. Jesus’ message of Satan’s fall coincided with His disciples’ manifestation of divine authority (Lk. 10:18).

   2. In the Church Dispensation the defeated and disarmed fallen angels coincides with the Church’s manifestation of divine authority (Col. 1:15-20; 2:19; 1 Cor. 2:14).

   3. The past-completed “has been judged” (Jn. 16:11) must be logically connected to the future-promise “will judge the world” and “will judge angels” (1 Cor. 6:2,3).

D. The sequential out-castings of Satan lead to an inescapable destiny in the Lake of Fire.

   1. From the holy mountain as a consequence of his sanctuary defilements (Ezek. 28:16,17,18).

   2. From heaven as a consequence of the five I Wills (Isa. 14:12,15).

   3. From heaven as a consequence of military defeat (Rev. 12:7-13).

   4. Into the Abyss for 1,000 years (Rev. 20:1-3).

   5. Into the Lake of Fire for all eternity (Rev. 19:20; 20:14,15; 21:8).
Apostleship

The Offices, Ministries, Purposes and Gift of Apostle

I. Apostle of God the Father Mt. 10:40; 15:24; 23:34,37; Lk. 4:43
   A. Apostleship entails representative authority (Mt. 10:40; Mk. 9:37; Lk. 10:16; Jn. 13:20).
   B. The having–been–sent purpose of Jesus Christ is to save the world (Jn. 3:17).
   C. The miraculous activities of Jesus Christ testify to His having–been–sent ministry (Jn. 5:36).
   D. The “work” of faith in Jesus Christ as the having–been–sent One is the mechanism for receiving eternal life (Jn. 6:29; 17:3,21).
   E. The having–been–sent ministry of Jesus Christ gives way to the final warning messages to Israel (Mt. 23:34; Lk. 11:49).
   F. The having–been–sent ministry of Jesus Christ (Acts 3:26) is contrasted with the about–to–be–sent ministry of Jesus Christ (Acts 3:20).

II. Apostles of the Lamb
   A. Apostles of the Lamb is a unique title for precisely 12 specific men (Matt. 10:2,5,16; Lk. 6:13; Rev. 21:14).
   B. The Apostles of the Lamb comprised of twelve select men who occupied a special ministry and apostleship (ἀποστολή) during the earthly ministry of Jesus Christ (Acts 1:25,26).
      1. These men were witnesses (martyrs) of Jesus Christ’s life, death, and resurrection.
      2. Their members might change, but their number could not be increased or decreased.
   C. These Apostles of the Lamb have their names inscribed on the foundation stones of the New Jerusalem (Rev. 21:14), and will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel (Matt. 19:28; Lk. 22:30).

III. Apostles of the Church
   A. Beyond the Twelve, additional men were called to apostolic ministries, vested into apostolic office, and gifted with the χάρισμα of ἀπόστολος.
      1. The Apostle Paul and all other Ecclesiastical Apostles fall into this category.
      1. The brothers of Christ (1st Cor. 9:5; 15:7).
      2. Barnabas (Acts 14:14; 1st Cor. 9:6).
      3. Epaphroditus (Phil. 2:25).
      4. The brothers (2nd Cor. 8:18,22,23).
      5. Apollos? (1st Cor. 3:5,6,22 however Acts 18:24–28 argues against it).
      7. The Apostle Paul was the final man gifted and called into this office (1st Cor. 15:8).
   C. The role of these Apostles was to lay the foundation of the Church through the revelation of mystery doctrine (Eph. 2:20; 3:5).

IV. The Apostle and High Priest of Our Confession
   A. This doctrine frames the activity of Jesus Christ in His Session at the right hand of God the Father (Heb. 3:1,6,12–14; 4:1,6–16; 10:19–25).
      1. Jesus Christ personally.
      2. Jesus Christ corporately.
   B. The Church is a Consecrated Confraternity, a Celestial Calling, and (most importantly) a Confession ὁμολογία (Heb. 3:1; 4:14; 10:23).
      1. Our priesthood is commanded to consider and hold fast.
         a. Consider. κατανοέω: pin down in your thinking (Matt. 7:3; Heb. 3:1; 10:24).
         b. Hold Fast. κατέχω: pin down in your having and holding (Heb. 3:6,14; 10:23; cf. 1st Cor. 7:30; 15:2; 2nd Cor. 6:10; 1st Thess. 5:21; 2nd Thess. 2:6,7).
      2. Believers who consider and hold fast will take care and encourage.
         a. Take care. Pres.act.imper. βλέπω (Heb. 3:12; 10:25; 12:25; cf. 1st Cor. 1:6; 8:9; 16:10; 2nd Cor. 10:7; Gal. 5:15; Eph. 5:15; Phil. 3:2; Col. 2:8; 2nd Jn. 8).
      3. We want to consider Christ personally and corporately.
C. What does our confession do?
   1. Guards one another against hardened hearts and apostasy through exhortation—encouragement—comforting of one another (Heb. 3:7,12-13).
   2. Enters daily into our sabbath rest (Heb. 4:1,7,9-11).
      a. Unite the word of God with faith (Heb. 4:2,3).
      b. Stop our own workings and acknowledge the glories of God (Heb. 4:10).
      c. Allow the word of God to pierce, evaluate, and do with us what it needs to do (Heb. 4:12–13).
   3. Draws near to the Throne of Grace by means of our high priest and mercy seat in order to obtain mercy and grace (Heb. 4:14–16).
   4. Draws near to the Throne of Grace by means of our high priest and mercy seat in order to dispense mercy and grace through our priesthood to this world (Heb. 10:19–25).
      b. Sacrifice of doing good and sharing (Heb. 13:16).
      c. Sacrifice of financial contributions to the ministry of the word of God (Phil. 4:18).
      d. Sacrifice of a preached gospel (Rom. 15:16a).
      e. Sacrifice of saved sinners (Rom. 15:16b).
      f. Sacrifice of edified saints (Phil. 2:17).
      g. Living sacrifice of daily life proving the good and acceptable and perfect will of God (Rom. 12:1–2).
Blessing and Cursing

I. Introduction and Definitions

A. Hebrew Vocabulary.
   1. בָּרַך ְ barak #1288: bless. בְּרַקְה b’rakah #1293: blessing.
   2. אָרַר arar #779: curse. קָלַל qalal #7043: curse. Also קַלָּל qe lalah #7045: curse. אָלָּה alah #423: curse.
      Also qabab #6895: utter a curse against. Amazingly idiomatic 7 uses of בָּרַך ְ barak #1288 convey cursing rather than blessing.

B. Greek Vocabulary.
   1. εὐλογέω eulogeō #2127: praise, bless. εὐλογητός eulogētos #2128: blessed. εὐλογία eulogia #2129: blessing.
   2. καταράομαι kataraomai #2672: curse, execrate. κατάρα katar #2671: curse. ἐπικατάρατος epikataratos #1944: cursed.

C. Definitions.
   1. A blessing is a pronouncement of goodness. God speaks and it happens. We speak (or pray) and call upon God to make it happen.
   2. A curse is a pronouncement of harm. God speaks and it happens. We speak (or pray) and call upon God to make it happen.

D. Distinctions. A different sense of blessed is the blessed happiness of אַש ְ רֵי ’asherey #835 and μακάριος makarios #3107. These terms represent the personal happiness manifest by those who identify the blessings of God.

II. Old Testament Development and Application.

A. Genesis Blessings and Cursings.
   1. The blessings of creation (Gen. 1:22,28; 2:3; 5:2) are followed by the cursings of the fall (Gen. 3:14,17; 4:11; 5:29).
   2. The Abrahamic Covenant contains a dominant theme of blessing and cursing (Gen. 12:2-3). The promise to Abraham is confirmed and reconfirmed to Isaac (Gen. 26:3,4) and Jacob (Gen. 28:14).
   3. The father’s blessings of two sons is sometimes the occasion for conflict (Gen. 27; 48; 49).

B. Exodus & Leviticus Cursings Worthy of Death.
   1. Parental cursing (Ex. 21:17; Lev. 20:9).

C. Numbers Blessings and Cursings.
   1. The adultery test was filled with curses (Num. 5:18-27).
   2. The Aarmonic benediction teaches us much regarding corporate liturgical blessing (Num. 6:22-27).

D. Deuteronomy Blessings and Cursings focus on Israel’s obedience or disobedience to the Mosaic Law (Deut. 11:26-29; 27:11-28:68).

E. The conflict in Job featured a number of references to blessing and cursing (Job 1:5,10,11,21; 2:5,9; 3:1,8; 5:3; 24:18; 29:11,13; 31:30; 42:12).

F. Psalms and Proverbs present the greatest OT focus on blessing and cursing.
   1. The first word of Psalms is Blessed (Ps. 1:1 cf. Ps. 32:12; 34:8; 40:4; 41:12; 65:4; 84:4,5,12; 89:15; 94:12; 106:3; 112:1; 119:1,2; 127:5; 128:1; 144:15; 146:5). This is the אַש ְ רֵי ’asherey happiness of a believer occupied with the blessings of the Lord.
   2. Cursing is the hallmark of the adversary (Ps. 10:3,7; 59:12; 62:4; 102:8; 109:17,18,28; Prov. 30:11).
   3. David and various psalmists respond to the Lord’s blessings (Ps. 3:8; 5:12) by blessing the Lord (Ps. 16:7; 26:12; 34:1; 63:4; 103:1,2,20,21,22; 104:1,35; 145:1,2,10,21).
4. Blessing is central to Messianic expectation, both for First Advent (Ps. 118:26) and Second Advent (Mt. 23:39).
5. Blessing is central to family life (Ps. 127:5; 128:4,5; Prov. 3:33; 5:18; 31:28).

G. Isaiah & Jeremiah lead the Prophets in references to blessing and cursing.
1. The blessings of the Lord are highlighted in the Kingdom promises (Isa. 19:24-25; 44:3; 51:2; 56:2; 61:9; 65:16,23).
2. Cursing is defiance against the Lord and faces ultimate judgment (Isa. 24:6; 65:15).
3. Jeremiah contrasts the cursed man and the blessed man in the most vivid way (Jer. 17:5,7).
4. Perhaps the worst divine discipline is when we become a curse (Jer. 24:9; 25:18; 26:6; 29:18; 42:18; 44:8,12,22; 49:13).
5. The last word of the Prophets is curse (Mal. 4:6).
6. The Book of Revelation completes these themes of eternal blessing and the end of every curse (Rev. 22:3).

A. Jesus in the Gospels.
1. The Beatitudes are the Makarios expressions of the Asherey Psalms (Mt. 5:3-11). This Makarios Mental Attitude is produced by an accurate understanding and appropriate application of the Word of God (Mt. 11:6; 13:16; 16:17; 24:46; Lk. 1:45; 11:27,28; Jn. 13:17).
2. Blessing of food is the offering of thanksgiving to our faithful Provider (Mt. 14:19; 15:36; 26:26).
3. At the birth of Jesus, Simeon blessed God and then blessed Joseph & Mary (Lk. 2:27-35).
4. Jesus blessed children (Mk. 10:13-16) and warned against stumbling blocks (Mk. 9:42).
5. A profound change is given to the church: Bless those who curse you (Lk. 6:27-35).
6. Jesus' final act of His 1st Advent incarnation was to bless the Apostles (Lk. 24:51).
7. Acts 20:35 records a message of blessing the Lord delivered as a summary concept for the dispensation of the Church.

B. Blessing & Cursing in the Epistles.
1. Jesus Christ is the eternally Blessed One (Rom. 1:25; 9:5; 2nd Cor. 11:31; 1st Tim. 1:11; 6:15).
   a. Our eternal blessings are in Him (Rom. 15:29; Eph. 1:3).
   b. Communion is our identification with Christ and our fellowship with His blessing (1st Cor. 10:16).
2. Paul affirms David's asherey blessings from the Psalms (Ps. 32:1,2; Rom. 4:6-9).
3. Paul affirms Jesus' admonition to bless and not curse (Lk. 6:27-35; Rom. 12:14; 1st Cor. 4:12). As does Peter (1st Pet. 3:9).
4. The blessing of our thanksgiving is to be rational and relational (1st Cor. 14:16).
5. Paul uses blessing and cursing to contrast Israel under the Law with the Church in Christ (Gal. 3:8-14).
6. The Rapture of the Church is our blessed hope (Tit. 2:13).
7. Hebrews uses the OT blessings to illustrate NT truth.
   a. Melchizedek and Abraham (Heb. 7:1-7).
   b. Jacob and Esau (Heb. 11:20; 12:17).
   c. Manasseh and Ephraim (Heb. 11:21).
8. James and Peter affirm Jesus' emphasis in His beatitudes (Jas. 1:12,25; 5:11; 1st Pet. 4:14).

IV. Summary & Conclusion—Guard your tongue (Jas. 3:9,10).
A. James makes the tongue the pinnacle of personal discipline (Jas. 3:2).
B. Tiny things can control big things, and our tongues can control our entire lives (Jas. 3:3-6).
C. The tongue is not tamable (Jas. 3:7-8) but the mind is renewable (Rom. 12:2) and that will affect what comes out of our mouths (Mt. 12:34-37).
Craftiness, Deception & Corruption

I. Introduction & Definitions

A. Craftiness terminology.

1. ’ארמ ‘aram
2. רטמ רטמ
3. פָּלָאָה planaō
4. פָּלָאָה
5. פָּלָאָה

B. Deception terminology.

1. מָשֶׁה nasha’
2. רָמָה ramah
3. שָׁקֶר shaqar
4. מָיִית miyyah

C. Corruption terminology.

1. שָׁחַת nasha’
2. שָׁחַת
3. שָׁחַת
4. שָׁחַת

II. Development & Application

A. The foundational truths of Craftiness, Deception & Corruption are all recorded in Genesis & Exodus.

1. Humanity cannot depend on our own wisdom and insight against Satanic craftiness (Gen. 3:1; 2nd Cor. 11:3).
2. Fallen humanity manifests universal corruption as sin spread universally throughout Adam’s descendants (Gen. 6:11-13).
3. Fallen humanity expects deception from one another, but servants of God stand out (or at least they ought to) as the exception to the rule (Gen. 21:22-23).
4. Believers engaged in crafty activity will be at a disadvantage to unbelievers in that realm (Gen. 27:35; 29:25; 31:7 cf. Lk. 16:8).

5. Craftiness, deception & corruption in a believing family worsens in subsequent generations (Gen. 34:13; 37:18; 38:9).

6. A political society cannot function appropriately when deception is tolerated (Ex. 20:16; 23:7).

7. Personal corruption spreads to societal corruption in very short order (Ex. 32:7).

B. The Book of Job portrays crafty and deceptive accusations of craftiness & deception in both earthly and heavenly judicial settings.

1. Although fallen angels and men plot and scheme, the Eternal Planner maintains overall control (Job 5:12,13; 1st Cor. 3:19).

2. God is called to witness when truth and lies are in question (Job 13:4,7,9; 27:4; 31:5 cf. Gal. 1:20; 2nd Cor. 11:31).

3. Guilt produces craftiness (Job 15:5) and the guilty mind can conceive even more (Job 15:35 cf. Ps. 7:14; Isa. 59:4; Jas. 1:15).

C. Israel's Monarchy demonstrated craftiness and corruption among political leaders and a corresponding judgment upon the nation (1st & 2nd Chronicles).

1. David's mighty men were faithful men he could trust (1st Chr. 12:17).

2. Ahab's fall came about in God's permissive will for satanic deception (2nd Chr. 18:18-22).

3. Temporal corruption may come, but not eternal corruption when God's faithful covenant is in view (2nd Chr. 21:1-20 esp. v.7).

4. Even a good king can have a terrible end when he and his nation become corrupt (2nd Chr. 24:17-27).

5. Picking and choosing when to listen to God's messengers and when to ignore them is never a good thing (2nd Chr. 25:16).

6. A heart of pride is the self-deception and corruption that will bring down an otherwise good king (2nd Chr. 26:16-23 cf. vv.1-15).

7. A good king can preside over a corrupt people (2nd Chr. 27:2).

8. A truthful king can be accused of misleading his people (2nd Chr. 32:15).

D. Psalms & Proverbs portray the ravages of craftiness in personal life and how there can be no place for craftiness in our personal relationship with the God of Truth.

1. David celebrated the character of God and the contrast between the craftiness God hates and the chesed lovingkindness He supplies (Ps. 5:1-12). See also Prov. 6:16-19 for the detail of God's hatred.

2. Believers can grow discouraged when it seems that the crafty have it made in life (Ps. 10:3-11).

3. Craftiness is the antithesis of the perfection demanded of the Christ (Ps. 24:1-10).

4. Doeg and David exemplify the contrast between craftiness and chesed (Ps. 52:1-9).

5. Prudence is the "consecrated craftiness" that God's pure and peaceable wisdom fosters within those who fear the Lord (Prov. 12:16,17,19,20,22,23,24,27). This prudence stands entirely opposed to the "desecrated craftiness" that Satan's fallen wisdom fosters within those who are so conformed (Jas. 3:15-17; Rom. 12:2).

6. Proverbs 8 is a powerful discourse that touches on this critical subject.

a. Wisdom and Prudence is the essence of acceptance to the Lord (Prov. 8:12) and forms the basis for which redeemed humanity and sinless humanity will glorify Jesus Christ for all eternity (Prov. 8:13-21).

b. The Love of God the Father for God the Son in eternity past (Prov. 8:22-31) leads to the Love of God the Father for each one of us in eternity future (Prov. 8:32-36).

1. Prudence is the believer who makes daily application of the Word of God (Mt. 7:24).

2. Innocent shrewdness is the believer who knows his place in the kosmos (Mt. 10:16).
3. Deception can be the result of one of two deficiencies: an deficient understanding of the Scriptures and/or a deficient understanding of God's power (Mt. 22:29).

4. Eschatology is the field of doctrine most ripe for deception corruption (Mt. 24:4,5,11,24,45; 25:2,4,8,9).

5. Satan's servants will deceitfully accuse us of being deceivers (Mt. 27:63,64; 2nd Cor. 6:8).

7. Sin corruption is physical, mental and spiritual (Rom. 1:27,28 cf. 2nd Cor. 7:1).

8. Sin corrupts both the enslavers and the enslaved (Rom. 16:18; Phil. 3:18-19; 1st Tim. 6:5; 2nd Tim. 3:2-9; 2nd Pet. 2:18,19).

9. Embracing God's wisdom means He will never catch us in our own craftiness (1st Cor. 3:18,19).

10. Renouncing craftiness means we will never be ashamed in our service to God (2nd Cor. 4:2).

11. Experiential sanctification is another field of doctrine ripe for deception corruption (Gal. 6:7,8).

12. Growth in grace stabilizes the believer and guards us against deception corruption (Eph. 4:14,22).

III. Summary & Conclusion

A. Satan is the prototype, example, and motivation for craftiness (Jn. 8:44; 2nd Cor. 11:13-15; Rev. 12:9).

B. Jesus is the prototype, example, and motivation for truth (Rev. 3:14; 19:11; Isa. 65:16).

C. The Divine Nature is not to be grasped in craftiness but humbly partaken of in truth (Phil. 2:5-11).
Glory (summary study)

I. Introduction: A summary of glory statements in 2nd Corinthians 3&4
   A. Mosaic Law came with glory (2nd Cor. 3:7).
   B. The Church has much more surpassing glory (2nd Cor. 3:8,9,10,11).
   C. Moses reflected the Lord’s glory in an external fading manifestation (2nd Cor. 3:7,13).
   D. The Church reflects the Lord’s glory in an internal abiding transformation (2nd Cor. 3:18).
   E. The Church counters the devil’s veil with the gospel of the glory of Christ (2nd Cor. 4:4).
   F. The Church counters the world’s darkness with the knowledge of the glory of God (2nd Cor. 4:6).
   G. The Church spreads grace and abounding thanksgiving to manifest the glory of God (2nd Cor. 4:15).
   H. The Church’s affliction exceedingly and excessively produces a significance of glory (2nd Cor. 4:17).

II. Development: A summary of glory statements for Israel’s Application. קְבוֹד kabowd #3519
   A. First use (Gen. 49:6).
   B. Exodus usages (Ex. 16:7,10; 24:16,17; 28:2,40; 33:18–23; 40:34,35).
   D. Israel is the covenant nation tasked with manifesting God’s glory to the nations (1st Chr. 16:8–36).
   E. Israel witnessed numerous comings and goings of God’s glory (1st Sam. 4:21,22; 2nd Chr. 7:1,2,3; Ezek. 10:18,19; 11:22,23; 43:2,4,5).
   F. Proverbs prefers the translation of “honor” rather than glory and ties it to wisdom & humility for human application (Prov. 3:16,35; 8:18; 15:33; 18:12). Two significant Proverbs translations as glory (Prov. 25:2,27).
   G. The most comprehensive glory passages are found in Psalms (50x) and Isaiah (38x).
      1. The King of Glory (Ps. 24:7-10), the God of Glory (Ps. 29) will rule over a kingdom of glory (Ps. 145).
      2. The Branch of the Lord (Isa. 4:2,5), Root of Jesse (Isa. 11:10) heralded Word (Isa. 40:5), Servant (Isa. 42:8,12) will rise upon Israel for them to arise and shine (Isa. 60:1–3).

III. Development: A summary of glory statements for Church Application. δόξα doxa #1391
   B. Paul is the Apostle of Ecclesiastic Glory Theology.
      1. Galatians (Gal. 1:5,24).
      6. Pastoral Epistles (1st Tim. 1:11,17; 3:16; 2nd Tim. 2:10; 4:18; Tit. 2:13).

IV. Conclusion: the glory promised to Israel and the glory provided to the Church are not the same glory.
The Doctrine of Grace

I. Introduction & Definitions

A. Hebrew Vocabulary.
1. חָּנַן chanan #2603: show favor, be gracious (Gen. 33:11; Ex. 33:19; Num. 6:25; 2nd Sam. 12:22).
2. חֵן chēn #2580: favor, grace (Gen. 6:8; Ex. 33:12,13; 16,17; Prov. 3:34).
3. חַנ וֹן channuwn #2587: gracious (Ex. 34:6; Neh. 9:17; Joel 2:13; Jon. 4:2).
4. Personal names Hannah & Hannaniah come from this root.
5. The terms for supplication come from this root as appeals to God's grace.
6. Often || to חֶסֶד chesed #2617 lovingkindness and/or רַחַם racham #7356 compassion (Ps. 51:1).

B. Greek Vocabulary.
1. χάρις charis #5485: grace (Jn. 1:14,16,17; Eph. 2:8; 2nd Pet. 3:18).
3. χαριτόω charitoō #5487: to freely bestow (Eph. 1:6).
4. The terms for forgiveness and thanksgiving come from this root as recognition of God's grace.
5. The early church fathers adopted the term Eucharist for the grace and thanksgiving of the Lord's table (Did. 9; ISmyr. 8).

1. Grace is not withheld because of demerit.
2. Grace cannot be lessened because of demerit.
3. Grace cannot incur a debt.
4. Grace is not exercised in the just payment of a debt.
5. Grace is never the over-payment of a debt.
6. Grace does not appear in the immediate divine dealings with the sins of the unsaved.
7. Grace does not appear in the immediate divine dealings with the sins of the saved.

II. Development & Applications.

A. Saving Grace.
1. Common Grace is the blessing of mankind to live and move and exist in the world God created for our habitation (Acts 17:24-28). Our life and breath and everything comes from Him (v.25).
2. Prevenient Grace is God's work on fallen mankind's behalf which allows the unbeliever to comprehend the gospel and respond by faith (Jn. 6:37,44,45).
3. Efficacious Grace is the grace of God which provides salvation at the very moment the offer of eternal life is accepted by faith (Acts 15:6-11; Rom. 3:24; Eph. 2:8,9).

B. Living Grace.
1. Logistical Grace: All that we receive.
   a. Everything I possess is a testimony to God's grace. I cannot boast in even one thing (1st Cor. 4:7).
   b. This perspective enables me to embrace a scum of the world orientation (1st Cor. 4:8-13).
   c. Grace orientation allows a believer to rest in perfect financial contentedness (Phil. 4:11-13).
   d. Grace orientation allows a believer to identify the priestly function for our expenditures and the faithfulness of God for our income (Phil. 4:18-20).
   e. Our needs are simple (Prov. 30:8-9; 1st Tim. 6:6-10; Heb. 13:5), and any abundance is designed to be shared (2nd Cor. 8:14; Eph. 4:28; 1st Tim. 6:17-19).
2. Ontological Grace: All that we are (1st Cor. 15:10a).
   a. Saints by grace (1st Tim. 1:15-16).
   b. Spiritually gifted by grace (Rom. 12:3,6; Eph. 3:7,8).
3. Applicational Grace: All that we do (1st Cor. 15:10b).
   a. God the Father graciously and powerfully works within believers (1st Cor. 12:6; Phil. 2:13; Col. 1:29).
   b. Jesus Christ set the pattern that we follow in this aspect of the Christian walk (2nd Cor. 5:19).
   c. Grace orientation allows a believer to relax concerning unseen results (1st Cor. 3:6).
4. Surpassing Grace (2nd Cor. 9:14; Eph. 2:7).
   a. Saving grace is made possible when One serves on behalf of the many. Surpassing grace is made possible when the many serve on behalf of the One who saved them.
   b. Christ gave Himself, and in appreciation we can give ourselves to Him (2nd Cor. 8:1-5).
   c. This grace orientation allows a believer to maintain abundant joy in giving no matter the ordeal of affliction we endure (2nd Cor. 8:2).
   d. We can be thankful for surpassing grace here in time (2nd Cor. 9:14), but the full manifestation of surpassing grace awaits the ages to come (Eph. 2:7).
5. Sufficient Grace (2nd Cor. 12:9).
   a. Sufficient grace enables the believer to display God’s power in every testing circumstance (2nd Cor. 12:9; Phil. 4:13; Isa. 40:28-31).
   b. This grace orientation allows a believer to resist the desire to have their problems taken away (2nd Cor. 12:8).
   c. This grace orientation allows a believer to identify with God’s faithfulness and successfully navigate to His designed ekbas (1st Cor. 10:13).
   b. We must remain ever vigilant so we don’t join in the self-destructive apostasy (2nd Pet. 3:14,17; 1st Cor. 10:12; Heb. 3:12).
   c. The best defense against apostasy snares is to maintain a consistent growth regimen—not for one’s own sake but for the eternal glory of Jesus Christ (2nd Pet. 3:18).

C. Dying Grace (Ps. 23:4; Phil. 1:21ff.; 2nd Tim. 4:6-8).
   1. The faithful Lord who walks with us through life, will walk with us through the occasion and circumstances of our physical death (Ps. 23:4).
   2. This grace orientation is so occupied with Christ that matters of life and death are hard to choose between (Phil. 1:21ff.).
   3. This grace orientation rests is a marvelous assurance that our assignment is complete (2nd Tim. 4:6-8).

III. A Summary & Conclusion can be achieved by reviewing the NT Survey of Grace that was taught in 1st Cor. 15.
The Bible shows God's viewpoint on the subject of money and Christian giving and provides teaching that will protect the believer from many common illusions and dangers.

A false notion about money is that "money will buy happiness." But only the Word of God brings happiness as the believer learns and applies Bible truth to his life. Another false viewpoint is that "money is security"; but the only true security is in the Lord Jesus Christ and it is only wishful thinking to seek security in any other place. Then there is the "hippie" mentality which says that "money is not needed", leading to people just bumming around through life. Money is a bona fide medium of exchange, and the Bible provides many instructions on the handling of money.

The Bible points out several dangerous errors to which non-Christians are subject. Evangelistic teaching should deal with these important issues to help unbelievers see the true issue of salvation through Christ. For example:

- Salvation cannot be purchased with money. (Mark 8:36-37) Salvation has been paid for, and not with silver and gold. (1 Pet. 1:18,19)
- Money causes a rich person to put his faith in the wrong things. (Mark 10:23-25)
- Money keeps the rich unbeliever from seeking salvation in the right manner – by means of God's Word. (Luke 16:19-21)
- Money has no credit with God at the Last Judgment. Only imputed righteousness is acceptable with God. (Prov. 11:4,28)
- The Christian can also fall into error in money matters. Thorough Christian Life teaching includes the following:
  - Money can keep a believer from honoring Christ, the purpose for which he has been left on this earth (Eccl. 5:1:0-20; 6:2). Solomon was a rich king, but his riches crowded the Lord out.
  - Money can be a source of temptation. (1 Tim. 6:7-19)
  - A believer should spend his money wisely. (1 Tim. 6:8) Investigate carefully before you give. Give money for the glory of the Lord.
  - Two other passages of interest are James 4:13 to 5:6 and Acts 5:1-10.

Christian giving is a part of stewardship, and faithfulness is the first requirement. (1 Cor. 4:2) God really owns everything (1 Cor. 4:24) and gives to believers (James 1:17). A Christian is accountable for everything that the Lord provides (Rom. 14:12).

Christian giving expresses the principle of Grace. It is one means by which the Christian demonstrates graciousness. Having been a recipient of God's Grace in salvation and in the Christian life, the Christian ministers grace to others. He is a conduit of Grace. "It is more blessed to give than to receive." (Acts 20:35)

The principle of giving derives from the fact that Grace depends upon the character of the giver. A Christian gives because of who and what he is, not because the needy person deserves it. Often the needy person is quite undeserving; but deserving is not the issue in giving. The issue in giving is the believer's stability of character. The recipient is the object of Grace, not the object lesson of Grace.

The giver is the object lesson of Grace. The more frequently a believer gives, the more he is oriented to Grace, and the more Grace is observed in him. It is vitally important, therefore, that the mental attitude for giving be correct, especially that the giving is not motivated by the desire for approbation. This will destroy the object lesson and devalue God's Grace in the eyes of observers. In giving, nothing must cloud the issue for either the giver, the recipient, or observers.

The Biblical standard excludes human religion and systems. Legalistic giving as seen in Amos 4:4 is replaced by the faith giving of Prov. 11:24. Neglect of the needy (Mal. 3:7-12) is replaced by giving more than is needed (Ex. 36:5-7). The Pharisaism of Luke 18:9-14 is replaced by giving secretly and before the evangelism event (1 Cor. 16:1ff). Bribery and public "testimonies" (Gen. 28:20-22) are replaced by freewill offerings (Ex. 25:1,2; 35:4-10; 2 Cor. 9:7).
Covetousness is an occupational hazard to be guarded against. (Luke 12:15; Col. 3:5) Thirteen of the twenty-nine parables of Jesus referred to the correct use of possessions. Giving will involve first giving yourself to the Lord. (2 Cor. 8:5)

Poverty is no excuse for not giving. Believers should not have to be urged to give, because Jesus gave Himself. We give in gratitude, cheerfully, willingly, and in Grace. Read 1 Cor. 6:19–20; 2 Cor. 8:1–15.

The amount you give should be determined according to the following criteria:

- By the need, 2 Cor. 8 and 9
- By how much wealth you have, 2 Cor. 8:12–15; and by how much God prospers you, 1 Cor. 16:2, Deut. 16:17; Matt. 10:8; Acts 11:29.
- Giving is to be systematic (1 Cor. 16:2) and sacrificial (Luke 21:3, 4; 2 Cor. 8:2)

Tithing is not the issue in Christian giving. Tithing was a tax to support the theocratic government during the age of the Jews. The Old Testament gives a systematic progression in the use of the tithe.

- Tithes were given to the Levites to maintain the temple (Num. 18:21–24) and to provide for the official feasts and sacrifices (Deut. 14:22–24).
- The Jews gave one–third of their income every 3rd year for the poor in Israel (Deut. 14:28, 29)
- Other tithes mentioned in Num. 28:26ff and Gen. 47:24. Melchizedek’s tithe from the spoils of Abraham’s war is part of the illustration of the teaching of the superior priesthood of Christ (Heb. 7).

An example of correct Christian giving is given by the Apostle Paul in his description of the giving done by the Macedonian believers, 2 Cor. 8:1–6. The Macedonians were born–again, believer–priests, and had the right to give. They had been robbed blind by the Romans in order to pay for putting down a revolt, but they still gave. Paul wanted the Corinthians (and us) to know of the Grace of God which was "bestowed" upon the churches of Macedonia. The reward from God is from Grace and is invaluable, 2 Cor. 9:6; Matt. 6:20; Prov. 22:9.

PRINCIPLES OF CHRISTIAN GIVING FROM 2 CORINTHIANS 8 AND 9.

Read these two chapters and consider the following observations.

8:1, 2 All true giving is defined as mental attitude, not as an overt act.
8:3 Christian giving must be free from pressure and coercion. Free will (volition) must operate.
8:4 The believers considered it a privilege to give. They begged to give. Giving under pressure contradicts Grace.
8:5 They were in fellowship before they gave. Giving starts with self and not with money.
8:7 Giving is part of Grace.
8:8 Christian giving is love giving, not Law giving.
8:9 As Jesus Christ voluntarily gave Himself, we in giving must have the same attitude of volition, willingness.
8:10 Past failures should not stop one from giving.
8:11 Giving is in accordance with what you have (not in accordance with what you hope to get in the future).
8:12 Even if a believer has nothing to give, it is fully accepted by God, provided there is a willing mind to give.
8:13–15 When one member of the body of Christ is unable to give, others make up for their lack so that there is an quality in sustaining the local church and arms outside the church.
8:16, 17 Personal commendation of Titus. He was honest and headed the delegation to collect the offering for the Jerusalem church.
8:19, 20 Money given to the Lord's work should be handled orderly and honestly. This is detail work for deacons or other administrators.
9:1,2 Both the giving and administration of money should glorify the Lord.

9:3,4 A collection or offering should not embarrass anyone.

9:5 Blessing in the Christian life results from giving to the Lord and not spending money for self-pleasure. "Bounty" used twice is "blessing".

9:6 The more you sow, the more you harvest. God blesses the believer whose mental attitude is right.

9:7 Giving is done in a mental attitude of joy.

9:8,9 God's divine essence guarantees the principles written here.

9:10 God keeps on supplying so that the believer can keep on giving.

9:11 "Bountifulness" means blessing. The more faith you exercise, the more enrichment you receive; all is non-meritorious activity.

9:11-13 Biblical giving results in thanksgiving expressed and the glorification of Grace.

9:14 Giving also stimulates prayer, love, and an admiration of Grace in the believer who gives graciously.

9:15 The example of Christ. "I can never come close to what Christ gave me in salvation. He is the unspeakable gift." True Bible giving is the result of occupation with Christ and gratitude to Him on the basis of who and what He is.

IV. Dispensation of Israel (Age of the Incarnation)
   A. Synoptic Gospels
      1. Matt. 4:1-11; Mark 1:12-13; Lk. 4:1-13 Satan’s opposition to human redemption manifested through satanic temptation of the Redeemer. See also Matt. 16:23 & Mk. 8:33 where the opposition came through Peter and Jn. 6:70 & 13:2,27 where the opposition came through Judas.
      2. Matt. 12:26; Mark 3:23,26; Lk. 11:18 Satan’s divided kingdom is exposed by Jesus.
      3. Matt. 13:18-23; Mk. 4:15-19; Lk. 8:11-14 The Parable of the Sower highlights Satan’s opposition to the Word of God.
      5. Matt. 25:41; Rev. 20:10 The eternal lake of fire is Satan’s ultimate destiny.
      1. Lk. 10:18 Jesus testified to the expulsion of Satan from heavenly privilege.
      2. Lk. 13:16 Satan afflicted a Daughter of Abraham for eighteen years. See also Acts 10:38.
      3. Lk. 22:31 Satan demanded the Lord’s permissive will for the sifting of Peter.
   C. Gospel of John.
      1. Jn. 8:44 Unbelieving religious leaders are sons of Satan. See also Acts 13:10 for Elymas the Magician in this terminology.
      2. Jn. 17:15 Believers are protected by God from Satan’s harm, and will soon provide eternal victory for the Church (Rom. 16:20). See also 2nd Thess. 3:3.

V. Dispensation of the Church.
   A. Acts 26:18 Salvation is a deliverance from the dominion of Satan to the dominion of God. See also Col. 1:13.
   B. Paul’s Epistles
      1. 1st Cor. 5:5 & 1st Tim. 1:20 Apostles had discretionary authority to deliver believers to Satan.
      2. 1st Cor. 7:5 Satan attacks sex-deficient marriages.
      3. 2nd Cor. 2:11 Satan attacks grace-deficient local churches. See also Eph. 4:27.
      4. 2nd Cor. 11:14 Satan maintains a counterfeit appearance.
      5. 2nd Cor. 12:7 Paul’s thorn in the flesh was an angel of Satan.
      6. Eph. 6:11,16 The panoply of God is our armament for engaging Satan in spiritual warfare.
      7. 1st Thess. 2:18 Satan hinders geographic travels.
      8. 1st Tim. 3:6-7 Overseers are particularly targets of satanic attack via pride.
      9. 1st Tim. 5:15 Believers can be turned aside to follow satanic wisdom.
      10. 2nd Tim. 2:26 Believers can be held as prisoners of war in the angelic conflict.
   C. General Epistles
      1. Heb. 2:14 Jesus participation in physical death was a victory over satanic power.
      2. James 4:7 Resisting the devil requires submitting to God.
      3. 1st Pet. 5:8 Resisting the devil requires a firm faith.
4. The conflict with the devil is emphasized in First John (2:13,14; 3:8,10,12; 5:18,19).

D. Revelation 2&3
   2. Rev. 2:13 The church at Pergamum dealt with satanic politics as a capital city.
   3. Rev. 2:24 The church at Thyatira turned to satanic Jezebel fornication.

VI. Dispensation of Israel (Age of Tribulation, Age of Millennial Reign)
   A. 2nd Thess. 2:9 Antichrist will function according to the activity of Satan.
   B. Rev. 12:7-17 Satan is earthbound and wrathful against Israel during the Tribulation.
   D. Rev. 20:2,3,7 Satan is confined for the millennial reign of Jesus Christ before leading his final Gog-Magog and then joining the Beast and False Prophet in the Lake of Fire (Rev. 20:10 cf. 19:20).

Pleasing God

I. Old Testament Doctrine of Pleasing God
   A. The example of Enoch is an Old Testament story with a New Testament doctrinal development (Heb. 11:5-6).
      1. Faith in God is the walk that pleases Him.
      2. Seeking God is the pleasing walk that He rewards.
   B. The examples of Abraham and Sarah, and all the Hebrews 11 illustrations are Old Testament stories with New Testament doctrinal developments (Heb. 11:16).
      1. The consequence of not pleasing God is to bring Him shame.
      2. The ultimate rewards are the eternal dwellings that He prepares.
   C. The Exodus Generation is an Old Testament story with a New Testament doctrinal development (1st Cor. 10:1-11).
      1. Failure to please God will result in temporal divine discipline and eternal loss of reward.
      2. Accountability increases with each passing stewardship and each passing generation.
   D. David is the man after God’s own heart (1st Sam. 13:14; 15:28; 16:7), whose life became the standard for every Davidic King (1st Kgs. 9:4,5; 11:11-13,33; 15:3,11; 2nd Kgs. 14:3; 16:2; 18:3; 22:2).
   E. Wisdom Literature teaches in an Old Testament context that observance of Law is not the essence of pleasing God (Ps. 19:14; 35:27; 147:11; 149:4; Prov. 11:20; 16:7).

   A. Jesus Christ is the eternal bosom of the Father pattern for explaining God and pleasing God (Jn. 1:18 cf. 13:23-25).
      1. Jesus was prophetically anticipated (Isa. 42:1) and announced (Matt. 3:17; 17:5) as the well-pleasing servant-son (Ps. 2:7,12).
      2. The Greater Son of David was pleasing to the Father (Jn. 8:29) and His life is the standard for every member of the Body of Christ (Acts 13:22,23,28-41).
   B. Members of the Body of Christ are expected & equipped to please God in every aspect of their Christian walk.
      1. Our freedom in Christ equips us for the Spirit-filled pleasing walk (Rom. 8:1-8).
      2. Presenting our bodies a living and holy sacrifice pleases God in our spiritual service of worship (Rom. 12:1).
      3. The will of God for the Church is the well-pleasing will of God. We can only demonstrate that good, well-pleasing, and perfect will by means of Biblical experiential spiritual transformation (Rom. 12:2 cf. Eph. 4:20-25).
      4. Peacemaking and mutual edification is our service to Christ, our pleasure to God the Father, and our testimony to mankind (Rom. 14:18).
      5. Pleasing God becomes our life’s ambition when we identify with the temporal nature of this life and the eternal consequences for the next (2nd Cor. 5:9).
      6. Pleasing God is the purpose of our life as children of light (Eph. 5:10). This is why we strive to know His will, and to know Him (Col. 1:9-12).
      7. Financial support for the ministry of the Word of God is a sweet-smelling savor before the Father’s throne of grace (Phil. 4:18).
      8. Obedience to parents (Col. 3:20) and masters (Tit. 2:9) is well-pleasing in that it testifies to our humility before God.
      10. The life of faith pleases God, but shrinking back displeases Him (Heb. 10:38; 11:5,6).
      11. Well-pleasing service is motivated by gratitude (Heb. 12:28; 13:16), and internally worked by God the Father (Heb. 13:21).
      12. The well-pleasing walk is the walk of confidence before God (1st Jn. 3:18-22).
Preventative Cleansing versus Remedial Cleansing

1. Self-cleansing is a preventative measure.
   a. Two practical steps are provided for breaking present unequal yokes and avoiding potential unequal yokes (2nd Cor. 6:17; Isa. 52:11).
      1) Come out from their midst and be separate.
      2) Do not touch what is unclean.
   b. These steps are summarized as a self-cleansing perfection of holiness (2nd Cor. 7:1). Holiness is not perfected when failure requires restoration to fellowship. Holiness is perfected when preventative cleansing prevents the sin from being committed.
   c. Separation and non-touching avoids the identification with wickedness for divine wrath (Num. 16:26).
   d. When these measures are taken, fellowship blessings can be multiplied (Ezr. 6:21).
   e. Self-cleansing provides for enduring fruit (Ps. 1:1-3).
   f. The blood of Christ provides an ever-present conscience cleanser (Heb. 9:14) as we walk in the light in fellowship with other believers (1st Jn. 1:7).
   g. Parallel metaphors include putting on the armor of light and putting on the Lord Jesus Christ (Rom. 13:12,14).

2. Confession of sin is a remedial measure.
   a. Temporal forgiveness is provided by God’s faithfulness consistent with our eternal forgiveness (1st Jn. 1:9).
      1) Confession is a statement in agreement with God’s perspective regarding our personal sins. ὁμολογέω homologeō #3670. See also ὁμολογία homologia #3671 6x.
      2) Non-sin confessions are also valuable in understanding the sin confession (Mt. 10:32; 1st Tim. 6:12,13; Heb. 3:1; 4:14; 10:23; 11:13; 1st Jn. 2:23; 4:2,3,15; 2nd Jn. 7; Rev. 3:5).
   b. David’s immediate humble confession teaches the pattern (2nd Sam. 12:13-14).
      1) Immediate declaration of guilt against the Lord (cf. Ps. 32:5).
      2) Immediate forgiveness.
      3) Lingering consequences.
   c. David’s psalms teach critical confession and cleansing content (Ps. 32:5; 51:1-17).
      1) God’s grace blots out sins (Ps. 51:1,9).
      2) God’s cleansing is necessary because self-cleansing didn’t happen (Ps. 51:2,7).
      3) Unconfessed sin festers in a growing awareness of God’s hand of discipline (Ps. 51:3,8).
      4) Physical birth is fallen, but the new nature must be renewed with doctrine (Ps. 51:5-6).
      5) Restoration to fellowship should be followed by a renewed endeavor for holiness (Ps. 51:10-13).
      6) Restoration to fellowship should prompt an appreciative attitude of praise (Ps. 51:14-17 cf. Lk. 7:47).
   d. Confession must include forsaking (Prov. 28:13).
Principles of Rejoicing

1. Rejoicing is a corporate function (Rom. 12:12,15; 1st Cor. 12:26; 2nd Cor. 13:11).
2. Rejoicing is sparked by congregational faithfulness in the face of angelic conflict deceptions (Rom. 16:17-20; Col. 2:4-5; 1st Thess. 3:6-10).
3. There is an aspect of earthly rejoicing which will no longer be possible when heavenly joy is unveiled (1st Cor. 7:30; 2nd Cor. 6:10).
4. Rejoicing is a love application—rightly targeted and rightly non-targeted (1st Cor. 13:6).
5. Rejoicing is a response to believers who refresh spirits (1st Cor. 16:17-18; 2nd Cor. 7:13).
6. Rejoicing is not an option, it’s a continuous obligation (1st Th. 5:16).
7. Philippians is the Book of Rejoicing (Phil. 1:18; 2:1,17,18,28; 3:1; 4:4,10).
   a. Proclamation of Christ is always grounds for rejoicing, even when surrounding circumstances are not good (Phil. 1:18).
   b. The Day of Christ becomes our focal point for rejoicing and sharing joy with one another (Phil. 2:14-18). Indeed, temporal rejoicing provides for eternal rejoicing (1st Pet. 4:12-13).
   c. Fellowship reunions and receptions in the Lord are powerful occasions for rejoicing (Phil. 2:25-30).
   d. The primary sphere for our rejoicing is “in the Lord” (Phil. 3:1; 4:4,10).
The Promises of God

I. Introduction & Definition
   A. ἐπαγγελλία #1860, ἐπαγγέλλομαι #1861, ἐπάγγελμα #1862, προεπαγγέλλω #4279.
   B. No single Hebrew term. Promises are implicit in the faithfulness of the God Who speaks. Communication terms אָּמַר 'amar #559, ד ָּבַר dabar #1696, ש ָּבַע shaba' #7621 all have usages related to promises.
   C. Simple phrases teach the simple truth.
      1. As He said (Ex. 12:25). כַאשֶֹ֣ר ד ִֵ֑בר.
      2. It is written (Matt. 4:4,7,10). γέγραπται.
   D. A declaration that one will do or refrain from doing something specified.
      1. A promise is a legally binding declaration that gives the person to whom it is made a right to expect or to claim the performance or forbearance of a specified act.
      2. A covenant or contract is a two-party (or multiple party) promise.
      3. Unconditional covenants are the strongest possible promises.
         a. Made by the God who cannot lie.
         b. Given in writing and subject to full objective testimony.
         c. Impossible to be broken by the party without conditions.

II. Development & Application
   A. The promises of God are yes and amen in Christ (2nd Cor. 1:20).
      1. God makes His promises to us through Christ. We claim no promise apart from our position in Christ.
      2. We respond in Amen to God through Christ for the glory of God the Father.
      3. Unbelievers have terrifying expectation of judgment (Heb. 10:27) because they are not recipients of His promise (1st Jn. 2:25).
   B. 4 NT chapters feature Promise as a dominant theme.
      1. Romans 4 (Rom. 4:13,14,16,20,21).
         a. Promises are responded to by faith in accordance with grace (Rom. 4:13,14,16).
         b. Promises are grounds for increased and strengthened faith whereas wavering in unbelief is the downfall for those who lose sight of the promises (Rom. 4:20,21).
      2. Galatians 3 (Gal. 3:14,16,17,18,19,21,22,29).
         a. Grace promises are not earned by works, but received by grace through faith (Gal. 3:14,18).
         b. The center of God's grace promise is to Abraham's Seed (Jesus Christ) (Gal. 3:16,19).
         c. Grace eternal promises cannot be subsequently nullified (Gal. 3:17).
         d. Grace eternal promises are universal promises. They are extended to all, but accepted only by some (Gal. 3:22,29).
      3. Hebrews 6 (Heb. 6:12,13,15,17).
         a. Faith acceptance of a promise requires faith-rest patience as the fulfillment of God's promises come in God's perfect timing (Heb. 6:12,15).
         b. Heirs of promise are blessed to obtain temporal demonstrations of God's eternal purpose (Heb. 6:17).
         c. Such faith-rest is a stabilizing anchor (Heb. 6:19).
         a. Faith-acceptance of divine promises is the essence of a life pleasing to God (Heb. 11:6).
         b. Heirs of promise have an eternal perspective to bring temporal life into focus (Heb. 11:9,13).
         c. God's promises may not make human sense (Heb. 11:11,17).
         d. Disorientation to the promises can impel a “return” to the way of life before faith (Heb. 11:15).
         e. Promises are obtained by faith (Heb. 11:33) but may not be realized within our mortal life-time (Heb. 11:39).
   C. Basic promises for personal application. Recommended: Every Promise in the Bible by Larry Richards.
      1. Promises cannot be directly claimed by non-recipient parties to the promise. Promises must be indirectly claimed by non-recipient parties only so far as mutual principles may bring such promises into secondary application. Chapter 8 Claiming God's Promises illustrates with Jer. 29:11.
a. Promises of Blessing are spiritual, heavenly, in and with Jesus Christ (Eph. 1:3; Rom. 8:32). The blessing is realized on earth in time as believers trust in the Lord (Ps. 34:8; 84:12; Prov. 16:20; Isa. 26:3-4; Jer. 17:7).
b. Promises of Care are fixed in His faithfulness to provide for His people, the sheep of His pasture (Ps. 23:1; 95:7; 100:3; Matt. 6:25-26; Phil. 4:19). Both Israel and the Church have claim to such promises based upon their status as peoples and flocks of God.
c. Promises of Discipline are applications of parental love (Deut. 8:5; Prov. 3:11-12; 13:24; Heb. 12:10-11; Rev. 3:19).
d. Promises of Eternal Life place the sufferings of temporal life into proper perspective (Job 19:25-27; Ps. 17:15; Jn. 6:40; Isa. 26:19; 1st Cor. 15:51-52; Phil. 3:20-21).
e. Promises of Freedom motivate our walk in fellowship (Jn. 8:34-36; Rom. 6:6,14,20,22; 1st Jn. 3:9).
f. Promises of Growth help us to relax as the Father does His work (2nd Cor. 3:18; Phil. 1:6; 1st Pet. 2:2-5).
g. Promises of Guidance keep us from poor decision-making techniques (Ps. 32:8; Prov. 3:6; Matt. 7:7-11; Jn. 14:26; Jas. 1:5).
h. Promises of Joy are centered in a prayer life to the Father, an occupation with Jesus Christ, and an active participation in the Body (Ps. 16:11; 97:11; Jn. 15:10,11; Rom. 15:13; 1st Pet. 1:8).
i. Promises regarding Prayer motivate our spirit union with God and one another (Ps. 34:15-18; Isa. 59:1-2; 1st Cor. 6:17; Phil. 2:2; 1st Pet. 3:12; 1st Jn. 5:14-15).
j. Promises of Protection are not guarantees of invulnerability by which we might tempt Him, but guarantees of dependability by which we might serve Him (Ps. 18:30; 91:4,9,10,14; 121:2,3; Dan. 3:16-18).
k. Promises of Salvation are foundational and are the grounds for every other promise we claim in Christ (2nd Cor. 1:20 cf. Jn. 1:12; 3:36; 5:24; 6:47; 10:28; 1st Jn. 5:11,12).
l. Promises of Strength are critical when we pursue ministry and engage in the angelic conflict (Ps. 89:21; Isa. 12:2; Eph. 3:16,20; Phil. 4:13; Col. 1:11; 2nd Thess. 2:17; 3:3; 1st Pet. 4:11; 5:10).

a. The first “time of need” is the time of anxiety. We are commanded to not be anxious (Phil. 4:6a), and the circumstantial condition of anxiety can be countered by the promises of God (Phil. 4:6b-7).

b. Larry Richards presents dejection, depression, despair, disappointment, discouragement and doubt as six categories of need in which promises of God provide for encouragement.
   1) They’re not really six different categories at all.
   2) They are circumstantial conditions directed or permitted by God.
      a) For the glory of Jesus Christ.
      b) For our personal spiritual growth.
      c) For our corporate spiritual growth.
      d) As a battlefield for our volitional testing.

c. The promises of God adjust our perspective from human viewpoint to divine viewpoint under any circumstantial conditions for volitional testing (Isa. 55:8-9; 2nd Cor. 10:7).

d. Failure, fear, frustration, etc. all have prohibitions and promises in Scripture so that our focus can be taken off of self and fixed on Jesus Christ (Phil. 4:8).

a. Larry Richards outlines marriage, parenting, church and community relationships as realms for claiming the promises of God.

b. None of Richards’ “promises” in this chapter are technically promises, but are rather precepts which should be followed under the umbrella of God’s promises (Ps. 32:8; Prov. 3:6; Isa. 28:16; 49:23).

III. Summary & Conclusion

A. Basic promises for personal application enable believers to faith-rest in the Christian Way of Life.

B. Principles and precepts are intermediate doctrinal studies by which believers can develop divine viewpoint thought patterns for a variety of daily life applications.

C. The Alpha to Omega Plan of God is a more advanced doctrinal study for maturing believers to apprehend God the Father’s eternal purpose and to fully engage in the Church’s participation in that purpose. This study incorporates the greatest promises ever made: promises between God the Father and God the Son.
Readiness/Eagerness

1. Prothumia readiness/eagerness is an acceptable and therefore, rewardable attitude (2nd Cor. 8:12).
   a. Prothumia readiness/eagerness underlies Biblically appropriate desires (desires of will) (2nd Cor. 8:11).
   b. Biblically appropriate desires (desires of will) underlie Biblically appropriate actions (2nd Cor. 8:10).

2. A similar progression is observed in the conception and birth of sin (Jas. 1:14-15).
   a. Instead of a προθυμία prothumia underlying the will, there is an ἐπιθυμία epitheumia undermining the will.
   b. The temptation process uses ἐπιθυμία epitheumia to carry away and entice the one tempted (Jas. 1:14).
   c. The result is an attitude that is ready & eager to surrender the desire of will to the desire of passion.
   d. When the decision is made to obey the lust, then it can be said that “lust has conceived” (Jas. 1:15a).
   e. When the activity of that decision is finally achieved, then it can be said that lust has given birth to sin (Jas. 1:15b).

3. Our prophylactic against lust conception is the walk by the Spirit (Gal. 5:16-18).
   a. The flesh lusts against the Spirit and hinders us from appropriate desires (Gal. 5:17).
   b. The Holy Spirit leads in opposition to the flesh empowering a means for a godly walk (Gal. 5:18a,17b,16a).
   c. Choosing to obey the Holy Spirit’s leading means we will not and cannot commit personal sin (Gal. 5:16).
   d. Obedience to the flesh is a tragic resurrection of something that has positionally been crucified and ought to remain buried in our considerations (Gal. 5:24-25; Rom. 6:11-14).

   a. As readiness/eagerness for a whole Scripture approach to Bible study (Acts 17:11).
   b. As readiness/eagerness for blessed reunions with the Body of Christ (1st Th. 2:17; Php. 2:28; 2nd Tim. 1:17).
   c. As readiness/eagerness for grace provision to fellow members of His Body (2nd Cor. 8:11,12,19).
   d. As readiness/eagerness for evangelism (Rom. 1:15) and shepherding (1st Pet. 5:2) functions of spiritual leadership.
   e. In a compound of seeking, presented as readiness/eagerness for spiritual needs ahead of temporal needs (Mt. 6:32; Lk. 12:30).
   f. In a compound of waiting, presented as readiness/eagerness for the eschatological glory of Jesus Christ (Rom. 8:19,23,25; 1st Cor. 1:7; Php. 3:20; Heb. 9:28).
